ations of the distillery, (a) pursuant to application by the surety as provided in § 201.220, (b) on approval of a superseding bond, (c) on discontinuance of business by the principal, (d) on application of the distiller if he is the owner in fee, unencumbered, of the property covered by the bond, or (e) on application of the distiller if he files the consent of the owner or encumbrancer on Form 1602, as required in § 201.152.

(72 Stat. 1317, 1349, 1356; 26 U.S.C. 5004, 5173, 5176)

§ 201.219 Termination of withdrawal bonds, Forms 2613, 2614, and 2615.

Withdrawal bonds given on Forms 2613, 2614, and 2615 may be terminated as to liability for future withdrawals (a) pursuant to application of surety as provided in § 201.220, (b) on approval of a superseding bond, (c) on notification by the principal that he has discontinued withdrawals under the bond, or (d) on notification by the principal that he has discontinued business.

§ 201.220 Application of surety for relief from bond.

A surety on any bond given on Form 3A, 2601, 2613, 2614, or 2615 may at any time in writing notify the principal and the assistant regional commissioner in whose office the bond is on file that he desires, after a date named, to be relieved of liability under said bond. Such date shall be not less than 10 days after the date the notice is received by the assistant regional commissioner in the case of bonds given on Forms 2613, 2614, and 2615, and not less than 90 days after the date the notice is received in the case of bonds given on Forms 3A and 2601. The surety shall also file with the assistant regional commissioner an acknowledgment or other proof of service on the principal. If such notice is not thereafter in writing withdrawn, the rights of the principal as supported by said bond shall be terminated on the date named in the notice, and the surety shall be relieved from liability to the extent set forth in § 201.221.

§ 201.221 Relief of surety from bond.

(a) Bond, Form 2601. Where a bond, Form 2601, has automatically expired, as provided in § 201.217, or where the surety has filed application for relief from liability, as provided in § 201.220, and a new or superseding bond has been filed, the surety shall be relieved of future liability with respect to production, rectification, and deposits wholly subsequent to the effective date of the new or superseding bond. Notwithstanding such relief, the surety shall remain liable for the tax on all distilled spirits or wines produced or rectified, or for other liabilities incurred, during the term of the bond. Where a new or superseding bond is not filed the surety shall, in addition to the continuing liabilities above specified, remain liable under the bond for all spirits or wines on hand or in transit to the bonded premises or bonded wine cellar, as the case may be, on the date of expiration, or the date named in the notice, as the case may be, until all such spirits or wines have been lawfully disposed of, or a new bond has been filed by the principal covering the same.

(b) Bond, Form 3A. Where the surety on a bond given on Form 3A has applied for relief from liability under the provisions of § 201.220, the surety shall be relieved from liability for all spirits produced wholly subsequent to the date specified in the notice, or the effective date of a superseding bond, if one is given. Notwithstanding such relief, the surety shall remain liable for all distilled spirits produced while such bond was in force and effect and, if a consent on Form 2602 has been accepted, on all spirits produced on the premises prior to the effective date of the bond, until it is established to the satisfaction of the assistant regional commissioner that such spirits have been taxpaid or that the producer thereof has been relieved from liability for payment of such tax under the provisions of chapter 51, I.R.C.

(c) Bond, Form 1617. The surety on a bond given on Form 1617 shall be relieved from his liability when the bond has been canceled as provided for in § 201.223.

(d) Bonds, Forms 2613, 2614, and 2615. Where the surety on a bond given on Form 2613, 2614, or 2615 has filed application for relief from liability, as provided in § 201.220, the surety shall be relieved from liability for withdrawals made wholly subsequent to the date specified in the notice, or the effective date of a new bond, if one is given.

§ 201.222 Release of pledged securities.

Securities of the United States pledged and deposited as provided in § 201.195, shall be released only in accordance with the provisions of 31 CFR Part 225. Such securities will not be released by the assistant regional commissioner until liability under the bond for which they were pledged has been terminated. When the assistant regional commissioner is satisfied that they may be released, he shall fix the date or dates on which a part or all of such securities may be released. At any time prior to the release of such securities, the assistant regional commissioner may extend the date of release for such additional length of time as he deems necessary.

(61 Stat. 650; 6 U.S.C. 15)

§ 201.223 Cancellation of indemnity bond.

Any indemnity bond will be canceled by the assistant regional commissioner, on application by the principal or surety, if he determines that the liability for which such bond was given has ceased to exist. Liability under any bond on Form 1617, given under the provisions of this part or under any other prior provisions of law or regulations, will be deemed to have ceased to exist: (a) When a superseding bond is approved; (b) when the proprietor furnishes a consent, Form 2602, on an indemnity bond, Form 3A, as provided in § 201.201; or (c) when it is established to the satisfaction of the assistant regional commissioner that all spirits produced, while the property covering which the indemnity bond was filed formed a part of the distillery premises and equipment, have been taxpaid or that the producer thereof has been relieved from liability for payment of such tax under the provisions of chapter 51, I.R.C.

Subpart H—Construction and Equipment

§ 201.231 Protection of premises.

(a) Buildings. The buildings in which spirits are held or stored shall be securely constructed of masonry, concrete, wood, metal, or other equally substantial material, and arranged, equipped, and protected to afford adequate security to the revenue and facilitate supervision and inspection by internal revenue officers. Except for doors or other openings approved by the assistant regional commissioner, separations between bonded premises and bottling premises shall be secure and unbroken.

(b) Doors and windows. Doors to rooms or buildings under the joint custody of the assigned officer and the proprietor shall be so installed and equipped as to prevent their removal and shall be rigidly secure when locked. Windows in such rooms or buildings shall be equipped with sash locks or comparable fasteners. If the location of such windows with respect to the ground, to a fire escape, roof, set back, or balcony, or to an adjacent or contiguous structure would permit ingress to such rooms or buildings or would otherwise, in the opinion of the assistant regional commissioner, create a jeopardy to security, the assistant regional commissioner shall require such windows to be of the detention type equipped with wire glass panes or to be protected by means of iron bars or shutters or other means affording equal protection to the revenue.

(c) Other openings. Skylights, monitors, penthouses, and similar roof openings in such rooms or buildings shall be treated as windows for security purposes. Ventilating or heating ducts, or sewerage or drainage openings which would permit ingress to such rooms or buildings, or would otherwise, in the opinion of the assistant regional commissioner, create a jeopardy to the revenue, shall be protected with secure metal grills or other means which the assistant regional commissioner considers to be equally effective.

(d) Additional security. Where the assistant regional commissioner finds the construction, arrangement, equipment, or protection inadequate, he shall require additional security to be provided (such as fences, floodlights, alarm systems, watchman services) or changes in construction, arrangement, or equipment to be made to the extent necessary to assure him that the construction, arrangement, or equipment is adequate to protect the revenue.

§ 201.232 Emergency breaking of seals or locks.

Where persons or property are in imminent danger from fire, flood, or other disaster, or where emergency repairs to equipment are necessary and it is essential that such repairs be made without delay to prevent substantial loss, and it is impractical to first obtain authorization from the internal revenue officer, Government seals or locks may be removed, as necessary, by the proprietor, or by police or firemen (in the case of disaster). When such action is taken, the proprietor shall see that security measures are taken to prevent illegal removal of spirits and, as soon as practical, shall notify the internal revenue officer of the action taken, and shall submit to him, within 5 days, a written report, executed under the penalties of perjury, describing the emergency and the action.

§ 201.233 Means of ingress and egress.

The proprietor shall make provisions to assure that internal revenue officers have ready ingress to, and egress from, the plant at any time, and furnish, on request, evidence satisfactory to the assistant regional commissioner that such ingress and egress are assured.

(72 Stat. 1357; 26 U.S.C. 5203)

§ 201.234 Locking of storage rooms or buildings on bonded premises.

Where spirits are bottled or packaged, or stored in packages or in cases or in other portable containers on bonded premises, the proprietor shall provide a room or building for such bottling, packaging, or storage. Such room or building shall be constructed as provided in § 201.231, arranged and equipped so as to be suitable for the intended purpose, and shall be equipped for locking with Government locks. Any other building, room, or enclosure on bonded premises, not secured by Government lock, in which spirits (including denatured spirits) are held, shall be equipped for locking by the proprietor.

Each plant shall be identified by a sign placed conspicuously on the outside front or entrance thereof and exhibiting in readily legible and durable characters (a) the real name of the proprietor, (b) the plant number, and (c) the designation of the kind of business, or businesses (distiller, bonded warehouseman, rectifier, and/or bottler), in which engaged, except that in lieu of the foregoing designation, designations which have obtained public and commercial significance, such as industrial alcohol plant, registered distillery, or rectifying plant, as appropriate, may be used. Where a plant is registered under this part to operate under a basic operating name (such as the name of a division of a corporation or the name of a partnership), in lieu of its real name, such basic operating name should be shown on the sign.

§ 201.236 Identification of structures, areas, apparatus, and equipment.

Each room or enclosed area where spirits (including denatured spirits) or wines, distilling or fermenting materials, or containers are held, and each building, within the plant, shall be appropriately marked as to use. Each tank or receptacle for spirits (including denatured spirits) or wine shall be marked to show its serial number, capacity, and use. Where tanks or receptacles are used for multiple purposes, such uses shall be indicated. Each still shall be numbered and marked to show its use. All other major equipment used for processing or containing spirits (including denatured spirits) or wine, or distilling or fermenting material, and all other tanks, shall be identified as to use unless the intended use thereof is readily apparent.

§ 201.237 Required structures.

A structure suitable for the particular purpose intended and to the needs of revenue protection and effective supervision shall be provided where

(a) Spirits are

(1) Drawn into packages on bottling premises,

(2) Gauged in packages on bonded or bottling premises,

(3) Bottled after tax determination,

(4) Stored on bonded premises in tank cars or tank trucks; or

(b) Spirits are denatured in packages; or

(c) Spirits (including denatured spirits) or denaturing materials are weighed; or

(d) Spirits and wines are rectified.

§ 201.238 Government office.

The proprietor shall provide an office at the plant for the exclusive use of Government officers in performing supervisory and administrative duties and safeguarding Government records and property. Such office shall be adequately equipped with office furniture and a secure cabinet fitted for locking with a Government lock and with toilet and lavoratory facilities, shall be well lighted, ventilated, and heated, and shall be subject to the approval of the assistant regional commissioner. Where suitable facilities are otherwise available, the assistant regional commissioner may waive the requirements for a separate Government office.

§ 201.239 Loading facilities for bulk conveyances.

Where spirits (including denatured spirits) are to be received at or removed from a plant in bulk conveyances suitable facilities for such operations shall be provided.

(72 Stat. 1353; 26 U.S.C. 5178)

§ 201.240 Closed distilling system.

The distilling system shall be continuous and closed at all points where potable or readily recoverable spirits are present, and shall be so designed, constructed, and connected as to prevent the unauthorized removal therefrom without detection, of such spirits and of distilling material and stillage from which spirits are readily recoverable. The security of the closed distilling system shall be maintained, and removal of spirits therefrom controlled, by Government locks or seals, or by such meters or other devices or methods affording comparable protection as may be approved by the Director. Processing equipment not susceptible of being locked or sealed (a) shall be located in a room or enclosure which shall be in the joint custody of the assigned officer and the proprietor, which room or enclosure shall be locked with a Government lock, and shall not be unlocked or remain unlocked except when such officer is on the plant premises, or (b) shall be otherwise equally protected in a manner approved by the Director. In addition, processing equipment not located within a room or building shall, unless the premises or general area containing such equipment is enclosed within a fence or wall which the assistant regional commissioner deems adequate to the protection of the revenue, be enclosed within a secure fence constructed as provided in § 201.243(b). The provisions of this section do not preclude the removal of spirits from the closed distilling system, pursuant to production gauge, and their deposit in bonded storage, by redesignation of the tank in which the production gauge is made as a storage tank, and the necessary locking or sealing of the tank to remove it from the closed system.

§ 201.241 Bottling facilities on bonded premises.

Where the proprietor is authorized to bottle spirits in bond he shall provide a separate room or building of his bonded warehouse for such purpose. Such room or building shall be constructed as provided in § 201.231, arranged, and equipped so as to be suitable for the intended purpose. When authorized by the assistant regional commissioner, bottling-in-bond facilities, when not in use for bottling in bond, may be used for bottling alcohol before determination of tax.

§ 201.242 Denaturing facilities.

Where the proprietor is authorized to denature spirits, he shall provide on his bonded premises, segregated facilities for use in his denaturing operations. These facilities shall include:

(a) A storage room or rooms, fitted for locking, for storing packages of denaturants, if denaturants are to be received in packages;

(b) Tanks and other suitable receptacles, fitted for locking, for storing denaturants, if denaturants are to be received in bulk quantities;

(c) Tanks, fitted for locking, for denaturing spirits, if spirits are to be denatured in tanks;

(d) Tanks for storing denatured spirits, if denatured spirits are to be stored on bonded premises in tanks; and

(e) Storage space in a room or building for storing packages of denatured spirits, if denatured spirits are to be removed in packages.

The proprietor shall also provide such meters and other equipment and apparatus as may be necessary to carry out proposed operations. Meters, equipment, and facilities used for handling or proc-cessing denaturing materials or denatured spirits shall not be used for spirits other than spirits to be denatured: Provided, That the assistant regional commissioner may authorize their use for other spirits when he determines that contamination of such other spirits will not take place.

§ 201.243 Tanks.

(a) General. All tanks used as receptacles for spirits (including denatured spirits) or wines shall be located, constructed, and equipped so as to be suitable for the intended purpose and to permit ready examination. An accurate means of measuring the contents of each such tank shall be provided by the proprietor; in any case where such means of measuring is not a permanent fixture of the tank, the tank shall be equipped with a fixed device which will enable the approximate contents to be determined readily. Tanks used for determining the tax imposed by section 5001, I.R.C., shall be mounted on scales; and in addition thereto shall be provided with another suitable device for quickly and accurately determining the contents. The proprietor shall install walkways, landings, and stairways to afford safe access to all parts of tanks where the presence of an internal revenue officer is required. Tanks may be equipped with vents, flame arresters, foam devices, or other safety devices, if the construction is such to prevent abstraction of the spirits. The proprietor shall be responsible for accurate calibration of all tanks. Receiving tanks which are a part of the production facilities and bottling tanks which are a part of the storage facilities shall not be used until a certificate of approval, Form 244, has been attached thereto. Pursuant to tax determination, spirits in a tank may be removed from bonded premises, and received on bottling premises, in the tank in which they are contained, if (1) the bonded premises is curtailed and the bottling premises is extended, as necessary, in the manner provided by § 201.168, (2) the tank and/or all necessary connections thereto are locked or sealed in such manner as to prevent the mingling of spirits in bond with tax determined spirits, (3) the tank is properly redesignated, and (4) the structural separation of bonded and bottling premises required by § 201.231 is maintained.

(b) Bonded premises. All tanks for the storage of spirits on bonded premises shall be so equipped that the flow of spirits in and out of the tanks may be controlled by Government locks or seals or by such other devices or methods, equally protective of the revenue, as the Director may approve. All openings in such tanks shall be equipped for securing with Government locks or seals, or by such other means equally protective of the revenue, as the Director may authorize to prevent unauthorized removal of spirits or the addition of substances. All openings in tanks for denatured spirits shall be equipped for securing with locks or seals, or by such other means as the Director may authorize. Tanks which are not located within a room or building and which are used as receptacles for spirits shall, unless the bonded premises or the portion thereof containing such tanks is enclosed within a fence or wall which the Director deems adequate for protection of the revenue, be enclosed within a secure fence. The fence directly enclosing tanks shall be embedded in a concrete foundation, shall be at least 10 feet high, and shall have 3 rows of barbed wire superimposed on top or shall be constructed in such manner as the Director considers to be equally effective; the gate shall be fitted for locking.

(c) Bottling premises. All openings in storage, receiving, bottling, and package filling tanks on bottling premises shall be equipped for securing with locks or seals, or by such other devices or methods affording comparable protection as the Director may approve.

§ 201.244 Pipelines.

Pipelines for the conveyance of spirits, other than taxpaid spirits and denatured spirits, shall be of permanent character and constructed, connected, arranged, and secured to afford adequate protection to the revenue and to permit ready examination. Where a pipeline connection must be flexible, a hose may be used if connected and secured so as to protect the revenue. Detachable fittings on pipelines for the conveyance of spirits, other than taxpaid spirits or denatured spirits, shall be secured by welding, brazing, or other equally effective methods, or prepared for securing with Government locks or seals. Pipelines may be installed for the conveyance of distilling materials, air, water, and chemicals. Pipelines for the conveyance of air, water, or chemicals may be permanently connected to tanks used as receptacles for spirits on bonded premises if such pipelines are equipped with a control valve which may be locked with a Government lock and also are equipped, at the point of entry to the tanks, with check valves or other equally effective devices or methods which will prevent abstraction of spirits from the tanks.

§ 201.245 Identification of pipelines.

Pipelines for the conveyance of spirits shall be painted blue and pipelines conveying denaturants or denatured spirits shall be painted green: Provided, That prescribed colors may be applied in bands or strips of sufficient width as will provide ready identification. Other methods of identification may be approved by the Director. Regardless of the method employed, the colors blue and green may not be used in the plant to paint any other pipelines. The assistant regional commissioner may require additional marking and identification of any pipeline for spirits, denatured spirits, or denaturants and the marking and identification of other pipelines in the plant.

§ 201.246 Measuring devices and proofing instruments.

The proprietor shall provide the necessary measuring tanks, weighing tanks, scales, and meters or other measuring devices which have been approved by the Director, for weighing or measuring materials, spirits (including denatured spirits), and denaturants. Where scales or weighing tanks are provided, the proprietor must furnish the internal revenue officer with a set of ten 50-pound cast-iron test weights, certified as to accuracy by the National Bureau of Standards or State departments of weights and measures as conforming to class "C" requirements of the National Bureau of Standards. Where test weights are furnished they shall be under the custody of the assigned officer when not in use. The proprietor shall provide, for his own use, accurate hydrometers, thermometers, and other necessary equipment for determining proof.

§ 201.247 Beams or dials of scales.

Beams or dials of scales used to weigh packages of spirits (including denatured spirits) must indicate weight in half-pound graduation: Provided, That scales used to weigh packages or cases designed to hold 10 wine gallons or less shall indicate weight in ounces or in hundredths of a pound. Beams or dials of tank scales used to weigh spirits (including denatured spirits) must have minimum graduations not greater than the following:

Quantity to be weighed	Minimum graduations
Not exceeding 2,000 pounds	½ pound.
Between 2,000 and 6,000 pounds	1 pound.
Between 6,000 and 20,000 pounds	2 pounds.
Between 20,000 and 50,000 pounds	5 pounds.
Over 50,000 pounds	10 pounds.

Except in the case of scales having a capacity of 2,000 pounds or less, not less than 20 percent of the total capacity of the weighing tank scale may be entered into the tank for gauging for determination of tax: Provided, That the weighing of lesser quantities for determination of tax may be authorized by the assistant regional commissioner where the beam of the scale is calibrated in ½ pound or 1 pound graduations and it is found by actual test that the scales break accurately at each graduation: Provided further, That lots of spirits weighing 1,000 pounds or less shall be weighed on scales having ½ pound graduations.

§ 201.248 Testing of scales.

(a) Package scales. Proprietors, under the supervision of the assigned officer, shall balance scales before weighing either empty or filled packages or other portable containers and shall, not less than once each month, test the accuracy of such scales at each fifty pound graduation by means of the test weights provided under § 201.246.

(b) Tank scales not over 500 gallons. Proprietors, under the supervision of the assigned officer, shall, at intervals of not more than six months, test tank scales used for weighing spirits (including denatured spirits) in lots of not over 500 gallons. Such a test shall be conducted by carefully balancing the beam and then placing the test weights provided under § 201.246 on the scale one at a time and checking the weight registered on the beam of the scale. After the first 500 pounds, which shall be checked by each 50 pound increase, the test weights shall then be removed without disturbing the beam and the weighing tank shall be filled with spirits or water to the same weight, whereupon the test weights shall again be placed on the scale, the spirits or water being retained in the tank, and the weight registered on the beam shall be checked. This operation shall then be continued until the scale has been checked in 500 pound steps at all weights for which the scale is used.

(c) Tank scales over 500 gallons. Proprietors shall have scales used for weighing lots of spirits (including denatured spirits) of 500 gallons or more tested, and their accuracy certified, by State, county, or city departments of weights and measures or by a responsible scale company at intervals of not more than 6 months. Proprietors, under the supervision of the assigned officer, shall also check, at least once a month, the gallonage represented to be in a scale tank against the gallonage indicated by volumetric determination of the contents of the tank. Such volumetric determination shall be made in accordance wih the provisions of Part 186 of this chapter. Unless the volumetric check is within 0.5 percent of the quantity shown to be in the tank, the proprietor shall take appropriate steps to have the accuracy of the scale verified. When the assigned officer determines that the condition of a tank scale of large capacity indicates the necessity therefore, he shall require the proprietor to test the scale in the manner prescribed for a smaller capacity scale in paragraph (b) of this section, except that the test may be commenced when the tank contains considerable quantities of liquid.

§ 201.249 Sampling devices.

At each place in the production system where samples of unfinished spirits are to be regularly removed for testing, the proprietor shall install a mechanical device which will (a) permit such samples to be obtained without supervision, (b) accurately record or reflect the total quantities of spirits removed, and (c) prevent access to the closed system without detection. Sampling devices may be installed at other locations in the plant with the approval of the assistant regional commissioner.

Subpart I—Production

§ 201.261 Notice by proprietor.

(a) Commencement of operations. The proprietor shall, before commencing production operations or resuming production operations after having given notice of suspension, file notice on Form 2610 with the assigned officer (assistant regional commissioner if no officer is assigned to the plant), specifying the date on which he desires to commence or resume operations for the production of spirits. The notice shall be filed in accordance with the instructions on the form, and sufficiently in advance to afford the assistant regional commissioner an opportunity to make arrangements for supervision of the operations. The assigned officer, if the plant is otherwise qualified under this part to produce spirits, shall approve the notice and the proprietor may not commence or resume operations until the time specified in the notice.

(b) Suspension of operations. Any proprietor desiring to suspend production operations for a period of 30 days or more shall file notice on Form 2610 with the assigned officer (assistant regional commissioner if no officer is available), specifying the date on which he will suspend operations. The notice shall be filed in accordance with instructions on the form and (where no officer is available) shall be filed sufficiently in advance to afford the assistant regional commissioner an opportunity to detail an officer to the plant. In case of an accident which makes it apparent that operations cannot be conducted for 30 days or more, the proprietor shall give immediate notice of suspension on Form 2610.

§ 201.262 Receipt of materials.

The quantities of fermenting and distilling materials (including nonpotable chemical mixtures containing spirits produced in accordance with § 201.66), and of spirits (including denatured spirits) for redistillation, received on the distillery premises shall be determined by the proprietor, and reported as provided in Subpart U of this part. Fermented material (except apple cider exempt from tax under section 5042(a)(1), I.R.C.) to be used in the production of spirits must be produced on the bonded premises where used or must be received on such premises from (a) a bonded wine cellar, in the case of wine, or (b) a contiguous brewery where produced, in the case of beer. Spirits received on production facilities for redistillation must be stored under Government lock and seal until used. Where such spirits are received in packages, they must be stored in a building, as required by § 201.234, or transferred to locked tanks.

§ 201.263 Use of materials in production of spirits.

The proprietor may produce spirits in the production facilities from any suitable material in accordance with statements of process in his notice of registration. The distillation or processing of nonpotable chemical mixtures received pursuant to application as provided in § 201.66 shall be deemed to be the original or continuous distillation or original and continuous processing of the spirits in such mixtures and to constitute the production of spirits. Materials from which alcohol will not be produced may be used in production processes only if the use of such materials is described in approved statements of process.

§ 201.264 Removal of fermenting material.

Material received for use as fermenting material may be used on bonded premises for other approved purposes or may be removed from the bonded premises if prior written notice of the proprietor's intention is given to the assigned officer. A record of such use or removal shall be kept, as provided in Subpart U of this part.

(72 Stat. 1356, 1361; 26 U.S.C. 5201, 5207)

§ 201.265 Removal or destruction of distilling material.

Distilling material shall not be removed from the production facilities before being distilled, except where such removal is for a purpose other than the production of spirits and is authorized by the assistant regional commissioner, as provided in § 201.74. The residue of distilling material not introduced into the production system may be removed from the premises on the giving of written notice to the assigned officer, if the liquid is expressed from the material before removal and such liquid is not received at any distilled spirits plant or bonded wine cellar. Residue of beer used as distilling material may be returned to the producing brewery. Distilling material produced and wine and beer received for use as distilling material may be destroyed on the giving of written notice to the assigned officer.

§ 201.266 Distillation processes.

The process of distillation in the production facilities shall be such that the spirits pass through continuous, closed stills, pipes and vessels from the first still where entry into the system would constitute a jeopardy to the revenue until the process of production is completed. The distiller may, in the course of manufacture, carry his product through as many distilling operations as he may desire, provided the process is closed and continuous. Distilling processes are deemed to be continuous where the spirits are carried through the various steps of production as expeditiously as plant operation will permit. The collection of unfinished spirits for the purpose of redistillation is not deemed to be a break in the continuity of the distilling process. Where spirits are percolated through oak chips or otherwise treated, the temporary retention of the spirits in tanks pending such treatment is permissible. Spirits may be held, prior to the production gauge, only for so long as is reasonably necessary to complete the process of production.

§ 201.267 Treatment during production.

Spirits may, in the production facilities in the course of original and continuous distillation or other original and continuous processing, be purified or refined through, or by use of, any material which will not remain incorporated in the finished product, and juniper berries and other natural aromatics may be used in the distillation of gin. Spirits may be percolated through or treated with oak chips which have not been treated with any chemical. The introduction of any materials or substances into the tanks during other than the hours of direct supervision established under § 201.76 must be accomplished by mechanical devices which effectively prevent the removal of spirits. Materials used in treatment of spirits, and which do not remain in the spirits, shall be destroyed or so treated as to preclude the extraction of potable spirits therefrom.

§ 201.268 Addition of caramel to rum or commercial brandy and addition of oak chips to spirits.

Caramel possessing no material sweetening properties may be added to rum or commercial brandy on bonded premises prior to production gauge. If desired, the caramel may first be dissolved in hot water or in a small quantity of brandy or rum, as the case may be, drawn from the system for this purpose. The addition shall be in the immediate presence of the assigned officer, unless the assistant regional commissioner has approved the addition by means of mechanical devices as provided in § 201.267. Oak chips which have not been treated with any chemical may be added to packages prior to or after production gauge; in such case notation to that effect shall be made on the gauge form.

§ 201.269 Production gauge.

All spirits shall be gauged (by measuring and proofing) within a reasonable time after production is completed. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this section, quantities may be determined by volume or by weight, or, when approved by the Director, by meter or other device or by other method, which accurately determines the quantities. Where tax is to be determined on the basis of the production gauge, the determination shall be by weight in a tank, except where the spirits are drawn from the production system into barrels, drums, or similar portable containers the determination may be by weight in such containers. Where the spirits are drawn from the production system into barrels, drums, or similar portable containers, and the tax is not to be determined on the basis of the production gauge, such gauge may be made (a) by an individual gauge of each container, (b) by deducting the sum of the tares of the containers from the sum of the gross weights of the containers, and converting the resultant net weight into proof gallons, or (c) by weight in a tank. Form 2630 shall show for each barrel, drum, or similar portable container—the serial number, tare, proof, gross weight, and tax gallons—except that where the gauge is made under paragraph (b) or (c) of this section the average tax gallons of the containers may be shown, if the containers are of the same rated capacity, as prescribed by the specifications of the manufacturer, and have been filled to capacity. The production gauge shall be made by the assigned officer where spirits are to be withdrawn in approved containers other than metal packages from the production facilities on determination of tax, or where, pursuant to the proprietor's request to the assigned officer, spirits are to be drawn into bulk conveyances or wooden packages for withdrawal at a later date on determination of tax on the basis of the production gauge. In all other instances, the production gauge shall be made by the proprietor under the direct supervision of the assigned officer: Provided, That where the production gauge is made by the proprietor by means of meters or devices (comparable in accuracy and security to meters), approved by the Director, which enable the assigned officer to verify the accuracy of the gauge, such gauge shall be made under such supervision as the Director may require. Reports of production gauge shall be made on Form 2629 (accompanied by Form 2630 for barrels, drums, or similar portable containers) where the spirits are to be entered for deposit in storage facilities on the same plant premises. Each Form 2630 shall show the real name (or basic operating name as provided in § 201.235) of the producer, and, if the spirits are produced under a trade name shall also show the trade name under which produced; a separate Form 2630 shall be prepared for each name under which spirits are produced. If the spirits are to be transferred in bond to another plant premises or are to be withdrawn from bond, as authorized by this part, the report of production gauge shall be made on the form required by this part to cover the transaction. Where caramel is added, the brandy or rum in the tank shall be thoroughly agitated and the proof thereof then determined for the purpose of any withdrawal therefrom. Form 2629 (and Form 2630, if any) shall be marked "Withdraw on Original Gauge" if the spirits are to be drawn into bulk conveyances or wooden packages, and are to be withdrawn on determination of tax on this gauge at a later date.

§ 201.270 Identification of spirits.

At the time of production gauge, containers of spirits shall be identified by the proprietor in accordance with Subpart P of this part. When the proprietor desires to enter spirits into bonded storage for subsequent packaging in wooden packages, he may identify such spirits with the specific designation to which they would be entitled if drawn into wooden packages, followed by the word "Designate", for example, "Bourbon Whisky Designate."

(72 Stat. 1356, 1360; 26 U.S.C. 5201, 5206)

§ 201.271 Entry.

Pursuant to the production gauge, the proprietor shall make appropriate entry for (a) deposit of the spirits in storage on bonded premises, (b) withdrawal of the spirits on determination of tax, (c) withdrawal of the spirits free of tax, (d) withdrawal of the spirits without payment of tax, (e) transfer of the spirits for redistillation, or (f) immediate denaturation of the spirits. Entry for deposit in storage on the same plant premises shall be made on Form 2629, accompanied by Form 2630 if the spirits are filled into packages. When spirits are entered for deposit in storage on another plant premises or are entered for withdrawal or redistillation, the provisions of Subpart L of this part shall be followed, and when spirits are entered for immediate denaturation, the provisions of Subpart M of this part shall be followed. The date of original entry is the date of production gauge.

§ 201.272 Receipts for redistillation.

The proprietor of production facilities may receive and redistill spirits (including denatured spirits), which: (a) Have not been removed from bond; (b) have been withdrawn from bond in bulk containers on payment or determination of tax, and are eligible for return to bond as provided in Subpart S of this part; (c) have been withdrawn from bond free of tax or without payment of tax, and are eligible for return to bond as provided in subpart S; or (d) have been abandoned to the United States and sold to the proprietor without the payment of internal revenue tax thereon. The proprietor of production facilities may also receive and redistill recovered denatured spirits and recovered articles containing denatured spirits returned under the provisions of § 201.584.

§ 201.273 Redistillation.

Spirits shall not be redistilled in production facilities at a proof lower than that prescribed for the class and type at which such spirits were originally produced, unless the redistilled spirits are to be used in wine production, to be used in the manufacture of gin or vodka, or to be designated as alcohol. Different kinds or types of spirits must be redistilled separately, or with distilling material of the same kind or type as that from which the spirits were originally produced: Provided, That such restriction shall not apply when (a) brandy is redistilled into "spirits-fruit" or "neutral spirits-fruit" (not for use in wine production), (b) whisky is redistilled into "spirits-grain" or "neutral spirits-grain", (c) spirits originally distilled from different kinds of material are redistilled into "spirits-mixed" or "neutral spirits-mixed", or (d) the spirits are redistilled into alcohol. All spirits redistilled on bonded premises subsequent to production gauge shall be treated the same as if such spirits had been originally produced by the redistiller and all provisions of this part and Chapter 51, I.R.C. (including liability for tax attaching to spirits at the time of production) applicable to the original production of spirits shall be applicable thereto, except that spirits recovered by redistillation of denatured spirits may not be withdrawn from bonded premises except for industrial use or after denaturation thereof. Nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting any provision of this chapter or of 27 CFR Part 5 relating to the labeling of distilled spirits. The manufacture of vodka in the production facilities of the plant by processing neutral spirits subsequent to production gauge shall be deemed to be redistillation of such spirits.

§ 201.274 Losses in production processes.

The distiller shall report any unusual loss of distilling material or spirits in the production facilities to the assigned officer, or to the assistant regional commissioner if the assigned officer is not available at the premises, as soon as practical after discovery of the loss. The assistant regional commissioner may require the distiller to submit proof as to the cause of such loss and, where deemed necessary, to file a claim for remission of tax, as provided in Subpart C of this part. In every case where it appears that the loss was by theft, the burden shall be on the proprietor to establish to the satisfaction of the assistant regional commissioner that such theft did not occur as a result of connivance, collusion, fraud, or negligence on his part or on the part of any of his employees or agents.

§ 201.275 Distillates containing extraneous substances.

(a) Production facilities. Distillates containing substantial quantities of fusel oil, aldehydes, or other extraneous substances may be removed from the distilling system prior to the production gauge for addition to fermenting or distilling material at the distillery where produced. Distillates removed from the distilling system under the provisions of this paragraph shall not be removed from the production facilities and shall be added promptly to the fermenting or distilling material. If the distillates contain less than one-half of one percent of fusel oil, or less than one-tenth of one percent of aldehydes, the removal and use of the distillates shall be made pursuant to a written application filed with, and approved by, the assistant regional commissioner, and pursuant to such conditions as the assistant regional commissioner may require to assure that the distillates will be properly used and accounted for. Applications under this paragraph will not be approved if the removal and use of distillates would require additional hours of direct supervision.

(b) Bonded wine cellar. Distillates containing aldehydes may be removed, without payment of tax, to an adjacent bonded wine cellar for use therein for fermentation of wine to be used as distilling material at the distillery from which the distillates were removed: Provided, That the assistant regional commissioner finds pursuant to a written application that such removal and use will not jeopardize the revenue and will not require additional hours of direct supervision. The gauge and removal of distillates to an adjacent bonded wine cellar shall be in accordance with the applicable provisions of Subpart L of this part relating to withdrawal of wine spirits for use in wine production and the receipt and use of such distillates at an adjacent winery shall be in accordance with the provisions of Part 240 of this chapter. If such distillates contain less than one-tenth of one percent of aldehydes, the removal shall be subject to such additional conditions relating to gauging, recordkeeping, manner of removal from the distilling system and from the distillery, or use as the assistant regional commissioner shall require to assure tha such distillates will be properly used and accounted for.

(c) Test. Prior to removal of distillates from the distilling system under the provisions of this section, the distillates shall be tested by the proprietor, under the general supervision of the assigned officer, to determine the fusel oil or aldehyde content, as applicable, and a report, in writing, of such test shall be given to the assigned officer.

§ 201.276 Removal of water.

Water may be drawn into barrels or other containers (except porous wooden packages in which spirits were previously contained) for removal from the distillery; the containers shall be appropriately identified. Water may be transferred by pipeline to contiguous premises operated under this part.

(72 Stat. 1356; 26 U.S.C. 5201)

CHEMICAL BYPRODUCTS

§ 201.277 Deposit in tanks.

If, in the production of spirits, chemical byproducts (for example, fusel oil, butyl alcohol, acetone, and ether) are produced and collected, each chemical byproduct shall be deposited in separate tanks in the production facilities so that the quantity produced may be determined: Provided, That the Director may approve other methods for determining the quantities of chemical byproducts produced.

(72 Stat. 1356; 26 U.S.C. 5201)

§ 201.278 Spirits content of chemicals produced.

All chemicals produced, including chemical byproducts of the spirits production system, shall be substantially free of spirits before being transferred to storage tanks or removed from the production facilities. Except as authorized by the Director, the spirits content of such chemicals shall not exceed 10 percent by volume. Testing of chemicals for spirits content will be conducted by the proprietor under the general supervision of the assigned officer. The report of each test shall be given in writing to the assigned officer. Tests will be in accordance with methods approved by the Director.

§ 201.279 Disposition of chemicals.

Chemical byproducts of the spirits production system may be removed from the plant premises by pipeline or in such containers as the proprietor may desire. The quantities of such chemicals removed from the plant premises shall be determined by the proprietor. Packages of such chemicals shall be appropriately marked by the proprietor to show the nature of the contents. Chemical byproducts may be removed from the production facilities only pursuant to a written application, in duplicate, filed with and approved by the assigned officer.

§ 201.280 Wash water.

Water used in washing chemicals to remove spirits therefrom may be run into a wash tank or a distilling material tank in the production facilities, or it may be run to a sewer or otherwise destroyed on the premises.

(72 Stat. 1323, 1356; 26 U.S.C. 5008, 5201)

INVENTORIES

§ 201.281 Inventories.

Each proprietor of production facilities shall take an actual physical inventory of the spirits and denatured spirits in tanks and other vessels in such facilities at the close of each month. The inventory shall differentiate between spirits and denatured spirits.

(72 Stat. 1356; 26 U.S.C. 5201)

Subpart J—Storage in Bond

§ 201.291 Receipt and storage of spirits.

(a) Deposit. All spirits (including denatured spirits) entered for deposit in storage after production as provided in Subpart I of this part shall be deposited in storage facilities on the bonded premises designated in the entry for deposit. Spirits withdrawn from customs custody without payment of tax under the provisions of this part shall be received on the bonded premises to which so withdrawn and (unless to be immediately redistilled) shall be deposited in the storage facilities on such premises. Spirits (including denatured spirits) transferred in bond as provided in Subpart L of this part or returned to bonded premises as provided in Subpart S of this part shall be deposited in the storage facilities on the bonded premises.

(b) Tanks. If spirits (including denatured spirits) are being deposited in a partially filled tank in the storage facilities on bonded premises, simultaneous withdrawals may not be made therefrom unless the flow of spirits both into and out of the tank is being measured by meters or other devices approved by the Director which permits a determination of the quantity being deposited and the quantity being removed. Proprietors shall prepare Form 2629 to cover the transfer of spirits of less than 190 degrees of proof from one tank to another tank on bonded premises.

(c) Storage. Spirits (including denatured spirits) may be stored in the storage facilities on bonded premises in any container into which spirits (including denatured spirits) may be filled on bonded premises. Containers used for such storage shall be so stored that they can be readily inspected by internal revenue officers, and cases in such storage shall be so stacked that they can be readily inventoried. Tanks and other containers (except containers to which § 201.88 is applicable) for the storage of spirits on bonded premises shall be kept securely closed, and the flow of spirits into and out of such tanks or other containers shall be controlled by Government locks or seals, or by a meter or other device approved by the Director which permits a determination of the quantity being deposited or of the quantity being removed, as the case may be. The provisions of § 201.88 are applicable in respect to storage of spirits on bonded premises in portable containers.

§ 201.292 Quick-aging of spirits, addition of oak chips to spirits, and addition of caramel to brandy and rum.

Spirits may be quick-aged by heating during storage on approval by the assistant regional commissioner of the proprietor's written description of the process to be used. Oak chips which have not been treated with any chemical may be added to packages either prior to or after filling; if added prior to gauge for withdrawal from bonded premises notation shall be made on the deposit form. Caramel possessing no material sweetening properties may be added to rum or commercial brandy in packages or tanks. All such operations in storage facilities on bonded premises shall be pursuant to an application to, and under the direct supervision of, the assigned officer.

REPAIRING, FILLING, AND CHANGING PACKAGES

§ 201.293 Repairing packages.

Facilities for repairing packages of spirits must be so arranged and the work so performed that supervision by the assigned officer can be performed expeditiously, and that theft, unnecessary loss or wastage, and unauthorized mingling of spirits will be prevented.

(72 Stat. 1356, 1357; 26 U.S.C. 5201, 5202)

§ 201.294 Filling of packages from tanks.

Spirits (including denatured spirits) may be drawn into packages from tanks in the storage facilities on bonded premises. The spirits in the tank shall be gauged prior to the filling of packages, and when only a portion of the contents of the tank is packaged, the spirits remaining in the tank on completion of packaging shall again be gauged. The provisions of § 201.249 regarding the taking of production gauge of packages and preparation of gauge reports shall be applicable to the gauging of packages of spirits filled under this section. Except in the case of spirits of 190 degrees or more of proof, the date of original entry for deposit and proof of distillation shall be noted on the gauge report.

§ 201.295 Change of packages.

Denatured spirits on bonded premises may be transferred to another package without prior approval by the assigned officer. Spirits in the storage facilities on bonded premises may be transferred from one package to another on written application to, and approval of, the assigned officer. Except in the case of spirits of 190 degrees or more of proof, each new package shall contain spirits from only one package. Packages shall be marked and branded as provided in Subpart P of this part. The proprietor shall note the record covering the deposit of the spirits in bond to show the new tare, gross weight, and tax gallons of each new package; in addition, he shall furnish the assigned officer a report, in writing, of each package change and the new elements of gauge. The provisions of this section do not apply where spirits are packaged subsequent to mingling.

(72 Stat. 1356, 1357; 26 U.S.C. 5201, 5202)

MINGLING AND CONSOLIDATION OF SPIRITS

§ 201.296 Mingling of spirits distilled at 190 degrees or more of proof and mingling of denatured spirits.

Spirits distilled at 190 degrees or more of proof, whether or not subsequently reduced, may be mingled on bonded premises. Denatured spirits produced under the same formula may also be mingled on bonded premises.

(72 Stat. 1328, 1367; 26 U.S.C. 5025, 5234)

§ 201.297 Mingling of homogeneous spirits.

Spirits which are homogeneous may be mingled on bonded premises for immediate withdrawal or for further storage in bond in tanks or packages. Spirits distilled at less than 190 degrees of proof are presumed to be homogeneous if—

(a) They were produced

(1) From the same class of materials,

(2) At approximately the same proof, and

(3) By the same proprietor (under his own or any trade name) at the same distillery, and

(b) In the case of spirits which have been stored in wooden packages so as to be in contact with the wood, they were stored in the same kind of cooperage under approximately the same conditions, and they differ in periods of such storage,

(1) Not more than 18 months in the case of spirits so stored in bond more than 8 years,

(2) Not more than 12 months in the case of spirits so stored in bond more than 4 years and not more than 8 years,

(3) Not more than 6 months in the case of spirits so stored in bond more than 2 years and not more than 4 years,

(4) Not more than 60 days in the case of spirits so stored in bond more than 1 year and not more than 2 years, or

(5) Not more than 30 days in the case of spirits so stored in bond not more than 1 year; and

(c) They do not differ in kind under the standards of identity prescribed in 27 CFR Part 5.

The age of the youngest lot of spirits to be included in any mixture mingled under this section will determine the permissible variation in periods of storage. Spirits mingled under this section consisting of different distilling seasons and years may not be bottled in bond; mingled spirits which were originally produced and warehoused under different names may not be bottled in bond unless the name on the packages of such mingled spirits is the producer's real name; and mingled spirits stored in tanks may not be bottled in bond unless the season of consolidation and of bottling are identical. Where the mingled spirits are to be packaged, such packaging shall be conducted under the provisions of § 201.294; if so desired, the spirits may be returned to the packages from which they were dumped for mingling, or as many of such packages as are necessary.

§ 201.298 Mingling of heterogeneous spirits for immediate removal to bottling premises.

Heterogeneous spirits may be mingled in bulk gauging tanks on bonded premises for determination of the tax imposed by section 5001, I.R.C., if such spirits are to be immediately removed to bottling premises for use exclusively in taxable rectification or in rectification under section 5025(f), I.R.C. The quantity of each component comprising the mixture shall be determined by the proprietor in order to provide a statement of composition. When the mingled spirits are transferred to bottling premises (whether on the same or another plant premises), the proprietor shall forward to the proprietor of the bottling premises such information regarding the composition of the mingled spirits as is necessary for determining the proper use of the spirits and the labeling of the finished product. The proprietor of the bonded premises shall note on the withdrawal form, Form 179, that the spirits are for use only in taxable rectification, or, if applicable, are eligible for rectification under section 5025(f), I.R.C.

§ 201.299 Mingling for denaturation or removal for tax-free purposes.

Any spirits on bonded premises may be mingled if they are eligible to be denatured, and are to be immediately denatured, in accordance with the provisions of Part 212 of this chapter, or are eligible to be removed from bond for an authorized tax-free purpose, and are to be immediately removed from bond for such purpose, as provided in Subpart L of this part.

§ 201.300 Mingling for redistillation.

Spirits (including denatured spirits) may be mingled on bonded premises for immediate redistillation at the same plant or at another plant in accordance with the provisions of §§ 201.272 and 201.273.

(72 Stat. 1328, 1367; 26 U.S.C. 5025, 5234)

§ 201.301 Mingling to consolidate packages under section 5234(a)(2), I.R.C.

Within 8 years of the date of original entry for deposit, and with the prior approval of the assigned officer, packages of spirits of the same kind, distilled by the same proprietor (under his own or any trade name), at the same distillery, and which have been stored in internal revenue bond in the same kind of cooperage for not less than 4 years (or 2 years in the case of rum or brandy) may be dumped and mingled in a tank in the storage facilities on bonded premises. Such mingled spirits shall be immediately repackaged, for further storage in bond, in as many as necessary of the packages from which dumped. Where spirits produced in different distilling seasons are mingled under this section, the mingled spirits shall consist of not less than 10 percent of spirits of each such season. Once the spirits are dumped and mingled, they shall be promptly drawn into packages in the manner provided in § 201.294. If draining the tank would result in a remnant package, the proprietor may determine and record the quantity of spirits remaining in the tank and treat such spirits as a part of the succeeding lot to be mingled in that tank or he may fill, gauge, and mark a remnant package: Provided, That if the components of the spirits in the tank are not eligible for mingling, pursuant to this section, with the components of the succeeding lot, or if consolidation operations are discontinued, the spirits remaining must be drawn into a remnant package. No spirits mingled under the provisions of this section shall again be mingled under such provisions until at least 1 year has elapsed since the last prior mingling.

§ 201.302 Application for mingling packages of spirits.

Before dumping packages of spirits on bonded premises for mingling (except heterogeneous spirits covered in § 201.298 and spirits of 190 degrees or more of proof) the proprietor shall file with the assigned officer an application therefor on Form 2323 and receive his approval thereof. The proprietor shall attach to Form 2323 a list (one copy) of the serial numbers of the packages. When packages of spirits of 190 degrees or more of proof are to be mingled the proprietor shall so notify the assigned officer and make appropriate entries in his records reflecting the mingling. Each package of spirits to be mingled under this subpart shall be carefully examined by the proprietor, and if any package bears evidence of loss due to theft or unauthorized voluntary destruction, or loss in excess of normal storage losses, such package shall not be dumped until released by the assigned officer; Form 2323 shall be amended when necessary. Packages shall not be dumped until the assigned officer has given his approval therefor.

§ 201.303 Determining date of original entry.

Where spirits are mingled in accordance with the provisions of § 201.301, the date of original entry for the entire lot shall be the date of original entry of the youngest spirits mingled. Where packages of spirits are mingled as provided in § 201.297 or are blended as provided in § 201.307, the date of original entry of the oldest spirits mingled shall be the date of original entry for the entire lot; however, the appropriate deposit and withdrawal forms shall show the date of original entry of the oldest and the youngest spirits in the lot. Where mingled spirits are contained in tanks, each lot (except spirits of 190 degrees or more of proof) so mingled shall retain its date of original entry for the purpose of determining the period of storage in bond. Withdrawals from a storage tank on bonded premises containing more than one lot of spirits (except spirits of 190 degrees or more of proof) shall be accounted for by lots on the basis that the lot with the earliest date of original entry will be the first lot withdrawn.

§ 201.304 Mingled spirits held in tanks.

Where spirits are mingled in a tank on bonded premises for storage therein the proprietor shall gauge the spirits in the tank under the direct supervision of an assigned officer and report the gauge on Form 2323. Mingled spirits in tanks may be drawn into packages in accordance with § 201.294, or may be transferred in bond or withdrawn from bond in accordance with this subpart and Subpart L of this part. The date of original entry (except as to spirits of 190 degrees or more of proof) shall be noted on the gauge report. Eligible spirits may be added to mingled spirits already on deposit in a tank on such premises.

§ 201.305 Withdrawal or transfer in bond of mingled spirits.

Spirits mingled under the provisions of §§ 201.296, 201.297, and 201.301 may be transferred in bond, or withdrawn from bond for any purpose for which the spirits could have been withdrawn before mingling. Transfer and withdrawal forms, except as to spirits mingled under § 201.296, shall be noted to show the date of mingling under this subpart and the date of original entry for the spirits after mingling.

§ 201.306 Rinsing of packages and disposition of rinse water.

When spirits in wooden packages are dumped for mingling or consolidation of spirits on bonded premises, the packages and the char and wood chips therein, if any, shall be thoroughly rinsed unless the packages are to be immediately refilled. Packages to be so refilled may be rinsed. Char and wood chips not returned to packages shall, under the direct supervision of the assigned officer, be burned or treated in such manner as to preclude the abstraction of potable spirits. Rinse water not used in reducing the proof of the same spirits may be used in reducing the next lot of spirits homogeneous with the rinsings, or may be promptly mingled with heterogeneous spirits for tax determination under § 201.298; if not so disposed of the rinsings shall be immediately destroyed or redistilled. Rinse water to be redistilled shall be gauged by the proprietor who shall make a report of such gauge on Form 2629. On delivery of a copy of such Form 2629 to the assigned officer, the proprietor shall transfer the rinse water to the production facilities.

BLENDING OF BEVERAGE RUMS OR BRANDIES

§ 201.307 Permissible blending.

Fruit brandies distilled from the same kind of fruit at not more than 170 degrees of proof may, for the sole purpose of perfecting such brandies according to commercial standards, be mixed or blended with each other, or with any mixture or blend of such fruit brandies on bonded premises. Rums may, for the sole purpose of perfecting them according to commercial standards, be mixed or blended with each other, or with any mixture or blend of rums on bonded premises. Before blending such rums or brandies, the proprietor shall file an application on Form 1685 and receive approval thereof. When spirits in packages are to be dumped, the proprietor shall attach to Form 1685 a list (one copy) of the serial numbers of the packages. Brandies or rums mixed or blended in accordance with this subpart may be packaged, stored, transported, transferred in bond, withdrawn free of tax, withdrawn without payment of tax, withdrawn on payment or determination of tax, or be otherwise disposed of, in the same manner as brandies or rums not mixed or blended. If brandy or rum, mixed or blended in accordance with this subpart is transferred in bond, Form 236 and Form 2630 (if any) shall show such fact and whether the brandy or rum is subject to tax imposed by section 5023, I.R.C.

§ 201.308 Blending procedure.

On approval of Form 1685, the proprietor shall dump the brandy or rum to be blended, gauge the contents of the blending tank, gauge the packages (if the spirits are repackaged), and complete Form 1685. The proprietor shall record the gauge of packages (if any) on Form 2630 and the tank gauge on Form 1685 and distribute the Forms in accordance with the instructions on Form 1685.

LOSSES IN BOND

§ 201.309 Allowable losses.

Tax shall not be collected (or, if paid, such tax shall be refunded) in respect of spirits (including denatured spirits) lost or destroyed while in bond, except that such tax shall be collected in the case of—

(a) Theft, unless the assistant regional commissioner finds that the theft occurred without connivance, collusion, fraud, or negligence on the part of the proprietor, owner, consignor, consignee, bailee, or carrier, or the employees or agents of any of them. The abatement, remission, credit, or refund of taxes on spirits lost by theft shall only be allowed to the extent that the claimant is not indemnified against or recompensed for such tax.

(b) Voluntary destruction unless such destruction is carried out as provided in Subpart R of this part.

In every case where it appears that the loss was by theft, the burden shall be on the proprietor of the distilled spirits plant or other person responsible for the distilled spirits tax to establish to the satisfaction of the assistant regional commissioner that such loss did not occur as the result of connivance, collusion, fraud, or negligence on the part of the proprietor of the distilled spirits plant, owner, consignor, consignee, bailee, or carrier, or the employees or agents of any of them. Claims in respect of losses allowable under this section shall be filed in accordance with the applicable provisions of Subpart C of this part.

§ 201.310 Taxable losses.

(a) Original quantity. Where there is evidence satisfactory to the assistant regional commissioner that any loss of spirits (including denatured spirits) from any package deposited in storage in internal revenue bond is due to theft (except where the assistant regional commissioner has made the finding provided for in § 201.309(a)) or is due to unauthorized voluntary destruction, the assistant regional commissioner may require the immediate taxpayment of such package on the basis of the original quantity of spirits entered for deposit in storage in such package, except where the extent of any loss from causes other than theft or unauthorized voluntary destruction can be established by the proprietor to the satisfaction of the assistant regional commissioner, he may credit the tax on the loss so established against the tax on the original quantity.

(b) Alternative method. Where there is evidence satisfactory to the assistant regional commissioner that there has been access, other than as authorized by law, to the contents of packages stored on bonded premises, and the extent of such access is such as to evidence a lack of due diligence or a failure to employ necessary and effective controls on the part of the proprietor, the assistant regional commissioner may (in lieu of the procedure prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section) assess an amount equal to the tax on 5 proof gallons of spirits on each of the total number of such packages as determined by him.

(c) Applicability to packages filled after entry. The provisions of this section shall apply to spirits (including denatured spirits) which are filled into casks or packages, as authorized by law, after entry and deposit in storage in internal revenue bond, whether by recasking, filling from storage tanks, consolidation of packages, or otherwise; and the quantity filled into such casks or packages shall be deemed to be the original quantity for the purpose of this section, in the case of loss from such casks or packages.

§ 201.311 Losses in bond.

Where a container of spirits (including denatured spirits) in bond sustains a loss in excess of normal storage or transit losses or as a result of theft or unauthorized voluntary destruction, the loss shall be determined at the time of discovery. When it appears that any container in bond has sustained a loss resulting from theft or unauthorised voluntary destruction, such loss or indication thereof shall be reported promptly by the proprietor to the assigned officer. A record of each container sustaining such loss showing the quantity lost and the apparent cause of the loss shall be made by the proprietor. Unusual losses from obvious cause other than theft or unauthorized voluntary destruction occurring or discovered at the time of withdrawal from bond or transfer in bond shall be noted on the appropriate withdrawal or transfer form. When a loss appears to be due to theft or unauthorized voluntary destruction, the assigned officer shall place a detainer on the container unless the loss is determined at the time of a gauge for withdrawal from bond and the proprietor acknowledges liability and elects to pay the tax on such loss. Where it is found that the contents of a container have been tampered with, or where a material deficiency is found without evidence of loss by leakage or casualty, or where deterioration in proof not accountable by variation in gauge is disclosed, the assigned officer shall detain the package. In any case in which spirits (including denatured spirits) are lost or destroyed in bond, whether by theft or otherwise, the assistant regional commissioner may require the proprietor or other person liable for the tax to file a claim for relief from the tax in accordance with the applicable provisions of Subpart C of this part. Losses of spirits (including denatured spirits) sustained from the tanks and bulk conveyances in bonded warehouses shall be determined by the proprietor each time a tank or bulk conveyance is emptied and on the basis of a physical inventory at the close of each month. When the quantity lost from all the storage tanks and bulk conveyances in bonded warehouses exceeds 1 percent of the total quantity contained in the tanks and bulk conveyances during the month, or where any loss from storage tanks or bulk conveyances is due to illegal withdrawal, the loss shall be taxpaid unless a claim for remission is filed in accordance with the provisions of § 201.43 and is allowed by the assistant regional commissioner. If at any time any package recorded as deposited in the bonded warehouse can not be located or otherwise lawfully accounted for, such fact shall be immediately reported to the assigned officer and a claim with respect thereto shall be filed under the provisions of § 201.43.

(72 Stat. 1323, 1375; 26 U.S.C. 5008, 5311)

SPIRITS IMPORTED INTO THE UNITED STATES

§ 201.312 Importation of spirits.

The proprietor may withdraw from customs custody, without payment of the internal revenue tax imposed on imported spirits by section 5001, I.R.C., imported spirits of 185 degrees or more of proof, which lack the taste, aroma, and characteristics generally attributed to whisky, brandy, or rum, or similar beverage spirits and transfer such spirits to his bonded premises, for nonbeverage use. Spirits of any proof, imported specifically for any purpose incident to the requirements of national defense, may also be transferred from customs custody to the bonded premises of a distilled spirits plant without payment of such tax. A proprietor intending to receive imported spirits from customs custody shall obtain an approved application, Form 2609, in the same manner as for the receipt of spirits in bond from another bonded premises. Imported spirits transferred to bonded premises, as provided in this section, may be redistilled or denatured and may, with or without redistillation or denaturation, be withdrawn for any purpose authorized by chapter 51, I.R.C., in the same manner as domestic spirits. Imported spirits shall be kept separate at the bonded premises and shall not be mixed with domestic spirits or with imported spirits which may be subject to a different rate of additional tax: Provided, That imported spirits may be mingled with domestic spirits or with any other imported spirits if the mingled spirits are to be immediately denatured. If imported spirits are transferred in bond as provided in Subpart L of this part, Form 236 shall indicate that the spirits are imported and shall show the rates of duties specified by the customs officer at time of release from customs custody; each container shall be marked, in addition to the other required marks, with the word "Imported."

(72 Stat. 1366; 26 U.S.C. 5232)

PERIOD OF STORAGE IN BOND

§ 201.313 Expiration of bonding period.

The bonding period defined in § 201.26 expires at the close of business on the twentieth anniversary of the day next preceding the date of original entry for deposit of the spirits in storage in internal revenue bond. Each June and December the proprietor shall determine whether the 20-year period of storage on any spirits in storage in bond (other than denatured spirits or spirits of 190 degrees or more of proof) will expire during the next season and, if any such spirits are in storage, render a written report to the assigned officer of the results of his determination. The proprietor's report shall include a full identification of the spirits and show the date of expiration of the bonding period for each container (or lot of such spirits). Before such date of expiration, the proprietor shall file an application for taxpayment or other authorized disposition of such spirits. The proprietor shall, pursuant to such application, withdraw such spirits from storage on the bonded premises before the expiration of such 20-year period.

Subpart K—Bottling on Bonded Premises

§ 201.321 General.

(a) Bottling in bond. Proprietors who have established facilities on bonded premises for bottling in bond as provided in this part and who have otherwise complied with the requirements of this part for the carrying on of bottling in bond operations may conduct such operations in such facilities pursuant to the provisions of this subpart. Spirits stored on bonded premises which have been duly entered for bottling in bond, as provided in § 201.322, shall be dumped, gauged, bottled, stamped, and cased by the proprietor, as provided by law and in this part, under direct supervision of an assigned officer. Spirits, other than gin and vodka, shall not be bottled in bond until they have remained in bond for at least 4 years in wooden containers wherein the spirits have been in contact with the wood surface. Gin and vodka shall not be bottled in bond, except for export, until they have remained in bond for at least 4 years in wooden containers coated or lined with paraffin or other substance which will preclude contact of the spirits with the wood surface. Gin or vodka may be bottled in bond for export at any time during storage in bond regardless of the types of containers in which they were stored. Spirits entered into bonded storage for subsequent packaging in wooden packages, as provided in § 201.270, may not be bottled in bond unless the spirits are drawn into such packages in the same season in which produced.

(b) Bottling of alcohol. Alcohol of 190 degrees or more of proof for industrial purposes may be bottled, stamped, labeled, and cased on bonded premises, prior to withdrawal from bond, as provided in this subpart.

(72 Stat. 1366, 1369; 26 U.S.C. 5233, 5235)

BOTTLING IN BOND

§ 201.322 Entry and gauge.

Proprietors shall make entry for withdrawal of spirits for bottling in bond on Form 1515. A separate Form 1515 shall be executed for each lot of spirits to be so bottled. Before dumping packages of spirits, the proprietor shall notify the assigned officer and shall give him a suitable list (one copy) of the serial numbers of the packages to be dumped. Each package shall be carefully examined by the proprietor, and if any package bears evidence of loss due to theft or unauthorized voluntary destruction, or loss in excess of normal storage losses, such package shall not be dumped until released by the assigned officer; Form 1515 will be amended when necessary. The proprietor shall dump packages promptly after the assigned officer has given his approval therefor on Form 1515; however, no more spirits shall be dumped at any time than can be bottled expeditiously. After dumping the packages, the proprietor shall gauge the spirits and make a report of such gauge on Form 1515. Such gauge shall be made by weight and proof unless the assistant regional commissioner approves another method of gauging. The spirits shall be gauged either in the storage portion of the bonded warehouse or in the bottling-in-bond facilities; spirits may be transferred to such facilities by pipeline. The Form 1515 will then be resubmitted to the assigned officer for the release of the spirits.

§ 201.323 Bottling requirements.

When entry of spirits for bottling in bond has been made, the proprietor may mingle for bottling spirits of the same kind, differing only in proof, produced in the same distilling season by the same distiller at the same distillery. The mingling of such spirits other than as authorized in this section, or the addition or subtraction of any substance or material (except as provided in this subpart) or the application of any method or process to alter or change in any way the original condition or character of the product (except as authorized in § 201.324) is prohibited.

§ 201.324 Filtering and stabilizing.

After entry for withdrawal of spirits for bottling in bond the proprietor may in the bottling-in-bond facilities (a) remove foreign substances or other extraneous insoluble materials with or without the use of filter aids, and (b) effect minor changes in the soluble color or soluble solids solely by filtration, chill proofing, or other physical treatments (which do not involve the addition of any substance which will remain incorporated in the finished product) as may be necessary or desirable to produce a stable product, provided such changes do not result in the removal of more than 10 percent of the soluble solids or soluble color of the spirits so treated (including the extraction of not more than 10 percent of any class of the natural congeners incident to such changes). Any treatment of such spirits other than as provided for in this section which alters or changes the original character or composition of the spirits will constitute taxable rectification.

§ 201.325 Rinsing of barrels.

When spirits in wooden packages (except packages treated so as to preclude contact of the spirits with the wood surface) are dumped for bottling in bond, the packages and the char and wood chips therein, if any, shall be thoroughly rinsed by the proprietor. The rinse water so obtained may be (a) used for reducing the proof of the spirits removed from such packages, (b) destroyed under the supervision of the assigned officer, (c) collected for transfer to the production facilities for redistillation as provided in § 201.306, or (d) collected for mingling with heterogeneous spirits as provided in § 201.298. Char and wood chips contained in or dumped from such packages shall, under the direct supervision of the assigned officer, be burned or treated in such manner as to preclude the abstraction of potable spirits.

§ 201.326 Reduction in proof.

The proof of spirits to be bottled in bond shall, by the addition of pure water only, be reduced to 100 degrees for spirits for domestic use. Spirits may be bottled in bond for export at 80 degrees of proof or more. Adjusting the proof to a tenth of a degree, either above or below the whole degree, will not be permitted; except that where spirits are to be bottled for export and labeled in tenths of a degree (such as 86.8°), the proof shall be adjusted to such tenth of a degree. When part of a lot of spirits dumped for domestic use is to be bottled for export, such spirits may be further reduced in proof, and filtered if necessary.

§ 201.327 Bottling.

Spirits may be bottled in bond only from approved bottling tanks. The proprietor shall determine the quantity and proof of the spirits deposited in each bottling tank and make entry thereof on Form 1515, and shall then attach a copy of Form 1515 to the bottling tank. Where two or more bottling tanks are used for one lot of spirits, Form 1515 shall be attached to one tank and the other tanks shall be marked to bear a reference to the tank to which the Form 1515 is attached. Where two or more lots of spirits are to be bottled at the same time, the bottling shall be conducted in such manner as to prevent any mingling of the different lots. Where part of a lot of spirits is to be bottled for export and the proof of such spirits is further reduced, the proprietor shall determine the quantity and proof of the spirits after such further reduction and make entry thereof on Form 1515. No spirits shall be bottled in bond until the assigned officer has noted on Form 1515 that he has verified the quantity and proof of the spirits and has released the spirits for bottling at the specified proof. Bottling tanks and pipelines shall be so equipped that the flow of spirits through the tanks may be controlled by Government locks. Tanks containing spirits deposited for bottling in bond, or the rooms or building in which such tanks are located, shall be locked at all times except when bottling-in-bond operations, or activities related thereto, are being conducted as provided in this part and the assigned officer is on the premises. Where bottling facilities are alternated as provided in § 201.175, operations shall be conducted in such manner as to prevent the mingling of tax determined spirits and spirits in bond.

§ 201.328 Liquor bottles.

The proprietor shall comply with the provisions of Part 175 of this chapter respecting the use of liquor bottles when bottling spirits in bond. Spirits may be bottled in bond for domestic purposes in the following sizes, and no others: 1 gallon, ½ gallon, 1 quart, ⅘ quart, 1 pint, ½ pint, ⅕ pint, ⅒ pint, and, in the case of brandy, ⅛ pint. Spirits may be bottled in bond for export in bottles of any size less than five gallons. Liquor bottles may be used, but need not be used, in bottling spirits in bond for exportation.

§ 201.329 Label requirements.

(a) Certificate of label approval or exemption. Proprietors are required by 27 CFR Part 5 to obtain approval of labels, or exemption from label approval, for any label to be used on bottles or spirits bottled in bond for domestic use and shall exhibit evidence of label approval, or of exemption from label approval, on request of the assigned officer.

Labels covered by a certificate of exemption from label approval to be affixed to bottles in which spirits are packaged for sale and which are subject to the provisions of Part 175 of this chapter shall conform to the provisions of such part.

(b) Caution notice. Each bottle of spirits bottled in bond under section 5233, I.R.C., (except for export) shall have affixed thereto a caution notice (clearly legible) reading as follows:

This bottle has been filled and stamped under the provisions of sections 5205 and 5233, Internal Revenue Code. Any person who shall reuse the stamp affixed to this bottle or remove the contents of this bottle without so breaking the stamp affixed thereto as to prevent reuse, or who shall sell this bottle, or reuse it for distilled spirits, will be liable to the penalties prescribed by law.

Bottles containing spirits bottled for export may have affixed thereto such caution notice.

§ 201.330 Labels to agree with contents of tanks and bottles.

The proprietor shall before bottling in bond a lot of spirits attach a copy of the (approved or exempted) label he proposes to use for such bottling, which shall agree with the spirits in the tank, to the Form 1515 to be attached to the tank. Labels affixed to bottles shall be identical with the label on Form 1515 attached to the tank from which the bottles were filled. If the assigned officer finds that the label and spirits do not agree in every respect, he shall not permit the spirits to be bottled until the proprietor submits to him a proper label correctly describing the spirits to be bottled, or, if the spirits are labeled with labels which do not agree with the spirits in every respect, he shall cause the proprietor to relabel the spirits with a proper label.

§ 201.331 Labeling of spirits bottled for export.

All bottles containing spirits bottled in bond for export shall have securely affixed thereto a label showing the following:

(a) Kind of spirits;

(b) Name of distiller, as provided in § 201.332, and plant number in which produced;

(c) Proof of the spirits;

(d) Net contents, unless the markings on the bottle indicate such contents;

(e) A statement that the spirits were bottled in bond for export; and

(f) The plant number where bottled, unless the markings on the bottle indicate such number.

The bottler may place on the label any additional information, including his name or trade name, that he may desire if it is not inconsistent with the required information. The label information may be stated in the language of the country to which the spirits are to be exported provided the assigned officer is furnished an English translation of the information. The net contents and proof may be stated in the units of measurement of the foreign country provided the assigned officer is furnished a statement of the equivalent United States units.

§ 201.332 Trade-marks and distiller's name.

The label of spirits bottled in bond which contains the trade-mark or special name, or an additional label (equally conspicuous) shall bear the real name of the actual bona fide distiller or the trade name under which the distiller produced and warehoused the spirits, and the plant (or registered distillery) number in which produced; and the plant number in which bottled. The label may also bear the name or trade name of the bottler.

§ 201.333 Filling of bottles.

Bottles of bottled-in-bond spirits shall be so labeled, (a) that the label in use is identical with the label attached to Form 1515, and properly describes the spirits; (b) that the bottled spirits agree in proof with the data on the label; and (c) so filled that the quantity agrees with the data on the label, stamp, or bottle. If the contents do not agree as to quantity (except for such variations in measuring as may occur in filling conducted in compliance with good commercial practice and there is substantially as much overfill as underfill for each lot of spirits bottled) or as to proof (subject to a normal drop in proof occurring during bottling operations, but not to exceed three-tenths of a degree) with the respective data on the label, stamp, or bottle, the assigned officer will withhold release of the bottled spirits and require the proprietor to rebottle, recondition or relabel the spirits in such manner that the label will correctly describe the contents.

§ 201.334 Strip stamps.

The proprietor shall affix to each bottle of spirits bottled in bond a domestic or export strip stamp, as appropriate. Such stamps shall be procured, overprinted, affixed, and accounted for as provided in Subpart Q of this part.

(72 Stat. 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5205)

§ 201.335 Marks and brands on cases.

Each case of spirits filled in the bottling-in-bond facilities shall be marked as prescribed by Subpart P of this part before removal from such facilities.

§ 201.336 Removal of spirits bottled.

When spirits are bottled in bond the filled bottles, with labels and strip stamps properly affixed, shall be placed in cases, and the cases then sealed, after which such cases shall be promptly removed from the bottling-in-bond facilities to the storage portion of the bonded warehouse, or (after constructive return to storage) transferred in bond or withdrawn from bond, pursuant to Subpart L of this part. The proprietor shall report all spirits bottled in bond on Form 1620. The tax on spirits withdrawn for export with benefit of drawback at less than 100 degrees of proof shall be determined on a wine gallon basis. The removal to storage of cases temporarily sealed, pending affixing of brand labels or State stamps, may be authorized by the assigned officer. Such temporarily sealed cases may be transferred in bond to other premises. Where the mandatory information required under 27 CFR Part 5 appears on the brand label rather than a separate label, the brand label shall be affixed at the time of bottling. Brand labels or State stamps (if to be affixed before withdrawal from bond) shall be affixed to the bottles in the bottling-in-bond facilities: Provided, That the assigned officer may authorize the affixing of such labels or stamps in the storage portion of a bonded warehouse where the need therefor is established, if space and facilities for such activities are available and the necessary supervision can be provided without the assignment of an additional internal revenue officer. Spirits in cases temporarily sealed shall be kept apart from other spirits in the warehouse.

§ 201.337 Salvaged spirits.

Spirits salvaged from filtering or bottling operation in the bottling-in-bond facilities may be added, under the direct supervision of the assigned officer, to a tank in such facilities containing the same or another lot of spirits of the same kind, produced by the same distiller, at the same distillery during the same distilling season. Such spirits shall be reported on Form 1515 covering the lot to which they are added, unless they are returned to the lot from which they were salvaged.

(72 Stat. 1366; 26 U.S.C. 5233)

§ 201.338 Marking and disposition of remnant cases.

Where there is less than a case of bottled spirits remaining from a lot of spirits bottled, either for domestic use or for exportation, the remnant will be placed in a case and such case will be given the serial number of the last full case containing spirits in the same lot, followed by the letter "R", thus: "100–R": Provided, That where spirits, of the same kind and proof, produced by the same distiller at the same distillery during the same distilling season as the remnant, are to be bottled on the same or following business day, and are eligible for inclusion in the remnant case, such remnant case may be given the next serial number and held in the bottling-in-bond facilities, and the case filled with such spirits. Such remnant case, if not held in the bottling-in-bond facilities, shall be removed with other cases to storage and taxpaid for domestic consumption, or returned to the bottling-in-bond facilities when the next lot of spirits to be bottled is of the same kind, produced by the same distiller, at the same distillery during the same distilling season, and (a) the bottles used for filling a complete case, if of the same proof and otherwise eligible, or (b) the contents dumped into the bottling tank and mingled with such other spirits for bottling. Remnant cases of spirits bottled for export shall not be marked to show the date of withdrawal and the names of the ports. In any instance when a remnant case is removed or returned to the bottling-in-bond facilities for use as provided in this section, appropriate notation will be made on Forms 1515 showing the disposition of such remnant.

§ 201.339 Domestic use of spirits bottled for export.

Where export cases (full or remnant) of spirits bottled in bond are to be used for domestic purposes the spirits shall have been filled into bottles conforming with the provisions of § 201.328 and shall be properly relabeled. Where export remnants (if eligible) are to be used for filling a case of spirits bottled in bond for domestic consumption, or where full cases are to be converted to domestic use as bottled-in-bond spirits (if eligible) the export strip stamps shall be replaced by domestic bottled-in-bond stamps. In addition export cases or remnants may be converted to domestic use, if the spirits (if eligible) are rebottled under the provisions of § 201.346, or if the spirits are tax determined and removed to bottling premises in the same or contiguous plant premises for rebottling, relabeling, or restamping, as the case may be. The rebottling, relabeling, and restamping operations on bonded premises will be under the direct supervision of the assigned officer. Cases must be marked and branded as required by Subpart P of this part.

§ 201.340 Remnant cases of spirits bottled in bond returned to bottling-in-bond facilities.

Remnant cases of spirits returned to the bottling-in-bond facilities for use in filling a complete case or dumping into a bottling tank shall be included in the application, Form 1515, covering the withdrawal of bulk containers for bottling.

(72 Stat. 1366; 26 U.S.C. 5233)

§ 201.341 Losses or gains in bottling.

Where there is a loss or gain of 2 percent or more of the quantity of spirits deposited in the bottling tank, the proprietor shall determine the cause of the discrepancy and submit a report to the assigned officer. Losses or gains disclosed shall be recorded in accordance with Subpart U of this part.

(72 Stat. 1366; 26 U.S.C. 5233)

(72 Stat. 1366; 26 U.S.C. 5233)

ALCOHOL

(a) Bottled alcohol. Alcohol of 190 degrees or more of proof may be bottled and cased in the bonded warehouse under the direct supervision of the assigned officer. Alcohol may be bottled in containers of 1 gallon or less, or in bottles complying with the provisions of § 201.504; however, the proprietor is required to comply with the provisions of Part 175 of this chapter where applicable. The proprietor shall prepare Form 1515 for alcohol to be bottled in the bonded warehouse. The heading of Form 1515 shall be prominently marked with the word "Alcohol", and the form shall be further modified to show only the size of bottles, the number of cases filled, and the disposition of such cases; on completion of the bottling of the lot, Form 1515 shall be noted to show the quantity withdrawn from the tank and shall be delivered to the assigned officer. Form 1620 shall be prepared by the proprietor for each lot of alcohol bottled.

(b) Encased containers. Containers of alcohol, authorized under § 201.504, which are enclosed in and attached to individual cartons, as provided in § 201.505, shall be filled and recorded as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, but the filled containers are not considered to be bottled alcohol, and are not subject to the provisions of §§ 201.344 and 201.345 relating to stamps, labels, and marks. The cartons or cases shall be marked in the manner provided in §§ 201.505 and 201.529.

§ 201.344 Stamps and labels.

The proprietor shall affix to each bottle of alcohol filled by him an alcohol strip stamp which shall be procured and affixed as provided in Subpart Q of this part. In addition, bottled alcohol to be withdrawn on tax determination shall be labeled in accordance with the provisions of Part 175 of this chapter or 27 CFR Part 5, as applicable. REBOTTLING, RELABELING, OR RESTAMPING

§ 201.346 Bottled-in-bond spirits.

Bottled-in-bond spirits which (a) have not been withdrawn from bond, (b) have been returned to bond as provided by § 201.586, or (c) have been withdrawn taxpaid, may, on approval of a written application to the assigned officer, be rebottled, relabeled, or restamped in a bonded warehouse. Taxpaid bottled-in-bond spirits returned to a bonded warehouse for rebottling, relabeling, or restamping, shall be kept separate from other spirits, and shall not again be subject to tax under section 5001(a)(1), I.R.C. When taxpaid spirits have been rebottled, relabeled, or restamped, they shall be removed from the bonded warehouse immediately on completion of the operation. The rebottling, relabeling, or restamping shall be accomplished expeditiously, but shall be done at such time and in such manner as will not require additional supervision. Rebottling operations shall be conducted under direct supervision in the bottling-in-bond facilities, separate from any other bottling operations. The assigned officer may authorize relabeling or restamping operations to be conducted in the storage portion of the warehouse. The rebottling, relabeling, or restamping of spirits shall be conducted in such manner as to prevent any mingling of a lot of reconditioned spirits with any other spirits, either in the filling of bottles or in the filling of cases.

§ 201.347 Alcohol.

The provisions of this subpart relating to the rebottling, relabeling, or restamping of bottled-in-bond spirits shall apply, insofar as applicable, to the rebottling, relabeling, or restamping of alcohol bottled under this subpart.

(72 Stat. 1369; 26 U.S.C. 5235)

§ 201.348 Application.

Application to rebottle, relabel, or restamp bottled-in-bond spirits shall be filed in duplicate and state specifically (a) the reason for the rebottling, relabeling, or restamping, (b) the serial numbers of the cases, (c) the name and plant or registry number of the producing distiller, (d) the season and year of production, (e) the name and plant or registry number of the premises where the spirits were bottled, (f) the season and year of original bottling, (g) whether the spirits have been withdrawn from bond, and (h) the portion of the bonded warehouse where the operations will be conducted. If the spirits were originally bottled by a person other than the applicant, the application shall be accompanied by written authorization from such person consenting to the rebottling or relabeling.

§ 201.349 Stamp, bottle, and label requirements.

The strip stamps on bottles of spirits to be rebottled shall be destroyed at the time of dumping the bottles, and new strip stamps, overprinted with exactly the same data as the original stamps, in regard to the name of the producer, and the seasons and years of production and bottling, shall be affixed to the bottles in which the spirits are rebottled. Liquor bottles used for rebottling shall comply with the provisions of § 201.328. Where spirits are relabeled, the proprietor shall comply with §§ 201.329 and 201.330. Bottled-in-bond spirits which have been rebottled, relabeled, or restamped shall be returned to original cases, or placed in new cases. Such cases shall be marked in accordance with Subpart P of this part; rebottled spirits shall show the plant number of the rebottler.

§ 201.350 Filtering and stabilizing.

Proprietors dumping spirits for rebottling may filter or stabilize such spirits under the provisions of § 201.324.

§ 201.351 Domestic spirits for exportation.

Pursuant to the provisions of this subpart spirits bottled in bond for domestic use may be rebottled, relabeled, or restamped for exportation (as the case may be), in compliance with the requirements for spirits bottled in bond for exportation. Such spirits, if rebottled, may be reduced to not less than 80 degrees of proof as provided in § 201.326. Spirits rebottled, relabeled, or restamped under the provisions of this section, may be withdrawn (a) without payment of tax for exportation, or (b) taxpaid (unless previously taxpaid) and withdrawn for exportation with benefit of drawback, as provided in Subpart L of this part, except that spirits in the latter category shall be rebottled unless originally bottled on the same bonded premises and have not been removed from the premises.

§ 201.352 Records and reports.

Form 1515, appropriately modified, shall be prepared by the proprietor to cover the rebottling, relabeling, or restamping of bottled-in-bond spirits. Spirits which have not been withdrawn from bond or which have been returned to bond as provided by § 201.586 shall be accounted for in the same manner as spirits originally entered for bottling in bond. Form 1515 covering taxpaid bottled-in-bond spirits returned to a bonded warehouse for rebottling, relabeling, or restamping shall be clearly and prominently marked to show that the spirits are taxpaid, and shall identify each lot of spirits, showing the quantity returned, losses in rebottling, and the quantity removed. Such spirits shall not be included in any warehouse records or reports required by Subpart U of this part.

Subpart L—Transfers and Withdrawals

General

§ 201.361 Authority to withdraw.

Spirits (including denatured spirits) shall be removed from bonded premises only as provided in this subpart. Spirits entered into bonded storage for subsequent packaging in wooden packages, as provided in § 201.270, which have not been drawn into such packages at the time of withdrawal from bond shall be redesignated to conform to the classes and types set out in Subpart P of this part and in 27 CFR Part 5.

(72 Stat. 1356, 1362; 26 U.S.C. 5201, 5212, 5213, 5214)

§ 201.362 Examination of containers.

Each container or case of spirits (including denatured spirits) to be removed from bonded premises, or to be dumped on bonded premises, shall be carefully examined by the proprietor, and if any container or case bears evidence of loss of spirits (including denatured spirits) due to theft or unauthorized voluntary destruction, or loss in excess of normal storage losses, such container or case shall not be removed or dumped until released by the assigned officer.

(72 Stat. 1338; 26 U.S.C. 5008)

§ 201.363 Withdrawal of spirits on original gauge.

Spirits may be withdrawn from bonded premises for any lawful purpose on the original gauge: Provided, That in the case of spirits in bulk conveyances or wooden packages so withdrawn on determination of tax, the original gauge must have been made by an internal revenue officer. Where the original gauge was made by an internal revenue officer the spirits shall be withdrawn on such gauge unless permission for a gauge at time of withdrawal is obtained from the assistant regional commissioner. When spirits in wooden packages, which are to be withdrawn on determination of tax on the original gauge, are transferred in bond, the proprietor shall note "Withdraw on original gauge" and show the details of the original gauge on all copies of Form 2630.

§ 201.364 Determination of tare.

When packages are to be individually gauged for withdrawal from bonded premises, actual tare shall be determined: Provided, That average tare may be taken when authorized under Part 186 of this chapter and approved by the assigned officer. When average tare is to be taken, the proprietor shall so indicate on Form 2630 and shall show the percentage (not less than 20 percent, and never less than 2 packages) of the packages to be used for the determination. Actual or average tare shall be determined in accordance with Part 186 of this chapter.

(72 Stat. 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5204)

Transfer Between Bonded Premises

§ 201.365 Authorized transfers.

Pursuant to approval of an application therefor as provided in § 201.366, spirits (including denatured spirits) may be transferred in bond between bonded premises in bulk conveyances, or by pipeline, or in any container into which spirits may be filled on bonded premises.

(72 Stat. 1362; 26 U.S.C. 5212)

§ 201.366 Application to receive spirits in bond.

When a proprietor desires to have spirits or denatured spirits transferred to him in bond he shall make application for such transfer on Form 2609 to the assigned officer. Application to receive such spirits by transfer in bond shall not be approved unless the applicant's bond, Form 2601, is in the maximum penal sum, or, if in less than the maximum penal sum, is sufficient to cover the tax on the spirits (including denatured spirits) to be transferred in addition to all other liabilities chargeable against such bond, nor shall any application for receipt of spirits (including denatured spirits) in bulk conveyances be approved unless the applicant has provided suitable facilities as provided by § 201.239. The applicant shall deliver one of the approved copies of the application to the consignor proprietor.

§ 201.367 Termination of application.

A proprietor may terminate an approved application, Form 2609, at any time by (a) giving written notice to the assigned officer at the consignor premises, (b) retrieving the consignor's copy, and (c) returning this copy, together with his own, to the assigned officer for cancellation.

(72 Stat. 1318; 26 U.S.C. 5005)

§ 201.368 Consignor premises.

(a) General. Form 236 shall be prepared by the consignor proprietor to cover the transfer of spirits or denatured spirits in bond pursuant to an approved application on Form 2609. A Form 236 shall not cover more than one conveyance. When spirits in packages are to be transferred, the consignor shall also prepare Form 2630 and when spirits in cases or in encased containers are to be transferred, he shall prepare Form 1620. Each Form 1620 and Form 2630 shall show the real name (or the basic operating name as provided in § 201.235) of the producer (or the name of the packaging or bottling proprietor in the case of spirits of 1% degrees of proof or more) and, if the spirits were produced under a trade name, shall also show the trade name under which produced; a separate Form 1620 or Form 2630 shall be prepared for each name under which spirits were produced. Spirits or denatured spirits shall not be removed from the bonded premises until Form 236 (with Form 2630 or 1620, if required) has been submitted to the assigned officer and his approval received for the release of the spirits or denatured spirits. In the case of pipeline transfers, the assigned officer shall not unlock the pipeline until he has approved Form 236.

(b) Packages. When spirits are to be transferred in bond in packages, the consignor proprietor shall weigh each package, except (1) when the transfer is to be made in a sealed conveyance, (2) when the individual packages have been securely sealed by the proprietor, in a manner satisfactory to the assigned officer, or (3) when this requirement has been waived by the assistant regional commissioner on a finding that, because of the location of the premises, the transfer can be made under the observation of the assigned officers, and there will be no jeopardy to the revenue. The proprietor shall load the packages into the conveyance and prepare the conveyance for sealing, if it is to be sealed. The details of the last gauge for each package shall be recorded on Form 2630. If the tax gallon content for any package to be transferred has been determined by an average, as provided in § 201.269, such average tax gallon content shall be recorded as the quantity of spirits transferred for such package. When packages are weighed at the time of shipment, the shipping weight shall be shown in lieu of the last official gross weight of the package: Provided, That in the case of packages to be withdrawn on original gauge, the shipping weight shall be shown in addition to the details of the original gauge.

(c) Bulk conveyances and pipelines. When spirits are to be transferred in bond in bulk conveyances or by pipelines, the consignor shall gauge the spirits under the direct supervision of the assigned officer and record the gauge on Form 236. Bulk conveyances of spirits shall be prepared by the proprietor for sealing.

§ 201.369 Consignee premises.

(a) General. When spirits or denatured spirits are received by transfer in bond the consignee proprietor shall notify the assigned officer who shall deliver the appropriate Form 236, and Form 2630 or Form 1620, if any, to the consignee. The assigned officer shall examine each sealed conveyance to determine whether the seals are intact and if so he shall authorize the proprietor to remove the seals. The proprietor shall examine all containers, and any container bearing evidence of loss in transit or of loss due to theft shall be held until released by the assigned officer. Spirits after examination (and, if held, after release by the assigned officer) shall be deposited in the warehouse immediately, or, if the spirits are to be redistilled, they shall be deposited in the production facilities immediately. After execution on the transfer forms of his receipt of the shipment, the consignee shall return the form or forms to the assigned officer. Losses from packages shall be determined and reported on Form 2630 or, in the case of losses from bulk conveyances, on Form 236, by the assigned officer, with a notation as to the apparent cause thereof.

(b) Packages. When spirits are received in packages, the consignee proprietor shall weigh each package and record the weights on Form 2630, except (1) when the transfer is made in a sealed conveyance and the seals are intact on arrival, (2) when the individual packages have been sealed by the consignor proprietor and are intact on arrival, or (3) when this requirement has been waived by the assistant regional commissioner. All packages in a sealed conveyance on which the seals are not intact, on arrival, and all packages not intact on receipt, shall be segregated, after weighing, and held until released by the assigned officer. When denatured spirits are received in packages, the consignee proprietor shall prepare Form 1467, appropriately modified, to record their deposit on bonded premises; a separate sheet shall be used for each formula.

(c) Bulk conveyances and pipelines. When spirits are received in bulk conveyances or by pipeline, the consignee shall gauge the spirits under the direct supervision of the assigned officer and record the gauge on Form 236.

(72 Stat. 1362; 26 U.S.C. 5212)

Removal of Spirits to Production Facilities

§ 201.370 Removal of spirits from storage for redistillation.

A proprietor intending to remove spirits (including denatured spirits) from storage to production facilities on the same bonded premises for redistillation, in accordance with the provisions of §§ 201.272 and 201.273, shall prepare Form 2629 to cover such removal. Each lot of spirits (except bottled spirits) shall be gauged by the proprietor under the direct supervision of the assigned officer. Such gauge may be made either in the storage or the production facilities and shall be reported on Form 2629. If packages or cases of spirits are to be dumped, the proprietor shall give the assigned officer a list (one copy) of the serial numbers of the packages or cases to be dumped. The packages or cases shall be examined by the proprietor, and if any package, or case bears evidence of loss due to theft or unauthorized destruction, or loss in excess of normal storage losses, such package or case shall not be dumped until released by the assigned officer; Form 2629 shall be amended when necessary. Packages or cases shall not be dumped until the assigned officer has given his approval therefor. Before removing the spirits from storage, Form 2629 shall be submitted to the assigned officer for his approval.

Determination and Payment of Tax

Spirits to be withdrawn from bonded premises on determination of the tax thereon shall be in such containers or cases as are prescribed in this part. The proprietor of the bottling premises to which the spirits are to be removed, or the proprietor of the bonded premises from which the spirits are to be withdrawn, shall make application on Form 179 for tax determination and withdrawal. Where spirits are to be withdrawn on determination of tax, the tax thereon shall be paid before removal of the spirits from the bonded premises unless the proprietor making application for the withdrawal has furnished bond on Form 2613, 2614, or 2615 to secure payment of tax. Where the spirits are to be withdrawn by the proprietor of bottling premises from bonded premises not on the same plant premises, he shall, on execution of his portion of the application on Form 179, deliver one copy to the assigned officer at the bottling premises and forward the remaining copies of the form to the proprietor of the bonded premises. On completion of the application the proprietor of the bonded premises shall deliver all copies of the application to the assigned officer at his premises. Where spirits in packages are to be gauged in bulk gauging tanks, the proprietor of the bonded premises shall attach to Form 179 a list (one copy) of the serial numbers of the packages. Where the spirits are to be withdrawn by a proprietor of bottling premises, from bonded premises not on the same plant premises, and his bond on Form 2614 or Form 2615 is less than the maximum penal sum, he shall maintain an account of his bond and he shall charge the bond with the amount of liability he accepts at the time he executes Form 179, and shall credit the bond for the same amount at the time he files his return and remittance to cover the payment of tax on the spirits covered by such Form 179: Provided, That where the tax is less than the amount shown on Form 179 as charged against his bond, he may, at time of receipt of Form 179 from the proprietor of bonded premises, credit the bond account for the amount of the difference between the amount charged and the amount of tax determined, and credit the bond account for the remainder of the amount at the time he files his return and remittance. Where an alternating proprietor has been authorized pursuant to § 201.174 to commence operations of bottling facilities at a specified future time, he may apply for the withdrawal of spirits from bond on Form 179 in anticipation of such commencement of operations, but spirits so applied for will not be eligible for loss allowance unless such spirits are withdrawn directly from bond and unless such spirits are received on his bottling premises during the time he is authorized to operate such premises.

§ 201.372 Proprietor's statement.

Where tax is to be paid pursuant to a return on Form 2522, the proprietor making application for the withdrawal shall execute on all copies of Form 179 a statement in which he (a) agrees to pay, in accordance with law and this part, the amount of tax shown on the form, or to be shown thereon, and (b) certifies, under the penalties of perjury, that he is not in default in any payment of tax chargeable against his bond, Form 2613, 2614, or 2615, and that the penal sum of such bond (1) is in the maximum penal sum or (2) is sufficient to cover such amount in addition to all other amounts chargeable against such bond. Where a proprietor of bottling premises is to be the taxpayer and the spirits are to be withdrawn from bonded premises not on the same plant premises as his bottling premises, such statement shall be executed by him when he initiates Form 179. In all other instances such statement shall be executed by the taxpayer after gauge and calculation of the amount of tax due but before release of the spirits by the assigned officer. The full amount of tax determined shall be included for payment in a tax return, Form 2522, filed as provided in § 201.383. Nothing in this part shall be construed as precluding an adjustment after taxpayment, pursuant to law and regulations, of any overpayment or underpayment of tax.

When spirits in packages are to be withdrawn from bonded premises on determination of tax on the basis of individual package gauge, each package shall be gauged unless the tax is to be determined on the original gauge. When the packages are to be withdrawn on the original gauge the proprietor shall prepare Form 2630 and deliver the form to the assigned officer with Form 179. If spirits in wooden packages are to be gauged for tax determination, the proprietor shall complete only the heading of Form 2630 and insert the serial number and entry tare of each package before delivery of the form, and Form 179, to the assigned officer for gauge of the packages by such officer. The proprietor shall gauge (under the direct supervision of an assigned officer), and report on Form 2630, metal packages to be tax determined on other than the original gauge and deliver such form, and Form 179, to the assigned officer. Spirits in wooden packages filled from storage tanks for tax determination shall be gauged and reported on Form 2630 by an assigned officer on receipt of Form 179; metal packages so filled shall be gauged (under the direct supervision of an assigned officer) and reported on Form 2630 by the proprietor, and the proprietor shall deliver Form 2630 to such officer with Form 179. In the case of spirits distilled at less than 190 degrees of proof, the date of original entry, and the proof of distillation shall be shown on Form 2630. In the case of spirits mingled pursuant to section 5234(a)(1)(C), I.R.C., (homogeneous spirits) the dates of original entry of the oldest and the youngest spirits in the mingled spirits shall be shown. On completion of gauge (if any) and computation of tax, the assigned officer will return Form 179 and Form 2630 to the proprietor.

§ 201.374 Gauge tank.

Each tank of spirits to be tax determined shall gauged (by weighing and proofing) by an assigned officer, and the gauge recorded on Form 179. When mingled spirits are transferred to bottling premises (either on the same or another plant premises) such information as to the kinds, quantities (as determined by the proprietor), and ages of the spirits included therein as is necessary to permit further processing (as required) and proper labeling thereof, shall accompany the spirits. When a tank is mounted on scales and a proprietor desires to determine tax on a portion of the contents of such tank, the difference between the quantity (ascertained by gauge) in the tank immediately before the removal of the spirits and the quantity (ascertained by gauge) in the tank immediately after the removel shall be the quantity to be taxpaid and considered withdrawn; however, none of the spirits may be removed from bonded premises before the tax determination is complete. On completion of the gauge and computation of the tax, the assigned officer will return Form 179 to the proprietor. Spirits in gauge tanks may, after tax determination and before release under § 201.385, be reduced in proof to any desired proof by the proprietor under the direct supervision of the assigned officer, if the proprietor so requests on Form 179; the proof of the spirits after reduction shall be shown on Form 179.

§ 201.375 Blended beverage brandies or rums.

When brandies or rums blended in accordance with the provisions of section 5234(c), I.R.C., are to be withdrawn on determination of tax, any additional tax provided by section 5023, I.R.C., shall be entered by the assigned officer on Form 179 and, if the tax is not prepaid on Form 2521, shall be included in the appropriate tax return on Form 2522 by the proprietor who made application for the withdrawal of the spirits.

§ 201.376 Imported spirits.

When imported spirits (transferred to bonded premises pursuant to section 5232, I.R.C., or similar provisions of prior law) are withdrawn for beverage purposes, there shall be paid, in addition to the internal revenue tax imposed by section 5001, I.R.C., a tax equal to the duty which would have been paid had the spirits been imported for beverage purposes, less the duty already paid thereon. The additional tax shall be referred to as "additional tax—less duty", and shall be paid at the time and in the manner that the basic internal revenue tax is paid. The total quantity in proof gallons (or wine gallons if below proof) withdrawn shall be the basis of computing the tax at the rates indicated. The amount of the "additional tax—less duty" shall be stated separately and identified as such on Form 179.

§ 201.377 Rinsing of packages and disposition of rinse water.

When spirits in wooden packages (except packages treated so as to preclude contact of the spirits with the wood surface) are dumped for tax determination, the packages and any char or wood chips therefrom shall be thoroughly rinsed by the proprietor: Provided, That if the proprietor indicates on his withdrawal application, Form 179, that the packages are to be used for repackaging the same spirits, such packages need not be rinsed. Water of any temperature may be used for rinsing. When spirits are returned to a rinsed package the temperature of such water shall be marked thereon, as provided in § 201.524. Rinse water not added to the same spirits may be added to the next lot of spirits to be tax determined which are homogeneous therewith, or such rinse water may be mingled with heterogeneous spirits for tax determination under § 201.298; if not so disposed of, the rinsings shall be destroyed or redistilled. Char and wood chips not returned to packages shall be disposed of as provided in § 201.306.

The spirits to be taxpaid shall be inspected or gauged and the amount of tax found due shall be entered on Form 179 by the assigned officer. The proprietor shall then, unless withdrawal is to be pursuant to application on Form 179 made by a proprietor of bottling premises which are not a part of the plant premises from which the spirits are to be withdrawn, either execute the statement provided for in § 201.372 or prepare a tax prepayment form, Form 2521. Where the withdrawal is to be pursuant to application on Form 179 made by a proprietor of bottling premises which are not a part of the plant premises from which the spirits are to be withdrawn, the proprietor of bonded premises shall prepare a tax prepayment form if the proprietor of such bottling premises has not executed on Form 179 the agreement to pay the tax. In any event, the proprietor shall, before returning the Form 179 to the assigned officer, assign to and enter on each such form a release number. The release numbers shall be assigned in serial order, starting with "1" for the first such form each calendar year. The proprietor will give all copies of Form 179, accompanying reports of gauge (if any), and Form 2521 (if any) to the assigned officer, except that where, pursuant to § 201.383, the return on Form 2521 is required to be filed with the district director, the processing of Form 2521 and the release of spirits shall be in accordance with § 201.385.

§ 201.379 Form 2632, Daily Report of Withdrawals After Tax Determination.

The proprietor of bonded premises shall furnish the assigned officer a report on Form 2632, as provided in § 201.632 (c), for each day on which withdrawals of spirits on determination of tax are made.

§ 201.380 Methods of taxpayment.

The tax on spirits shall be paid pursuant to a return on Form 2521 or on Form 2522, filed as provided in § 201.383. Remittance for the tax in full shall accompany the return and may be in any form which the district director is authorized to accept under the provisions of § 301.6311–1 of this chapter and which is acceptable to him: Provided, That where a check or money order tendered in payment for taxes is not paid on presentment, or where the taxpayer is otherwise in default in payment, any remittance made during the period of such default, and until the assistant regional commissioner finds that the revenue will not be jeopardized by the acceptance of a personal check (if acceptable to the district director), shall be in cash or in the form of a certified, cashier's, or treasurer's check drawn on any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the United States, or under the laws of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or a money order, as provided in § 301.6311–1 of this chapter. Checks and money orders shall be made payable to "Internal Revenue Service".

§ 201.381 Returns for prepaid taxes.

The tax on distilled spirits shall be paid pursuant to a return on Form 2521 in all cases where such tax is required to be paid before the spirits are withdrawn from bond. A single return on Form 2521 may cover one or more transactions.

§ 201.382 Taxes to be collected by returns for semimonthly periods.

The tax on spirits to be paid after withdrawal from bond on determination of tax shall be paid pursuant to a return on Form 2522. The periods to be covered by returns on Form 2522 shall be semimonthly; such periods to run from the 9th day through the 23d day of each month and from the 24th day of one month through the 8th day of the next succeeding month. A return, Form 2522, shall be executed and filed to cover each return period notwithstanding that no tax is due for payment for such period. The proprietor of each bonded premises shall include, for payment, on his return on Form 2522 the full amount of distilled spirits tax determined in respect of all spirits released for withdrawal from the bonded premises on determination of tax during the period covered by the return (except spirits on which tax has been prepaid and spirits withdrawn on determination of tax by proprietors of bottling premises). When spirits are withdrawn by the proprietor of bottling premises from internal revenue bond on determination of tax, the tax shall be paid by such proprietor by return on Form 2522 for the period in which falls the date of receipt of the spirits at his premises or the 21st day after the date of the internal revenue officer's certificate of tax determination on the withdrawal form, whichever date occurs first. Spirits must be conveyed without delay to the bottling premises and taken into such premises promptly on arrival. For the purposes of this section, spirits shall be deemed to be received when they arrive at the bottling premises. The proprietor shall show on his return the release numbers of Form 179 covered by the return, and, in the case of proprietors of bottling premises, shall also show the plant from which the spirits were withdrawn.

§ 201.383 Filing of returns and payment of distilled spirits tax.

(a) Payment pursuant to semimonthly return, Form 2522. Where the proprietor of bonded premises has withdrawn spirits from such premises on determination and before payment of tax, he shall, except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, file a tax return covering such spirits on Form 2522, with remittance, not later than the 3d business day next succeeding the last day of the return period. Where the proprietor of bottling premises has withdrawn distilled spirits from bond on determination and before payment of the tax, he shall, except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, file a tax return covering such spirits on Form 2522, with remittance, not later than the 3d business day next succeeding the last day of the return period in which he is required to report such withdrawal. Returns on Form 2522 and remittances of proprietors of bonded premises and bottling premises for the last complete return period (i.e., the semimonthly period ending June 23) in each fiscal year, shall be filed not later than the 2d business day next succeeding the last day of the return period. The proprietor shall, not later than 2 p.m. on the date that such tax return is required to be filed, file such return, with remittance, with an internal revenue officer designated by the assistant regional commissioner for transmittal to the district director: Provided, That where the assistant regional commissioner finds that it is not practical for an internal revenue officer to receive the return and remittance, he may, by written notice, require the proprietor to file his return with remittance directly with the office of the district director: Provided further, That where the remittance is in cash, the return and remittance shall be filed directly with the office of the district director. Where the return and remittance are delivered by United States mail to the office of the district director, the date of the official postmark of the United States Post Office stamped on the cover in which the return and remittance were mailed shall be deemed to be the date of delivery: Provided, That where the postmark on the cover is illegible, the burden of proving when the postmark was made will be on the proprietor: Provided further, That where the return is sent by registered mail the date of registry, or where the return is sent by certified mail, the date of the postmark on the sender's receipt, shall be treated as the postmark date of the return and remittance. Where a taxpayer has defaulted in any payment of tax under this paragraph, during the period of such default and until the assistant regional commissioner finds that the revenue will not be jeopardized by payment of tax pursuant to this paragraph, tax shall be paid by such proprietor in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Payment pursuant to Form 2521. If the proprietor who has made application on Form 179 for tax determination and withdrawal of spirits does not have on file an approved withdrawal bond, or if such bond is in an insufficient penal sum, or if there is default by him in any payment of tax under this part, spirits shall not be released from bonded premises before the proprietor of the bonded premises has paid the tax thereon. To so pay the tax the proprietor of the bonded premises shall file a tax prepayment return, Form 2521, with remittance. Form 2521 and remittance shall be filed with the internal revenue officer designated by the assistant regional commissioner, for transmittal to the district director: Provided, That where the remittance is in cash, the return and remittance shall be filed directly with the office of the district director.

§ 201.384 Filling packages from gauging tanks after determination of tax.

Spirits drawn into packages from bulk gauging tanks after tax determination shall be gauged by the proprietor, who shall report such gauge on Form 2630. On receipt of Form 2630 from the proprietor, the assigned officer shall issue a distilled spirits stamp for each package. In addition to the marks required by Subpart P of this part, the packages shall be marked to show that they are consolidated packages, the plant number of the premises at which filled, the kind of cooperage in which the spirits were stored and the number of months the youngest spirits in the lot were stored in such cooperage, the date of tax determination, and the serial number of the distilled spirits stamp.

§ 201.385 Release of spirits.

No spirits shall be removed from bonded premises, except as otherwise provided by law, unless the tax thereon has been determined. If the Form 179, and Form 2521 (if required) with remittance, are in order and cover the full amount of the tax on the spirits to be withdrawn, the assigned officer shall execute his certificate of tax determination. The assigned officer shall not execute his certificate of tax determination where a proprietor of bottling premises, whose bond on Form 2614 or 2615 is not in the maximum penal sum, has assumed liability for the tax on the spirits, and the tax is greater than the amount shown on Form 179 as charged against his bond. Where Form 2521 has been filed with the district director, as required by § 201.383(b), the certificate regarding tax determination shall not be executed before the assigned officer has received a receipted copy of the return from the district director. On execution of the certificate of tax determination, the assigned officer shall issue distilled spirits stamps for packages or bulk conveyances of spirits to be removed from bonded premises. Distilled spirits stamps shall be affixed, canceled, and protected in the manner provided in Subpart Q of this part. When the distilled spirits stamps have been affixed by the proprietor to the containers and the containers have been properly marked, the assigned officer shall release the spirits. When spirits are to be removed by pipeline, the appropriate Form 179, after execution of the certificate of tax determination, shall be attached to the gauge tank before the spirits are released by the assigned officer. Bottled-in-bond spirits which are to be withdrawn from bonded premises on determination of tax may be so withdrawn subsequent to bottling, without being returned to the storage portion of the bonded warehouse, if the proprietor executes Forms 179 in advance of withdrawal to cover a specific quantity of such spirits, and also executes, in advance of withdrawal, the statement required by § 201.372. In such case the assigned officer shall execute the certificate of tax determination only if he is satisfied that adequate means and methods are provided for accurately ascertaining the quantities of spirits to be so withdrawn at time of bottling and that the Form 179 is otherwise in order. On completion of the withdrawal covered by Form 179, the proprietor shall complete the forms, identifying the cases and showing the actual quantity of spirits so withdrawn; such information shall be verified by the assigned officer. When any spirits have been removed from the bonded premises as provided in this section, the assigned officer shall execute the statement of removal on Form 179 and distribute the copies of the form in accordance with the instructions thereon.

Withdrawal of Spirits Without Payment of Tax

§ 201.386 Authorized withdrawals without payment of tax.

§ 201.387 Withdrawals of spirits for use in wine production.

Wine spirits withdrawn without payment of tax for use in wine production may be removed in approved containers for shipment to a bonded wine cellar on receipt of an approved application, Form 257, submitted by the proprietor of the bonded wine cellar in accordance with the provisions of Part 240 of this chapter. Each package of wine spirits (unless withdrawn on the original gauge) and each lot of wine spirits transferred by pipeline or by bulk conveyance shall be gauged by the proprietor under the direct supervision of the assigned officer: Provided, That spirits transferred by pipeline may be so gauged on the bonded wine cellar premises. Form 2629 shall be prepared by the consignor to cover each removal of wine spirits pursuant to an approved Form 257. When wine spirits in packages are to be removed, the consignor shall also prepare Form 2630, and when wine spirits in cases are to be removed, he shall also prepare Form 1620. Bulk conveyances shall be prepared by the proprietor for sealing and each such conveyance shall bear a label, dated and signed by the proprietor, showing the intended use of the wine spirits and the name and plant number of the consignor and the name and registry number of the consignee. When the gauge (if any) has been completed, and the containers have been marked, and appropriate entries have been made on the gauge report by the assigned officer, he shall release the spirits.

§ 201.390 Withdrawal of spirits free of tax.

Spirits withdrawn free of tax under § 201.389 (a), (b) and (c) shall be withdrawn in approved containers and shipped to the consignee designated in the permit. The proprietor shall submit an application for each withdrawal on Form 2633 to the assigned officer. Unless the spirits are in cases or are to be withdrawn on the original gauge, the proprietor shall gauge each container under the direct supervision of the assigned officer. The proprietor shall prepare notice of shipment on Form 1473 and distribute the form in accordance with the instructions thereon. If the assigned officer finds that the withdrawal papers, and the shipment, conform to regulations, he shall release the spirits.

§ 201.391 Permits for withdrawal of spirits by the United States.

Where the United States or a governmental agency thereof intends to procure spirits free of tax for nonbeverage purposes, application for a permit shall be filed on Form 1444 under the provisions of Part 213 of this chapter. Where the United States or a governmental agency thereof intends to procure spirits free of tax for other purposes, application for a permit shall be filed on Form 1444 under the provisions of this part. The application shall be signed by the head of the department, independent bureau, or agency to which such spirits are to be shipped, or by some person duly authorized by such head of a department, independent bureau, or agency, and forwarded to the Director. Evidence of authority to sign for the head of a department, independent bureau, or agency shall be furnished to the Director. If the Director finds the application in order, he will issue a permit to the applicant. At the time the spirits are to be procured, the permit on Form 1444 and a purchase order shall be submitted by the governmental agency to the proprietor. At the time of shipment, the consignor shall record the shipment on the permit and return it to the governmental agency unless he has been authorized by such agency to retain the permit for the purpose of making future shipments. On receipt of a shipment of spirits, the representative of the governmental agency receiving the same shall execute the certificate of receipt on both copies of Form 1473 received from the plant proprietor, after noting thereon any loss or deficiency in the shipment, and shall forward one copy to the assistant regional commissioner of the region in which the plant proprietor is located and retain the other copy for his files. Every appropriate precaution shall be taken by the agency to insure that the spirits so procured will be used only for governmental purposes. When no more spirits will be procured under a permit, the governmental agency shall return it to the Director for cancellation.

§ 201.392 Disposition of excess spirits.

Any excess spirits in the possession of a Governmental agency shall be disposed of to another agency of the United States holding a permit, returned to a plant on approval of the assistant regional commissioner of the region in which the plant is located, or disposed of otherwise as may be authorized by the Director. In no case may such spirits be disposed of to the general public, or otherwise than as provided in this section.

§ 201.393 Removal of denatured spirits.

(a) Specially denatured spirits. Specially denatured spirits withdrawn free of tax under § 201.389(d) shall be shipped in approved containers to the consignee designated in the permit. If such spirits are for export or for transfer to a foreign-trade zone, they shall be withdrawn under the applicable provisions of Part 252 of this chapter. If such spirits are for shipment to a qualified user or a bonded dealer, the proprietor shall prepare notice of shipment on Form 1473 and distribute the copies of the form in accordance with the instructions thereon.

(b) Completely denatured alcohol. No permit, application, or notice is required for removal of completely denatured alcohol from bonded premises, except that completely denatured alcohol may be transferred from bonded premises by pipeline only when the consignee has obtained authority to receive completely denatured alcohol by such means pursuant to the provisions of Part 211 of this chapter. The proprietor is required to keep a record of such removals, as prescribed in Subpart U of this part.

§ 201.394 Reconsignment in transit.

Where, prior to arrival at the consignee's premises, spirits (including specially denatured spirits) withdrawn free of tax under § 201.389, are found to be unsuitable for the purpose for which intended, were shipped in error, or, for any other bona fide reason, are not accepted by the consignee or by a carrier, they may be reconsigned by the proprietor making the shipment on notification to the proprietor's assistant regional commissioner of the reconsignment. Such reconsignment may be made to himself or to another proprietor for return to bonded premises under the provisions of § 201.585, or to another person holding an industrial use permit authorizing receipt or use of such spirits or specially denatured spirits. In case of reconsignment to bonded premises, the provisions of § 201.585 relating to consents of surety in respect of return of spirits (including denatured spirits) withdrawn free of tax shall be applicable. Notice of cancellation of the Form 1473 covering the shipment to the original consignee shall be given by the proprietor to each person receiving a copy of such form. Where reconsignment is to another person as provided in this section, a new Form 1473 shall be prepared and the word "Reconsignment" placed thereon. The entry on the permit covering the original withdrawal shall be voided.

Subpart M—Denaturation

Proprietors who have established denaturing facilities on bonded premises as provided in this part, and who have otherwise complied with the requirements of this part for the carrying on of denaturing operations, may conduct such operations in such facilities pursuant to the provisions of this part. Proprietors shall not conduct denaturing operations except as provided in this part.

(72 Stat. 1353, 1369; 26 U.S.C. 5178, 5241)

§ 201.402 Formulas.

Such spirits as are authorized under Part 212 of this chapter to be denatured, may be denatured in accordance with formulas prescribed in that part. Denaturing material shall be added to, and thoroughly mixed (and dissolved if necessary) with the spirits to be denatured.

(72 Stat. 1369; 26 U.S.C. 5242)

§ 201.403 Receipt and storage of denaturing materials.

Denaturants shall be placed in a denaturing material storeroom, or in a denaturing material storage tank, or in other receptacles as provided in § 201.242, and secured with Government locks or seals: Provided, That the proprietor may retain denaturants under his own lock pending completion of the statement prescribed in § 201.404 and deposit of the denaturants in the required denaturing material storeroom, storage tank, or other receptacle. Except as provided in § 201.406, each shipment of wood alcohol must be accompanied by a certificate, in duplicate, signed by the manufacturer or his agent, showing the name and address of the plant in the United States where produced and the quantity shipped, and certifying under the penalties of perjury that it is a partially purified distillate from crude wood alcohol obtained only by the destructive distillation of wood. The proprietor shall deliver one copy of the certificate to the assigned officer and the other copy shall accompany the sample to be tested.

§ 201.404 Testing of denaturants.

Synthetic oils approved by the Director, essential oils as defined in Part 212 of this chapter, pure chemicals (liquid or solid), or U.S.P. or N.F. substances used as denaturing materials, deposited in storage under direct supervision of the assigned officer in the original sealed package of a reputable manufacturer of chemicals, bearing a label descriptive of the contents placed thereon by the manufacturer, need not be tested except when required by the Director. The proprietor shall test each lot of other denaturants received or shall have each such lot tested by a reputable chemist. In either case, if the test is favorable, the proprietor shall furnish the assigned officer a statement, under the penalties of perjury, that, based on his analysis or the analysis of the reputable chemist, the denaturant conforms in all respects to the specifications prescribed therefor in Part 212 of this chapter. The statement shall show the name and address of the vendor, the kind and quantity of the denaturant, a description of the containers in which received, and by whom tested; the signed analysis or statement by the chemist performing the test shall be attached. In the event it is found the denaturant does not conform to the specifications prescribed under Part 212 of this chapter, the proprietor shall remove the material from the premises unless he intends to treat or manipulate the denaturant to make it conform to such specifications. Such treated or manipulated denaturants shall be again tested.

§ 201.405 Samples.

Samples of denaturants required to be tested shall be taken by the proprietor. All samples shall be taken in such manner as to represent a true composite of the total lot or lots being sampled. Samples to be tested by other than the proprietor shall be labeled to show the proprietor's name and plant number; the kind of denaturant; the identity of storage container; the quantity represented by the sample; and the date taken, and shall be forwarded to the chemist in securely sealed containers. Samples of denaturants may be taken by internal revenue officers at any time for testing by Government chemists.

§ 201.406 Transfer of denaturants.

Proprietors may transfer denaturants to other bonded premises, or to manufacturers recovering denatured spirits, or articles containing denatured spirits, and redenaturing the spirits for reuse. Each container of such denaturants shall be marked to show its contents and sealed by the proprietor unless shipped in the original sealed package of the manufacturer. The denaturants shall be accompanied by a statement by the consignor proprietor, approved by the assigned officer, that the denaturants were received and stored in the manufacturer's original sealed packages bearing labels descriptive of the contents, or by a certification by the proprietor that, based on his own analysis, or on a reputable chemist's analysis, as the case may be, that the denaturants conform in all respects to the specifications therefor provided in Part 212 of this chapter. In addition, the statement or certification shall show the name and address of the vendor, the kind and quantity of the denaturants, and a description of the container in which the denaturant is shipped, and the manner in which sealed and, in the case of wood alcohol, shall show that the certificate required by § 201.403 is on file. Such denaturants need not be again tested after receipt by the consignee if delivered in the sealed package or container, and in such case the certified statement provided for in § 201.404 will not be required of the consignee.

§ 201.407 Notice and gauge for denaturation.

The proprietor, when he wishes to denature, shall execute his notice of intent on Form 2634, in duplicate, in accordance with the instructions thereon and deliver the form to the assigned officer who shall supervise the gauge of the spirits, when required, and the denaturation thereof. On completion of denaturation, the officer will complete his verification of the denaturation on both copies of the form, and will return one copy to the proprietor who shall retain the copy in his files. All spirits shall be gauged by the proprietor: Provided, That spirits dumped from previously gauged containers or spirits transferred directly to mixing tanks from gauge tanks where they were gauged, need not be again gauged. Measurements of spirits and denaturants shall be made by volume or by weight or, when approved by the Director, by meter or other device.

§ 201.408 Adding denaturants.

Denaturants shall be added to spirits in approved mixing tanks except as provided herein. Specially denatured alcohol Formulas 18, 25, and 25A prescribed in Part 212 of this chapter may be denatured in packages in any quantity. The assigned officer may permit the denaturing in packages, in accordance with other formulas, of limited quantities of spirits on a showing of need therefor. The assistant regional commissioner may, on the showing of need therefor, authorize the denaturation of spirits in tank cars, tank trucks, or similar containers if he deems such denaturation will not hinder effective administration of this part or jeopardize the revenue. The Director may, on written application, authorize other methods of adding denaturants to spirits if he deems such denaturation will not hinder effective administration of this part or jeopardize the revenue. If requested by the Director, the proprietor shall submit a flow diagram of the intended process or method of adding denaturants. The conduct of alternate methods of denaturation may be disapproved where additional supervision would be required, or may be restricted to such times as will not require additional supervision.

§ 201.409 Locking.

Except as may be provided by the Director in authorizing other methods for adding denaturants as provided in § 201.408, the spirits and denaturants shall be thoroughly mingled immediately on deposit in the mixing tank or on completion of the gauge of the spirits for denaturation where such gauge is required. The outlets and inlets of mixing tanks shall be so equipped that the flow of spirits into the tanks and denatured spirits from the tanks may be controlled by Government locks; tanks containing spirits deposited for denaturation, or the rooms or building in which such tanks are located, shall be locked at all times except when denaturing operations, or activities related thereto, are being conducted as provided in this part. Except as authorized under § 201.408 or as authorized by the assigned officer, spirits may not be deposited in a mixing tank or partially denatured spirits removed from such tank after denaturation of a lot of spirits has started.

§ 201.410 Restoration and redenaturation of recovered denatured spirits and recovered articles.

Recovered denatured spirits and recovered articles containing denatured spirits received on bonded premises, as provided in Subpart S of this part, for restoration (including redistillation, if necessary) and/or redenaturation may not be withdrawn from bonded premises except for industrial use or after denaturation thereof. If the recovered or restored denatured spirits or recovered articles are to be redenatured and do not require the full amount of denaturants for redenaturation, a notation to that effect will be made on the notice required by § 201.407. This section shall not be construed as authorizing the manufacture of articles on bonded premises.

§ 201.411 Conversion of specially denatured alcohol.

Any specially denatured alcohol, except Formula No. 30, may be converted to specially denatured alcohol, Formula No. 1, by the addition of wood alcohol in accordance with the formulation prescribed in Part 212 of this chapter: Provided, That such converted specially denatured alcohol is manufactured into an article or used in a process by the proprietor who converted it, or by his controlled or wholly owned subsidiaries (as defined in § 201.206), unless its use by another manufacturer or user (as defined in Part 211 of this chapter) is authorized by the Director. The quantity of wood alcohol required for such denaturation shall be determined on the basis of the alcohol in the formulation. Any specially denatured alcohol not containing methanol or wood alcohol may be converted to any one of the completely denatured alcohol formulas, prescribed in Part 212 of this chapter, by adding the required denaturants.

§ 201.412 Release of denatured spirits.

On completion of denaturation, the assigned officer shall release the denatured spirits to the proprietor.

(72 Stat. 1357, 1369; 26 U.S.C. 5202, 5242)

§ 201.413 Containers for denatured spirits.

Packaging of denatured spirits and the marking of packages of such denatured spirits shall be in accordance with requirements of Subpart P of this part.

Subpart N—Operations on Bottling Premises

§ 201.421 General.

Proprietors shall conduct operations relating to the rectification, packaging, and bottling of taxpaid spirits and taxpaid wines only on bottling premises, and only pursuant to the provisions of this part. A proprietor of bottling premises who has qualified to carry on the business of a bottler of distilled spirits, but not the business of a rectifier, may use his bottling premises for the bottling or packaging of rectified or unrectified taxpaid spirits or taxpaid wines but shall not use such premises for any operation (including any operation specified in § 201.33 as not coming within the exemptions from the rectifier's occupational tax) which would incur liability for tax under section 5021, 5022, or 5081, I.R.C.

Formulas and Processes

§ 201.422 Form 27B Supplemental.

Every rectifier shall file with the Director a statement on Form 27B Supplemental of each formula and process by which he intends to rectify spirits or wines. A rectifier shall not use a formula or process in the manufacture of any rectified product until he has received approval therefor. When an intermediate product is made for use in manufacturing a finished product (or products) a separate Form 27B Supplemental (designating the product as an intermediate) shall be filed for the intermediate product; such intermediate product shall be shown as such and by formula number as an ingredient in the formula for the finished product in which it is to be used. Each formula shall (a) be serially numbered in sequence beginning with the number "1", (b) describe the kind of products in accordance with the appropriate class and type designation prescribed by 27 CFR Part 4 or Part 5, if applicable, (c) state the process completely and concisely in step by step sequence, and (d) designate all ingredients composing the formula in sufficient detail to enable a proper determination as to the tax classification and labeling of the finished product. Alcoholic flavoring materials containing spirits on which drawback has been or may be claimed shall be identified in the formula as such, and shall be separately shown by kind, quantity (by volume) to be used, and the percentage of alcohol (by volume) contained therein; approval of formulas shall be conditioned on compliance with the provisions of § 201.424. The Director may require a diagram, drawing or other pictorial depiction of the process to supplement the statement of process on Form 27B Supplemental. Formulas which show an alternate use of ingredients which would result in a different tax or labeling classification will not be approved.

§ 201.423 Manufacture of nonbeverage products.

Spirits and wines may not be used on bottling premises in the manufacture of nonbeverage products except for the manufacture of flavors or flavoring extracts as intermediate products to be used exclusively in the manufacture of taxable rectified products on the bottling premises where produced. Bottling premises may not be used for the manufacture of nonbeverage products on which drawback under sections 5131–5134, I.R.C., is to be claimed. Premises used for the manufacture of nonbeverage products eligible for drawback which are contiguous to bottling premises shall be completely separated therefrom and spirits shall not be transferred between such premises.

§ 201.424 Use of alcoholic flavoring materials.

The use of alcoholic flavoring material on which drawback has been or may be claimed shall be limited by the rectifier so that the quantity of alcohol (proof gallons) contained therein will not represent, on a proof gallon basis, more than 2½ percent of the total proof gallons of spirits in the finished product. In case any finished product will derive more than 2½ percent of its total spirits from alcoholic flavoring materials not manufactured on bottling premises, the proprietor shall procure the flavoring materials which contribute the excess directly from the manufacturer and have available for examination by internal revenue officers an affidavit of the manufacturer showing: The quantity, the identity of each immediate container (by serial number, or other appropriate means), the alcoholic content, the date of manufacture, the kind and brand of flavoring material, and that drawback under sections 5131–5134, I.R.C., has not been and will not be claimed on any spirits contained therein. Each container of alcoholic flavoring materials for which a manufacturer's affidavit has been submitted, as required by this section, shall be marked to indicate that drawback has not been and will not be claimed on any spirits contained therein.

§ 201.425 Changes in formulas.

The addition or elimination of ingredients, changes in quantities of ingredients used (where the percentages are required to be disclosed), and changes in the process of rectification are permissible only after approval of a new Form 27B Supplemental: Provided, That where such change of ingredients or process does not result in altering the class or type of the finished product or the tax applicable, the change may be accomplished by filing, with the Director, a rider to the formula. The rider, in quadruplicate, will clearly identify the original formula by number, date of approval, name of the product, and by name and number of the plant, will specify the ingredients to be added or eliminated, or the change in process, and will be signed and processed in the same manner as the original formula. Such change in ingredients or process is permissible only after approval of the rider. A new Form 27B Supplemental or rider will not be required to cover changes in brand names. Once an approved formula is superseded by a new formula, the original formula shall no longer be used and will be surrendered to the Director.

Receipt of Spirits and Wines

§ 201.426 General.

Only spirits and wines that have been tax determined may be received on bottling premises. The proprietor shall, as prescribed in Subpart U of this part, record and summarize daily all spirits, wines and alcoholic flavoring materials received on the bottling premises.

(72 Stat. 1356, 1361; 26 U.S.C. 5201, 5207)

§ 201.427 Heterogeneous spirits mingled in bulk gauging tanks on bonded premises.

When heterogeneous spirits which have been mingled in bulk gauging tanks on bonded premises, pursuant to the provisions of § 201.298, are received on bottling premises, the rectifier shall make entry in the records required by § 201.623 identifying the spirits as so mingled in accordance with the information furnished him from the consignor premises, as provided in §§ 201.298 and 201.374. Unless the spirits are eligible for tax-exempt rectification under § 201.444 and are to be so rectified, they shall be used in taxable rectification, before removal from the bottling premises.

§ 201.428 Deposit on bottling premises.

Spirits and wines received on bottling premises in packages or cases shall be retained in the packages or cases until used in rectification or in bottling. Spirits and wines received by pipeline or in bulk conveyances shall be deposited in tanks on the bottling premises and gauged therein by the proprietor before use. Alcoholic flavoring materials for which a manufacturer's affidavit is required shall be retained in the immediate container in which received until used in rectification: Provided, That such an alcoholic flavoring material may be transferred to a storage container or tank if the proprietor marks or otherwise indicates thereon full identification of the original container, the date of the deposit, and the quantity deposited. Like flavoring materials may be added to the tank if the contents of the tank are accounted for on a first-in first-out basis. An alcoholic flavoring material for which a manufacturer's affidavit is required shall not be mingled with any other alcoholic flavoring material except at time of use in rectification.

§ 201.429 Memorandum tank record.

When spirits are deposited in a tank on receipt on bottling premises, the proprietor shall attach to the tank a memorandum record showing the name of the consignor, the date and serial number of the tax determination or gauge report received from the consignor covering such spirits, and the quantity received. He shall enter on such record the date and quantity of each removal from the tank and each loss ascertained to have occurred therefrom. Where spirits are deposited and/or withdrawn from a tank on different dates, the contents of the tank shall be accounted for on a first-in first-out basis.

§ 201.430 Containers bearing evidence of tampering or unusual loss.

The proprietor shall inspect containers of spirits at the time of their receipt on bottling premises. If he finds evidence of tampering with the contents of the container, or that there has been an unusual loss, he shall promptly report the matter to the assigned officer and hold the container pending such officer's advice as to its disposition. If the proprietor finds that any container is missing from the shipment, he shall promptly report such fact to the assigned officer. If any container does not bear the stamp required by law to be affixed thereto, the proprietor shall note such fact on the gauge form received from the consignor covering such spirits and report such matter to the assigned officer. The proprietor shall comply with the requirements of § 201.484 in respect of spirits lost by accident or disaster.

§ 201.431 Dumping of partial contents of package.

If less than the entire content of a package is removed at one time, the proprietor of the bottling premises shall keep on the package a record showing the date and quantity of each removal from the package. The stamps, marks, and brands on the package shall not be destroyed until the package is emptied.

(72 Stat. 1356, 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5201, 5205)

Use of Spirits and Wines

§ 201.432 Record of use.

(a) Dumping of ingredients. Whenever any spirits or wines are to be dumped for use in rectification, or are to be dumped for bottling or packaging without rectification (or are to be reduced in proof, filtered, or otherwise manipulated for such bottling or packaging), or are to be removed from the bottling premises by pipeline or bulk conveyance, the proprietor shall prepare Form 122. Spirits or wines received by pipeline or bulk conveyance and deposited in a receiving tank shall be considered as "dumped" when they are removed from such tank for rectification or bottling; spirits or wines so received but not so deposited shall be considered as "dumped" immediately on receipt. Each Form 122 shall be serially numbered and shall identify the spirits or wines to be dumped for use. The proprietor shall, at time of dumping, gauge spirits (1) where required in § 201.494, and (2) whenever it is necessary to insure that the quantity used is within the limitation of the approved formula. The proof gallon content of wines and alcoholic flavoring materials (containing ineligible spirits) shall be determined, at time of dumping, by the proprietor.

(b) Batch record. A rectifier shall prepare Form 122 as a batch record (1) to report the dumping of spirits which are to be used immediately and in their entirety in preparing a batch of a rectified product (in this instance one Form 122 serves both as a dump and batch record), (2) to report the use of spirits or wines previously dumped pursuant to Forms 122 and retained in processing tanks or receptacles, and (3) to report any combination of (1) and (2) used in preparing a batch of a rectified product. The proprietor shall record on Form 122 (batch record) the use of alcoholic flavoring materials manufactured on premises other than a bottling premises. Each Form 122 shall be serially numbered in sequence (whether used as a dump or batch record) and shall identify the spirits, wines, and alcoholic flavoring materials used in the batch; substitute batch records, as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, shall be serially numbered in sequence in a separate series, and Forms 122 prepared in addition to the substitute records (as provided in paragraph (d) of this section) shall be given the same numbers as the substitute records.

(c) Disposition of Form 122. After the proprietor has indicated on Form 122 his intentions to dump spirits or wines or to prepare a batch of rectified spirits, as the case may be, he may proceed with the operation covered by the form; he shall keep the required entries on Form 122 current with the operations covered by such form. When the proprietor has completed all entries required on the form he shall submit one copy to the assigned officer and retain the remaining copy for his files. Where spirits are bottled or packaged especially for export with benefit of drawback, the proprietor shall prepare an additional copy of each related Form 122 and forward it to the assistant regional commissioner.

(d) Substitute records. The proprietor, subject to the approval of the assistant regional commissioner, may use another form of record in lieu of Form 122 to record batches of rectified spirits. In such case, Form 122 shall be used to record dumping of all spirits whether or not the spirits are to be used immediately in preparing a batch record of a rectified product, and Forms 122 shall be prepared, in addition to the approved substitute records, where spirits or wines are to be rectified and bottled or packaged for export with benefit of drawback. Application to use substitute records shall be filed in the manner as provided in § 201.628(c).

(72 Stat. 1370; 26 U.S.C. 5251)

§ 201.433 Identifying spirits and wines in process.

The proprietor shall mark or otherwise indicate (for example, by attachment of Form 122) on each tank or receptacle on bottling premises containing spirits or wines in process the kind and quantity of the contents and the serial number of the Form 122 under which the spirits or wines are held.

§ 201.434 Rinsing of packages.

All wooden packages (except packages treated so as to preclude contact of the spirits with the wood surface) emptied on bottling premises, and the char and wood chips therein, if any, shall be thoroughly rinsed after dumping. The rinse water so obtained is considered to be homogeneous with the spirits previously contained in the packages. If the packages were not rinsed at the time of tax determination, the rinse water obtained at the bottling premises shall be destroyed or shall be taxpaid as provided in § 201.435. If the packages were rinsed at the time of tax determination on bonded premises, the temperature of the rinse water used at the bottling premises may not be higher than that of the rinse water used at the time of tax determination. Char and wood chips contained in or dumped from such packages shall be burned or treated in such manner, previously approved by an internal revenue officer, as to preclude the abstraction of potable spirits.

(72 Stat. 1356; 26 U.S.C. 5201)

§ 201.435 Taxpayment of rinsings.

If the rinsings from packages which were not rinsed before removal from bonded premises are not to be destroyed, they shall be accumulated in a closed, locked tank pending determination and payment of the tax thereon. The tank shall be mounted on scales or be equipped with a suitable measuring device. The number and capacity of accumulating tanks shall be suitable for intended operations. When rinsings are to be taxpaid, the proprietor shall submit to the assigned officer an application on Form 179, appropriately modified, for such taxpayment. The proprietor shall indicate on Form 179 the kind and age of the spirits from which the rinsings were obtained. The contents of the tank shall be gauged by the assigned officer, either by weight or by volume, and Form 179 shall be completed showing the proof gallons. The proprietor shall then prepare a tax prepayment return, Form 2521, and submit all copies thereof and all copies of Form 179, with remittance as described in § 201.380, to the designated internal revenue officer or to the district director in accordance with the procedure in § 201.383(b). If heterogeneous spirits are accumulated in the same tank, they shall be used in taxable rectification. The release of the spirits shall be in accordance with the provisions of § 201.385.

§ 201.436 Extraction of spirits from wood forbidden.

The rinsing of packages on bottling premises with water of a temperature in excess of that provided for in § 201.434 for the purpose of extracting spirits from the staves and heads of the packages or from the char or wood chips is forbidden, unless such rinse water is immediately destroyed. Packages shall not be filled or partially filled with water and permitted to stand; nor shall barrels, char, or wood chips be steamed for the purpose of extracting spirits; nor shall any other method or process, except as authorized in § 201.434, be used to extract spirits from barrels.

(72 Stat. 1356; 26 U.S.C. 5201)

TAXABLE RECTIFICATION

§ 201.437 Treatment of spirits and wines.

Except as otherwise provided in Subpart C of this part and in this subpart any blending, mixing, purifying, refining, compounding, or treating of spirits or wines on bottling premises, which changes the character or composition of the spirits or wines, constitutes taxable rectification and necessitates the payment of the rectification tax. The rectification tax imposed by section 5021, I.R.C., will apply in the case of—

(a) The mingling of spirits produced by different distillers, or at different distilleries, or of different ages (except as provided in § 201.447), or which differ in kind, or which are otherwise not homogeneous;

(b) The mingling of spirits stored in charred cooperage with spirits stored in plain or reused cooperage, or the mixing of spirits that have been quick-aged or treated with wood chips with spirits not so processed, or the mixing of spirits that have been subjected to any treatment which changes their character with spirits not so treated, unless it is determined that the composition of the spirits is the same, notwithstanding the storage in different kinds of cooperage or the treatment of a portion of the spirits;

(c) The use (except as authorized on bonded premises as provided by this part) of any physical or chemical process or any apparatus which accelerates the maturing of the spirits;

(d) The compounding of spirits or wines through the mixing of any coloring, flavoring, or other material with distilled spirits or wines for sale either as such, or as another product, such as a cordial or liqueur, except where cordials or liqueurs subject to tax under section 5022, I.R.C., are manufactured;

(e) The steeping or soaking of fruits, berries, aromatic herbs, roots, seeds, etc., in spirits or wines;

(f) The artificial carbonating of spirits.

(72 Stat. 1328, 1356; 26 U.S.C. 5021, 5201)

§ 201.438 Cordials and liqueurs containing wine.

All provisions of this part relating to rectification, shall apply to the manufacture of cordials, liqueurs, and similar compounds subject to tax under section 5022, I.R.C.

(72 Stat. 1328; 26 U.S.C. 5022)

§ 201.439 Intermediates.

Where, pursuant to approved formulas as provided by § 201.422, distinct products are compounded as an intermediate step in the manufacture of specified finished products and are retained for use in further compounding under specified processes, tax will attach to the finished product only.

(72 Stat. 1328, 1356; 26 U.S.C. 5021, 5022, 5201)

§ 201.440 Destruction of materials used in quick-aging.

Materials, such as wood chips, used in a quick-aging process shall, on removal from the process, be burned or treated in such manner, previously approved by the internal revenue officer, as to preclude the abstraction of potable spirits.

(72 Stat. 1356; 26 U.S.C. 5201)

TAX-EXEMPT RECTIFICATION

§ 201.441 Gin.

Gin produced on bottling premises is exempt from the rectification tax (as provided in § 201.29(c)) only if produced in a closed system by the redistillation over juniper berries and other natural aromatics of spirits distilled at or above 190 degrees of proof, free from impurities, including spirits of such a nature recovered by redistillation of imperfect gin spirits. Gin produced by redistillation is not exempt from tax if it is mixed with other spirits or treated by the addition or abstraction of any substance or material other than pure water after redistillation, or if any substance or material other than juniper berries or other aromatics or pure water is added to the spirits before or during redistillation. The gin shall be collected in a receiving tank and shall be gauged therein by the proprietor. It may be drawn off in packages, bottled, or transferred by pipeline or bulk conveyance to other bottling premises as provided in § 201.465. Gin exempt from the rectification tax may be filtered to remove materials held in suspension, but the use of filters or filter aids which remove essential oils or flavoring materials in solution will subject the product to the rectification tax. The provisions of this section do not preclude the filtering and stabilizing of gin as provided in § 201.445.

Vodka produced on bottling premises is exempt from the rectification tax (as provided in § 201.29(e)) only if produced from spirits distilled at or above 190 degrees of proof which are free of impurities and, as provided in 27 CFR Part 5, are reduced in proof and treated by one of the methods provided in such part. Vodka is not exempt from the rectification tax (a) if it is mixed after production with other spirits or with any other substance or material except pure water, or (b) if any substance or material other than pure water and the materials provided for in 27 CFR Part 5 are added to the spirits before or during production. The vodka shall be gauged by the proprietor and shall then be drawn into metal, porcelain, glass, or paraffin-lined containers, bottled, or transferred by pipeline or bulk conveyance to other bottling premises as provided in § 201.465. Vodka exempt from the rectification tax may be filtered to remove materials held in suspension, but the use of filters or filter aids or the use of any process which changes the composition or character of the vodka will subject the product to the rectification tax.

(72 Stat. 1328; 26 U.S.C. 5025)

§ 201.443 Blending of wines.

The blending of taxpaid wines by rectifiers for the sole purpose of perfecting such wines according to recognized commercial standards is exempt from the rectification tax (as provided in § 201.29 (h)) when the wines so blended were made from the same kind of fruit. Such blending shall not be commenced unless Form 27B Supplemental has been approved by the Director. The kind and type of wine to be blended, the respects in which it is to be perfected, the kind and type of the blended product, and such additional information as the Director may require shall be shown on Form 27B Supplemental.

§ 201.444 Blending of straight whiskies, rums, and pure fruit brandies.

The rectification tax (as provided in § 201.29 (l) and (m)) does not attach to blends made exclusively of two or more pure straight whiskies aged in wood for a period of not less than four years and without the addition of coloring or flavoring matter or any other substance than pure water and if not reduced below 80 proof; nor to blends made exclusively of two or more pure fruit brandies distilled from the same kind of fruit, or blends made exclusively of two or more rums, where the brandies or rums have been aged in wood for a period not less than two years and without the addition of coloring or flavoring matter (other than caramel added in bond, under Subpart I or J of this Part) or any other substance than pure water and if not reduced below 80 proof. In addition to the information required to be recorded on Form 122 as provided by § 201.432, the proprietor shall show the age of each package of whisky, brandy, or rum to be blended, the proof to which the blended whisky, brandy, or rum is to be reduced, and the tank in which the spirits will be blended; he shall also include a statement that no coloring, flavoring, or other substance will be added except pure water necessary to reduce the spirits to the desired proof. Blending operations shall be under the general supervision of the assigned officer. The addition of any coloring, flavoring, or other substance, or the reduction of the spirits below 80 proof, will subject the blended whisky, brandy, or rum to the rectification tax.

PROCESSES NOT CONSTITUTING RECTIFICATION

§ 201.445 Filtering and stabilizing of spirits.

A proprietor may on bottling premises (a) remove foreign substances or other extraneous insoluble materials from spirits, with or without the use of filter aids, and (b) effect minor changes in the soluble color or soluble solids of spirits solely by filtrations, chill proofing, or other physical treatments (which do not involve the addition of any substance which will remain incorporated in the finished product) as may be necessary or desirable to produce a stable product, provided such changes do not result in the removal of more than 10 percent of the soluble solids or soluble color of the spirits so treated (including the extraction incident to such changes of not more than 10 percent of any class of the natural congeners). Treatment of spirits under this section does not constitute rectification.

§ 201.446 Treatment and mixing of wines.

Wines may be preserved by use of sulphur dioxide compounds, or clarified by refrigeration or pasteurization, or treated by simple filtration. If the bottler desires to treat wine under the provisions of this section in any other manner which does not constitute rectification, he shall first file with the assistant regional commissioner a letterhead application, in triplicate, giving the details of the proposed treatment. The bottler may not use the proposed treatment until he has received notice of approval from the assistant regional commissioner. Under this section water may not be added to wine nor may wine be subjected to any treatment which will alter its basic character. Wine of the same kind (class, type, and national origin) and taxable grade may be mixed to facilitate handling. Sections 5021, 5081, and 5082, I.R.C., shall not apply to the treatment or mixing of wines on bottling premises under this section.

§ 201.447 Mingling of homogeneous spirits.

The mingling of homogeneous spirits does not constitute rectification. Packages of blended or rectified spirits made with precisely the same spirits under the same formula, packaged in the same kind of cooperage, and stored under the same conditions will be presumed to be homogeneous. Spirits of 190 degrees of proof or more distilled from the same class of materials (such as grain) will be presumed to be homogeneous. Spirits distilled at less than 190 degrees of proof are presumed to be homogeneous if—

(a) They were produced

(1) From the same class of materials,

(2) At approximately the same proof, and

(3) By the same proprietor (under his own or any trade name) at the same distillery; and

(b) In the case of spirits which have been stored in wooden packages so as to be in contact with the wood, they were stored in the same kind of cooperage under approximately the same conditions, and they differ in periods of such storage,

(1) Not more than 18 months in the case of spirits so stored more than 8 years,

(2) Not more than 12 months in the case of spirits so stored more than 4 years and not more than 8 years,

(3) Not more than 6 months in the case of spirits so stored more than 2 years and not more than 4 years,

(4) Not more than 60 days in the case of spirits so stored more than 1 year and not more than 2 years, or

(5) Not more than 30 days in the case of spirits so stored not more than 1 year; and

(c) They do not differ in kind under the standards of identity prescribed in 27 CFR Part 5.

The age of the youngest spirits to be included in any mixture mingled under this section will determine the permissible variation in periods of storage. Whenever there is doubt as to whether spirits are homogeneous, tests shall be made of each component of the proposed mixture and compared with a sample of the final mixture to determine whether the mixture is homogeneous with each of its component parts.

(72 Stat. 1328; 26 U.S.C. 5025)

GAUGE AND TAXPAYMENT OF RECTIFIED PRODUCTS

§ 201.448 Gauge of rectified products.

On completion of the process of rectification, the rectifier shall gauge the spirits or wines in accordance with the provisions of Subpart D of this part, determine the applicable taxes under section 5021, 5022, and/or 5041, I.R.C., report such gauge and determination of tax on Form 2637, and immediately submit one copy of such form to the assistant regional commissioner. Each Form 2637 shall be serially numbered.

§ 201.449 Payment by return.

Taxes on rectified products, imposed by sections 5021, 5022, or 5041, I.R.C., shall be paid and collected on the basis of a semimonthly or prepayment return, as provided in this part.

(72 Stat. 1335; 26 U.S.C. 5061)

§ 201.450 Rectifier's statement.

When any taxes on rectified products are to be paid pursuant to a semimonthly return, Form 2627, the rectifier shall, at the time of reporting the tax on Form 2637 as required by § 201.448, execute on all copies of the Form 2637 a statement in which he (a) agrees to pay, in accordance with law and this part, the amount of tax shown on the form, and (b) certifies, under the penalties of perjury, that he is not in default in any payment of tax chargeable against his bond, Form 2601, and (c) that the penal sum of such bond is in the maximum penal sum or is sufficient to cover such amount in addition to all other amounts chargeable against such bond. The full amount of tax determined shall be included for payment in a tax return, Form 2527, filed as provided in § 201.452. Nothing in this part shall be construed as precluding an adjustment after taxpayment, pursuant to law and regulations, of any overpayment or underpayment of tax.

§ 201.451 Method of taxpayment.

The tax on rectified spirits and wines, reported on Form 2637, shall be paid pursuant to a prepayment return on Form 2523 in all cases where such taxes are required to be paid before such products are removed from the bottling premises or before bottling or packaging for removal from such premises. Returns on Form 2523 may cover one or more transactions. Such tax which is not required to be paid pursuant to Form 2523 shall be paid pursuant to a semimonthly return on Form 2527. The provisions of § 201.382 respecting periods for semimonthly returns on Form 2522 shall apply to returns on Form 2527, and the provisions of § 201.380 respecting acceptable forms of remittances and authorities of the assistant regional commissioners and district directors shall apply to all taxpayments made by a proprietor of bottling premises.

§ 201.452 Filing of returns and payment of taxes on rectified products.

(a) Payment pursuant to semimonthly return, Form 2527. Where the proprietor of bottling premises has incurred liability for taxes determined during the return period but not paid on rectified products, he shall file a tax return covering such products on Form 2527, with remittance, not later than the 3d business day next succeeding the last day of the return period: Provided, That with respect to the last complete return period (i.e., the semimonthly period ending June 23) in each fiscal year, such return and remittance shall be filed not later than the 2d business day next succeeding the last day of the return period. The provisions of § 201.383 regarding (1) the 2 p.m. time of filing the return and remittance; (2) the person with whom the return and remittance shall be filed; and (3) date of delivery when delivery is by United States mail, shall be applicable when tax is paid under this paragraph. Where a proprietor has defaulted in any payment of tax under this paragraph, he shall, during the period of such default and until the assistant regional commissioner finds that the revenue will not be jeopardized by payment of tax pursuant to this paragraph, pay tax in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Payment pursuant to Form 2523. If the proprietor of bottling premises is in default in any payment of tax under this part, or if the penal sum of his bond on Form 2601 is not sufficient to cover the amount of the tax in addition to all other amounts chargeable against such bond, no products subject to tax under sections 5021, 5022, or 5041, I.R.C., on which tax has been incurred, may be removed from the bottling premises, or bottled or packaged for removal from such premises until the tax thereon has been paid. To so pay the tax the proprietor of bottling premises shall file a tax prepayment return, Form 2523, with remittance. Form 2523 and remittance shall be filed with the assigned officer, or, as designated by the assistant regional commissioner, with an internal revenue officer or the district director of internal revenue: Provided, That where the remittance is in cash, the return and remittances shall be filed directly with the office of the district director. Unless otherwise authorized by the assistant regional commissioner, no rectified products covered by the return may be removed from the bottling premises, or bottled or packaged for removal from such premises, before the return with remittance is filed with the designated internal revenue officer or, if filed with the district director, before the district director furnishes the proprietor a copy of the return showing receipt of the remittance.

BOTTLING, PACKAGING AND REMOVAL OF PRODUCTS

§ 201.453 Removals from bottling premises.

Rectified products on completion of gauge, as provided in § 201.448, and on prepayment of tax when required, and spirits and wines, without rectification, on completion of gauge, as provided in § 201.455, may be bottled or packaged for removal, or may be removed from the bottling premises by pipeline or bulk conveyance on compliance with the provisions of this part.

§ 201.454 Bottling tanks.

All spirits and wines bottled on bottling premises shall be bottled from tanks approved for bottling: Provided, That the assistant regional commissioner may authorize bottling from original packages or special containers where it is impracticable to use a bottling tank. Bottlers desiring to bottle from packages or special containers shall request approval of the assistant regional commissioner, in writing, showing the necessity therefor, as provided in Subpart D of this part.

(72 Stat. 1356; 26 U.S.C. 5201)

§ 201.455 Bottling tank gauge.

In the case of spirits or wines to be bottled or packaged without rectification the proprietor shall, on completion of any filtering, reduction, or other treatment, and prior to commencement of bottling or packaging, make an actual gauge of the product. Rectified products to be bottled or packaged on bottling premises shall be gauged as provided in § 201.448. Any gauge made under this section shall be made at bottling proof in the tank from which the product is to be bottled or packaged, and the details of the gauge shall be entered on Form 2637. One copy of Form 2637 shall thereupon be attached to the bottling tank. If the product is to be bottled or packaged especially for export with benefit of drawback, the proprietor shall mark all copies of Form 2637 "Bottled (or packaged) especially for export", and shall prepare one additional copy of Form 2637.

(72 Stat. 1356; 26 U.S.C. 5201)

§ 201.456 Labels to agree with contents of tanks and containers.

A copy of each (approved or exempted) label to be used in bottling spirits or in bottling or packaging wines shall be affixed to a copy of Form 2637 to be attached to the tank. The label or labels so attached shall agree with the spirits or wines in the tank in every respect and shall not be removed from the tank until it has been emptied. Labels affixed to bottles (and packages, in case of wine) shall be identical with the label on Form 2637 attached to the tank from which the containers were filled. If the containers are labeled with labels which do not properly describe the spirits or wines contained therein, the proprietor shall be required to relabel the spirits or wines with a proper label.

§ 201.457 Liquor bottles.

The proprietor shall comply with the provisions of Part 175 of this chapter respecting the use of liquor bottles when bottling spirits. Spirits shall be filled only into sizes provided by 27 CFR Part 5. Marked liquor bottles may not be used for wines containing 24 percent alcohol by volume or less or for products manufactured with such wines unless such products contain spirits other than wine spirits used in wine production. Liquor bottles may be used, but need need not be used, in bottling spirits for export.

(72 Stat. 1374; 26 U.S.C. 5301)

§ 201.458 Certificate of label approval or exemption.

Proprietors are required by 27 CFR Part 4 to obtain approval of labels, or exemption from label approval, for any label to be used on bottles or packages of wine for domestic use and are required by 27 CFR Part 5 to obtain approval of labels, or exemption from label approval, for any label to be used on bottles of spirits bottled for domestic use, and are required to exhibit evidence of label approval, or of exemption of label approval, on request of an internal revenue officer. Labels, covered by a certificate of exemption from label approval, to be affixed to bottles (and packages, in case of wine) in which spirits or wines are packaged for sale shall conform to the provisions of Part 175 (if otherwise subject to the provisions of such part) or Part 240 of this chapter, as applicable.

§ 201.459 Filling of bottles.

Bottles filled on bottling premises shall be so labeled (a) that the label in use shall be identical with the label attached to Form 2637, and properly describes the spirits; (b) that the bottled spirits agree in proof with the data on the label; and (c) so filled that the quantity agrees with the data on the label or bottle. If the contents do not agree as to quantity (except for such variations in measuring as may occur in filling conducted in compliance with good commercial practice and there is substantially as much overfill as underfill for each lot of spirits bottled) or as to proof (subject to a normal drop in proof occurring during bottling operations, but not to exceed three-tenths of a degree) with the respective data on the label or bottle, the proprietor may be required to rebottle, recondition, or relabel the spirits in such manner that the label will correctly describe the contents.

§ 201.460 Completion of bottling.

When the contents of a bottling tank are not completely bottled at the close of the day, the bottler shall make entries on Form 2637, covering the total quantity bottled that day from the tank. He may elect to make such daily entries only on the original of the form but shall complete the bottling tank copy when the tank has been emptied. When the tank has been emptied, he shall complete the Form 2637 and shall deliver the original of the form to the assigned officer, by placing it on his desk, and file the copy. If spirits are bottled or packaged especially for export with benefit of drawback, the additional copy of Form 2637 shall be submitted to the assistant regional commissioner.

§ 201.461 Strip stamps.

The proprietor shall affix to each bottle of spirits filled on bottling premises a red strip stamp. Such stamps shall be procured, overprinted (when required), affixed, and accounted for as provided in Subpart Q of this part.

(72 Stat. 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5205)

§ 201.462 Cases.

On completion of bottling, the filled bottles with labels and strip stamps (where required) properly affixed shall be placed in cases, and the cases shall then be sealed: Provided, That the assigned officer or the assistant regional commissioner may authorize the retention on plant premises of unsealed cases, pending the affixing of brand labels or State stamps. Where the mandatory information required by 27 CFR Part 5 appears on the brand label rather than a separate label, the brand label shall be affixed at the time of bottling. Spirits in unsealed cases shall be kept apart from other spirits on bottling premises. Each case of spirits or wines filled on bottling premises shall be marked as prescribed by Subpart P of this part before removal from such premises.

§ 201.463 Remnants.

Where on completion of bottling there remain bottles less than the number necessary to fill a case, the bottles, after being stamped and labeled, may be marked as a remnant case as provided in Subpart P of this part or kept uncased on the bottling premises until spirits of the same kind are again bottled. Appropriate notation shall be made on Form 2637 to cover the bottling and disposition of the remnant. If the remnant is subsequently used to complete the filling of a case, an accounting shall be made on the subsequent Form 2637 showing the use of the remnant by adding the remnant gallonage to the quantity to be accounted for, together with an appropriate notation explaining the transaction.

§ 201.464 Filling packages.

Rectified or unrectified products may be drawn into packages from a tank (conforming to the requirements of § 201.243) on bottling premises. Such packages shall be gauged by the proprietor, and he shall report the details of such gauge on Form 2630 and attach a copy of Form 2630 to each copy of Form 2637 covering the product. On receipt of Form 2630 and Form 2637 from the proprietor, the assigned officer shall issue a distilled spirits stamp for each package of spirits. The information required to be placed on the stamp shall be placed thereon by the proprietor and he shall affix the stamp to the package in the manner required by Subpart Q of this part.

§ 201.465 Removals in bulk.

Where spirits or wines on bottling premises are to be removed in bulk to other bottling premises, the proprietor shall execute one additional copy of Form 2637 and shall forward it to the proprietor at the receiving premises. In the case of pipeline transfers the additional copy shall be delivered before the transfer is commenced. Bulk conveyances shall be marked as provided in Subpart P of this part, and distilled spirits stamps shall be issued and affixed to the conveyances as provided in Subpart Q of this part.

(72 Stat. 1356; 26 U.S.C. 5201)

§ 201.466 Rebottling, relabeling, and restamping of bottled spirits.

Bottlers desiring to rebottle, restamp, or relabel distilled spirits shall make application to the assigned officer, if any, at the plant, otherwise to the assistant regional commissioner. The application shall state specifically (a) the reason for the rebottling, relabeling, or restamping, (b) the serial numbers of the cases, and (c) the name of the original bottler. If the spirits were originally bottled by a bottler other than the applicant, the application shall be accompanied by a statement from the original bottler consenting to the rebottling or relabeling thereof by the applicant. When spirits are rebottled, the strip stamps on the original bottles shall be destroyed and new strip stamps used. Liquor bottles used for rebottling shall comply with the provisions of § 201.457. When spirits are relabeled, the new label shall be covered by an appropriate certificate of label approval or certificate of exemption from label approval issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act. Form 2637, appropriately modified, shall be prepared by the proprietor to cover the relabeling, or restamping of spirits. Forms 122 and 2637 shall be prepared in accordance with this part to cover the rebottling of spirits.

§ 201.467 Labels for export spirits.

All bottles containing spirits bottled on bottling premises for export shall have securely affixed thereto a label showing the following:

(a) Kind of spirits;
(b) Proof of the spirits;
(c) Net contents, unless the markings on the bottle indicate such contents;
(d) A statement that the spirits were bottled for export;
(e) The name (or, if desired, the trade name) of the bottler; and
(f) The plant number where bottled, unless the markings on the bottle indicate such number.

The bottler may place on the label any additional information that he may desire if it is not inconsistent with the required information. The label information may be stated in the language of the country to which the spirits are to be exported provided the assigned officer is furnished an English translation of the information. The net contents and proof may be stated in the units of measurement of the foreign country provided the assigned officer is furnished a statement of the equivalent United States units.

§ 201.468 Deposit in export storage.

On completion of bottling or packaging, spirits bottled or packaged on bottling premises especially for export with benefit of drawback shall be removed to export storage for subsequent shipment. Removals from export storage shall be under Part 252 of this chapter.

§ 201.469 Domestically bottled spirits for export.

Taxpaid spirits, manufactured or produced in the United States, originally bottled for domestic use may be exported with benefit of drawback without rebottling if (a) the spirits have not left the premises of the original bottler, (b) the red strip stamp affixed to each bottle is legibly overprinted in the center with the word "Export" by means of a rubber stamp or other suitable method, (c) a neck label or similar strip label, containing the words "For Export", is affixed to the bottle, and (d) each case is marked as required by Part 252 of this chapter.

In lieu of affixing a neck label or similar strip label the proprietor may relabel the spirits to show the information required by the provisions of § 201.467. Where spirits are prepared for export under this section the proprietor shall prepare and forward to the assistant regional commissioner a certified true copy, or transcript, of the batch record, on Form 122 (rectified spirits only), and a certified true copy of the bottling record, Form 2637, covering the spirits.

CHANGES IN NAME OR PROPRIETORSHIP

§ 201.470 Changes in name or proprietorship.

(a) Change in name. Where there is a change in the individual, firm, or corporate name of the proprietor of the plant, the proprietor shall enter on each outstanding Form 2637 the total quantity of spirits or wines bottled from each lot prior to the effective date of the change. On completion of the bottling, the proprietor shall complete the forms under the new name. Operations shall not be conducted under the new name until the proprietor has complied with the requirements of § 201.162.

(b) Change in proprietorship. Where there is a change in proprietorship, other than an alternate proprietorship as provided in § 201.174, and spirits and wines are on hand at the time such change becomes effective, the spirits and wines shall be transferred to the successor. Spirits or wines which have not been used in a batch shall be reported in detail by the outgoing proprietor in an attachment to his final report, Form 2733. Spirits or wines which are in the process of being rectified, dumped, filtered or reduced shall be gauged, and Forms 2637 shall be prepared therefor by the outgoing proprietor, who shall also taxpay any products on which a liability for tax has been incurred. Each proprietor shall make appropriate entries on his monthly report, Form 2733, of the spirits or wines transferred. The outgoing proprietor shall enter on each outstanding Form 2637 the total quantity of spirits or wines bottled by him. Such entries shall be dated and signed by the outgoing proprietor. On completion of the bottling the successor shall complete the execution of the forms. The outgoing and incoming proprietor shall, as applicable, comply with the provisions of §§ 201.164 and 201.176. Where there are alternate operations by proprietors, the proprietors shall comply with the requirements of § 201.174.

(c) Trade names. Before a proprietor may rectify, bottle and label, or package spirits or wines under a trade name, he shall secure approval of such name in the manner prescribed by Subpart F of this part. Each trade name which is to be used shall be entered on the appropriate Form 122 (batch record) or on Form 2637, as the case may be. Form 2637 shall show the serial numbers of the cases or packages of spirits or wines bottled or packaged under each trade name.

Subpart O—Losses After Tax Determination

§ 201.481 Losses after tax determination.

In the case of spirits lost after determination of tax and prior to completion of physical removal from bonded premises, the tax thereon may, pursuant to claim filed in accordance with subpart C, be abated, remitted, or, without interest, refunded or credited to the proprietor of the bonded premises where the loss occurred, provided the tax would not, by reason of the provisions of section 5008(a)(1), I.R.C., have been collectible if such loss had occurred on bonded premises prior to determination of tax. The loss shall not be allowable if it occurred after the expiration of the bonding period unless it occurred in the course of physical removal of the spirits immediately after such time. This section is not applicable to any loss allowable under any other provision of this subpart or which, except for the limitations of § 201.485, would be so allowable.

(72 Stat. 1323; 26 U.S.C. 5008)

LOSSES OF SPIRITS WITHDRAWN FROM BOND FOR RECTIFICATION OR BOTTLING

§ 201.482 Allowable losses.

Where spirits withdrawn from internal revenue bond on payment or determination of tax, or from customs bond on payment of tax, for rectification or bottling are lost before the completion of the bottling and casing or other packaging of such spirits for removal from the bottling premises of the plant to which removed from bond, the tax imposed on such spirits under section 5001(a)(1), I.R.C., may be abated, remitted, or, without interest, refunded or credited to the proprietor who so withdrew the spirits for removal to his bottling premises, if it is established to the satisfaction of the assistant regional commissioner that—

(a) Such loss occurred (1) by reason of accident while being removed from bond to bottling premises, or (2) by reason of flood, fire, or other disaster, or

(b) Such loss occurred by reason of, and was incident to, authorized rectifying, packaging, bottling, or casing operations (including losses by leakage or evaporation occurring during removal from bond to the bottling premises and during storage on bottling premises pending rectification or bottling).

Abatement, remission, credit, or refund of tax shall not be made in respect of the losses described in this section to the extent that the claimant is indemnified or recompensed for the tax, and in the case of the losses described under paragraph (b) of this section, abatement, remission, credit, or refund shall not be made in excess of the limitations set forth in this subpart. No allowance is made in section 5008(c), I.R.C., in respect to loss of spirits by theft. Spirits lost by theft in transit to, or while on, bottling premises shall be reflected as losses by theft in the records and reports prepared by the proprietor but shall be excluded from the quantities for which claims are filed pursuant to section 5008(c), I.R.C. Spirits used up in bona fide analysis and testing on bottling premises shall be considered as lost by reason of, and incident to, authorized operations within the meaning of this section. Spirits removed as samples from the bottling premises before completion of bottling and casing or other packaging of such spirits for removal from the bottling premises shall be reflected as proprietor samples or Government samples in the records and reports prepared by the proprietor, and shall be excluded from the quantities for which claims are filed pursuant to section 5008(c), I.R.C.

§ 201.483 Application for withdrawal of spirits from bond.

A proprietor of bottling premises is not eligible to obtain abatement, remission, credit, or refund in respect to the losses of spirits described in § 201.482 unless he withdrew the spirits on payment or determination of tax directly from bond to his bottling premises. When spirits are to be so withdrawn from internal revenue bond the proprietor of the bottling premises shall prepare and submit Form 179 as provided in Subpart L of this part. Withdrawals of spirits from customs custody on payment of the internal revenue tax shall be in accordance with the applicable customs regulations.

§ 201.484 Losses by accident or disaster.

Where spirits are lost by reason of the conditions stated in § 201.482(a), the proprietor shall, as soon as possible after the loss occurs, report the loss to the assigned officer and determine the actual quantity lost, and record such loss in his records. Claims covering any such losses which occur in transit shall be supported, where possible, with a copy of the bill of lading, and by affidavits of agents of the carrier or of other persons having personal knowledge of the loss. Claims covering other such losses shall be supported by affidavits of persons having personal knowledge of the loss. Where the spirits lost contained ineligible ingredients, the provisions of § 201.486 shall apply. Where any loss covered by this section occurs during removal from bonded premises or customs custody to bottling premises, the proprietor shall show in the records maintained the actual quantity received at the bottling premises.

§ 201.485 Operating losses.

Losses of spirits by reason of the conditions stated in § 201.482(b) may be computed and claimed by the proprietor and tentatively allowed as provided in §§ 201.488 and 201.489, but shall be adjusted and finally allowed on a fiscal year basis. Such losses of spirits (except losses incurred in the manufacture of gin and vodka in a closed system which are provided for in § 201.487) shall be allowed in an amount no greater than the excess of losses over gains and not to a greater extent than is set forth below:

If total completions during the fiscal year in proof gallons are—	The maximum allowable loss in proof gallons is—
Not over 24,000	2 percent of completions.
Over 24,000 but not over 120,000	480 proof gallons plus 1 percent of excess over 24,000.
Over 120,000 but not over 600,000	1,440 proof gallons plus 0.6 percent of excess over 120,000.
Over 600,000 but not over 2,400,000	4,320 proof gallons plus 0.3 percent of excess over 600,000.
Over 2,400,000	9,720 proof gallons plus 0.2 percent of excess over 2,400,000.

§ 201.486 Ineligible ingredients.

When alcoholic ingredients (such as spirits and wines and alcoholic flavoring and blending materials) other than spirits withdrawn from bond by the proprietor of the bottling premises on payment or determination of tax for removal to his premises for rectification or bottling, are used by him in the manufacture of spirits products, the loss otherwise allowable shall be reduced in a ratio equal to the ratio of the total proof gallons of such other alcoholic ingredients used, to the total proof gallons of all alcoholic ingredients used in the finished products. When ineligible spirits (spirits not withdrawn directly from bond on payment or determination of tax by the proprietor of bottling premises) are used in the manufacture of gin and vodka in a closed system, as provided in § 201.487, the loss from the closed system otherwise allowable shall be reduced in a ratio equal to the ratio of the total proof gallons of the ineligible spirits entered into the closed system, to the total proof gallons of all spirits entered into such system.

§ 201.487 Losses in manufacture of gin and vodka.

Where gin or vodka is manufactured on bottling premises by the proprietor who withdrew the spirits from bond on payment or determination of tax, in a closed system (approved as such by the assistant regional commissioner), in a manner similar to that authorized for bonded premises, the proprietor may be allowed actual determined losses of spirits incurred in such manufacture in addition to being allowed the losses otherwise allowable under this subpart. The proprietor shall record the quantities of spirits entered into the closed system and the quantity of the products removed therefrom.

§ 201.488 Tentative allowances.

The proprietor may at any time during a fiscal year make claim for tentative allowance of his operating losses, as described in §§ 201.485 and 201.487, from the beginning of the fiscal year through the close of any calendar month thereof, except June. In order to determine the maximum tentative allowable operating loss through the end of any month (within the limitations of § 201.485), (a) the total completions from the beginning of the fiscal year to the end of such month shall be projected at that rate for the full year, (b) the loss which would be allowable for the fiscal year on the basis of the projected completions shall be computed, and (c) such loss shall then be reduced by a quantity attributable to the fractional part of the fiscal year remaining. No claim for tentative allowance shall include any amount previously claimed. Each claim for tentative allowance filed, as provided in this section, shall be plainly marked, "Tentative Claim". Any proprietor who has filed a tentative claim for allowance of loss for any part of a fiscal year is required to file a final claim for that fiscal year or the portion of that fiscal year that he was qualified to operate the plant.

§ 201.489 Losses during short-term operations.

Losses allowable to any proprietor under the provisions of § 201.485 shall not exceed the quantity which would be allowed by a tentative estimate constructed in accordance with the provisions of § 201.488 for the portion of the fiscal year that such proprietor was qualified to operate the plant. Each alternating proprietor shall, when not considered as one proprietor under § 201.490, show in his claim the exact number of days (or calendar months, if complete) he was qualified to operate the bottling premises during the period covered by the claim. The maximum amount of loss allowance shall be limited to an amount proportionate to that which would have been allowed for the full fiscal year at the rate of loss and the rate of completions prevailing in his operations during the pertinent period. Where the period of qualification is other than a calendar month or months, computations shall be based on the exact number of days involved and on a year of 365 days. Where the bottling facilities are qualified and operated alternately for bottling spirits in bond and bottling spirits after withdrawal from bond on payment or determination of tax, the bottling premises, for purposes of computing loss allowances, shall be considered to have remained qualified throughout any periods during which operations were temporarily suspended for bottling-in-bond activities.

§ 201.490 Affiliated or subsidiary corporation.

Where a corporation and any of its affiliated or subsidiary corporations are qualified for successive operations at the same bottling premises, the several corporations may make a joint application to the assistant regional commissioner for permission to be treated as one proprietor for the purpose of computing the quantities of spirits lost through the various causes described in §§ 201.482 and 201.487, and filing claims for abatement, remission, credit, or refund of tax thereon. The application shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is executed under the penalties of perjury and shall set forth the names of the corporations, including affiliates and subsidiaries, making the application, their relationship, the purpose of the application, and the name of the corporation in which reports and claims shall be filed. Any changes in the facts or conditions set forth in the approved application shall necessitate the filing of a new application and approval thereof. As used in this section "affiliated or subsidiary corporations" means corporations of "an affiliated group" as defined in section 1504, I.R.C., and parent and subsidiary corporations where the parent corporation owns stock representing more than 50 percent of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the subsidiary corporation entitled to vote (not including stock which is entitled to vote only on default of payment of dividends or other special circumstances).

§ 201.491 Claims and supporting data.

Any claim filed under § 201.45(d) shall be accompanied and supported by Form 2611 to cover the computation of the losses described in §§ 201.485 and 201.487, as applicable. The final claim for operational losses, as described in §§ 201.485 and 201.487, shall be filed within 6 months from the close of the fiscal year. Any claim filed under § 201.45(c) to cover losses described in § 201.484, shall be filed within 6 months from the date of the loss.

(72 Stat. 1323; 26 U.S.C. 5008)

Any proprietor intending to file claim under § 201.45(d) shall before beginning business on the first business day of the first period for which he intends to file claim, and at the close of the last business day of each period for which any such claim is to be filed, take an inventory of all alcoholic ingredients that have been dumped for use in the production of spirits products and which are in process (i.e., those which are not "completions" as defined in § 201.11). The proprietor shall show, in the record of such inventory, the contents of each container in proof gallons, and as to each container, whether the contents are (a) spirits withdrawn by him from bond directly to his bottling premises for rectification or bottling, as provided in this part, or which are otherwise eligible for loss allowance by reason of the provisions of section 5008(c)(5), I.R.C., (b) other spirits, (c) wines which have been dumped for use in the manufacture of distilled spirits products, or (d) a mixture of such spirits or wines with each other, or with alcoholic flavoring or blending ingredients. The record of any inventory taken, under this section, for the first business day of the first period for which a proprietor intends to file a claim shall show as to paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section the proof gallons of each component comprising the contents of each container. The proprietor shall record in similar detail the quantities of alcoholic ingredients on hand which are not in process. The proprietor shall, at least three days in advance, advise the assigned officer of the date and time he will take any inventory under this section.

§ 201.493 Applicability of loss provisions.

The provisions of this subpart relating to allowance of loss of spirits withdrawn from bond for rectification or bottling apply in respect of spirits withdrawn from bond on payment or determination of tax on or after July 1, 1959. Such provisions shall also apply in respect of losses occurring on and after July 1, 1959, and after dumping for rectification or bottling, of spirits withdrawn from bond prior to July 1, 1959, which have not been bottled after withdrawal from bond, and such spirits shall be considered as having been withdrawn from bond on payment or determination of tax by the proprietor of the bottling premises at which the spirits are, or have been, dumped for rectification or bottling. Distilled spirits on bottling premises on July 1, 1959, which were withdrawn from bond before that date, and which were not dumped for rectification or bottling before that date, are not eligible for loss allowance on losses occurring before such dumping, and shall be maintained in a separate account. Likewise, distilled spirits withdrawn from bond before July 1, 1959, which are brought onto bottling premises on or after that date, are not eligible for loss allowance on losses occurring before such dumping, and such spirits shall also be maintained in a separate account until dumped.

§ 201.494 Gauge of spirits.

Where spirits are gauged to determine (a) losses as provided by § 201.484, (b) losses as provided by § 201.485 which occur before dumping, (c) quantities to be dumped for rectification or bottling on or after July 1, 1959, when the spirits were withdrawn from bond before such date, (d) quantities of ineligible spirits dumped for rectification or bottling, or (e) quantities entered into or removed from the closed system, as provided in § 201.487, such gauge shall be made by the proprietor by weight and proof unless the assistant regional commissioner approves another method of gauging.

Subpart P—Containers and Marks and Brands

Containers

Proprietors shall use for any purpose of containing, storing, transferring, conveying, removing, or withdrawing spirits or denatured spirits under this part only containers which are authorized by, or under the provisions of, this part for such purpose, and a container so authorized will be deemed to be an approved container for such purpose. In addition to the containers specifically authorized by this part for spirits or denatured spirits another container for spirits or denatured spirits may be used for a particular purpose under this part, when authorized by the Director on a finding by him that the use of the container will afford protection to the revenue equal to or greater than that afforded by the containers specifically authorized by this part, and that the use will not cause administrative difficulty. Where another container is so authorized by the Director, he shall prescribe the detail and manner in which such container shall be constructed, protected, marked, and branded, consistent with the provisions of this part. This subpart does not regulate or prohibit the use on plant premises of any container for purposes other than containing alcoholic substances.

§ 201.502 Containers of 1 gallon or less.

The provisions of Subpart K of this part govern the containers to be used in bottling spirits in bond under section 5233, I.R.C., and bottling alcohol on bonded premises under section 5235, I.R.C. The provisions of Subpart N of this part govern the bottling of spirits and wines on bottling premises. Denatured spirits may be filled on bonded premises into metal or glass containers of a capacity of 1 gallon or less. Liquor bottles shall not be used for bottling denatured spirits. Spirits in bottles of a capacity of 1 gallon or less, except anhydrous spirits and spirits to be withdrawn from bond free of tax, are deemed to be for nonindustrial use.

Spirits, denatured spirits, or wines which have been filled in containers of 1 gallon or less, in accordance with the provisions of § 201.502, shall be placed in cases so constructed as to afford reasonable protection against breakage or theft. Pursuant to the provisions of this part, cases of spirits, including denatured spirits, filled on bonded premises may be stored on bonded premises, transferred in bond, or withdrawn from bonded premises, and cases of taxpaid spirits or taxpaid wines may be received in, stored on, and removed from bottling premises.

Where two or more lots of spirits of less than 190 degrees of proof have been deposited in the same storage tank, removals from the tank shall be charged against the form on the basis that the lot with the earliest date of original entry for deposit is the first lot removed. Withdrawals from bonded storage of spirits of 190 degrees or more of proof shall be charged against the appropriate account on a first-in-warehouse first-out-warehouse, basis.

(c) Substitute records. Where the proprietor maintains other records which reflect all the required information he may, subject to the approval of the assistant regional commissioner, maintain such other records in lieu of the files required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section. [Interpretation 22]

PART 362—REGULATIONS FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE FEDERAL INSECTICIDE, FUNGICIDE, AND RODENTICIDE ACT

Interpretation With Respect to Pesticides (Economic Poisons) Containing Thallium Compounds Intended for Household Use

Thallium sulfate is a slow-acting cumulative poison which is dangerous to humans and warm-blooded animals both by ingestion and by skin absorption. Dissolved in water or mixed into baits, it has been used for many years as a rodenticide and insecticide. The baits may be sweetened syrups or products containing fatty substances such as peanut butter, solids such as doughnut or cake crumbs, cereals, or grains, all likely to be eaten by children or pets who may mistake them for food. The Department of Agriculture is concerned over the growing number of cases of accidental poisoning from the handling or use of thallium sulfate as a pesticide when mixed in high percentages with edible baits such as those cited, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for March 26, 1960, notice that it was considering the issuance of an interpretation with respect to the labeling of pesticides (economic poisons) containing thallium compounds intended for household use.

No objections to the publication of such an interpretation were submitted. Therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in me by § 362.3 of the regulations (7 CFR 362.3) under the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act (61 Stat. 163; 7 U.S.C. 135–135k), Interpretation 22 with respect to pesticides (economic poisons) containing thallium compounds intended for household use is hereby issued as § 362.120 of Part 362, Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations, to read as follows:

§ 362.120 Interpretation with respect to pesticides (economic poisons) containing thallium compounds intended for household use.

(a) Composition. (1) These products usually contain thallium sulfate (Tl_2SO_4) uniformly dispersed in a water solution or a bait substance in the form of syrup, paste, or solid (crumbs). The syrups usually contain at least 20 percent of sugar, including various amounts of honey, molasses, or other saccharids. Insecticidally attractive bait solids are frequently cake crumbs or crumbs from bakeries. Baits also include fatty substances, such as peanut butter, lard, or vegetable shortening alone or with sweetened substances or cereals. Occasionally such cereals as corn meal or dried bread crumbs will be used alone, or with a low percentage of mineral oil added to reduce dusting.

(2) High-percentage baits containing thallium sulfate are extremely hazardous to persons using them as well as to pets, children, and other persons who may frequent the baited area. These hazards are particularly aggravated when such baits are exposed in open containers. Children and pets are quite likely to mistake these products for food because of their palatable nature. In view of these hazards and the serious dangers which are inherent in the use of high-percentage formulas of thallium sulfate as household pesticides, including the poisoning of children, no product of this type may contain more than 1.25 percent of thallium sulfate, or 1.0 percent of thallium calculated as the metallic element.

(b) Ingredient statement. (1) Since all formulations containing thallium compounds which are acceptable for registration are regarded as highly toxic within the meaning of § 362.8 for the enforcement of the Act, the following form of ingredient statement is required:

Active ingredient: Thallium sulfate	---%
Inert ingredients	---%
Total	100%

(2) The correct figures should be entered in the blank spaces. All applications for registration should include a statement of the active and inert ingredients, including a full description of the bait substances.

(c) Directions for use.—(1) General. The directions should provide that the bait containers be closely spaced in the areas where ants, cockroaches, or other insect pests are observed. The baits may be used in their original containers, or placed in such other containers as will dispense the liquid syrup, paste, or solid, and render it freely available to the pests concerned. It is essential that the ants and other pests find the baits and feed on them freely if effective control is to be obtained. When properly placed, these products may also have considerable value against rats and mice, but for effective results all other food must be protected in order to force these pests to feed on the poison baits. In all cases, the need for good housekeeping practices should be emphasized. Extreme care should be taken to place baits in locations inaccessible to children and pets. Products labeled with general claims for effectiveness against ants and roaches in the household must contain bait substances that are attractive to these pests that feed on sweetened as well as fatty foods. Evidence of the practical value of the formulations must be furnished when new or unusual mixtures are proposed.

(2) Particular pests.—(i) Ants and roaches. Products intended for the control of ants and the smaller varieties of roaches in human dwellings, or in the vicinity of human dwellings, may be marketed in sealed containers which must be perforated before they can be used as baits against these insects. Small dispensing bottles with a cap capable of perforation, small metal bait cans, 2½ or 3" in diameter, and ¼ to ½" thick, or other sealed containers which can be perforated are acceptable. All containers of this type should be so constructed as to be tightly sealed and not easily opened, except for entrance holes for the ants or other small insect pests. The directions for use in each case must provide for suitable perforation in order to permit the entry of the ants, or such other small insects as can be attracted to the bait. Directions for perforations large enough to permit the entry of rodents or large insects will not be acceptable for such sealed baits. Claims for use against rats, mice, or large insects are not acceptable for this type of package.

(ii) Rats, mice, roaches, and ants. (a) Liquids and solid baits sold in containers which can be opened for separate dispensing of the contents are usually employed in the control of rats and mice, and in some cases may also be effective against roaches, waterbugs, and ants. Evidence should be submitted with the application for registration that the particular substance employed as a bait is palatable to the pests to be controlled by the product. Since thallium remains in the bodies of the pests killed by these baits, secondary poisoning is possible, and dead roaches should be swept up, and dead rats and mice picked up and carefully disposed of by burning or burying deeply. Uneaten baits should be picked up carefully and disposed of in a similar manner.

(b) The presence of substances such as coarse wood sawdust or quassia chips as a replacement for a small portion of food items used as baits in products of this kind, to reduce their attractiveness to children and pets, or the use of an effective percentage of antimony potassium tartrate, an emetic, in the bait would be taken into account in considering the acceptability for registration of a product in this type of package.

(d) Precautionary labeling. The following precautionary labeling will be required as a part of the label for all products which are otherwise acceptable for registration. The label should bear the word "POISON" (in red) on a contrasting background, the skull and crossbones, and the following antidote and warning statements:

Antidote: Give a tablespoonful of salt in a glass of warm water and repeat until vomit fluid is clear. Have victim lie down and keep warm. Call a physician immediately!

Warning: Cumulative Poison! Absorbed through the skin. Do not get in eyes, on skin, or on clothing. Wash thoroughly after handling. Keep children and domestic animals away from baited areas and burn or bury all pests killed.

No claims for safety or non-toxicity are acceptable for thallium baits.

(e) Registration. Applications for the registration of thallium baits must clearly indicate the packaging to be used if the bait is intended for general marketing to the public. In the case of sealed containers intended for the control of ants and other small crawling insects in the household (paragraph (c)(2)(i) of this section), the information furnished should include the precautions which will be taken to seal the container, yet permit the entry of ants and other small insects. All applications for registration should include duplicate copies of all labels, circulars, or other literature which may be associated with or accompany the product at any time as long as it remains in channels of trade. Complete information concerning the composition of the product should also be furnished with the application. Consultation with Pesticides Regulation Branch staff specialists is available at all times in order to eliminate possible misunderstanding.

Effective date. The foregoing interpretation is made effective 90 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER as to all products of this type which were registered prior to the date of such publication. The foregoing interpretation is made effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER as to all household pesticides containing thallium compounds which are offered for registration after such publication.

Director, Plant Pest Control Division, Agricultural Research Service.

Suspension of Effectiveness of Interpretation With Respect to Warning, Caution, and Antidote Statements Required To Appear on Labels of Economic Poisons

On May 7, 1960, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 4073), effective upon publication, a document amending interpretations 18, Revision 1 (7 CFR 362.116) with reference to the warning, caution, and antidote statements required to appear on the labels of economic poisons containing parathion and certain related chemicals under the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act, as amended (7 U.S.C. 135 et seq.). The changes set forth in the amendment had been proposed by representatives of the affected agricultural chemicals industry and it was understood that they would be acceptable to said industry. Representatives of the industry have requested, however, that the changed provisions be held in abeyance pending opportunity for submission of views concerning them.

Therefore, under all the circumstances, and pursuant to § 362.3 of the regulations under the Act (7 CFR 362.3), the effectiveness of said amendment of Interpretation 18, Revision 1, is hereby suspended.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 27th day of June 1960.

PART 728—WHEAT

SUBPART—1960 MARKETING YEAR

DETERMINATION OF COUNTY NORMAL YIELDS

The regulations contained in § 728.1008 are issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and govern the determination of county normal yields of wheat for 1960, including the appraisal of yields for years in the ten-year period used in determining county normal yields for which the data are not available, or in which there were no actual yields.

Prior to preparing the regulations in § 728.1008, public notice (24 F.R. 1255) was given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act. No data, views, or recommendations pertaining to the regulations in § 728.1008 were submitted pursuant to such notice.

§ 728.1008 Determination of the county normal yields for the 1960 crop of wheat.

(a) A county normal yield shall be determined for each wheat-producing county except counties in States designated by the Secretary as being outside the commercial wheat-producing area. The county normal yield for 1960 shall be determined on the basis of the average of the yields per harvested acre of wheat for the county during the ten calendar years, 1950 through 1959, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions and trends in yields. In adjusting for abnormal weather conditions: (1) If the yield for the crop for any year of the ten-year period 1950 through 1959 is less than 75 per centum of the average of the remaining nine years, such year shall be eliminated in calculating the normal yield per acre; (2) if the yield for the crop for any year of the ten-year period is determined to be abnormally low due to abnormal weather conditions, and is 75 per centum or more of the average of the remaining nine years, such yield shall be adjusted by substituting therefor the average yield for the years remaining after the elimination of any of the annual yields required to be eliminated under the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; (3) (i) if the yield for the crop for any year is determined to be abnormally high due to abnormal weather conditions, such yield shall be adjusted by substituting therefor 125 per centum of the average yield for the years remaining after the elimination of any of the annual yields required to be eliminated under the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; (ii) if five or more years of the ten-year period are eliminated as required under the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, and it is determined that the yield for any other year is abnormally high due to abnormally favorable weather conditions, and that the adjusted yield as determined under the provisions of subdivision (i) of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph is inappropriate because of the elimination of five or more years of the ten-year period, the yield for such year shall be adjusted by substituting therefor 128 per centum of the unadjusted ten-year average yield.

(b) The adjustment for trend in yields shall be made by averaging the ten-year average of the annual yields as adjusted for abnormal weather conditions as described above with the average of the annual yields for the five-year period, 1955–59 inclusive, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions as described above, giving equal weight to each. No adjustment for trend shall be made in those counties in which it is determined that due to abnormally unfavorable weather conditions it is impossible to determine if there has been any trend in yields for the county.

(c) (1) If for any year of the ten-year period 1950 through 1959 the yield data are not available, or there was no actual yield, the yield for such year shall be appraised, taking into consideration the yields for years for which data are available and the yield for such year in nearby or adjacent counties or crop reporting districts recognized by the Agricultural Marketing Service, in which the production of wheat is similar.

(2) In those counties in which the production of wheat is partially on irrigated land, partially on summer fallow land, and partially on continuous cropping land, a normal yield computed in accordance with the method described above shall be determined for the land devoted to irrigation, summer fallow, and continuous cropping cultural practices, respectively. The normal yield for the land devoted to each of these practices shall be averaged, using for weights the latest data available as to the acreage devoted to each practice.

(d) County Normal Yields are as follows:

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Plum Order 11]

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

Regulation by Size

§ 936.647 Plum Order 11.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the varieties hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001-1011) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than the date hereinafter specified. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until the date hereinafter set forth on which an open meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof, to consider the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about the effective date hereof; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; the provisions of this section are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee; and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such plums and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof. Such committee meeting was held on June 20, 1960.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 3, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., November 1, 1960, no shipper shall ship any package or container of Sugar or Diamond plums, unless:

(i) Such plums are of a size that, when packed in a standard basket, they will pack at least a 5 x 5 standard pack and will have a net weight of not less than twenty-seven (27) pounds: Provided, That, not to exceed ten (10) percent, by count, of the packages or containers in any lot may fail to meet such net weight requirement; and

(ii) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in such package or container do not vary more than one-fourth (¼) inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) When used in this section, "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for Plums and Prunes (Fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1537 of this title); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "diameter" shall mean the distance through the widest portion of the cross section of a plum at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(3) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Dated: June 27, 1960.

§ 936.654 Bartlett Pear Order 1.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Bartlett Pear Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of Bartlett pears, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than July 1, 1960. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, Bartlett pears must await the development of the crop and adequate information thereon was not available to the Bartlett Pear Commodity Committee until June 23, 1960; recommendation as to the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such pears was made at the meeting of said committee on June 23, 1960, after consideration of all available information relative to the supply and demand conditions for such pears, at which time the recommendation and supporting information were submitted to the Department; shipments of the current crop of such pears are expected to begin on or about July 1, 1960; and this section, insofar as practicable, should be applicable to all shipments of such pears in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 1, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., January 1, 1961, no shipper shall ship any box or container of Bartlett pears unless:

(i) All such pears grade not less than U.S. No. 2;

(ii) At least 80 percent, by count, of the pears contained in any box or container grade at least U.S. No. 1, with the following exceptions: (a) Not to exceed 10 percent, by count, of such pears in any box or container may be damaged but not seriously damaged by hail; and (b) such pears may fail to be fairly well formed only because of short shape but shall not be seriously misshapen; and

(iii) All such pears are of a size not smaller than the size known commercially as size 165.

(2) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of Bartlett pears. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

(c) Definitions. (1) Terms used in the amended marketing agreement and order shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in said amended marketing agreement and order.

(2) "Size 165" means Bartlett pears of a size which (i) when packed in a standard pear box will pack, in accordance with the requirements prescribed for a standard pack, 165 pears in said box with the twenty-two smallest pears weighing not less than five and three-quarter pounds, or (ii) when packed in containers other than the standard pear box will not pass through a rigid ring 2⅜ inches in diameter: Provided, That not to exceed 5 percent, by count, of the pears in any such container may be not to exceed ⅛ inch smaller than said diameter requirement but the twenty-two smallest pears shall not weigh less than five and three-quarter pounds.

(3) "Standard pear box" means the container so designated in section 828.3 of the Agricultural Code of California.

(4) "U.S. No. 1," "U.S. No. 2," "fairly well formed," "seriously misshapen," "damage," "seriously damaged," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as when used in the United States Standards for Pears (Summer and Fall), §§ 51.1260–51.1278 of this title.

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Agency

[Reg. Docket No. 65; Reg. No. SR–436A]

PART 40—SCHEDULED INTERSTATE AIR CARRIER CERTIFICATION AND OPERATION RULES

PART 41—CERTIFICATION AND OPERATION RULES FOR SCHEDULED AIR CARRIER OPERATIONS OUTSIDE THE CONTINENTAL LIMITS OF THE UNITED STATES

PART 42—IRREGULAR AIR CARRIER AND OFF-ROUTE RULES

Airborne Weather Radar Equipment Requirements for Airplanes Carrying Passengers; Special Civil Air Regulation

Special Civil Air Regulation SR–436, effective February 15, 1960 (25 F.R. 167), as amended by Amendment No. 1[1] (25 F.R. 1987), requires the installation of airborne weather radar equipment in most of the transport category airplanes used for the carriage of passengers under Parts 40, 41, or 42 of the Civil Air Regulations. Other provisions of the operation and airworthiness rules require dual sources of electrical power for such required equipment.

In regard to the requirement for dual sources of electrical power, airborne weather radar equipment uses approximately 500 to 700 VA (voltamperes) of [1] No distribution was made of this amendment. It corrected an inadvertent error in SR–436 by adding the word "radar" between the words "weather" and "is" in the first sentence of section 2a.

115 volt AC power. Airplanes which generate direct current (DC) power obtain alternating current (AC) power from power converters generally known as inverters. Inasmuch as some instruments and other equipment require AC power, transport category airplanes which basically generate DC power presently are required to have 2 inverters to supply dual power to required AC-powered equipment.

Airborne weather radar equipment uses a large portion of the output capability of the typical airplane inverter. To accommodate weather radar, prior to the promulgation of SR–436, the various AC power loads were divided between the two existing inverters in such manner that the weather radar could be turned off in the event of a single inverter failure. The remaining inverter would supply the AC power for required instruments and equipment, consistent with the dual power source requirement in the operating and airworthiness rules.

When airborne weather radar became required equipment, the installation described above would not provide for dual power sources for both the airborne weather radar and the required AC-powered instruments and equipment. To comply with the dual power requirement, the installation of an additional inverter (with suitable switching, failure indicators, and metering) would be necessary, and such installation would involve extensive modifications to all airplanes which generate DC power. In addition, for most, if not all, 2-engine airplanes equipped with 2 DC generators, the installation of an additional inverter would not fully satisfy the dual power source supply requirement, since in the event of a generator failure the combined electrical load of the weather radar and other required equipment would overload the remaining DC generator, irrespective of the number of inverters installed on the airplane.

In reconsidering the requirement for dual electrical power supply for airborne weather radar equipment, the Federal Aviation Agency recognizes the difficult engineering problem involved in providing for dual power for such equipment. Consideration has also been given to the present reliability of inverters as evidenced by the satisfactory use of airborne radar by the airlines with the single inverter installation. Furthermore, SR–436 requires the operator to establish procedures for the continuance of flight when the weather radar becomes inoperative during en route operations.

In view of the above, present section 5 of SR–436 is being deleted and a new section 5 is being added to permit the installation of airborne weather radar equipment which is not provided with an alternate electrical power supply.

This superseding Special Civil Air Regulation incorporates into one document all of the provisions of SR–436, as amended herein and by Amendment No. 1. Since this superseding Special Civil Air Regulation, which is substantively the same as SR–436, imposes no additional burden on any person and relieves a restriction, the Administrator finds that notice and public procedure are unnecessary and that good cause exists for making this regulation effective on less than 30 days' notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following Special Civil Air Regulation is hereby adopted:

1. Airborne weather radar equipment requirement. After the dates specified, the following transport category airplanes shall not be used for the carriage of passengers under the provisions of Parts 40, 41, or 42 of the Civil Air Regulations, unless approved airborne weather radar equipment is installed in such airplanes:

(a) July 1, 1960, for all turbine-powered airplanes certificated under the transport category rules.

(b) January 1, 1961, for the airplane types listed below:

Douglas DC–7 Series,
Douglas DC–6 Series, and
Lockheed 1049 and 1649 Series.

(c) January 1, 1962, for all airplanes certificated under the transport category rules, except C–46 type airplanes.

NOTE: Airplanes subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section include, but are not limited to, the following types: Boeing 377; Convair 240, 340, and 440; Lockheed 049 and 749; Martin 202 and 404; and Douglas DC–4.

2. Schedule for installation of equipment. (a) Each operator conducting passenger operations under the provisions of Parts 40, 41, or 42 of the Civil Air Regulations with transport category airplanes on which airborne weather radar is not installed, shall establish a schedule for the progressive completion of such radar installations, in accordance with the provisions of section 1 of this regulation. The schedule shall provide for the completion of all required radar installations on or before the dates specified in section 1 of this regulation, and the completion of at least 40 percent of the required installations on or before the following dates:

(1) August 1, 1960, for airplanes of the types specified in section 1(b), and

(2) February 1, 1961, for airplanes of the types specified in section 1(c).

(b) On or before July 1, 1960, a copy of the schedule required by paragraph (a) of this section shall be submitted to an authorized representative of the Administrator, together with a list of any airplanes the operator intends to discontinue using in the carriage of passengers prior to the date on which radar equipment must be installed.

3. Requirement for dispatch and continuance of flight. After the effective date specified in section 6 of this regulation, all transport category airplanes having approved airborne weather radar installed shall be operated in accordance with the following rules when used in passenger operations under Parts 40, 41, or 42:

(a) Dispatch. No airplane shall be dispatched (or flight of an airplane started under the provisions of Part 42) under IFR or night VFR conditions when current weather reports indicate thunderstorms, or other potentially hazardous weather conditions which can be detected by airborne weather radar, may reasonably be expected to be encountered along the route to be flown, unless approved airborne weather radar equipment installed in the airplane is in a satisfactory operating condition.

(b) En route. In the event the airborne weather radar becomes inoperative en route, the airplane shall be operated in accordance with the instructions and procedures specified in the operations manual for such occurrence. After the date specified by section 1 of this regulation for the mandatory installation of approved airborne weather radar on the type of airplane involved, such instructions and procedures shall meet with the approval of an authorized representative of the Administrator.

4. Exceptions. The provisions of this regulation shall not apply to those airplanes used solely within the States of Alaska or Hawaii, or during all-cargo, training, test, or ferry flights.

5. Electrical power supply. Contrary provisions of the Civil Air Regulations notwithstanding, an alternate electrical power supply need not be provided for airborne weather radar equipment.

6. Effective date. This Special Civil Air Regulation shall become effective on June 30, 1960, and supersedes Special Civil Air Regulation No. SR–436.

SUBCHAPTER F—QUARANTINE, INSPECTION, LICENSING

PART 73—BIOLOGIC PRODUCTS

Purity Standards

On January 5, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making with respect to the licensing of biological products was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 61) inviting any interested parties to present written views or arguments respecting the proposed amendments there published.

Several comments and suggestions have been received from manufacturers of licensed products relating to the proposed revision of the prescribed purity test. All views expressed have been carefully considered. On the basis of these and other considerations, it is deemed necessary, in order to assure the continued safety, purity and potency of biological products, to issue at this time the following amendments to Part 73, and in the public interest to make the amendment in section 1 effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER and the amendment in section 2, revising § 73.74, effective 60 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 73.1 [Amendment]

1. Amend § 73.1 (r) to read as follows:

(r) "Purity" means relative freedom from extraneous matter in the finished product, whether or not harmful to the recipient or deleterious to the product. "Purity" includes but is not limited to relative freedom from residual moisture or other volatile substances and pyrogenic substances.

2. Amend § 73.74 to read as follows:

§ 73.74 Purity.

Products shall be free from extraneous material. In addition, products shall be tested as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(a) Test for residual moisture. Each lot of dried product shall be tested for residual moisture and other volatile substances.

(1) Procedure. The test for dried products shall consist of measuring the maximum loss of weight in a weighed sample equilibrated over anhydrous P_2O_5 at a pressure of not more than one mm. of mercury, and at a temperature of 20° to 30° C. for as long as it has been established is sufficient to result in a constant weight.

(2) Test results; standard to be met. The residual moisture and other volatile substances shall not exceed one percent except that for Thrombin, Fibrinogen, Streptokinase, Streptokinase - Streptodornase, and Anti-Influenza Virus Serum for the Hemagglutination-Inhibition Test, they shall not exceed three percent.

(b) Test for pyrogenic substances. Each lot of any product intended for use by injection shall be tested for pyrogenic substances by intravenous injection into rabbits as provided in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph: Provided, That notwithstanding any other provision of this part, the test for pyrogenic substances is not required for the following products: Products containing formed blood elements; Single Donor Plasma (Human); Normal Horse Serum; Normal Rabbit Serum; bacterial, viral and rickettsial vaccines and antigens; toxoids; toxins; allergenic extracts; venoms; diagnostic substances and trivalent organic arsenicals.

(1) Test dose. The test dose for each rabbit shall be at least three milliliters per kilogram of body weight of the rabbit and also shall be at least equivalent proportionately, on a body weight basis, to the maximum single human dose recommended, except that: (i) Regardless of the human dose recommended, the test dose per kilogram of body weight of each rabbit shall be, at least one milliliter for immune globulins derived from human blood, at least three milliliters for Normal Human Plasma, and at least 30 milligrams for Fibrinogen (Human); (ii) for Streptokinase, Streptokinase-Streptodornase and Radioiodinated (I^{131}) Serum Albumin (Human) the test dose shall be at least equivalent proportionately on a body weight basis to the maximum single human dose recommended.

(2) Procedure. Products shall be tested for freedom from pyrogenic substances by intraveneous injection of the test dose into three or more rabbits in overt good health and by recording for each rabbit a control temperature taken within one hour prior to injection, and three additional temperatures taken one, two, and three hours after injection. For purposes of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, if there is no temperature increase over the control temperature (i.e. where the temperature remains unchanged or falls), the temperature rise shall be considered as zero. If there is an increase in temperature over the control temperature, the temperature rise shall be the difference between the highest of the three hourly readings and the control temperature reading.

(3) Test results; standards to be met. The results recorded for all rabbits used in all tests of a lot of a product shall be included in determining whether the standard for purity is met. The product fails to meet test requirements if one-half or more of all rabbits show a temperature rise of 0.6° C. or more or if the average temperature rise of all rabbits is 0.5° C. or more.

(c) Different tests equal or superior. A different test for residual moisture may be performed provided that prior to its performance the manufacturer submits data which the Surgeon General finds adequate to establish that the different test is equal or superior to the test described in paragraph (a) of this section and makes the finding a matter of official record.

(Sec. 215, 58 Stat. 690, as amended; 42 U.S.C. 216. Interpret or apply sec. 351, 58 Stat. 702, as amended; 42 U.S.C. 262)

Title 46—SHIPPING

Chapter I—Coast Guard, Department of the Treasury

SUBCHAPTER A—PROCEDURES APPLICABLE TO THE PUBLIC

[CGFR 60-44]

PART 2—VESSEL INSPECTIONS

Subpart 2.75—Approvals of Safety Equipment, Materials and Installations and Qualifications for Construction Personnel

REVISED PROCEDURES FOR APPROVALS

The Commandant is required by law or regulations to approve certain items of safety equipment, materials or installations before such items may be installed or used on vessels subject to Coast Guard inspection or on certain other described vessels, motorboats, etc. The amendments in this document revise and bring up-to-date certain policies, practices and procedures with respect to approvals of specific items of safety equipment, materials, or installations. The revised procedures are intended to expedite the granting of approvals of safety equipment, materials, or installations found to be in compliance with Coast Guard requirements.

The revised requirements provide for certificates of approval to be issued to certain manufacturers of safety equipment, materials, or installations which have met Coast Guard requirements. Such certificates of approval serve as evidence that specific approvals have been granted for the items specifically described therein. In addition notices for public information are published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The approval shall be valid for a period of 5 years, subject to suspension or cancellation by proper authority, but the period of validity will normally be computed from the date on the certificate of approval rather than the date a notice of approval was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It has been determined necessary that specific items of equipment, materials, or installations must meet specification requirements prior to being eligible for approval, and these standards are set forth in the regulations in this chapter or in specifications, copies of which may be obtained from the Commandant (MMT). For convenience a specification usually sets forth the details specifically applying to the manufacture of the item, such as materials required, construction, descriptive plans, etc., as well as procedures to follow in obtaining approval (if required). It should be noted that an approval applies only to the described item when it is actually manufactured in accordance with the details set forth in applicable laws, regulations, and other requirements as described in the approval. If an item is manufactured which does not in all respects meet the applicable requirements, it is not an approved item and shall be considered accordingly by the Coast Guard. The Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, and/or the District Commander (depending upon which officer is informed first) is authorized and will immediately suspend any approval upon a finding that the item manufactured does not meet the applicable requirements. Such officer will also require the holder to surrender the certificate of approval (if any), and direct the holder to cease claiming the defective items manufactured are Coast Guard approved, pending a final decision from the Commandant in the matter.

Under the direction of the Commandant, the Chief, Office of Merchant Marine Safety, is hereby delegated (according to regulations and instructions) to exercise all necessary actions related to granting, suspending, or revoking Commandant's Approvals of safety equipment, materials, or installations as contemplated in the administration of the navigation and vessel inspection laws. When required public notifications of actions taken will also be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Because the amendments in this document state policies followed for many years or revise practices and procedural requirements, it is hereby found that compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act (respecting notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedures thereon, and effective date requirements thereof), is deemed to be unnecessary.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Order Nos. 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F.R. 5261), 167-14, dated June 18, 1956 (21 F.R. 4894), 167-15, dated January 3, 1955 (20 F.R. 840), 167-20, dated June 18, 1956 (21 F.R. 4894), CGFR 56-28, dated July 24, 1956 (21 F.R. 7605), and 167-38, dated October 26, 1959 (24 F.R. 8857), to promulgate regulations in accordance with the statutes cited with the regulations below, the amendments in this document are prescribed and shall become effective upon the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. Present § 2.75-1 Approvals is canceled.

2. Present § 2.75-10 Requirements and tests is canceled.

3. Subpart 2.75 is amended by inserting new §§ 2.75-1 to 2.75-40, inclusive, reading as follows:

AUTHORITY: §§ 2.75-1 to 2.75-40 issued under R.S. 4405, as amended, 4462, as amended, 46 U.S.C. 375, 416. Interpret or apply R.S. 4488, as amended, 4491, as amended, secs. 1, 2, 49 Stat. 1544, as amended, sec. 17, 54 Stat. 166, as amended, sec. 3, 54 Stat. 346, as amended, sec. 4(e), 67 Stat. 462, sec. 3, 68 Stat. 675, sec. 3, 70 Stat. 152; 46 U.S.C. 481, 489, 367, 526p, 1333, 43 U.S.C. 1333(e), 50 U.S.C. 198, 46 U.S.C. 390b.

§ 2.75-1 Approvals.

(a) Certain navigation and vessel inspection laws, or regulations in this chapter or in 33 CFR Chapter I, require the Commandant's approval before specific types of safety equipment, materials, or installations may be installed or used on vessels subject to Coast Guard inspection, or on other described vessels, motorboats, artificial islands, and fixed structures.

(b) The Commandant's approvals are issued to persons, partnerships, companies, or corporations who offer for sale specific items of safety equipment, materials, or installations, or intend them for their own or others' use. These approvals are intended to provide a control over the quality of such approved items. The Commandant's approvals apply only to those items constructed or installed in accordance with applicable requirements, and the details as described in the documents granting specific approval. If a specific item when manufactured does not comply with these details, then it is not considered to be approved and the approval issued does not apply to such modified item. For example, if an item is manufactured with changes in design or material not previously approved, the approval does not apply to such modified item. The failure to comply with applicable requirements and details specified in the approval subjects the holder to immediate suspension of approval as described in § 2.75-40, and if necessary, to a public hearing seeking withdrawal of approval and removal of all such items from use or installation as provided in § 2.75-50.

(c) The Commandant's approvals are issued to qualified holders in the form of certificates of approval (Form CGHQ-10030), by appropriate descriptions and identification in documents filed with the Office of the Federal Register and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or by letters, or by appropriate markings on drawings, plans, etc. Under the direction of the Commandant, the Chief, Office of Merchant Marine Safety, is hereby delegated (with the right of further delegation) to exercise the necessary actions relating to the granting, suspending or revoking of approvals for specific items of safety equipment, materials, or installations required by law or the regulations in this chapter or in 33 CFR Chapter I to have the Commandant's approval.

(d) The approvals granted to holders qualifying under the regulations in this chapter or in specifications, copies of which may be obtained from the Commandant (MMT), and to which official Coast Guard numbers are assigned, will be in the form of certificates of approval. Unless specifically provided otherwise, the approval shall be valid for a period of five years from the date on the certificate of approval, but subject to suspension and/or cancellation if it is found the item offered, sold, or used as Coast Guard approved differs in any detail from the item as described in the certificate of approval and referenced material.

(e) A specific Commandant's approval granted to anyone, which is described in a certificate of approval, or a letter, or marked plans, etc., cannot be transferred to another without a specific prior authorization from the Commandant. Such a transfer without the Commandant's authorization normally terminates such approval.

(f) From time to time, appropriate notices of actions taken regarding approvals will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. For the information of users of approved items, a listing by names of holders of current approvals by specific items is published in a Coast Guard pamphlet CG-190, Equipment Lists.

§ 2.75-5 Certificates of approval.

(a) By direction of the Commandant, the Chief, Office of Merchant Marine Safety, will issue a certificate of approval to the manufacturer named therein, and will certify that such manufacturer has submitted satisfactory evidence that the item specified therein complies with the applicable laws and regulations, which are outlined on the reverse side of the certificate.

(b) The approval shall be in effect for a period of five years from the date on the certificate of approval unless sooner canceled or suspended by proper authority, or otherwise specifically stated in the certificate.

§ 2.75-10 Procedures for obtaining approvals.

(a) The procedural requirements for obtaining approvals of items covered by specifications and bearing official Coast Guard approval numbers are set forth in Parts 160 to 164, inclusive, of this chapter. For other items the procedural requirements are usually those described in the regulations governing such items.

(b) Applications for approvals are usually in letter form and should be addressed to the Commandant (MMT), United States Coast Guard, Washington 25, D.C. Correspondence pertaining to a particular item required to be approved should be mailed to the Commander of the Coast Guard district in which the manufacturer's plant or factory is located. When plans, drawings, test data, etc., are required to be submitted by the manufacturer, it is desired that the application identify the material being transmitted with the application.

§ 2.75-15 Requirements and tests.

(a) Approved items described in certificates of approval are usually required to meet specific requirements and/or tests, prior to obtaining the approval. Additional factory tests to determine that proper uniformity and quality controls are followed during the manufacture of the specific items may be required. These requirements governing the manufacturer in particular are set forth in the regulations in this chapter or in specifications, copies of which may be obtained from the Commandant (MMT). If the requirements are met, a certificate of approval will be issued.

(b) When the specific item described in an application, together with accompanying drawings, plans, etc., does not meet applicable requirements or fails to meet specified tests, the applicant will be notified accordingly. The Coast Guard may suggest changes in order for the item to qualify and permit the issuance of an approval.

(c) For items not covered by specification requirements in Parts 160 to 164, inclusive (Subchapter Q—Specifications) of this chapter, the requirements in the navigation and vessel inspection laws, and applicable regulations in this chapter or in 33 CFR Chapter I apply and shall be met before approvals may be issued.

§ 2.75-20 Affidavits or certifications.

(a) In the manufacture of certain items of equipment, appliances, etc., or in their installation, affidavits or certifications are required to be submitted to the Coast Guard stating that materials and/or construction used with respect thereto will comply with the applicable navigation and vessel inspection laws and regulations in this chapter or in 33 CFR Chapter I.

(b) For requirements regarding marine engineering materials or appliances, see Subpart 61.45 of Subchapter F (Marine Engineering) of this chapter.

§ 2.75-40 Suspension of approval.

(a) Whenever it is determined that a specific item is not in compliance with the applicable laws, rules, and regulations, and the requirements specified in the approval issued by the Coast Guard, the District Commander or the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, will immediately notify the holder of the approval wherein the specific item fails to meet applicable requirements. If the defects, deficiencies or variations in the item are deemed important, such officer is authorized and may immediately suspend the approval, may require the holder to surrender the certificate of approval (if any), and may direct the holder to cease claiming the defective items are Coast Guard approved, pending a final decision from the Commandant in the matter.

(b) The procedures for appealing the temporary suspension shall be those described in § 2.01-70.

SUBCHAPTER Q—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO CERTAIN VESSELS DURING EMERGENCY

[CGFR 60-49]

PART 154—WAIVERS OF NAVIGATION AND VESSEL INSPECTION LAWS AND REGULATIONS [1]

Vessels Operated by Pacific Micronesian Lines, Inc.

The Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics) in a letter to the Secretary of the Treasury dated June 15, 1960, requested a general waiver of navigation and vessel inspection laws of the United States as follows:

Each year since 1951, the Secretary of Defense has recommended waiver of the vessel inspection laws of the United States for certain vessels operating in the waters of the Trust Territory. This is to recommend a limited waiver similar to the one recommended last year.

In the interest of national defense it is requested pursuant to the provisions of Public Law 891, 81st Congress, that the requirements of the vessel inspection laws relating to licensed and unlicensed personnel, passengers' quarters, crews' quarters, lifesaving equipment and the number of passengers allowed to be carried on freight vessels be waived for the period July 1, 1960 to June 30, 1961, for vessels which are or will be operated by the Pacific Micronesian Lines, Incorporated, for the Department of the Interior in Trust Territory waters.

Section 1 of the act of December 27, 1950 (64 Stat. 1120; 46 U.S.C., note preceding 1), states in part as follows:

That the head of each department or agency responsible for the administration of the navigation and vessel-inspection laws is directed to waive compliance with such laws upon the request of the Secretary of Defense to the extent deemed necessary in the interest of national defense by the Secretary of Defense. * * *

In Federal Register Document 59-3175 published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated April 16, 1959 (24 F.R. 2912), the Secretary of Defense, the Honorable Neil McElroy, delegated to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics) full power and authority to act for and in the name of the Secretary of Defense, and to exercise the powers of the Secretary of Defense upon any and all matters concerning which the Secretary of Defense is authorized to act pursuant to Public Law 891, 81st Congress, 2d Session (64 Stat. 1120; 46 U.S.C., note preceding 1) except as delegated to the Secretary of the Army insofar as such act is related to the St. Lawrence Seaway Power Project, the St. Lawrence Seaway Navigation Project, and the Great Lakes Connecting Channels Project.

The purpose for the following waiver order designated § 154.35, as well as 33 CFR 19.35, is to waive the navigation and vessel inspection laws and regulations issued pursuant thereto which are administered by the United States Coast Guard as requested by the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics) and to publish this waiver in the FEDERAL REGISTER. It is hereby found that compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act respecting notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedures thereon, and effective date requirements thereof is impracticable and contrary to the public interest.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by an order of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury dated January 23, 1951, identified as CGFR 51-1, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated January 26, 1951 (16 F.R. 731), the following waiver order is promulgated and shall be in effect to and including June 30, 1961, unless sooner terminated by proper authority, and § 154.35 is revised as follows:

§ 154.35 Department of the Interior vessels operated by Pacific Micronesian Lines, Inc.

Pursuant to the request of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics) in a letter dated June 15, 1960, made under the provisions of section 1 of the act of December 27, 1950 (64 Stat. 1120; 46 U.S.C., note prec. 1), I hereby waive in the interest of national defense compliance with the provisions of the navigation and vessel inspection laws relating to licensed and unlicensed personnel, passenger quarters, crew quarters, lifesaving equipment, and the number of passengers allowed to be carried on freight vessels, administered by the United States Coast Guard, as well as the regulations issued thereunder and published in 33 CFR Chapter I or in this chapter, to the extent necessary to permit the operation of vessels of the Department of the Interior and now operated by Pacific Micronesian Lines, Inc., or other vessels which may be used as substitutes for such vessels, in the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, as well as between the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands and all the ports of the United States, including its territories and possessions, and foreign ports. This waiver order shall be in effect from July 1, 1960, to and including June 30, 1961, unless sooner terminated by proper authority.

Proposed Rule Making

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Bureau of Customs

[19 CFR Part 7]

CUSTOMS RELATIONS WITH INSULAR POSSESSIONS

Free Entry of Articles Manufactured or Produced in Virgin Islands and Other Insular Possessions (Except Puerto Rico) Wholly or in Part With Use of Foreign Materials

It is essential to the proper administration of section 301, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1301a), that applicants for free entry under that section understand clearly whether the processes they apply to the foreign materials used result in an article manufactured or produced in the possession concerned. It is equally essential that applicants know what records they must maintain of their operations to establish the fact of manufacture or production in the case of each shipment of each article for which free entry is claimed under section 301 and what records they must keep of the purchase price of the foreign materials used in the manufacture or production of such article and the cost of transportation of the foreign materials to the insular possession.

Therefore, notice is hereby given that under the authority of sections 301 and 624, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, it is proposed to amend § 7.8(a) of the Customs Regulations.

The proposed amendment of § 7.8(a) would require that an application shall be filed in triplicate with the Bureau of Customs, Washington 25, D.C., by the manufacturer or producer to cover each article manufactured or produced wholly or in part with the use of foreign materials for which free entry is to be claimed under section 301 and that the application shall describe adequately (1) each foreign material to be used in the manufacture or production of the article for which free entry will be claimed under section 301; (2) the condition in which the material will be imported into the insular possession concerned; and (3) whether the materials will be imported into the insular possession in circumstances constituting an entirety within the meaning of the customs laws.

The proposed amendment would also provide that the application shall set forth in detail (1) the records which will be maintained at the factory of the manufacturer or producer in the insular possession to preserve the identity of the foreign materials used in the manufacture or production of each article for which free entry will be claimed under section 301 and (2) the records which will be kept for the purpose of meeting the provisions of paragraph (d) of § 7.8, compliance with which necessitates a showing of the actual purchase price of the foreign materials used in the manufacture or production of each article for which free entry is claimed (excluding any material which at the time such article is entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, in the United States for consumption, may be imported into the United States from a foreign country, other than Cuba or the Philippine Republic, free of duty), plus the cost of transportation to such insular possession (but excluding duties and taxes, if any, assessed by the insular possession and any charges which may accrue after landing in the insular possession).

Free entry under section 301 will not be allowed until after the Bureau of Customs shall have approved the application.

The proposed amendment would further provide that the application shall also specify that if any change in the method of manufacture or production or in the manner of keeping records is to take place, a supplemental application describing such changes shall be filed with the Bureau of Customs; and that no customs Form 3229 will be presented as a basis for a claim for free entry under section 301 on articles with respect to which such changes relate until after the supplemental application shall have been approved by the Bureau of Customs.

The proposed amended regulation would provide, in addition, that before beginning manufacture or production of any lot of articles for which free entry is to be claimed under section 301, the manufacturer or producer in the insular possession shall notify the chief or assistant chief customs officer at the port of shipment in the insular possession in sufficient time to permit such officer to have such inspection and verification made at the factory before shipment is made to the United States as such officer may deem necessary for the protection of the revenue. When inspection or verification are considered unnecessary, the chief or assistant chief customs officer will so notify the manufacturer or producer in writing.

The existing provisions of § 7.8(a) would in no way be modified by the amendment and as presently written would be continued.

The terms of the proposed amendment of § 7.8(a), in tentative form, are as follows:

(a) (1) When free entry is to be claimed under section 301, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1301a), on any article manufactured or produced in and insular possession (other than Puerto Rico) wholly or in part with the use of foreign materials, the manufacturer or producer shall file with the Bureau of Customs, Washington 25, D.C., in triplicate, an application setting forth the following particulars:

(i) The name and headquarters address of the manufacturer or producer.

(ii) The location of the factory in the insular possession at which the articles will be manufactured or produced.

(iii) A full description of the imported materials which will be used.

(iv) The manner in which such materials will be stored pending their use in manufacture or production.

(v) The records which will be kept at the factory, and which will be available there for inspection by customs officers, showing (a) actual purchase price of the foreign materials (excluding any material which at the time such article is entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, in the United States for consumption, may be imported into the United States from a foreign country, other than Cuba or the Philippine Republic, free of duty), and the cost of transportation to the insular possession (but excluding duties and taxes, if any, assessed by the insular possession and any charges which may accrue after landing in the insular possession); (b) the entry number or numbers, and date or dates of entry under which each lot of such foreign materials was entered in the insular possession; (c) the manner in which each lot of foreign materials will be identified throughout storage and manufacture or production by entry number and date of entry; (d) the records which will be maintained at the factory showing, in the case of each lot of articles manufactured or produced for shipment to the United States, for which free entry will be claimed under section 301, the quantity and identity of all foreign and of each other material used, the quantity and description of each article manufactured or produced, the method of manufacture or production of each such article, and the quantity, description, and value of each by-product or waste incurred during the course of manufacture or production of each lot of articles; and (e) the marks and numbers of the cases or packages in which the articles are to be packed for shipment to the United States.

(2) Free entry shall not be allowed under section 301 on any article claimed to have been manufactured or produced in an insular possession wholly or in part with the use of foreign materials until after the Bureau of Customs has ruled that the article is a product of the insular possession entitled to free entry under section 301 if, in the case of each shipment, the value requirements of that section are met and the regulations thereunder are complied with. If free entry is desired for any article not manufactured or produced in the manner described in the application upon which the ruling of the Bureau of Customs was based, a separate application for the free entry of such article shall be submitted to the Bureau of Customs for decision.

(3) After the approval by the Bureau of Customs of an application provided for in this paragraph (a), the manufacturer shall file a statement setting forth in detail the particulars of the methods he agrees to follow and the records he agrees to keep in order to establish with respect to each shipment the details outlined in this paragraph (a). The statement shall contain an agreement that any change in such methods or records or any manufacture or production of any additional article or any modification in the method of manufacture or production of an article covered by an application filed and approved under this paragraph (a), shall be reported immediately in writing to the Bureau of Customs through the chief or assistant chief customs officer at the port of shipment. Free entry shall not be allowed under section 301 on any article with respect to which this paragraph (a) applies until the decision of the Bureau of Customs on the facts reported shall have been received.

(4) When articles coming directly into the United States from an insular possession, other than Puerto Rico, in a shipment valued over $25 are sought to be admitted free of duty under the provisions of section 301, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, relating to certain articles produced in such insular possessions,[24] there shall be filed in connection with the entry a certificate of origin covering articles shipped from insular possessions (except Puerto Rico) to the United States, customs Form 3229, signed by the chief or assistant chief customs officer at the port of shipment,[25] showing that such merchandise is the growth or product of such possession, or manufactured or produced in such possession, from materials the growth, product, or manufacture of any such possession or of the United States, or of both, which do not contain foreign materials to the value of more than 50 per centum of their total value. Such certificate shall not be required for any shipment valued at $25 or less.

Prior to the issuance of the proposed amendment, consideration will be given to any relevant data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Bureau of Customs, Washington 25, D.C., and received not later than 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. No hearing will be held.

Commissioner of Customs.

Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

[F.R. Doc. 60-6034; Filed, June 29, 1960; 8:49 a.m.]

[24] There shall be levied, collected, and paid upon all articles coming into the United States from any of its insular possessions, except Puerto Rico, the rates of duty which are required to be levied, collected, and paid upon like articles imported from foreign countries; except that all articles the growth or product of any such possession, or manufactured or produced in any such possession from materials the growth, product, or manufacture of any such possession or of the United States, or of both, which do not contain foreign materials to the value of more than 50 per centum of their total value, coming into the United States directly from any such possession, * * * shall be admitted free of duty upon compliance with such regulations as to proof of origin as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. In determining whether an article produced or manufactured in any such insular possession contains foreign materials to the value of more than 50 per centum, no material shall be considered foreign which, at the time such article is entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, in the United States for consumption, may be imported into the United States from a foreign country, other than Cuba or the Philippine Republic, free of duty. (Sec. 301, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended)

Bakersfield, Delano, Lompoc-Santa Maria, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, and Santa Maria, Calif.

1. The Commission has before it for consideration several alternative rule-making proposals relating to television channel assignments for the above-named communities in the State of California. The objective of the instant proceeding is to consider the desirability of placing all commercial television operations in Bakersfield, California, on UHF channels, thereby achieving deintermixture of the combined UHF–VHF assignments now provided for in that market.[1]

2. The underlying purposes for such action are dealt with at length in the Report and Order in Docket No. 11759, released March 25, 1960, in which the Commission took action looking toward similar deintermixture of the adjoining Fresno television market in the San Joaquin Valley.[2] The basic reasons set out in the Report and Order in Docket 11759 in support of the decision to place all commercial television in Fresno on UHF channels are applicable to Bakersfield, both because of competitive disparities between UHF and VHF operations being carried on in Bakersfield, and because the VHF signal from the Bakersfield station on Channel 10 reach into the otherwise all-UHF service areas envisaged for the Fresno stations.

3. We are of the view, for the reasons stated above, that it is desirable to consider the deintermixture of Bakersfield under the following alternative proposals:

Alternatives for Channel 10. A. Deletion of Channel 10— at this time, while reserving for future decision the alternative possible uses for that channel.

B. Reservation of Channel 10— at Bakersfield for noncommercial educational use.

C. Reassignment of Channel 10— to:
(1) Santa Barbara.
(2) Santa Maria.
(3) Lompoc-Santa Maria (on a hyphenated basis).
(4) San Luis Obispo.

Alternative possibilities for the addition of two UHF channels at Bakersfield are:

A. Assignment to Bakersfield of Channel 23— and either Channel 50+ or 51— (This would require the substitution of Channel 45— for Channel 37+ at Delano, California).

B. Assignment of Channels 45— and 51— to Bakersfield.

4. The reassignment of VHF Channel 10 to Santa Barbara or, alternatively, to Lompoc-Santa Maria, and the addition of UHF Channel 45 to Bakersfield have been suggested in the petition for rule making filed on April 20, 1960 (RM–177) by Bakersfield Broadcasting Company, KBAK–TV, Channel 29. A number of parties filed responses supporting and opposing KBAK–TV's proposals. Opponents include: Marietta Broadcasting, Inc., KERO–TV, Channel 10, Bakersfield; Key Television, Inc., KEYT, Channel 3, Santa Barbara; and KFSD, Inc., KFSD–TV, Channel 10, San Diego.[3] Proponents include Kern County Broadcasting Company, KLYD–TV, Channel 17, Bakersfield; and the American Broadcasting Company.

5. The opposing comments urge denial of the KBAK–TV petition, in general, on the grounds of potential loss of service, now provided by KERO–TV on Channel 10, to areas and populations in mountainous areas, generally to the east and southeast of Bakersfield; of differences in transmitter locations, terrain factors and competitive conditions prevailing at Bakersfield and Fresno; of potential interference to co-channel stations at Tijuana (should Channel 12 also be assigned at Santa Barbara) and San Diego, due to "ducting", "tropospheric propagation characteristics", and "average terrain" factors prevailing along the Pacific Coast between Santa Barbara, Tijuana, and San Diego; and of difficulties in accomplishing deintermixture of Bakersfield, due to the fact that Marietta may not be expected to consent to modification of its license to specify a UHF channel. The opposition of KFSD, Inc., directed mainly to the propagation characteristics alleged to exist along the Pacific Coast, purports to show increased propagation in this area through measurements made in the region in question. KFSD, Inc., however, does not indicate where interference is to be expected; the number of persons expected to lose service from such interference; or the other services available to persons residing in these areas.

6. Supporting comments allege that deintermixture of Bakersfield is required, if UHF television is to provide an optimum or successful service to the San Joaquin Valley; that the competitive conditions at Fresno and Bakersfield are identical; that the two markets are interrelated to the extent that simultaneous deintermixture of both is essential; that deintermixture of Bakersfield with Fresno will stimulate the growth of television service in the entire San Joaquin Valley; and other factors.

7. We have studied the arguments of the parties with some care. Our technical analysis of KERO–TV's contention that some 50,000 persons would lose service, in the event Channel 10 were deleted at Bakersfield, shows that it is based on theoretical projections of service for KERO–TV contrasted to present service from the present UHF stations as presumptively limited by line-of-site considerations. We find that these predictions are based on assumptions of fixed powers and the present transmitter locations for Bakersfield UHF stations. The VHF and UHF predictions, therefore, are treated differently. It appears that the actual loss of service, if any, will be limited to areas which, in fact, are sparsely populated; and that Marietta's estimate of loss of service to 50,000 persons is greatly in excess of that which would be the case with UHF stations operating at Breckenridge Mountain with increased power which, in the case of KBAK–TV, is already authorized. Moreover, predicted loss of service to and from co-channel stations in San Diego and Tijuana (in the event Channel 12 is assigned to Santa Barbara) may be lessened or obviated by the choice of transmitter locations north of Santa Barbara or by the assignment of Channel 10 to cities north of Santa Barbara, which is under review under VHF alternative proposal "C", above, or by reserving for future decision possible uses for Channel 10 in other areas, under VHF alternative proposal "A", or by reserving Channel 10 for noncommercial educational use, under VHF alternative proposal "B", above.

8. The possible use of VHF and UHF channels in the San Joaquin Valley has been under consideration for the past four years; and, in the course of our studies, we have evaluated the major arguments made by the parties in support and in opposition to the proposed deintermixture of Bakersfield. We are of the view, with all of the factors pro and con before us, that it would be in the public interest to issue the instant Notice and put to public rule making the alternative proposals set forth, above. In this way, a full opportunity will be afforded all interested parties to express their views on the matters under consideration and this will better enable the Commission to reach a final decision in the public interest. The issuance of the concurrent show cause order to Marietta Broadcasting, Inc., we also find in the public interest.

9. Reassignment of the UHF and VHF channels under consideration, to different communities, will require the consent of the Mexican Government under existing international agreements. At the appropriate time, procedures will be instituted to obtain the necessary consent of the Mexican Government to any changes which we may find to be in the public interest.

10. Pursuant to applicable procedures set out in § 1.213 of the rules, interested parties may file comments on or before July 27, 1960, and reply comments on or before August 11, 1960. All submissions by parties to this proceeding or by persons acting on behalf of such parties must be made in written comments, reply comments or other appropriate pleadings.

11. Authority for the issuance of the notice of proposed rule making is contained in sections 4 (i) and (j), 303 and 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

12. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.54 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, responses, or comments shall be filed with the Commission.

Adopted: June 23, 1960.

Released: June 27, 1960.

[F.R. Doc. 60-6048; Filed, June 29, 1960; 8:51 a.m.]

[1] Bakersfield is presently assigned Channels 10—, 17, 29, 39+. Channel 10 is presently licensed to Marietta Broadcasting, Inc., Bakersfield, California. The Commission is issuing simultaneously herewith an Order to Marietta to show cause why its license for Television Station KERO–TV should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 23—, or, alternatively, on Channel 45—.

[2] Further proceedings in Docket 11759 are being conducted pursuant to the further notice of proposed rule making, released March 25, 1960.

[3] On June 8, 1960, Bakersfield Broadcasting Company filed a reply to the responses of these parties; and we have considered the matters presented therein in reaching our decision to issue the instant notice.

[Docket No. 13610; FCC 60-734]

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS; TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

Harrisburg and Lancaster, Pa., and Other Cities

1. Notice of proposed rule making is given concerning changes in UHF channel assignments as discussed below.[1]

2. The Commission has under consideration the following proposals for changes in UHF channel assignments in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and other cities, designed to provide at Harrisburg, one or two new UHF assignments lower than Channels 55 and 71 now assigned to that city:

(a) Proposal in a "Petition for Rule Making" (RM–170) filed March 14, 1960, by WHP, Inc., licensee of UHF Station WHP–TV, Harrisburg Channel 55, to assign Channel 21 to Harrisburg instead of Channel 55, removing Channel 21 from its present assignment at Lancaster and substituting at Lancaster either: (i) Channel 55, from Harrisburg, under WHP's "Plan I," or (ii) Channel 33, from Reading, Pennsylvania (to be replaced at Reading by Channel 55), under WHP's "Plan II."

(b) Proposal advanced April 18, 1960, by Rossmoyne Corporation, permittee of UHF Station WDTV (formerly WCMB–TV), Harrisburg Channel 71 (formerly but not now in operation), in a "Statement in Support" of WHP's petition, seeking the addition of Channel 33 as well as 21 to Harrisburg, 33 to be removed from Reading and substituted for Channel 71 as the assignment of WDTV. This proposal does not involve any conflict with WHP's "Plan I," but is inconsistent with WHP's "Plan II" since it would use Channel 33 at Harrisburg instead of at Lancaster.

3. Both of these proposals involve a number of additional shifts in UHF assignments elsewhere. The channels to be deleted and added to the various communities involved, under WHP's "Plan I," WHP's "Plan II," and Rossmoyne's proposal, are as follows (offsets omitted; where no number is shown opposite a community under a particular plan, it means no change in assignments is involved):

City	WHP "Plan I"		WHP "Plan II"		Rossmoyne (supplemental to WHP "Plan I")
	Delete	Add	Delete	Add	Delete	Add
Harrisburg, Pa.	55+	21+	55+	21+		33+
Lancaster, Pa.	21+	55+	21+	33+
Dover, Del.	40	45—
Wildwood, N.J.	48—	40
Reading, Pa.			33+	55+	33+	66
Baltimore, Md.;			18	66	18
State College, Pa.					*48+	*33+
and either
Williamsport, Pa.	36—	73	36—	73
or
Williamsport, Pa.	36—	26+	36—	26+
Shinglehouse, Pa.	26+	60+	26+	60+

[1] WHP and Rossmoyne suggest that at Baltimore, which would gain Channel 66 and lose Channel 18 under two of the proposals, the unused educational reservation might be shifted from Channel 24 to Channel 66, so that the permittee on Channel 18 (WTLF) would go from 18 to 24 instead of 18 to 66.

[1] We do not consider herein certain pending petitions seeking changes in VHF assignments at Harrisburg and Lancaster, Pa.

[4] Dissenting Statement of Commissioner Cross filed as part of the original document.

4. In support of its request, WHP asserts that, aside from the basic difficulties involved in UHF–VHF competition in this area, WHP–TV is disadvantaged competitively in competing with the other operating Harrisburg station, WTPA, Channel 27, because its higher UHF channel (55) is less desirable. Rossmoyne similarly asserts that the higher UHF channels are less effective.

5. Aside from WHP–TV and WDTV, the various proposals advanced involve changes in the assignments of three UHF stations, none of which has ever gone into operation. These are WLAN–TV, Lancaster Channel 21, and WRAK–TV, Williamsport Channel 36, which would be affected under either WHP Plan I or WHP Plan II; and WTLF, Baltimore Channel 18, which would be affected under WHP Plan II and the Rossmoyne proposal. No construction has ever been completed in the case of WLAN–TV and WRAK–TV, and the permittees of these stations were among the UHF permittees to which the Commission addressed letters in February 1960, requesting information as to their plans for construction and operation. Both replied that they wish to continue to prosecute their pending applications for extension of time to construct.[1] Both also filed comments in response to WHD's petition herein; WLAN–TV opposes any change in its present assignment on Channel 21, and WRAK–TV states that it would not object to a shift in its assignment at Williamsport from Channel 36 to Channel 26. In the case of WTLF, Baltimore, some construction has been accomplished, although the station has not gone into operation; the permittee of this station did not comment on WHP's petition.

6. Because of technological developments in recent years which have largely resolved the problems formerly associated with high-UHF operation, it appears that there is less basis now than formerly for regarding lower UHF channels as preferable to higher UHF channels. Nevertheless, it may be that the public interest and convenience would be served by one or both of the changes involved here, especially since the three other UHF stations operating in the area (WTPA, Harrisburg, WLYH–TV, Lebanon, and WSBA–TV, York) all operate on channels lower than 55, and the public may be convenienced by having UHF reception on channels located close together in frequency. Accordingly, we are disposed to consider the proposed changes if they can feasibly be accomplished.

7. One of the considerations in connection with any change involving Channel 33 is the fact that this would remove from the city of Reading one of the two channels (both UHF) assigned to that sizable city.[2] WHP's "Plan II" suggests the replacement of 33 at Reading by Channel 55; but this we cannot appropriately consider because it would conflict with a proposal which we have recently put out for rule-making (Docket 13476) looking toward assignment of Channel 55 at Stamford, Connecticut, which is only 130 miles from Reading, a proposal as to which there appears to be no reasonably feasible alternative. Channel 71, which would be relinquished by WDTV at Harrisburg under the Rossmoyne proposal, cannot be assigned to Reading consistently with our mileage separation rules. In connection with possible use of Channel 33 at Harrisburg (where three channels are now assigned) or at Lancaster, we must therefore consider what channel could be assigned to Reading in place of Channel 33, and, if none is available, whether the public interest would be served by limiting that city to one television channel assignment.

8. Comments are therefore invited upon the various changes in UHF channel assignments set forth in paragraph 3, above (except that, for reasons stated above, we do not consider the assignment of Channel 55 to Reading as set forth in WHP's "Plan II"). Comments should include discussion of the following questions:

(a) Whether Channel 21, or Channel 33, or both, should be assigned to Harrisburg;

(b) If Channel 33 is to be removed from Reading, what channel could be used to replace it at that city, and, if none is available, whether the public interest would be served by the assignment of only one channel at that city.

(c) In the case of permittees supporting or opposing any of the channel assignment changes, what use they would make of the channels they seek to get or retain, including specific details as to the past and proposed construction and operation of their facilities.

9. Authority for the adoption of the amendments under consideration is contained in sections 4(i) and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

10. Pursuant to applicable procedures set out in § 1.213 of the rules, interested parties may file comments on or before July 22, 1960, and reply comments on or before August 5, 1960. All submissions by parties to this proceeding or by persons acting on behalf of such parties must be made in written comments, reply comments or other appropriate pleadings.

11. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.54 of the rules, an original and 14 copies of all written comments and statements shall be furnished the Commission.

12. WHP in its petition seeks immediate modification of the license of WHP–TV to specify Channel 21 instead of Channel 55; WLAN–TV opposes this. We agree with WLAN–TV that modification is inappropriate as long as there is an outstanding permit on the channel at Lancaster, and accordingly WHP's petition in this respect is denied.

13. Rossmoyne in its "Statement" requests the institution of proceedings looking toward modification of the permit of WDTV to specify Channel 33 instead of Channel 71. We could consider issuing Show Cause Orders to both WHP–TV and WDTV contemplating modification of their licenses to specify Channels 21 and/or 33. But it is at present not clear as to how many new assignments at Harrisburg should be made, and, if only one such assignment is determined to be appropriate, what use should be made of it. Therefore we are not issuing any show cause orders to the Harrisburg stations. Such show cause orders can be issued, if appropriate, consequent upon adoption of a Report and Order concluding this proceeding; and these stations, which have requested the changes involved, would presumably be in a position to acquiesce to the modification, without delay, so that no substantial time will be lost. However, we believe it is appropriate to issue show-cause orders to the other stations (at Lancaster, Williamsport, and Baltimore) some or all of which may be required to shift channels under the proposals herein, in order that whatever plan is adopted, if any, may be more speedily implemented. None of these stations has been completely built or gone into operation. Our show cause orders, which are issued in another document adopted herewith, are of course subject to whatever action we may deem appropriate with respect to the pending applications of these stations for extension of time in which to build their facilities.

14. In view of the foregoing; It is ordered, That, the "Petition for Rule Making" filed by WHP, Inc., on March 14, 1960, is granted insofar as it requests rule-making looking toward certain changes in UHF channel assignments (except as noted above), and is denied insofar as it requests immediate modification of the license of WHP–TV.

[F.R. Doc. 60–6049; Filed, June 29, 1960; 8:51 a.m.]

[1] By Order, adopted June 1, 1960, the Commission designated the applications of Peoples Broadcasting Company (WLAN–TV), Lancaster, Pennsylvania (BMPCT–5125); and WGAL, Inc. (WRAK–TV), Williamsport, Pennsylvania (BMPCT–5150) for oral argument to determine whether further extensions of time within which to construct are warranted.

[2] Station WHUM–TV, formerly but not now in operation, holds a construction permit at Reading on Channel 61. Another UHF station operated on Channel 33 at Reading from 1953 until 1955, when it turned in its construction permit.

5. The individual lots vary in size from .60 to 1.22 acres. The lots are rectangular or square. Each lot has a Government survey corner on its boundary from which it can be identified.

The lots will be leased and sold subject to all rights of way of record and rights of way for roads and public utilities in accordance with 43 CFR 257.17(b) will be reserved as described below. Such rights of way may be utilized by the Federal Government, State of Colorado or Rio Grande County or by any Agency thereof. All minerals are reserved to the United States.

The lots and acreages shown above are those appearing on Plat of Dependent Resurvey and partial subdivision, executed by survey Group 440, Colorado. The plat was accepted August 3, 1959.

Leases will be issued for a term of three years and will contain an option to purchase in accordance with 43 CFR 257.13. Lessees who comply with the general terms and conditions of their leases will be permitted to purchase their tracts at the price indicated above, providing that during the period of their leases they comply with the improvement requirements as set forth in this opening order under paragraph 7 and those shown on the reverse side of the Offer to Lease and Lease Form 4–776. Leases will be renewable at the discretion of the Bureau of Land Management and the renewal lease will be subject to such terms and conditions as are deemed necessary in the light of the circumstances and regulations existing at the time of renewal. However, a lease will not be renewable unless failure to construct the required improvements is justified under the circumstances and nonrenewal would work an extreme hardship on the lessee. The purchase price and annual rental of the lots listed above are subject to revision without further publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER for the lots not leased as a result of the drawing held under this opening order.

6. Persons who have previously acquired a lot under the Small Tract Act are not qualified to acquire a lot at this drawing.

7. The improvements referred to in paragraph 5 must conform with health, sanitation and construction requirements of local ordinances and must in addition meet the following standards:

a. Buildings on these lots shall be constructed of new and substantial materials set on adequate foundations of cement, rocks, cinderblocks or similar materials. Chimneys must be of cement, stone, brick masonry, or of an approved metal type and shall be lined with fire resistant brick or tile, except where approved metal types are used.

b. No shacks of temporary and unsightly nature will be allowed. The use of tar or composition papers for general exterior purposes will not be permitted. No trailers or other portable types of houses will be considered as being part or all of the development requirements.

c. Each lessee will be required to keep the premises in a neat and orderly condition. Garbage and other refuse must be disposed of by burning in an incinerator or be removed at regular intervals in accordance with local standards and practices.

d. Only one residence building will be permitted per lot. Buildings other than the residence shall be kept to a minimum.

e. All residential buildings shall have not less than 500 square feet of floor space.

f. All Bureau of Land Management regulations and State laws as to fire prevention must be observed. Premises and improvements must be maintained in a fire-safe condition at all times. Each lessee will be required to take all reasonable precautions to prevent and suppress forest, brush and grass fires. Debris and inflammable material will be removed or burned in such a manner that adjoining properties as well as their own will not be endangered.

g. Buildings or other improvements on the lots shall be set back a minimum distance of 20 feet from rights of way.

h. No buildings shall be constructed on areas reserved for rights of way as described in the order of classification and terms of the lease.

i. All residence sites must have adequate sanitary facilities to conform with state, county and local laws and ordinances. Outdoor toilets must be located a minimum of 50 feet from the building or dwelling. The toilets must be fully enclosed and of substantial construction and contain a pit and cover for the seat. The depth of the pit shall not be less than 6 feet below ground level. In the case of inside toilets, disposal of waste should be by means of septic tanks or cesspools.

j. Buildings or other improvements on the lots adjoining U.S. Highway 160 and State Highway 149 shall be set back a minimum distance of 30 feet from the boundaries of the highway rights of way.

k. Road approaches to the tracts from U.S. Highway 160 and State Highway 149 must be in accordance with the regulations and standards of the Colorado State Highway Department as to location, borrow pits and other requirements.

l. Roofs should be of sufficient pitch and adequate construction to support heavy snow incident to the area. Gable-type or similar roofs with ⅓ pitch are acceptable.

m. Removal of Bureau of Land Management monumented survey corners which are steel pipe with brass caps set along the boundaries of the tracts, is prohibited. If their presence interferes with construction of roads, the monument shall be buried in place and at least two permanent marked witness monuments should be established at suitable locations outside the area that will be disturbed by the construction. The State Supervisor, Bureau of Land Management, P.O. Box 1018, 339 New Custom House, Denver 1, Colorado, should be given a brief description of the witness monuments and the connecting courses and distances to the original monument.

n. Electrical and telephone line poles must be placed within the rights of way areas reserved under 43 CFR 257.17(b) and set not further than five feet from the exterior boundaries of the rights of way.

o. The lessee must show his last name and the number of his lot on a sign and post it in a conspicuous place on the lot throughout the lease period.

8. A drawing or drawings will be held at 2:00 p.m. July 21, 1960. To participate in these drawings, applicants must comply with the following instructions. Applications must be made, in duplicate, on Form 4–776, accurately and completely filled out in accordance with the instructions on the form except that Items 4(a) and 4(d) need not be filled out. The application must be accompanied by a bank draft, certified check, or post office money order made payable to the Bureau of Land Management in an amount equal to $10.00 plus the advance rental for the desired tract as specified in Paragraph 4 above. The application forms and payment must be enclosed in a sealed, self-addressed, stamped (4 cents in stamps), return envelope for return to the applicant in the form received if he is not successful in the drawing. This envelope must be enclosed in another sealed envelope and mailed to the Manager, Land Office, 371 New Custom House, P.O. Box 1018, Denver 1, Colorado. This envelope (used to mail the envelope containing the forms and money) must carry in the lower left-hand corner of its face the following information and nothing else: (a) "Small Tract Application"; (b) Classification Order No. 25"; (c) A description of the tract applied for, described by lot number in accordance with Paragraph 4 above. COLORADO

Notice of Proposed Withdrawal and Reservation of Lands

JUNE 23, 1960.

The United States Fish and Wildlife Service of the Department of the Interior has filed an application, serial No. Colorado 014334, under the provisions of the Act of August 14, 1946 (60 Stat. 1080; 16 USC 661–666c) as amended by Public Law 86–624, approved August 12, 1958, for withdrawal of the lands described below from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws including the general mining laws but not the mineral leasing laws, subject to existing valid claims.

The applicant desires the land for wildlife management use in connection with the Sapinero Deer-Elk Winter Range. Under the proposed withdrawal, grazing of the area by domestic livestock will be as follows:

(a) Grazing, to be administered by the Bureau of Land Management, will be permitted on lands lying within the east and west boundaries of the area proposed for withdrawal where the west rims of Dry Creek and Red Creek split the legal subdivisions. These rims will constitute the grazing boundaries. Fencing will be done so that permittees will be allowed to water livestock out of Dry Creek and West Bull Canyon on Colorado Game and Fish Department patented land.

(b) Grazing will not be permitted for the present on the remaining lands. However, The Bureau of Land Management, as the Agency responsible for the administration of the grazing resources on these lands, shall, at two year intervals, initiate such meeting or studies in cooperation with officials of the Colorado State Game and Fish Department as are necessary to determine the desirability or need for initiation of grazing by domestic livestock.

For a period of thirty days from the date of publication of this notice, all persons who wish to submit comments, suggestions, or objections in connection with the proposed withdrawal may present their views in writing to the undersigned officer of the Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, Colorado State Office, 339 New Custom House, P.O. Box 1018, Denver 1, Colorado.

If circumstances warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced.

1. The Commission has before it for consideration (1) the petition for severance, filed April 18, 1960, by Southern Wisconsin Radio, Inc.; (2) comments supporting petition, filed April 21, 1960, by applicant Voice of Dowagiac; (3) response to petition, filed April 28, 1960, by WSBC Broadcasting Company (WSBC); (4) joint petition in support of petition for severance, filed April 28, 1960, by applicants Cornbelt Broadcasting Corporation (KFOR), Iowa Great Lakes Broadcasting Company (KICD), Radio Moline, Inc. (WQUA), Wapello County Broadcasting Company (KBIZ), and respondent KISD, Inc.; (5) comments in support of petition, filed by applicant WTAX, Inc., May 3, 1960; (6) statement of Broadcast Bureau re petition, filed May 2, 1960; (7) reply to statement of Broadcast Bureau, filed May 6, 1960, by Southern Wisconsin Radio, Inc.; and (8) joint reply, filed May 9, 1960, by Cornbelt Broadcasting Corporation, Iowa Great Lakes Broadcasting Company, Radio Moline, Inc., and Wapello County Broadcasting Company.

2. As a matter of convenience to all concerned, the Examiner hearing the above-entitled multi-party proceeding has grouped the applicants involved in accordance with the interrelation of the proposals set forth in their respective applications. The above-captioned applications with the exception of the Fredericksburg application are those contained in Groups 1 and 2 of the proceeding.

3. Petitioner, Southern Wisconsin Radio, Inc. (WCLO), is an applicant in Group 2 of above-captioned proceeding, requesting a construction permit for an increase in daytime power of Station WCLO, Janesville, Wisconsin. It submitted along with its petition an engineering statement by its consulting engineer and an exhibit listing the applicants in Groups 1, 2 and 3 of the proceeding. According to the exhibit submitted there are 5 applicants in Group 1, 8 in Group 2, and 9 in Group 3. Applicant Voice of Dowagiac included in its supporting comments a supplemental request which is treated separately. Applicants WSBC and Voice of Dowagiac are in Group 2, and applicant Anderson Broadcasting Corporation (WHBU) (Docket No. 13140) is in Group 3.

4. By its petition, Southern Wisconsin Radio, Inc. (Southern Wisconsin) requests severance of applications in Groups 1 and 2 from those in Group 3 and in the other groups in the above-captioned proceeding so that the Examiner may issue a separate Initial Decision as to Groups 1 and 2. In support of its petition, Southern Wisconsin alleges that Group 2 is linked to Group 3 by interference to proposed WSBC (Docket No. 13114) in Group 2 from proposed WHBU (Docket No. 13140) in Group 3, and by interference to the proposal of Voice of Dowagiac, Dowagiac, Michigan (Docket No. 13096), in Group 2 from proposed WHBU. It further alleges that in the case of WSBC and WHBU no new interference in addition to that received from existing stations will result, hence there is no conflict between the two; that in the case of Voice of Dowagiac (Dowagiac) and WHBU, proposed WHBU would add 2.9 percent interference to the 8.1 percent already received by the Dowagiac proposal from existing Station WSBC and/or Station WEDC, thus raising the total interference received by Dowagiac to 11 percent of the population within its normally protected 0.5 mv/m contour, and that no interference would result in the opposite direction. Southern Wisconsin points out that counsel for Dowagiac stated on the record in the hearing proceeding that Dowagiac would accept the interference from proposed WHBU.

5. Applicant Voice of Dowagiac agrees with the request for severance and urges that said petition be granted for the reasons set forth herein.

6. WSBC Broadcasting Company (WSBC), provided certain conditions are met, does not oppose the petition to sever, stating that petitioner correctly points out the connection between Groups 2 and 3; and it agrees that interference to proposed WSBC from proposed WHBU occurs in an area already subject to interference. It further states that a simultaneous grant of the WSBC and Dowagiac applications (both of which are in Group 2) would result in 32.4 percent interference to Dowagiac; that WSBC believes that any determination to waive the 10 percent Rule without affording WSBC rights to a full hearing on the question would clearly be illegal; that it is WSBC's opinion that the requested severance should be granted, if at all, only on the express condition that the act of severance does not in any way constitute a determination that the public interest would be served by a grant of the Dowagiac application subject to the interference which it would receive from WHBU; and that if the applications were severed, the question of interference which Dowagiac would receive from WHBU must remain an active factor in the contest between Dowagiac and WSBC.

7. Applicants Cornbelt Broadcasting Corporation, Iowa Great Lakes Broadcasting Company, Radio Moline, Inc., Wapello County Broadcasting Company, and WTAX, Inc., and respondent KISD, Inc., support the petition.

8. The Commission's Broadcast Bureau opposes the instant request, pointing out that while petitioner concedes that one of the applicants in Group 2 would be involved in a 10 percent violation daytime with an applicant in Group 3 if both are granted, no reason is given or justification is urged by the petitioner for a waiver of § 3.28(c) (10 percent Rule) except that the requested severance will expedite the hearing.

9. In reply to the Broadcast Bureau's opposition, Southern Wisconsin states that a finding that a waiver of § 3.28(c) is required or justified at this time would be premature and may well not be justified in the ultimate decision. It states that, with the connecting applicants having agreed to accept the interference involved, the Commission is entirely free to consider the merits of each proposal separately without engaging in a comparative consideration; that the taking of evidence has not been concluded in all groups; and that, from the standpoint of administrative convenience, the severance is justified.

10. Applicants Cornbelt Broadcasting Corporation (KFOR), Iowa Great Lakes Broadcasting Company (KICD), Radio Moline, Inc. (WQUA), and Wapello County Broadcasting Company (KBIZ) jointly support Southern Wisconsin's position, contending that the only legal effect of a grant of the subject petition would be to withdraw the right of the Dowagiac applicant to have its proposal considered together with the Group 3 proposal of WHBU; and that the Dowagiac applicant has expressly waived that right.

11. As pointed out in the replies above, a finding that a waiver of § 3.28(c) of our rules is required or justified is not necessary at this point in the proceeding, and counsel for Dowagiac has stated on the record that Dowagiac would accept the interference from proposed WHBU in Group 3 of this proceeding. We are satisfied that, under the facts as set forth above, no useful purpose would be served by retaining Groups 1 and 2 in the above-captioned proceeding, and that by severing these groups the hearing process may be expedited. Under the circumstances, it is our opinion that the public interest will be served by a grant of the requested severance.

Accordingly: It is ordered, That the petition of Southern Wisconsin Radio, Inc., filed April 18, 1960, is granted.

It is further ordered, That the applications of the following parties to this proceeding, being in Hearing Groups 1 and 2, are severed from the above-captioned proceeding:

AMERICAN TRADING AND PRODUCTION CORP. ET AL.

Order Providing for Hearings on and Suspension of Proposed Changes in Rates, and Allowing Increased Rate To Become Effective Subject to Refund [1]

JUNE 22, 1960.

American Trading and Production Corporation, Docket No. RI60-417; The Pure Oil Company, Docket No. RI60-418; MacDonald Oil Corporation (Operator), et al., Docket No. RI60-419; Sun Oil Company, Docket No. RI60-420.

The above-named Respondents have tendered for filing proposed changes in presently effective rate schedules for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. In each filing, the natural gas is sold at 14.65 psia. The proposed changes are designated as follows:

Docket No.	Respondent	Rate schedule No.	Supplement No.	Purchaser and producing area	Notice of change dated—	Date tendered	Effective date [1] unless suspended	Date suspended until—	Cents per Mcf: Rate in effect	Cents per Mcf: Proposed increased rate	Rate ineffect subject to refund in Docket Nos.

[1] The stated effective dates are those requested by respondents or the first day after expiration of the required 30 days' notice.
[2] Or from such later date as the buyer's resale rate is made effective subject to refund.

American Trading and Production Corporation (American Trading), in submitting its proposed revenue-sharing increase merely cites the applicable contractual provisions of its contract. West Lake Natural Gasoline Company process the subject jurisdictional gas involved herein, which is purchased from American Trading, and sells the residue to El Paso Natural Gas Company. West Lake's contracts with its producers provide that the latter will receive 50 percent of the amount received by West Lake for the residue gas sold. West Lake's renegotiated rate of 17.0 cents per Mcf was suspended in Docket No. RI60-30 for five months until June 23, 1960.

[1] This order does not provide for the consolidation for hearing or disposition of the several matters covered herein, nor should it be so construed.

In support of its two proposed favored-nation rate increases, The Pure Oil Company (Pure) states that the contracts of sale were negotiated at arm's length; that the favored-nation clauses were designed to insure that Pure would receive the fair market value of its gas over the term of the contracts; and that the proposed rates do not exceed the fair market value of the gas in the respective areas. Pure request that any suspension period be limited to one day's duration.

MacDonald Oil Corporation (Operator), et al. (MacDonald), in support of its proposed renegotiated rate increase, states that the proposed rate was agreed to by its buyer in consideration of the deletion of the favored-nation clause and is identical to the prices provided by numerous other producer contracts negotiated in the area.

In support of its proposed redetermined rate increase, Sun Oil Company states that the redetermination provisions of the contract were arrived at by arm's-length bargaining and that the proposed rate does not exceed the value of the gas in the area.

The proposed changes may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

(2) It is necessary and proper in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that Supplement No. 2 to American Trading's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 be allowed to take effect, subject to refund of the excess charges, upon the timely filing of its agreement and undertaking as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), public hearings shall be held upon dates to be fixed by notices from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed increased rates and charges contained in the above-designated supplements.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, each of the above-designated supplements is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until the date indicated in the above "Date Suspended Until" column, and thereafter until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until these proceedings have been disposed of or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Supplement No. 2 to American Trading's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 shall be effective as of June 25, 1960, or from such later date as its aforementioned buyer's resale rate is made effective subject to refund: Provided, however, That within 20 days from the date of the issuance of this order, American Trading shall execute and file under Docket No. RI60-417 with the Secretary of the Commission its agreement and undertaking to comply with the refunding and reporting procedure required by the Natural Gas Act and § 154.102 of the regulations thereunder (prescribed by Order No. 215 and No. 215A). The agreement and undertaking shall be appropriately executed by responsible officers thereof, and accompanied by proper authorization from the Board of Directors and by a certificate showing service of copies upon all purchasers under the rate schedule involved. Unless American Trading is advised to the contrary within 15 days after the filing of such agreement and undertaking, its agreement and undertaking shall be deemed to have been accepted.

(E) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before August 5, 1960.

By the Commission.

[C.C.C. Farm Storage Facility Loan Bulletin 1, Rev. 1, Amdt. 4]

PART 474—FARM STORAGE FACILITIES

Subpart—Farm Storage Facility Loan Program

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF LOANS

The purpose of this amendment is to amend the bulletin setting forth the conditions under which loans may be made to eligible borrowers on immovable facilities to be located on railroad-owned property.

Section 474.726(a) of the bulletin (23 F.R. 9686) setting forth the terms and conditions of loans is amended to read as follows:

§ 474.726 Terms and conditions of loans.

(a) Term of loan. The maximum term of the loan will be five years from the date of the disbursement of the loan, except that the term of an individual loan may be extended and re-extended for terms of not to exceed one year each if the county committee determines in writing that the borrower is unable to meet the current payment when due, because of catastrophic loss of crops or other comparable condition beyond the control of the borrower. Such extensions, as authorized in this paragraph, shall merely defer the date upon which each of the respective payments shall become due and payable. Loans will be secured (1) by chattel mortgages on the storage facility, which shall constitute the sole lien on such facility, or (2) by a first lien in the form of a real estate mortgage, deed of trust, or other security instrument, approved by CCC, on the borrower's farm or other property on which the facility is to be located, or on such acreage of the farm as will, in the judgment of the county committee, (i) make the site easily accessible for use of other farmers in the area, and (ii) constitute a salable unit. A first lien on the real estate will be required in connection with all loans relating to immovable facilities, except that applications for loans for immovable facilities to be located on railroad-owned property may be considered subject to the following conditions: (a) Each such application, regardless of the amount of the proposed loan must be approved by the Board of Directors, CCC, before the application and the loan commitment is approved by the county committee; (b) the applicant must obtain an assignable lease on the railroad-owned property and the written consent of the lessor to construct the facility and to remove the same; (c) the loan must be secured (1) by a real estate mortgage, or a deed of trust covering the leasehold interest, and (2) by a first lien on the facility; (d) the application and note shall provide that if, at any time during the life of the loan, the facility is used for the storage or handling of commodities owned by others, or for commodities purchased by the borrower, or, if all or any part of such facility is leased to others, or becomes a part of, or is made use of in connection with any commercial operation, the full unpaid amount of the loan plus interest shall be subject to immediate call by CCC; and (e) the applicant shall comply with such other conditions as the Board of Directors, at the time it considers the application, deems warranted in order to protect the interest of CCC under any special circumstances affecting the loan. A first lien on real estate may also be required in connection with any other loan at the discretion of the person authorized by CCC to approve the loan, provided, however, that such first lien may be obtained through a subordination agreement where the real estate is subject to any other lien. In case of chattel mortgage loans, a severance agreement must be executed and acknowledged by all persons having an interest in the land on which the structure will be placed, except that a severance agreement will not be required if the storage structure is movable, not attached to a permanent foundation, and (1) is not in excess of 2,500 bushels capacity, or (2) in the case of a structure for the storage of cottonseed, is not in excess of 60 tons. The cost of recording or filing all documents required in connection with the loan shall be paid by the borrower. Upon approval of the application for loan, the county committee will execute a commitment for the loan. Unless the loan has been totally disbursed, the loan commitment shall become null and void in four months after its date unless extended in writing by the county committee on or before its expiration date. Every application for a farm storage facility loan secured by a chattel mortgage shall be accompanied by an instrument, duly acknowledged for recording purposes, under which the owner of the premises on which the facility is to be located consents that if the farm storage facility is acquired by CCC through foreclosure or other means, such facility may, at the option of CCC, remain on the property for a period not to exceed six months at no expense to CCC. Such covenant may be included in a severance agreement or in such other instrument as may be approved by the Attorney in Charge, in cases where the severance agreement is not required.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 28th day of June, 1960.

CLARENCE D. PALMBY,
Acting Executive Vice President, Commodity Credit Corporation.

AUTHORITY: §§ 928.0 to 928.111 issued under secs. 1-19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601-674.

§ 928.0 Findings and determinations.

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Neosho Valley marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in the order as hereby amended, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, 5 cents per hundredweight or such amount not to exceed 5 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to (a) milk from producers including such handler's own production and (b) other source milk which is classified as Class I.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than July 1, 1960. Any delay beyond that date would tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk in the marketing area.

The provisions of the said order are known to handlers. The recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service was issued May 11, 1960, and the decision of the Assistant Secretary containing all amendment provisions of this order, was issued June 17, 1960. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in method of operation for handlers. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective July 1, 1960, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See section 4(c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of handlers (excluding cooperative associations specified in section 8c(9) of the Act) of more than 50 percent of the milk, which is marketed within the marketing area, to sign a proposed marketing agreement, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the Act of advancing the interests of producers as defined in the order as hereby amended; and

(3) The issuance of the order amending the order is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, That on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Neosho Valley marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the order, as hereby amended:

(b)(1) From which during the delivery period no less than 50 percent of the Grade A milk received from dairy farmers is shipped to a plant(s) described in paragraph (a) of this section: Provided, That if such plant is an approved plant during each of the months of August through November, it shall be designated as an approved plant through the following July, unless the market administrator is requested by means of written application on or before the 7th day after the end of the month that the plant should not be an approved plant.

(2) All plants described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph which are operated by one handler may be considered as a unit, upon written notice to the market administrator specifying the plants to be considered as a unit and the period during which such consideration shall apply. Such notice, and the notice of any change in designation, shall be furnished on or before the 7th day following the month to which the notice applies. In any of the months of December through July a unit shall not contain plants which were not qualified as approved plants either individually or as members of another unit, during each of the previous months of August through November.

§ 928.9 Producer.

"Producer" means any person, other than a producer-handler, who produces milk under a dairy farm permit or rating issued by the appropriate health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area over the production of milk disposed of for consumption as Grade A milk which milk is (a) received at an approved plant, or (b) diverted from an approved plant to any milk distributing or milk manufacturing plant: Provided, That such milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the handler for whose account it was diverted: And provided further, That this definition shall not include a person with respect to milk produced by him which is received by a handler who is partially exempted from the provisions of this part pursuant to §§ 928.61 and 928.62.

§ 928.10 Producer-handler.

"Producer-handler" means any person who, with the approval of any health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area, processes milk from his own farm production and disposes of all or a portion of such milk as Class I milk within the marketing area, but who receives no milk from producers.

§ 928.11 Other source milk.

"Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat received in any form from a producer-handler or from a

In either case, the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly, upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 928.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified.

All skim milk and butterfat received within the delivery period by a handler and which is required to be reported pursuant to § 928.30 shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§ 928.41 through 928.46.

§ 928.41 Classes of utilization.

Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 928.43 and 928.44, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat disposed of in fluid form (except as livestock feed) as milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, cream, cultured sour cream, any mixture of cream and milk or skim milk (except bulk ice cream mix, eggnog and aerated cream), all skim milk and butterfat in inventory at the end of the delivery period in the form of Class I items, and all skim milk and butterfat not specifically accounted for under paragraph (b) of this section;

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat accounted for (1) as having been used to produce any products other than those specified in paragraph (a) of this section, (2) as disposed of for livestock feed.

(3) In shrinkage of milk received directly from producers that is not in excess of 2 percent (5 percent with respect to skim milk during the months of April, May and June), plus 1.5 percent (4.5 percent with respect to skim milk during the months of April, May and June) of receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, transferred in bulk from approved plants, less 1.5 percent (4.5 percent with respect to skim milk during the months of April, May and June) of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, disposed of in bulk to approved plants, and (4) in actual plant shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk.

§ 928.42 Shrinkage.

If producer milk and other source milk are both received at a handler's approved plant during the same delivery period the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, allocated to each source shall be computed pro rata according to the proportions of the volumes of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, received from such sources to their totals.

§ 928.43 Responsibility of handlers.

All skim milk and butterfat shall be classified as Class I milk unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat proves to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified as Class II milk.

§ 928.44 Transfers.

Skim milk or butterfat disposed of by a handler either by transfer or diversion shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream, to the approved plant of another handler unless utilization in Class II is mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both handlers on or before the 7th day after the end of the delivery period within which such transaction occurred: Provided, That in no event shall the amount of the skim milk or butterfat so assigned to Class II exceed the total utilization of skim milk or butterfat, respectively, in the plant of the transferee-handler: And provided further, That if either or both handlers have received other source milk, the skim milk or butterfat so transferred or diverted shall be classified at both plants to give priority to producer milk in the allocation of Class I utilization.

(b) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream to a producer-handler.

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk or skim milk and as Class II milk if so transferred in the form of cream to an unapproved plant located more than 250 miles from the square of Chanute, Kansas, by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator.

(d) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream to an unapproved plant located not more than 250 miles from the square at Chanute, Kansas (by shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator) and from which Class I milk is disposed of unless:

(1) The handler claims Class II on the basis of utilization mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both the operator of the unapproved plant and the handler on or before the 7th day after the end of the delivery period within which such transfer occurred; and

(2) The operator of the unapproved plant maintains books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at such plant which are made available if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification: Provided, That if the Class I utilization of skim milk and butterfat in such plant exceeds receipts at such plant of skim milk and butterfat in milk directly from dairy farmers who the market administrator determines constitutes the regular source of supply for fluid usage of such unapproved plant in markets supplied by it, an amount of skim milk and butterfat equal to such excess shall be classified as Class I milk.

(e) As Class II milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream to an unapproved plant located not more than 250 miles from the square at Chanute, Kansas, and from which no Class I milk is disposed of.

§ 928.45 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class.

For each delivery period the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the report of receipts and utilization submitted by each handler and shall compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in Class I milk and Class II milk for such handler.

§ 928.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified.

After making the computations pursuant to § 928.45, the market administrator shall determine the classification of producer milk as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk determined pursuant to § 928.41(b)(3);

(2) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class I the pounds of skim milk contained in the Class I items in inventory at the beginning of the delivery period;

(3) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk received in other source milk other than that to be subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (4) of this paragraph;

(4) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk from a plant at which the handling of milk is fully subject to the pricing and payment provisions of another marketing order issued pursuant to the act;

(5) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the skim milk received from other handlers and assigned to such class pursuant to § 928.44(a);

(6) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; or if the remaining pounds of skim milk remaining in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk in milk received from producers, subtract such excess from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class in series beginning with Class II. Any amount so subtracted shall be called "overage."

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Add the pounds of skim milk and the pounds of butterfat allocated to producer milk in each class, respectively, as computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section and determine the percent of butterfat content in such milk in each class.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 928.50 Basic formula price to be used in determining Class I price.

The basic formula price to be used in determining the price per hundredweight of Class I milk for the delivery period shall be the highest of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section and § 928.51 (b), all for the preceding delivery period.

(a) The average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for milk of divided by 3.5 and multiplied by 4.0.

(b) The price per hundredweight computed by adding together the plus values pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) From the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago as reported by the Department during the month, subtract 3 cents, add 20 percent thereof, and multiply by 4.0.

(2) From the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the weighted averages of carlot prices per pound for nonfat dry milk solids, spray, and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f.o.b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department, deduct 5.5 cents, multiply by 8.5 and then multiply by 0.96.

Subject to the provisions of §§ 928.52 and 928.53, each handler shall pay producers at the time and in the manner set forth in §§ 928.90 through 928.95 not less than the following prices per hundredweight for milk received from such producers during the delivery period:

(a) Class I milk. The price for Class I milk shall be the basic formula price plus the following amounts per hundredweight: $1.00 during the delivery periods April through June, and $1.45 during the delivery periods of July through March: Provided, That for each of the delivery periods of September through December, such price shall not be less than that for the preceding delivery period, and that for each of the delivery periods of April through June such price shall be not more than that for the preceding delivery period: And provided further, That the price so determined shall be further adjusted by subtracting any amount by which such price exceeds the higher of, or adding any amount by which such price is less than the lower of the following:

(1) The price for Class I milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content established for the same month or delivery period pursuant to Part 906 of this chapter regulating the handling of milk in the Oklahoma metropolitan marketing area less 33 cents; or

(2) The price for Class I milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content established for the same month or delivery period under Part 921 of this chapter regulating the handling of milk in the Ozarks marketing area, plus 15 cents.

(b) Class II milk. The price per hundredweight for Class II milk for the delivery periods of July through March shall be the basic formula price for the current delivery period, and for the delivery periods of April through June the higher of the prices computed pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) The basic formula price for the current delivery period minus ten cents.

(2) The arithmetic average of the basic, or field prices reported to have been paid or to be paid per hundredweight for ungraded milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the delivery period at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department on or before the 6th day after the end of the delivery period by the companies listed below:

Pet Milk Company, Neosho, Missouri.
Borden Company, Fort Scott, Kansas.
Carnation Company, Mount Vernon, Missouri.

§ 928.52 Butterfat differentials to handlers.

If the weighted average butterfat test of that portion of producer milk which is classified, respectively, in any class utilization for a handler pursuant to § 928.46(c) is more or less than 4.0 percent, there shall be added to, or subtracted from, as the case may be, the price for such class of utilization, for each one tenth of 1 percent that such weighted average butterfat test is above, or below, respectively, 4.0 percent, a butterfat differential (computed to the nearest tenth of a cent) calculated as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Multiply by 1.25 the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago as reported by the Department during the preceding delivery period, and divide the result by 10.

(b) Class II milk. Multiply by 1.15 the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago as reported by the Department during the delivery period and divide the result by 10.

§ 928.53 Location adjustments to handlers.

For milk which is received from producers at an approved plant located more than 50 miles by shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from the City Hall in Joplin or Nevada, Missouri, or Chanute or Independence, Kansas, whichever is closest, and which is classified as Class I milk the prices computed pursuant to § 928.51(a) shall be reduced by 10 cents if such plant is located more than 50 miles but not more than 60 miles from such city hall and by an additional 2.0 cents for each 15 miles or fraction thereof that such distance exceeds 60 miles: Provided, That for the purposes of calculating such adjustment transfers between approved plants shall be assigned to Class I milk in a volume not in excess of that by which 105 percent of Class I disposition at the transferee plant exceeds the receipts from producers at such plant, such assignment to transferor plants to be made first to plants at which no adjustment credit is applicable and then in the sequence at which the lowest location adjustment credit would apply.

§ 928.54 Use of equivalent price.

If for any reason a price quotation required by this part for computing class prices or for any other purpose is not available in the manner described, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the price which is required.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 928.60 Producer-handlers.

Sections 928.40 through 928.46, 928.50 through 928.52, 928.70 through 928.72, 928.80 through 928.83 and 928.90 through 928.97 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

§ 928.61 Handlers subject to other orders.

In the case of any handler (as defined in this section) who the Secretary determines disposed of a greater portion of his milk as Class I milk in another marketing area regulated by another milk marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act, or who otherwise is determined pursuant to the provisions of another milk marketing agreement or order to be subject to the pricing and payment provisions of such agreement or order, the provisions of the order shall not apply except as follows:

(a) The handler shall, with respect to his total receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require and shall allow verification of such reports by the market administrator pursuant to § 928.33.

(b) If the value of skim milk and butterfat disposed of as Class I milk on routes in the marketing area, as determined under the other order to which such handler is subject, is less than its value as computed pursuant to this subpart, such handler shall pay the difference to the market administrator. The amount of the payment so computed shall be reduced by the amount of any contra differences in the values of Class I milk so disposed of in the immediately preceding eleven delivery periods which have not served to reduce the payment for any intervening delivery period.

(c) On or before the 14th day after the end of the delivery period payment of the net amount computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section shall be made to the market administrator who shall:

(1) Transfer the amount of such payment to the market administrator of the order to which the handler is subject, if such order provides for receipt of such funds and their distribution to producers whose milk is priced under such order; or

(2) Otherwise deposit such amount in the producer-settlement fund.

§ 928.62 Handlers doing less than 10 percent of their business in the marketing area.

In the case of any handler (except a handler who would be covered under § 928.61) who the Secretary determines disposes of less than 10 percent of his milk, qualified for distribution as Grade A milk in the marketing area, as Class I milk in the marketing area, the provisions of this part shall not apply except as follows:

(a) The handler shall, with respect to his total receipts of skim milk and butterfat, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator shall require and shall allow verification of such reports by the market administrator pursuant to § 928.33.

(b) Pay to the market administrator for deposit into the producer-settlement fund, with respect to all skim milk and butterfat disposed of as Class I milk within the marketing area, an amount equal to the difference between the Class I and Class II value of such skim milk or butterfat as computed pursuant to this part;

(c) As his prorata share of the expense of administration of this part, such handler shall pay to the market administrator on each hundredweight of milk disposed of as Class I milk in the marketing area the amount per hundredweight in the manner specified in § 928.97.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICES

§ 928.70 Computation of value of milk.

The value of milk received during each delivery period by each handler from producers shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator by multiplying the pounds of such milk in each class by the applicable class prices adjusted by the butterfat differential to handlers specified in § 928.52 and adding together the resulting amounts: Provided, That if the handler had an overage of either skim milk or butterfat there shall be added to the above values an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of overage deducted from each class pursuant to § 928.46 (a)(5) or (b) by the applicable class prices.

§ 928.71 Computation of uniform price.

For each delivery period of August through January the market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from producers as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 928.70 for all handlers who made the reports prescribed in § 928.30 and who made the payments required pursuant to § 928.93 for the preceding delivery period

(b) Add not less than one-half of the cash balance on hand in the producer-settlement fund less the total amount of the contingent obligations to handlers pursuant to § 928.95;

(c) Subtract if the average butterfat content of the milk included in these computations is greater than 4.0 percent, or add, if such average butterfat content is less than 4.0 percent an amount computed as follows: Multiply the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 4.0 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 928.91 and multiply the resulting figure by the total hundredweight of such milk;

(d) Add the aggregate of the value of all allowable location adjustments to producers pursuant to § 928.91(b);

(e) Divide the resulting amount by the total hundredweight of milk included in this computation, and

(f) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents from the amount per hundredweight computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from producers.

§ 928.72 Computation of the uniform prices for base milk and for excess milk.

For each of the delivery periods of February through July, the market administrator shall compute the uniform prices per hundredweight for base milk and for excess milk, each of 4.0 percent butterfat content, as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 928.70 for all handlers who make the reports prescribed in § 928.30 and who made the required payments pursuant to § 928.93 for the preceding delivery period.

(b) Add not less than one-half of the cash balance on hand in the producer-settlement fund less the total amount of the contingent obligations to handlers pursuant to § 928.95;

(c) Subtract if the average butterfat content of producer milk represented if the values in paragraph (a) of this section is greater than 4.0 percent, or add, if such average butterfat content is less than 4.0 percent an amount computed as follows: Multiply the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 4.0 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 928.91 and multiply the resulting figure by the total hundredweight of such milk.

(d) Add the aggregate of the value of all allowable location adjustments to producers pursuant to § 928.91(b);

(e) Compute the total pounds of milk delivered by producers which are not in excess of their respective bases;

(f) Compute the total value of producer milk in excess of the delivered bases of all producers as follows: (1) Allocate in series beginning with Class II the total pounds of producer milk in excess of the total pounds of delivered base milk computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section; (2) multiply the total pounds of excess milk allocated to each class by the appropriate class prices computed pursuant to § 928.51 and add the resulting totals;

(g) Subtract from the value computed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section the value of excess milk computed pursuant to paragraph (e)(2) of this section and divide the resulting total by the total hundredweight of base milk as computed in paragraph (d) of this section.

(h) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents from the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (f) of this section. The resulting price shall be the uniform price per hundredweight for base milk containing 4.0 percent butterfat.

(i) Divide the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (e)(2) of this section by the total hundredweight of excess milk and round to the nearest full cent. The resulting price shall be the uniform price per hundredweight of excess milk containing 4.0 percent butterfat content.

BASE RATING

§ 928.80 Determination of daily base for each producer.

For each of the delivery periods of February through July the daily base for each producer shall be an amount of milk computed by the market administrator by dividing the total pounds of milk received from such producer by handlers during the preceding delivery periods of September through December by the total number of days for which such producer made deliveries of milk in such period, or by 90, whichever is greater: Provided, That with respect to any producer on "every-other-day" delivery the days of nondelivery shall be considered as days of delivery for the purposes of this section and of § 928.81: And provided further, That in the case of producers delivering milk to an approved plant which first qualifies as such during any month other than September, a daily average base for each such producer shall be calculated pursuant to this section on the basis of his verifiable deliveries of milk to such plant during the September through December immediately preceding.

§ 928.81 Determination of the delivery period base of each producer.

For each of the delivery periods of February through July, the base of each producer shall be an amount of milk computed by the market administrator by multiplying the daily base of such producer by the number of days on which milk was received during such delivery period from such producer by a handler.

§ 928.82 Base rules.

(a) A base shall apply to deliveries of milk by the producer for whose account that milk was delivered during the base forming period;

(b) Bases may be transferred by notifying the market administrator in writing before the last day of any month in which such base applies that such base is to be transferred to the person named in such notice only as follows:

(1) In the event of the death, retirement, or entry into military service of a producer the entire base may be transferred to a member(s) of such producer's immediate family who carries on the dairy operation.

(2) If a base is held jointly and such joint holding is terminated, the entire base only may be transferred to one of the joint holders.

§ 928.83 Announcement of daily bases.

On or before February 15, of each year, the market administrator shall notify each producer of his daily base.

PAYMENTS

§ 928.90 Time and method of payment.

Each handler shall make payment as follows:

(a) On or before the last day of each delivery period to each producer for milk received from him during the first 15 days of such delivery period at not less than the Class II price for the preceding delivery period: Provided, That with respect to producers whose milk was caused to be delivered to such handler by a cooperative association which is authorized to collect payments for such milk, the handler shall, if the cooperative association so requests, pay such cooperative association at least 2 days before the end of the delivery period, an amount equal to the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers in accordance with this paragraph.

(b) On or before the 17th day after the end of each delivery period, for all milk received during such delivery period from such producer at not less than the applicable uniform prices for such delivery period computed pursuant to §§ 928.71 and 928.72, subject to the following adjustments: (1) The butterfat and location differentials pursuant to § 928.91 (a) and (b); (2) payment made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section; (3) marketing service deductions pursuant to § 928.96; (4) deductions authorized by the producer; and (5) any error in payments to such producer for past delivery periods: Provided, That if by such date such handler has not received full payment for milk for such delivery period pursuant to § 928.94, he may reduce uniformly per hundredweight, for all producers his payments pursuant to this paragraph, by an amount not in excess of the per hundredweight reduction in payments from the market administrator: Provided further, That the handler shall make such balance of payment to those producers to whom it is due on or before the date for making payments, pursuant to this paragraph, next following that on which such balance of payment is received from the market administrator: And provided further, That with respect to producers whose milk was caused to be delivered to such handler by a cooperative association which is authorized to collect payment for such milk, the handler shall, if the cooperative association so requests, pay such cooperative association, on or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period an amount equal to the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producer in accordance with this paragraph, and

(c) On or before the 17th day after the end of each delivery period, to each cooperative association, with respect to receipts of milk for which such cooperative association is defined as a handler pursuant to § 928.8(d), not less than the value of such milk as is classified pursuant to § 928.44(a) at the applicable class prices.

§ 928.91 Producer butterfat and location differentials.

(a) Butterfat differential. In making payments pursuant to § 928.90(b), there shall be added to or subtracted from the uniform price for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of the milk received from the producer is above or below 4.0 percent, an amount computed by multiplying by 1.2 the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago as reported by the Department during the month, dividing the resulting sum by 10, and rounding to the nearest one-tenth of a cent.

(b) Location differential. For milk which is received from producers at an approved plant located more than 50 miles by shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from the City Hall in Joplin or Nevada, Missouri or Chanute or Independence, Kansas, whichever is closest, there shall be deducted 10 cents per hundredweight of milk if such plant is located more than 50 miles but not more than 60 miles from such city hall, and an additional 2.0 cents for each 15 miles or fraction thereof that such distance exceeds 60 miles.

§ 928.92 Producer-settlement fund.

The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund," into which he shall deposit payments made by handlers pursuant to §§ 928.61(c)(2), 928.62(b), 928.93, and 928.95 and out of which he shall make payments to handlers pursuant to §§ 928.94 and 928.95: Provided, That payments due to any handler shall be offset by payments due from such handler.

§ 928.93 Payments to the producer-settlement fund.

On or before the 13th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay to the market administrator any amount by which the total value of the milk received by such handler from producers as determined pursuant to § 928.70 for such delivery period is greater than an amount computed by multiplying the total hundredweight of milk, or during the delivery periods of February through July the total hundredweight of base milk and excess milk, respectively, received from producers during the delivery period by the applicable uniform price(s), adding together the respective totals and adjusting for the butterfat differential provided for in § 928.91.

§ 928.94 Payments out of the producer-settlement fund.

On or before the 14th day after the end of each delivery period the market administrator shall pay to each handler for payment to producers, or a cooperative association, any amount by which the value of the milk received by such handler from producers as determined pursuant to § 928.70 for the delivery period is less than an amount computed by multiplying the total hundredweight of milk, or during the delivery periods of February through July the total hundredweight of base milk and excess milk, respectively, received from producers during the delivery period by the applicable uniform price(s), adding together the respective totals and adjusting for the butterfat differential provided for in § 928.91: Provided, That if the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this paragraph, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available. And provided further, That any payments hereunder shall be reduced by the amount of any unpaid balances due the market administrator from such handler pursuant to §§ 928.93, 928.95, 928.96 or 928.97.

§ 928.95 Adjustment of accounts.

Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts discloses errors resulting in moneys due (a) the market administrator from such handler, (b) such handler from the market administrator, or (c) any producer or cooperative association from such handler, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any amount so due and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments set forth in the provisions under which such error occurred.

§ 928.96 Marketing services.

(a) Deductions. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers (other than himself) pursuant to § 928.90 shall deduct 6 cents per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to all milk received by such handler from producers during the delivery period, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of such delivery period. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to sample, test, and check the weights of milk received from producers and to provide producers with market information.

(b) Deductions with respect to members of a cooperative association. In the case of producers who are members of a cooperative association, or who have given written authorization for the rendering of marketing services and the taking of deductions therefor by a cooperative association, and for whom the Secretary determines such a cooperative association is actually performing the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deduction specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers as may be authorized by such producers and on or before the 15th day after the end of such delivery period pay over such deduction to the cooperative association rendering such services.

§ 928.97 Expenses of administration.

As his pro rata share of the expense of administration hereof, each handler shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 16th day after the end of the month, 5 cents per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to all receipts within the delivery period of: (a) Milk from producers including such handler's own production, and (b) other source milk which is classified as Class I.

§ 928.98 Termination of obligation.

The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representative all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c(15)(A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION

§ 928.100 Effective time.

The provisions of this part or any amendment to this part shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 928.101.

§ 928.101 Suspension or termination.

The Secretary may suspend or terminate this part or any provision of this part whenever he finds this part or any provision of this part obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This part shall terminate in any event whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 928.102 Continuing obligations.

If upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations thereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 928.103 Liquidation.

Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such other liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 928.110 Agents.

The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 928.111 Separability of provisions.

If any provision of this part, or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Issued at Washington D.C., this 28th day of June 1960, to be effective on and after the 1st day of July 1960.

AUTHORITY: §§ 968.0 to 968.111 issued under secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674.

§ 968.0 Findings and determinations.

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Wichita, Kansas, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than July 1, 1960. Any delay beyond that date would tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk in the marketing area.

The provisions of the said order are known to handlers. The recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service was issued May 4, 1960 and the decision of the Assistant Secretary containing all amendment provisions of this order, was issued June 17, 1960. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in method of operation for handlers. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective July 1, 1960, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (Section 4(c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 1001–1011.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of handlers (excluding cooperative associations specified in section 8c(9) of the Act) of more than 50 percent of the milk, which is marketed within the marketing area to sign a proposed marketing agreement, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the Act of advancing the interests of producers as defined in the order as hereby amended; and

(3) The issuance of the order amending the order is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Wichita, Kansas, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the order, as hereby amended:

REPORTS, RECORDS, AND FACILITIES

§ 968.30 Reports of receipts and utilization.

On or before the 7th day after the end of each month each handler, except a producer-handler, shall, with respect to milk or milk products which were received or produced by such handler during such month, report to the market administrator in the detail and form prescribed by the market administrator, as follows:

(a) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in milk received from each producer or approved dairy farmer, and the number of days for which milk was received from each producer;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of milk, and milk products from other handlers;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of other source milk (except Class III products disposed of in the form in which received without further processing or packaging by the handler);

(e) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in fluid milk products on hand at the beginning and at the end of the month;

(f) Such other information with respect to the receipts and use of milk as the market administrator may request, including a separate statement of skim milk and butterfat disposed of as Class I milk on routes within the marketing area.

§ 968.31 Payroll reports.

On or before the 20th day after the end of each month each handler shall submit to the market administrator his producer payroll for such month which shall show for each producer and each approved dairy farmer:

(a) His total deliveries of base milk and total deliveries of milk in excess of base milk;

(b) The average butterfat content of his milk; and

(c) The net amount of such handler's payments to such producer or approved dairy farmer with the prices, deductions, and charges involved.

§ 968.32 Reports of producer-handlers.

Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator shall require.

§ 968.33 Records and facilities.

Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator or to his representative during the usual hours of business such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipts of producer milk and other source milk and the utilization of such receipts;

(b) The weights and tests for butterfat and other content of all milk, skim milk, cream and milk products handled;

(c) Payments to producers and cooperative associations; and

(d) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all fluid milk products on hand at the beginning and at the end of each month.

§ 968.34 Retention of records.

All books and records required under this part to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the calendar month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three-year periods, the market administrator notified the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c(15)(A) of the Act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly, upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 968.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified.

All skim milk and butterfat received within the month by a handler which is required to be reported pursuant to § 968.30 shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions contained in § 968.41 to § 968.46.

§ 968.41 Classes of utilization.

Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 968.43 and 968.44, classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat (1) disposed of in the form of fluid milk products except those classified pursuant to paragraph (c)(7) of this section, (2) used to produce concentrated (including frozen) milk, flavored milk or flavored milk drinks disposed of for fluid consumption neither sterilized nor in hermetically sealed cans, and (3) all other skim milk and butterfat not specifically accounted for as Class II or Class III milk.

(b) Class II shall be all skim milk (including the skim milk equivalent of concentrated products) and butterfat used to produce cottage cheese in plants approved for the sale of cottage cheese in jurisdictions within the marketing area which require that cottage cheese be made from Grade A milk.

(c) Class III milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat: (1) Used to produce any product other than those products designated as Class I or Class II pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section; (2) used for starter churning, wholesale baking and candy making; (3) disposed of as livestock feed; (4) in skim milk dumped after prior notification to and opportunity for verification by the market administrator; (5) in shrinkage of producer milk but not in excess of 2 percent of receipts of skim milk and butterfat directly from producers, plus 1.5 percent of receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, transferred in bulk from pool plants of other handlers or received directly from cooperative associations pursuant to § 968.11(c), less 1.5 percent of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, disposed of in bulk lots to the pool plants of other handlers; (6) in shrinkage of other source milk; and (7) in inventory at the end of the month as any product specified in paragraph (a) of this section.

The market administrator shall allocate shrinkage over a handler's receipts as follows:

(a) Compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat respectively, for each handler; and

(b) Prorate the resulting quantities between (1) the receipts of skim milk and butterfat in the net quantity of milk from producers, from cooperative associations pursuant to § 968.11 (c) and (d); and in bulk from pool plants of other handlers, and (2) the receipts of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk.

§ 968.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk.

(a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat can prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 968.44 Transfers.

Skim milk and butterfat transferred or diverted by a handler shall be classified:

(a) At the class mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both handlers on or before the 7th day after the end of the month which such transaction occurred, otherwise as Class I milk, if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream to the approved plant of another handler, subject in either event to the following conditions:

(1) The receiving handler has utilization in such class of an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat, respectively; and

(2) Such skim milk or butterfat shall be classified so as to allocate to producer milk the highest-priced possible utilization.

(b) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of milk, skim milk, or cream to a producer-handler.

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in bulk in the form of milk, skim milk or cream to an unapproved plant located more than 250 miles from the approved plant by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator, except that (1) cream so transferred may be classified as Class III milk if its utilization as Class III milk is established through the operation of another Federal order for another milk marketing area; or (2) cream so transferred with prior notice to the market administrator, and with each container labeled or tagged with a certificate of the transferor that such cream is sold as "Grade C cream for manufacturing only", may be classified as Class III milk, subject to such verification of alternative utilization as the market administrator may make.

(d) As Class I milk, if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream in bulk to an unapproved plant located less than 250 miles from the pool plant from which transferred, unless the market administrator is permitted to audit the records of receipts and utilization at such unapproved plant, in which case the classification of all skim milk and butterfat received at such unapproved plant shall be determined and the skim milk and butterfat transferred from the approved plant shall be allocated to the highest use remaining after subtracting, in series beginning with Class I milk, receipts of skim milk and butterfat at such unapproved plant from dairy farmers who the market administrator determines constitute the regular source of supply for Class I or Class II usage as defined in §§ 968.41 (a) and (b), respectively, by such unapproved plant in markets supplied by such plant.

(e) If any skim milk or butterfat is transferred to a second plant under paragraph (d) of this section the same conditions of audit classification and allocation shall apply.

§ 968.45 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class.

For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the report of receipts and utilization submitted by each handler and shall compute the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed before the product is utilized or disposed of by a handler, the pounds of skim milk used or disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat milk solids contained in such product, plus all of the water originally associated with such solids.

§ 968.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified.

After making the computation pursuant to § 968.45 the market administrator shall determine the classification of producer milk as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class III the pounds of skim milk determined pursuant to § 968.41 (c)(5);

(2) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk, in series beginning with the lowest priced utilization, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk other than that to be subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph;

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk, in series beginning with the lowest priced utilization, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk received from a plant at which the handling of milk is fully subject to the pricing and payment provisions of another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the Act;

(4) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with the lowest priced utilization, the pounds of skim milk in inventory at the beginning of the month in the form of any product specified in § 968.41(a);

(5) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the skim milk received from other handlers in the form of milk, skim milk or cream according to its classification as determined pursuant to § 968.44(a);

(6) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class III the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(7) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in all classes exceed the pounds of skim milk received from producers, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with the lowest priced utilization. Any amount so subtracted shall be called "overage."

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of producer milk in each class computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 968.50 Basic formula price to be used in determining Class I prices.

The basic formula price to be used in determining the price per hundredweight of Class I milk shall be the higher of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(a) The average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department divided by 3.5 and multiplied by 3.8:

Present Operator and Location

Borden Co., Mount Pleasant, Mich.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Carnation Co., New London, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(b) The price per hundredweight computed by adding together the plus values pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) From the simple average as computed by the market administrator of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago as reported by the Department during the month, subtract 3 cents, add 20 percent thereof and multiply by 3.8.

(2) From the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the weighted averages of carlot prices per pound for nonfat dry milk solids, spray and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f.o.b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department, deduct 5.5 cents, multiply by 8.5, and then multiply by 0.962.

§ 968.51 Class prices.

Subject to the provisions of §§ 968.52 and 968.53, the minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for milk received at his plant during the month shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. The price per hundredweight shall be the basic formula price for the preceding month plus $1.65 during all months of the year, plus or minus a supply-demand adjustment computed as follows: Provided, That the Class I price so computed shall be not less than the Class I price computed for the same period pursuant to Federal Order No. 13 (Greater Kansas City) minus ten cents during each month of the period August through March and plus twenty-five cents for each of the months of April through July nor more than the Kansas City Class I price plus fifty cents during each of the months of the period August through March and plus eighty-five cents for each of the months of April through July.

(1) Divide the total receipts of milk from producers in the second and third months preceding by the total volume of Class I milk at pool plants (excluding interhandler transfers) for the same months, multiply the result by 100, and round to the nearest whole number. The result shall be known as the "current utilization percentage".

(2) Compute a "net deviation percentage" as follows:

(ii) Any amount by which the current utilization percentage is less than the minimum standard utilization percentage specified below is a "minus net deviation percentage", and

(iii) Any amount by which the current utilization percentage exceeds the maximum standard utilization percentage specified below is a "plus net deviation percentage".

Delivery period for which price applies	Delivery period used in computation	Percentages
		Minimum	Maximum
January	October–November	125	135
February	November–December	124	134
March	December–January	125	135
April	January–February	125	135
May	February–March	132	142
June	March–April	136	146
July	April–May	143	153
August	May–June	137	147
September	June–July	131	141
October	July–August	131	141
November	August–September	130	140
December	September–October	126	136

(3) For a minus "net deviation percentage" the Class I price shall be increased and for a plus "net deviation percentage" the Class I price shall be decreased as follows:

(i) One cent times each such percentage point of net deviation; plus

(ii) One cent times the lesser of:

(a) Each such percentage point of net deviation, or

(b) Each percentage point of net deviation of like direction (plus or minus, with any net deviation percentage of opposite direction considered to be zero for purposes of computations of this subparagraph) computed pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph for the month immediately preceding; plus

(iii) One cent times the least of:

(a) Each such percentage point of net deviation;

(b) Each percentage point of net deviation of like direction computed pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph for the month immediately preceding, or

(c) Each percentage point of net deviation of like direction computed pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph for the second preceding month.

(b) Class II milk. The price per hundredweight shall be the Class III price for the month, plus 80 cents.

(c) Class III milk. The price per hundredweight shall be the higher of the prices computed pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph.

(1) The average of the basic or field prices reported to have been paid or to be paid for ungraded milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or the Department:

Present Operator and Location

American Foods Co., Miami, Okla.
Borden Co., Ft. Scott, Kans.
Kraft Foods Co., Nevada, Mo.
Pet Milk Co., Iola, Kans.
Swift and Co., Parsons, Kans.

(2) The average price reported by the Department for the current month for milk used in the manufacture of American Cheese, evaporated milk, and butter and by-products, f.o.b. plant, United States, adjusted to 3.8 percent butterfat basis by direct ratio.

§ 968.52 Handler butterfat differential.

If the average butterfat test of Class I, Class II or Class III milk as calculated pursuant to § 968.46 is more or less than 3.8 percent, there shall be added to, or subtracted from, as the case may be, the price for such class of utilization for each one-tenth of one percent that such average butterfat test is above or below 3.8 percent, a butterfat differential computed by multiplying the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling price per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported by the Department during the month specified below by the applicable factor listed, and rounding to the nearest one-tenth cent:

(a) Class I milk. Multiply such price for the preceding month by 0.120;

(b) Class II milk. Multiply such price for the current month by 0.120;

(c) Class III milk. Multiply such price for the current month by 0.115.

§ 968.53 Location differentials to handlers.

For milk which is received at a plant located more than 70 miles by the shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from the courthouse at Wichita, Kansas, and which is classified as Class I milk, the prices computed pursuant to § 968.51(a) shall be reduced by 12 cents if such plant is located more than 70 miles but not more than 80 miles from such courthouse and by an additional 1.5 cents for each 10 miles or fraction thereof that such distance exceeds 80 miles: Provided, That for the purposes of calculating such differential, transfers between approved plants shall be assigned to Class I milk in a volume not in excess of that by which Class I disposition at the transferee plant exceeds the receipts from producers at such plants, such assignment to transferor plants to be made first to plants at which no differential credit is applicable and then in the sequence at which the lowest location differential credit would apply.

§ 968.54 Use of equivalent prices.

If for any reason a price quotation required by this order for computing class prices or for other purposes is not available in the manner described, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the price which is required.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 968.60 Producer-handlers.

Sections 968.40 to 968.46, 968.50 to 968.54, 968.61, 968.62, 968.70, 968.72 and 968.80 to 968.88 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

§ 968.61 Plants subject to other Federal orders.

The provisions of this part shall not apply to a plant specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section except as follows: The operator of such plant shall, with respect to the total receipts and utilization or disposition of skim milk and butterfat at the plant, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require, and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

(a) Any plant which would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act unless such plant qualifies as a pool plant pursuant to § 968.10 (a) or (b) and the Secretary determines that more Class I milk is disposed of from such plant to retail or wholesale outlets (except pool plants) in the Wichita marketing area than in the marketing area regulated pursuant to such other order.

(b) Any plant which would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act unless such plant qualifies as a pool plant pursuant to the provisions of § 968.10(c) or § 968.10(d).

§ 968.62 Handler operating an approved plant which is not a pool plant.

Each handler who operates an approved plant which is not a pool plant during a month, shall in lieu of the payments required pursuant to § 968.80 to § 968.85, pay to the market administrator, for the producer-settlement fund, on or before the 25th day after the end of such month, the amount resulting from the computation of paragraph (a) of this section unless the handler elects the computation specified in paragraph (b) of this section.

(a) The product of the quantity of milk received by such handler which was (1) disposed of during the month in the marketing area on routes as Class I milk by the difference between the applicable Class I and the Class III prices or (2) used to produce cottage cheese so disposed of as Class II by the difference between the Class II and Class III prices.

(b) Any plus amount resulting from the following computation: From an amount equal to the net pool obligation which would be computed pursuant to § 968.70 for such handler for such month if such handler operated a pool plant deduct the gross payments made by such handler to approved dairy farmers for milk received during such month.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE TO PRODUCERS

§ 968.70 Net pool obligations of handlers.

The net pool obligation for milk received during each month by each handler shall be computed as follows:

(a) Multiply the pounds of milk in each class computed pursuant to § 968.46(c) by the applicable respective class prices and add together the resulting amounts;

(b) Add an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of overage deducted from each class pursuant to § 968.46(a)(7) and the corresponding step of § 968.46(b) by the applicable respective class prices;

(c) Add any amount obtained through multiplying by the difference between the Class III price for the preceding month and the Class I price for the current month the lesser of:

(1) The hundredweight of milk subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 968.46(a)(4) and the corresponding step of § 968.46(b); or

(2) The hundredweight of producer milk classified as Class III utilization (except as shrinkage) for the preceding month;

(d) Add an amount obtained through multiplying by the difference between the Class III price for the preceding month and the Class II price for the current month the lesser of:

(1) The hundredweight of milk subtracted from Class II pursuant to § 968.46(a)(4) and the corresponding step of § 968.46(b); or

(2) The hundredweight of producer milk classified as Class III utilization (except as shrinkage) for the preceding month less the hundredweight of milk subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 968.46(a)(4) and the corresponding step of § 968.46(b).

(e) During any month in which the total receipts of producer milk are more than 120 percent of the total Class I utilization at all pool plants, add an amount equal to the difference between the values (subject to butterfat and location differentials) at the Class I price and the Class III price with respect to:

(1) Other source milk subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 968.46(a)(2) and the corresponding step of § 968.46(b);

(2) Milk in inventory subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 968.46(a)(4) and the corresponding step of § 968.46(b) which is in excess of the sum of:

(i) The quantity of milk for which a payment is computed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section; and

(ii) The quantity of milk subtracted from Class III pursuant to § 968.46(a)(3) and the corresponding step of § 968.46(b) for the month preceding.

(f) During any month in which the total receipts of producer milk are more than 120 percent of the total Class I utilization at all pool plants, add an amount equal to the difference between the values (subject to butterfat and location differentials) at the Class II price and the Class III price with respect to:

(1) Other source milk subtracted from Class II pursuant to § 968.46(a)(2) and the corresponding step of § 968.46(b).

(2) Milk in inventory subtracted from Class II pursuant to § 968.46(a)(4) and the corresponding step of § 968.46(b) which is in excess of the sum of:

(i) The quantity of milk for which a payment is computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section; and

(ii) The quantity of milk subtracted from Class III pursuant to § 968.46(a)(3) and the corresponding step of § 968.46(b) for the month preceding.

§ 968.71 Computation of uniform prices for base milk and excess milk.

For each month, the market administrator shall compute the uniform prices per hundredweight for base milk and excess milk as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 968.70 for all handlers who made the reports prescribed in § 968.30 and who made the payments pursuant to §§ 968.80 and 968.83 for the preceding month;

(b) Add an amount equal to not less than one-half of the unobligated cash balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(c) Subtract if the average butterfat content of the milk included in these computations is greater than 3.8 percent; or add if such average butterfat content is less than 3.8 percent an amount computed by multiplying the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 3.8 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 968.81 and multiplying the resulting figure by the total hundredweight of such milk;

(d) Add the total of the values of the applicable location differentials pursuant to § 968.81(b);

(e) Compute the total value on a 3.8 percent butterfat basis of the excess milk included in these computations by assigning such milk in series beginning with the lowest-priced utilization, multiplying the quantity so assigned to each use classification by the applicable class price, and adding together the resulting amounts;

(f) Divide the total value of excess milk obtained in paragraph (e) of this section by the total hundredweight of such milk and adjust to the nearest cent. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for excess milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content received from producers;

(g) Subtract the value of excess milk obtained in paragraph (e) of this section from the value of all milk obtained in paragraph (c) of this section and adjust by any amount involved in adjusting the uniform price of excess milk to the nearest cent;

(h) Divide the amount obtained in paragraph (g) of this section by the total hundredweight of base milk included in these computations;

(i) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents from the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (h) of this section. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for base milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content received from producers at plants within the 70-mile zone.

§ 968.72 Notification of handlers.

On or before the 11th day of each month the market administrator shall notify each handler of:

(a) The quantity and value of his milk in each class computed pursuant to §§ 968.46 and 968.70 and the totals of such quantities and values;

(b) The uniform price computed pursuant to § 968.71;

(c) The amount, if any, due such handler from the producer-settlement fund;

(d) The total amounts to be paid by such handler pursuant to §§ 968.80 and 968.83; and

(e) The amount to be paid by such handler pursuant to §§ 968.86 and 968.87.

PAYMENTS

§ 968.80 Time and method of payment.

Each handler shall make payment as follows:

(a) On or before the second working day following the 11th day after the end of the month during which the milk was received, to each producer for whom payment is not made pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, at not less than the applicable uniform prices computed pursuant to § 968.71(i) and (f) for such producers' deliveries of base milk and excess milk, respectively, adjusted by the butterfat and location differentials computed pursuant to § 968.81, and less the amount of the payment made pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section. If by such date, such handler has not received full payment pursuant to § 968.84 he may reduce his total payments uniformly to all producers by not more than the amount of the reduction in payment by the market administrator. He shall, however, complete such payments pursuant to this paragraph not later than the date for making such payments next following receipt of the balance from the market administrator.

(b) On or before the 27th day of each month, to each producer (1) to whom payment is not made pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, and (2) who is still delivering Grade A milk to such handler, an advance payment with respect to milk received from him during the first 15 days of such month computed at not less than 110 percent of the Class III price for 3.8 percent milk for the preceding month, without deduction for hauling.

(c) On or before the 14th day after the end of each month and on or before the 24th day of each month, in lieu of payments pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b), respectively, of this section, to a cooperative association which so requests, for milk which it caused to be delivered to such handler from producers, and for which such association is determined by the market administrator to be authorized to collect payment, an amount equal to the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers. Such payments due on or before the 14th day after the end of the month shall be accompanied by a statement showing for each producer the items required to be reported pursuant to § 968.31, and payments due on or before the 24th day of the month shall be accompanied by a statement of the amount of money for each producer.

(d) On or before the 10th day after the end of each month, to each cooperative association, with respect to receipts of milk for which such cooperative association is defined as the handler pursuant to § 968.11 (c) and (d), not less than the value of such milk as classified pursuant to § 968.44(a) at the applicable respective class price(s).

§ 968.81 Producer butterfat and location differentials.

(a) Producer butterfat differential. In making payments pursuant to § 968.80(a) the uniform prices per hundredweight shall be adjusted for each one-tenth of one percent that the average butterfat content is above or below 3.8 percent by a butterfat differential equal to the average of the butterfat differentials determined pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of § 968.52, weighted by the pounds of butterfat in producer milk in each class, the result being rounded to the nearest tenth of a cent.

(b) Producer location differential. In making payments to producers and cooperative associations, a handler may deduct from the applicable uniform price with respect to all milk received from producers at a pool plant located more than 70 miles, by the shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from the courthouse at Wichita, Kansas, the same amount per hundredweight as is applicable to the plant, pursuant to § 968.53.

§ 968.82 Producer-settlement fund.

The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to §§ 968.83, 968.85, and 968.62, and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to §§ 968.84 and 968.85. Immediately after computing the uniform prices for each month, the market administrator shall compute the amount by which each handler's net pool obligation is greater or less than the sum obtained by multiplying the hundredweight of milk of producers by the appropriate prices required to be paid producers by handlers pursuant to § 968.80 and adding together the resulting amounts, and shall enter such amount on each handler's account as such handler's pool debit or credit, as the case may be, and render such handler a transcript of his account.

§ 968.83 Payments to the producer-settlement fund.

On or before the 12th day after the end of each month, each handler shall pay to the market administrator for payment to producers through the producer-settlement fund, the amount by which the net pool obligation of such handler is greater than the sum required to be paid producers by such handler pursuant to § 968.80.

§ 968.84 Payments out of the producer-settlement fund.

(a) On or before the 13th day after the end of each month, the market administrator shall pay to each handler for payment to producers the amount by which the sum required to be paid producers by such handler pursuant to § 968.80 is greater than the net pool obligation of such handler.

(b) If the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this paragraph, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available, and

(c) Any amount due a handler pursuant to this section may be reduced by the amount of any unpaid balances due the market administrator from such handler pursuant to §§ 968.82, 968.83, 968.85, 968.86 or 968.87.

§ 968.85 Adjustment of errors in payments.

(a) Whenever verification by the market administrator of reports or payments of any handler discloses error in payments to the producer-settlement fund made pursuant to § 968.83, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amount and such handler shall, within 5 days of such billing, make payment to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification discloses that payment is due from the market administrator to any handler pursuant to § 968.84, the market administrator shall, within 5 days make payment to such handler. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment by a handler to any producer discloses payment to such producer of an amount which is less than is required by this part, the handler shall make up such payment to the producer not later than the time of making payment to producers next following the disclosure.

(b) Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment by a handler to any producer discloses that solely through error in computation payment to such producer was in an amount more than was required to be paid pursuant to § 968.80, no handler shall be deemed to be in violation of § 968.80 if he reduces his payment to such producer next following discovery of such error by not more than such overpayment.

§ 968.86 Marketing services.

(a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler shall deduct 6 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may prescribe, from the payments made to each producer other than himself pursuant to § 968.80(a) with respect to all milk of such producer received by such handler during the month and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 12th day after the end of such month. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to verify weights, samples and tests of milk received from, and to provide market information to such producers. The market administrator may contract with a cooperative association or cooperative associations for the furnishing of the whole or any part of such services.

(b) In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association is actually performing, as determined by the Secretary, the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make such deductions from the payments to be made directly to producers pursuant to § 968.80(a) as are authorized by such producers, and, on or before the 12th day after the end of each month, pay over such deductions to the association of which such producers are members. When requested by the cooperative association a statement shall be supplied the cooperative association showing for each producer for whom such deduction is made the amount of such deduction, the total delivery of milk, and, unless otherwise previously provided, the butterfat test.

§ 968.87 Expense of administration.

As his pro rata share of the expense of administration of this part each handler (1) with respect to all milk received from approved dairy farmers, except that in the case of a handler who elects to compute his obligation under § 968.62(a) only with respect to the quantity of milk disposed of as Class I or Class II in the marketing area and (2) with respect to other source milk allocated to Class I or Class II pursuant to § 968.46 during the month, shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 12th day after the end of such month, an amount not exceeding 4 cents per hundredweight, which amount shall be determined by the market administrator subject to review by the Secretary. In the case of any handler operating a nonpool plant which is also subject to the assessment of administrative expense under another order, the payments due under this section shall be reduced by the amount of administrative expense payments under the other order.

§ 968.88 Termination of obligation.

The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall contain but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representative all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such oblication are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed, and

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate 2 years after the end of the month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or 2 years after the end of the month during which the payment (including deduction or offset by the market administrator) was made by the handler, if a refund on such payment is claimed unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c(15)(A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

BASE RATING

§ 968.90 Determination of daily base.

(a) The daily average base of each producer who regularly delivered milk to a handler for 60 days or more during August through November of the next preceding calendar year shall be computed by the market administrator by dividing the total pounds of milk received by a handler from such producer during such months by the number of days within the period during which such producer made regular deliveries of milk in such months, or 90, whichever is greater: Provided, That in the case of producers delivering milk to a pool plant which was not a pool plant during all of the preceding months of August through November a daily average base for each such producer shall be computed pursuant to this paragraph on the basis of his verifiable deliveries of milk to such plant during the period August through November preceding the month in which the plant became a pool plant.

(b) The daily average base of each producer for whom no daily base may be established pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall be computed by the market administrator as follows:

(1) Multiply such producer's daily average deliveries of milk during the current month by the percentage that total deliveries of base milk in the current month by producers for whom daily bases are computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section are to total deliveries of milk in the current month by all producers; and

(2) For the months of January through July only, divide the result obtained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph by 2.

§ 968.91 Base rules.

(a) Any producer who ceases to deliver milk to a handler for a period of more than 30 consecutive days shall forfeit his base. In the event such producer thereafter commences to deliver milk to a handler he shall be allotted a daily base computed in the manner provided in § 968.90(b).

(b) A landlord who rents on a share basis shall be entitled to the entire daily base to the exclusion of the tenant if the landlord owns the entire herd. A tenant who rents on a share basis shall be entitled to the entire daily base to the exclusion of the landlord, if the tenant owns the entire herd. If the cattle are jointly owned by the tenant and landlord, the daily base shall be divided between the joint owners according to ownership of the cattle when such share basis is terminated.

(c) A producer, whether landlord or tenant, may retain his base when moving his entire herd of cows from one farm to another: Provided, That at the beginning of a tenant and landlord relationship the base of each landlord and tenant may be combined and may be divided when such relationship is terminated.

(d) Base may be transferred only under the following conditions: (1) In case of the death of a producer, his base may be transferred to a surviving member or members of his family who carry on the dairy operations, and (2) on the retirement of a producer, his base may be transferred to an immediate member of his family who carries on the dairy operations.

(e) The base of two producers may be combined in the case of forming a partnership, or may be divided in the case of the dissolution of a partnership.

(f) For the purposes of this section and § 968.90 only, the term "producer" shall include any person who has been a producer as defined in § 968.8 but who has been suspended temporarily for failure to produce milk in conformity with the applicable health regulations.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION

§ 968.100 Effective time.

The provisions of this part, or any amendment to this part, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated, pursuant to § 968.101.

§ 968.101 Suspension or termination.

Any or all of the provisions of this part, or any amendment to this part, may be suspended or terminated as to any or all handlers after such reasonable notice as the Secretary shall give and shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act cease to be in effect.

§ 968.102 Continuing power and duty of the market administrator.

(a) If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part there are any obligations arising under this part the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

(b) The market administrator or such other person as the Secretary may designate, shall (1) continue in such capacity until removed, (2) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements and when so directed by the Secretary deliver all funds on hand, together with the books and records of the market administrator, or such person, to such person as the Secretary shall direct, and (3) if so directed by the Secretary execute assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant thereto.

§ 968.103 Liquidation after suspension or termination.

Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part the market administrator, or such person as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid or owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions of this part, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating such funds shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

The Secretary may by designation, in writing name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 968.111 Separability of provisions.

If any provisions of this part, or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

SUBCHAPTER E—VIRUSES, SERUMS, TOXINS, AND ANALOGOUS PRODUCTS; ORGANISMS AND VECTORS

PART 131—HANDLING OF ANTI-HOG-CHOLERA SERUM AND HOG-CHOLERA VIRUS

Determination Relative to Budget of Expenses and Fixing Rates of Assessment for 1960

On June 4, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 109) regarding the budget of expenses and the fixing of the rates of assessment for the calendar year 1960, under the marketing agreement and the marketing order (9 CFR 131.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of anti-hog-cholera serum and hog-cholera virus. This regulatory program is effective pursuant to Public Law No. 320, 74th Congress, approved August 24, 1935 (7 U.S.C. 851 et seq.).

The notice provided a period of 15 days for interested parties to file data, views or arguments with the Hearing Clerk. After consideration of all relevant matters, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, it is hereby found and determined that:

a. Section 131.160 is added to read as follows:

§ 131.160 Budget of expenses and rates of assessment for the calendar year 1960.

(a) Budget of expenses. The expenses which will necessarily be incurred by the Control Agency, established pursuant to the provisions of the marketing agreement and of the marketing order (§§ 131.1 to 131.113), for the maintenance and functioning of said Agency during the calendar year 1960, will amount to $46,815.00 under the recommendation of the Control Agency, from which shall be deducted the unexpended balance of $7,229.66 on hand with said Control Agency on January 1, 1960, from assessments collected during the calendar year 1959, leaving a balance of $39,585.34 to be collected during the calendar year 1960.

(b) Rates of assessment. Of the amount of $39,585.34 to be collected during the calendar year 1960, the sum of $30,836.98 shall be assessed against handlers who are manufacturers, and $8,748.36 shall be assessed against handlers who are wholesalers. The pro rata share of the expenses of the Control Agency to be paid for the calendar year 1960 by each handler who is a manufacturer shall be $16.54 for each ten thousand dollars or fraction thereof of serum and virus sold by such handler during the calendar year 1959 and the pro rata share of such expenses to be paid for the calendar year 1960 by each handler who is a wholesaler shall be $25.00 for the first ten thousand dollars or fraction thereof and $8.48 for each additional ten thousand dollars or fraction thereof of serum and virus sold by such handler. Such assessments shall be paid by each respective handler in accordance with the applicable provisions of the marketing agreement and order (§§ 131.1 to 131.113).

(c) Terms. As used in this section, the terms "handler", "manufacturer", "wholesaler", "virus", and "serum" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in said marketing agreement and marketing order (§§ 131.1 to 131.113).

Findings relative to effective date. It is hereby further found that (1) the fiscal year of the Control Agency established pursuant to the provisions of the marketing agreement and the marketing order corresponds to the calendar year, and the current calendar year 1960 is already well advanced; (2) the expenses of operating this regulatory program since January 1, 1960, have been paid with funds representing assessments collected in excess of expenses incurred during the calendar year 1959 and prepayments of a portion of their 1960 assessments by manufacturer and wholesaler handlers; (3) nearly all such funds have now been expended; (4) in order for the administrative assessments to be collected, it is essential that the specification of the assessment rates be effective immediately so as to enable the Control Agency to perform its respective duties and functions under the aforesaid marketing agreement and marketing order; and (5) no preparation with respect to this determination is required of persons regulated which cannot be completed prior to the effective date hereof. Wherefore, it is hereby determined that good cause exists for making this determination effective upon its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 60, 49 Stat. 782; 7 U.S.C. 855)

Done at Washington, D.C., this 27th day of June 1960, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

M. R. CLARKSON,
Acting Administrator,
Agricultural Research Service.

SUBCHAPTER C—AIRCRAFT REGULATIONS

[Reg. Docket No. 374; Amdt. 177]

PART 507—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Convair 340 and 440 Aircraft

A proposal to amend Part 507 of the regulations of the Administrator to include an airworthiness directive requiring visual inspection for cracks and replacement or rework if cracks are found in the main landing gear cylinder rod assembly on Convair 340 and 440 aircraft was published in 25 F.R. 4085.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the amendment. No objections were received.

In consideration of the foregoing, § 507.10(a) (14 CFR Part 507), is hereby amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

CONVAIR. Applies to all Model 340/440 aircraft.

Compliance required as indicated.

Fatigue failures have occurred in the threaded area (piston end) of the main landing gear actuating cylinder rod assembly, P/N 340-5150107. In at least two instances complete failure of the rod end occurred allowing the main gear to free fall to the down position causing excessive loads to be placed on the airframe. As a result, the following must be accomplished on rod assemblies with more than 5,000 hours' time in service.

Within the next 425 hours' time in service, and every 425 hours thereafter, conduct a visual inspection using at least a 10-power magnifying glass or equivalent for cracks in the threaded portion of the main landing gear actuating cylinder rod assembly, P/N 340-5150107. If cracks are found, the cylinder rod assembly must be replaced or reworked in accordance with Convair Service Letter 15-4-340-12-440-11 or equivalent prior to further flight. Reworked salvaged parts or reworked sound parts are not subject to the special inspections.

(Sec. 313(a), 601, 603; 72 Stat. 752, 775, 776; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 27, 1960.

Administrator.

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Modification of Control Zone and Control Area Extensions; Change of Effective Date

On February 17, 1960, there were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 1400) amendments to §§ 601.2125 and 601.1244 of the regulations of the Administrator. These amendments, to be effective August 25, 1960, modified the Terre Haute, Ind., control zone and control area extensions, concurrently with the relocation of the Terre Haute VOR.

Subsequently, the commissioning date of the relocated Terre Haute VOR was rescheduled, necessitating a change in the effective date of these amendments to October 20, 1960. A modification of amendments accomplishing this change was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 5331).

The commissioning of the Terre Haute VOR at its new site has again been rescheduled. Therefore, it is necessary to further postpone the effective date of the above-mentioned amendments until November 17, 1960.

Since this action does not impose a burden on the public, compliance with the notice, public procedure and effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530), effective immediately, Airspace Docket No. 59-WA-318 is hereby modified as follows: "effective 0001 e.s.t. October 20, 1960." is deleted and "effective 0001 e.s.t. November 17, 1960." is substituted therefor.

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Modification of Control Zone

On March 26, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 2591) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was proposing to modify the Hobbs, N. Mex., control zone by designating the control zone within a 5-mile radius of the Lea County Airport; within 2 miles either side of the south course of the Hobbs radio range extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the radio range and within 2 miles either side of the 213° True radial of the Hobbs VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR. Subsequent to publication of the notice, a modification of the proposal was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 4087) on May 7, 1960, changing the extension on the 213° True radial of the Hobbs VOR to the 225° True radial.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendment having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the notice and the modification of proposal, § 601.2280 (24 F.R. 10584) is amended to read:

§ 601.2280 Hobbs, N. Mex., control zone.

PART 602—ESTABLISHMENT OF CODED JET ROUTES AND NAVIGATIONAL AIDS IN THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA

Establishment of Coded Jet Route

On April 26, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 3597) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering the establishment of VOR/VORTAC jet route No. 103 from St. Petersburg, Fla., to Orlando, Fla.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment. The Air Transport Association, in stating that they strongly endorsed the proposed route, recommended a change in the numbering of the route, assigning a single number identifying the connecting routes from Orlando to New York. Following development of procedures to extend jet routes beyond the continental limits of the United States, the Federal Aviation Agency intends proposing the extension of J-103-V from Orlando via J-81-V; Barracuda Intersection; control area extension 1150 to Wilmington, North Carolina; J-79-V to Idlewild, New York. This will simplify flight planning, in accord with the ATA recommendation, for those flights proceeding from New York to St. Petersburg.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendment having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the notice and the modification of proposal, § 602.5103 (24 F.R. 10584) is amended to read:

§ 602.5103 VOR/VORTAC jet route No. 103 (St. Petersburg, Fla., to Orlando, Fla.).

From the St. Petersburg, Fla., VORTAC to the Orlando, Fla., VOR.

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. August 25, 1960.

In the Matter of Sidney J. Kreiss, Inc., a Corporation, Picturesque Hosiery Company, Inc., a Corporation, and Sidney J. Kreiss, and Mildred Kreiss, Individually and as Officers of Said Corporations

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging New York City distributors of women's hosiery to retail stores with representing falsely—in advertising in magazines and newspapers and in "mailers" supplied their customers for use in promoting sales—that certain of their hosiery was created, designed or fashioned by famous fashion designers, that exaggerated amounts were the usual retail prices, that with purchases of nine pairs of hosiery customers would receive three additional pairs free, and that certain of their hosiery was created and designed by famous fashion designers.

Denying cross-appeals from the initial decision, which dismissed the first two charges, the Commission on May 19 adopted the initial decision with slight modification as the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist, as modified, is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Sidney J. Kreiss, Inc., a corporation, and Picturesque Hosiery Company, Inc., a corporation, and their respective officers, and respondent Mildred Kreiss as an officer of said corporations, and respondent Sidney J. Kreiss, individually and as officer of said corporations, and their respective agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of hosiery or other similar products in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Representing, directly or by implication, that respondents' hosiery or any other similar product has been created, designed, styled or manufactured by anyone other than the respondents or the person who actually did create, design, style or manufacture such hosiery or other similar products.

(2) Placing in the hands of others a means or opportunity of representing to purchasers or prospective purchasers that the hosiery or other products supplied by the respondents were created, designed, styled or manufactured by famous fashion designers or any other person who did not actually create, design, style or manufacture such hosiery or other product.

[1] New.

It is further ordered, That the complaint be, and the same hereby is, dismissed as to respondent Mildred Kreiss in her individual capacity but not in her capacity as an officer of respondent corporations.

It is further ordered, That all charges of the complaint not prohibited by this order be dismissed.

By "Final Order", report of compliance was required as follows:

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist contained in the initial decision as modified.

Issued: May 19, 1960.

(a) General. * * *

(b) [Reserved]

(c) Amount of distribution. (1) Where a distribution of stock or rights to acquire stock of a corporation is treated as a distribution of property to which section 301 applies by reason of section 305(b)(2), the amount of the distribution, in accordance with section 301(b) and § 1.301–1, is the fair market value of such stock or rights on the date of distribution. Accordingly, where a corporation makes a distribution, to which section 305(b)(2) is applicable, which is payable either in property or in its own stock or rights to acquire its stock the amount distributed with respect to all shareholders receiving stock or rights is the fair market value, on the date of distribution, of the stock or rights received. The amount distributed with respect to shareholders receiving property is the fair market value, on the date of distribution, of such property received or, in the case of corporate distributees, the adjusted basis of such property in the hands of the distributing corporation if less than its fair market value. Where a corporation which regularly distributes its earnings and profits, such as a regulated investment company, declares a dividend pursuant to which the shareholders may elect to receive either money or stock of the distributing corporation of equivalent value and, on a date shortly before the distribution, there is a determination of the amount of stock to be distributed to those shareholders who elect to receive stock equal in value to the amount of money that could be received instead, the amount of the distribution of the stock received by any shareholder will be considered to equal the amount of the money which could have been received instead.

(2) The application of section 305(b) may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (i). (i) Corporation X declared a dividend payable in additional shares of its common stock to the holders of its outstanding common stock on the basis of two additional shares for each share held on the record date but with the provision that, at the election of any shareholder made within a specified period prior to the distribution date, he may receive one additional share for each share held on the record date plus $12 principal amount of securities of Corporation Y owned by Corporation X. The fair market value of the stock of Corporation X on the distribution date was $10 per share. The fair market value of $12 principal amount of securities of Corporation Y on the distribution date was $11 but such securities had a cost basis to Corporation X of $9.

(ii) The distribution to all shareholders of one additional share of stock of Corporation X (with respect to which no election applies) for each share outstanding is not a distribution to which section 301 applies.

(iii) The distribution of the second share of stock of Corporation X to those shareholders who do not elect to receive securities of Corporation Y is a distribution of property to which section 301 applies, whether such shareholders are individuals or corporations. The amount of the distribution to which section 301 applies is $10 per share of stock of Corporation X held on the record date (the fair market value of the stock of Corporation X on the distribution date).

(iv) The distribution of securities of Corporation Y in lieu of the second share of stock of Corporation X to the shareholders of Corporation X, whether individuals or corporations, who elect to receive such securities, is also a distribution of property to which section 301 applies.

(v) In the case of the individual shareholders of Corporation X who elect to receive such securities, the amount of the distribution to which section 301 applies is $11 per share of stock of Corporation X held on the record date (the fair market value of the $12 principal amount of securities of Corporation Y on the distribution date).

(vi) In the case of the corporate shareholders of Corporation X electing to receive such securities, the amount of the distribution to which section 301 applies is $9 per share of stock of Corporation X held on the record date (the basis of the securities of Corporation Y in the hands of Corporation X).

Example (2). On January 10, 1960, Corporation X, a regulated investment company, declared a dividend of $1 per share on its common stock payable on February 11, 1960, in cash or in stock of Corporation X of equivalent value determined as of January 22, 1960, at the election of the shareholder made on or before January 22, 1960. The amount of the distribution to which section 301 applies is $1 per share whether the shareholder elects to take cash or stock and whether the shareholder is an individual or a corporation. Such amount will also be used in determining the dividend paid deduction of Corporation X and the reduction in earnings and profits of Corporation X.

PAR. 2. The title of § 1.312–11 and paragraph (a) of that section are amended to read as follows:

§ 1.312–11 Effect on earnings and profits of certain other tax-free exchanges, tax-free distributions and tax-free transfers from one corporation to another.

(a) If property is transferred by one corporation to another, and, under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made, no gain or loss was recognized (or was recognized only to the extent of the property received other than that permitted by such law to be received without the recognition of gain), then proper adjustment and allocation of the earnings and profits of the transferor shall be made as between the transferor and the transferee. Transfers to which the preceding sentence applies include contributions to capital, transfers under section 351, transfers in connection with reorganizations under section 368, transfers in liquidations under section 332 and intercompany transfers during a period of affiliation. However, if, for example, property is transferred from one corporation to another in a transaction under section 351 or as a contribution to capital and the transfer is not followed or preceded by a reorganization, a transaction under section 302 (a) involving a substantial part of the transferor's stock, or a total or partial liquidation, then ordinarily no allocation of the earnings and profits of the transferor shall be made. For specific rules as to allocation of earnings and profits in certain reorganizations under section 368 and in certain liquidations under section 332 see section 381 and the regulations thereunder. For allocation of earnings and profits in certain corporate separations see section 312(i) and § 1.312–10.

§ 240.1041 Who may withdraw.

The proprietor of a bonded wine cellar may, as provided in this part, withdraw, without payment of tax, distillates containing aldehydes, for use in the fermentation of wine which is to be used as distilling material. Such withdrawals may be made only from an adjacent distilled spirits plant. Application for withdrawal of distillates containing aldehydes will not be approved unless facilities for the receipt, storage, and use of such distillates have been approved by the assistant regional commissioner. A proprietor of a bonded wine cellar who is operating under bond, Form 700, and who intends to receive and use distillates containing aldehydes, shall furnish a consent of surety, Form 1533, which consent shall contain the following statement of purpose:

To extend the terms and conditions of said bond to cover payment of all taxes imposed by law now or hereinafter in force (plus penalties, if any, and interest) for which the principal may become liable on all distillates containing aldehydes removed from the bonded premises of a distilled spirits plant to his bonded wine cellar.

Such facilities may include short detachable hose connections between pipelines and tanks on the bonded wine cellar premises. The proprietor shall notify the assistant regional commissioner, or officer designated by him, sufficiently in advance of withdrawals so that an internal revenue officer may be designated to supervise the receipt of the distillates at the wine cellar.

§ 240.1042 Application, Form 257.

A proprietor who intends to withdraw distillates containing aldehydes will make application on Form 257. The proprietor shall specify in the application the approximate desired date of receipt of the distillates and the method of conveyance, such as pipeline or packages. The same application may not include distillates from more than one distilled spirits plant.

(72 Stat. 1382; 26 U.S.C. 5373)

§ 240.1043 Receipt and deposit of distillates containing aldehydes.

Distillates containing aldehydes which are received at the bonded wine cellar (if not immediately used) shall be placed under the proprietor's lock in a secure room or tank on the bonded premises. Distillates containing aldehydes shall not be mingled with wine spirits. If such distillates contain less than one-tenth of one percent of aldehydes, they shall be subject to such additional conditions relating to the receipt, storage, and use as the assistant regional commissioner shall require to assure that such distillates will be properly used and accounted for.

§ 240.1044 Other provisions applicable.

The provisions of Subpart PP relative to the filing, execution, and disposition of Form 257, bond coverage, withdrawals (including monthly withdrawals) in packages, tank cars, tank trucks, and by pipeline, and the transfer, receipt, deposit in wine spirits addition tanks or stored on bonded wine cellar premises, and records and supervision (including waiver of supervision) in respect of wine spirits, shall, subject to the provisions of this subpart, be applicable in respect of distillates to be deposited in fermenters or stored on bonded wine cellar premises, as the case may be, for use under the provisions of this part.

PART 250—LIQUORS AND ARTICLES FROM PUERTO RICO AND THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

Miscellaneous Amendments

On May 6, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making with respect to the amendments of regulations in 26 CFR Part 250 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The amendments would conform this regulation in respect of changes made in certain other regulations of this title effective July 1, 1960.

In accordance with the notice interested parties were afforded an opportunity to submit written comments or suggestions or to request a public hearing. No comments or suggestions or requests for a public hearing were received within the 30 days prescribed in the notice. However, it has been administratively determined to make further conforming changes in the proposed amendments in respect to (1) use of distilled spirits stamps in lieu of wholesale liquor dealer stamps, (2) preparation and disposition of Form 2260, (3) filing and disposition of Form 27-B Supplemental, and (4) other changes clarifying or technical in nature. Accordingly, the amendments as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER are hereby adopted, subject to the following changes:

1. Immediately following amendatory paragraph 13, new paragraphs 13a, 13b, and 13c, are added.

2. Paragraph 20 is changed by revising the last two sentences of § 250.146.

3. Paragraph 22 is changed by striking in the first sentence of § 250.193 immediately after "(a)" the word "distilled" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "industrial".

4. Immediately after paragraph 25, new paragraphs 25a and 25b are added.

5. Paragraph 26 is changed:

(A) By striking in the first sentence of § 250.235 immediately after the words "in this" the word "part" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "subpart";

(B) By striking in the second sentence of § 250.252 the word "denomination" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "size"; and

(C) By striking in the headnote for § 250.253 the words "diverted by the" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "returned to a".

6. Paragraph 28 is changed by striking in the first sentence of § 250.291 immediately after "(a)" the word "distilled" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "industrial".

Because this Treasury decision is a part of an integrated recodification program under Chapter 51, I.R.C., and in order that the entire program may be effective on July 1, 1960, it is found that it is contrary to the public interest to issue this Treasury decision subject to the effective date limitation of section 4(c) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003). Accordingly, this Treasury decision shall become effective on July 1, 1960.

§ 250.191 Samples and analysis.

Whenever completely denatured spirits, produced and denatured under the provisions of this subchapter, or proprietary or special industrial solvents, proprietary antifreeze solutions, and toilet preparations (bay rum, hair lotions, skin lotions, and similar products) manufactured under the provisions of this subchapter with denatured spirits produced and denatured under the provisions of this subchapter are shipped in containers larger than 5 wine gallons from Puerto Rico to the United States exempt from tax under the provisions of § 250.36, the shipper shall notify the chemist in charge in Puerto Rico, who will have representative samples taken from each shipment for examination. Such samples must definitely represent the products which are to be shipped. It will not be necessary to sample every container, as samples taken at random from large shipments will be considered as representative of the entire lot. The samples will be examined promptly by the chemist who will forward a copy of his chemical report to the assistant regional commissioner of the region where the port of arrival is located. The report will show whether the product conforms to authorized formulas for completely denatured spirits, or to the formulas on approved Form 1479–A for such products, and must contain sufficient data to definitely identify the particular shipment involved.

(72 Stat. 1375, 1430; 26 U.S.C. 5314, 7652)

§ 250.192 Action by assistant regional commissioner.

If the chemical report discloses to the assistant regional commissioner that the product conforms to an approved formula, he will promptly advise the collector of customs at the port of arrival that the shipment may be released free of tax. If the report discloses that the product does not conform to an approved formula, the assistant regional commissioner will request the collector of customs to detain the product and will forward a copy of the report to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, for advice as to the disposition of the product.

§ 250.193 Certificate.

Every person shipping into the United States from Puerto Rico free of tax, pursuant to §§ 250.36 and 250.36a, (a) industrial spirits produced and withdrawn in Puerto Rico in accordance with the provisions of this subchapter relating to the production, bonded warehousing, and the withdrawal from bond of spirits in the United States, (b) distilled spirits produced, warehoused (if applicable), denatured, and withdrawn in Puerto Rico in accordance with the applicable provisions of this subchapter relating to the production, bonded warehousing, denaturation, and the withdrawal from bond of denatured spirits in the United States, and (c) products containing such denatured spirits and manufactured in accordance with the provisions of this subchapter relating to the use of denatured spirits in the United States, shall certify, in the English language, to such fact on the face of the shipper's waybill. Where the product is made pursuant to approved Form 1479–A, the shipper shall also certify as follows:

Made with ---------- (Completely or specially) denatured spirits, Formula No. ------, pursuant to Form 1479–A, approved ----------, 19---.

(72 Stat. 1375, 1430; 26 U.S.C. 5314, 7652)

§ 250.194 Marking containers.

In addition to such other data as may be required by Part 211 of this chapter to be marked on packages of products containing denatured spirits, the name, address, and permit number of the manufacturer shall appear on each shipping container of such products shipped from Puerto Rico to the United States free of tax.

(72 Stat. 1375, 1430; 26 U.S.C. 5314, 7652)

§ 250.195 Arrival in the United States.

When industrial spirits, denatured spirits, and products containing denatured spirits, coming into this country from Puerto Rico, are covered by shipper's documents bearing the manufacturer's certificate prescribed in § 250.193, the collector of customs will inspect and verify the consignment. If no discrepancies are found, the products may be released free of tax: Provided, That in the case of products required to be examined by the chemist in charge in Puerto Rico in accordance with § 250.191, release shall be withheld until advice is received from the assistant regional commissioner that the shipment may be released free of tax, as provided in § 250.192.

§ 250.201b [Amendment]

23. Section 250.201b is amended by striking the phrase "Subpart PP of Part 182 of this chapter in respect of alcohol, denatured alcohol, and products containing denatured alcohol, shall respectively apply to:" from the first sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the phrase "Subpart O shall apply to:".

Each formula and process shall be filed with the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, on Form 27–B Supplemental, in quintuplicate, properly modified. Two additional copies of each formula and process shall be submitted for each additional port of entry. A separate communication listing the port or ports shall be submitted with each formula. When, after approval of the formula, the product is to be entered at an additional port or ports, two additional copies of the approved formula (for each additional port) for distribution to the collector of customs and assistant regional commissioner concerned shall be filed with the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division with a separate communication stating the additional port or ports.

26. Subpart L is amended to read:

Subpart L—Red Strip Stamps for Distilled Spirits From the Virgin Islands

GENERAL

§ 250.230 Containers of distilled spirits to bear red strip stamps.

No person shall transport, possess, buy, sell, or transfer any distilled spirits brought into the United States from the Virgin Islands unless the immediate container thereof is stamped with a red strip stamp evidencing the determination or payment of all internal revenue taxes thereon. The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

(a) Distilled spirits in customs custody;

(b) Distilled spirits not intended for sale or for use in the manufacture or production of any article intended for sale;

(c) Distilled spirits on which no internal revenue tax is required to be paid;

(d) Distilled spirits in immediate containers stamped under other provisions of internal revenue or customs law or regulations issued pursuant thereto; or

(e) Any regularly established common carrier, receiving, transporting, delivering, or holding for transportation or delivery distilled spirits in the ordinary course of its business as a common carrier.

(72 Stat. 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5205)

§ 250.231 Persons authorized to affix red strip stamps.

Red strip stamps shall be affixed to containers of distilled spirits as follows:

(a) By the bottler or exporter in the Virgin Islands; or

(b) By the importer or owner under customs supervision.

(72 Stat. 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5205)

§ 250.232 Size of red strip stamps.

Red strip stamps shall be issued in a standard size, serially numbered, for bottles or containers of ½ pint capacity or more, and in a small size for bottles or containers of less than ½ pint capacity.

(72 Stat. 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5205)

Strip stamps shall be securely affixed to the container with a strong adhesive, and shall be affixed in such manner that on opening the container the stamp will be broken and a portion thereof, sufficient to identify the kind of stamp placed thereon, will remain attached to the container or to a cap or seal which is permanently affixed thereto. Strip stamps affixed to containers shall not be concealed or obscured in any manner except that any such stamp may be covered by a cup, cap, seal, carton, wrapping, or other device which can be readily removed without injury to the stamp or which is sufficiently transparent to permit all data on the stamp to be read. If a cup, cap, or seal is placed over a stamp, a portion of the stamp must remain plainly visible. If containers are enclosed in sealed opaque cartons, such cartons and wrappings on such cartons must bear the words, "This package may be opened for examination by Internal Revenue Officers." Internal revenue and customs officers have the right to open such cartons or wrappings and examine the container. Where there is doubt as to the propriety of the use of any cup, cap, or seal, the closure and container should be submitted to the Director for approval.

§ 250.234 Power of attorney.

Where an importer gives power of attorney to another person to sign Form 96, Form 428, Form 1627, or Form 1627A, such power of attorney shall be filed with the collector of customs who approves the issuance of red strip stamps and shall be in such form as is required by Customs Regulations (19 CFR Chapter I). Where any of the above forms are signed by a duly authorized agent, the name of the importer shall be given, followed by the signature of the agent and the words "Attorney in Fact".

§ 250.235 Breach of regulations, or failure to properly account for strip stamps.

Where an importer fails to render an accounting for strip stamps as prescribed in this subpart, or where the collector of customs is not able to reconcile his records with those of the importer and is not satisfied with the accounting as rendered by the importer, or where there has been any breach of the provisions of this part by the importer, or use of stamps for a purpose other than that for which they were procured, the collector of customs shall refuse to approve any further requisitions, Form 428, submitted by the importer. The collector of customs may also require of the importer an immediate accounting of all strip stamps outstanding in the name of the importer. Such accounting shall be made at a time and place to be specified by the collector of customs, and shall be of such a nature as to satisfy the collector of customs that there has been no unlawful diversion or use of said stamps. If deemed necessary, the collector of customs may require the importer to call in all unused strip stamps, wherever they may be, and deliver them so they may be counted. Where the collector of customs has evidence that any of the provisions of this part have been willfully violated, he shall refer the matter to the Director for appropriate action.

RED STRIP STAMPS TO BE AFFIXED IN THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

§ 250.236 Conditions.

Red strip stamps may be procured by an importer, or his duly authorized agent, to be affixed to containers of distilled spirits by the bottler or exporter in the Virgin Islands as provided in this subpart.

(72 Stat. 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5205)

§ 250.237 Requisition, Form 428.

Requisition for red strip stamps shall be made by the importer, or his duly authorized agent, or by the subsequent purchaser of the distilled spirits, on Form 428, in triplicate. The local address of the importer, or his agent, shall be given on Form 428. At the time the importer presents his first Form 428 for approval, he shall present and file (if he has not already done so) with the collector of customs a certified or photostatic copy of his importer's permit issued pursuant to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act and regulations promulgated thereunder. All Forms 428 shall be submitted to the collector of customs of the district in which the place of business of the importer, or his duly authorized agent, or the subsequent purchaser of the distilled spirits, as the case may be, is located. Collectors of customs shall refuse to approve requisitions, Forms 428, submitted by any person or his agent when the collector has knowledge that such person or his agent has, because of failure to account for stamps, been denied approval of a requisition, Form 428, and has not yet accounted for such stamps. All strip stamps issued on Form 428 shall be accounted for, in the manner prescribed in this part, within 18 months from the date of requisition, or within such additional extension of time as may be granted under § 250.239.

§ 250.238 Statement, Form 1627.

The importer, or his duly authorized agent, shall submit, with Form 428 for stamps to be sent to the Virgin Islands, a statement on Form 1627, executed under the penalties of perjury:

(a) That the stamps are requisitioned for sending to the Virgin Islands and are required to supply existing orders and/or represent a reasonable anticipation of current requirements;

(b) That a complete accounting for such stamps will be made within eighteen months from the date of requisition (or within such additional extension of time as may be granted under § 250.239) in accordance with the provisions of this part;

(c) Either that no Form 428 from the importer or his duly authorized agent is and has been open beyond eighteen months, or, if any Forms 428 are open, specifying those that are open beyond eighteen months; and

(d) That the requisitionist understands that failure to account for the strip stamps will be grounds for rejection of subsequent requisitions for red strip stamps.

§ 250.239 Extension of time for final accounting of strip stamps.

Where an importer is not able, within the eighteen-month period prescribed in § 250.237, or within any extension period which might be granted in this section, to give a complete accounting for all strip stamps issued with respect to any requisition on Form 428 in the manner prescribed in this part, he shall notify the collector of customs, in writing, prior to the expiration of the eighteen-month period or any extension period granted under this section, setting forth all pertinent facts and requesting an extension of time wherein to make his final accounting. If satisfied that the circumstances warrant an extension of time, the collector of customs may grant an extension or extensions, not to exceed a total of twelve months. If any application is made for a further extension of time, the collector of customs shall submit it, with his recommendation, to the Commissioner of Customs who may, when the circumstances warrant, grant an additional extension of time. Where the collector of customs is not satisfied with the reasons given for requesting an extension of time, he shall proceed as prescribed in § 250.235.

§ 250.240 Approval of requisition.

The collector of customs will approve Form 428 if he—

(a) Is satisfied:

(1) That the importer is the holder of an importer's permit issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act and the regulations in 27 CFR Part 1;

(2) That the quantity requisitioned is reasonable and necessary for distilled spirits to be brought into the United States from the Virgin Islands to supply existing orders and/or anticipated requirements, or to be removed from customs custody, as provided in this part; and

(3) That his records show that all strip stamps which may have been previously issued to the importer have been properly and timely accounted for as provided in this part; and

(b) Has not been informed that the importer or his agent has been denied approval of a requisition and has not accounted for the stamps on account of which such denial was given.

When satisfied that Form 428 may be approved, the collector of customs shall signify his approval on all copies of Form 428, retain Form 1627 (if any) and one copy of Form 428, and return the original and remaining copy of Form 428 to the applicant for submission to the proper district director of internal revenue.

§ 250.241 Procurement of red strip stamps.

Red strip stamps shall be procured by the importer, or his duly authorized agent, or the subsequent purchaser of the distilled spirits, as the case may be, from the district director of internal revenue of the district in which the place of business of such applicant is located. The applicant shall forward to the district director of internal revenue the original and copy of the approved Form 428. The district director of internal revenue may issue the exact number of stamps requisitioned thereon even though it is necessary to use portions of sheets. The district director of internal revenue shall enter the serial numbers of the stamps issued and stamp the date of issue on both copies of Form 428, retain the original copy, and send the remaining copy to the collector of customs who approved it.

The importer, or his duly authorized agent, or the subsequent purchaser of the distilled spirits, as the case may be, shall have the red strip stamps overprinted with the importer's real name and/or one of his approved trade names, consistent with the name of the importer as shown on the labels of the imported spirits to which the red strip stamps are to be applied. He shall submit the stamps to the collector of customs, who will verify the overprinting and make an endorsement showing the verification on Form 428 or on the retained original of Form 1627 where such form is submitted: Provided, That the collector of customs may so endorse the Form 428 or Form 1627 on presentation of other evidence satisfactory to him that the stamps have been properly overprinted when, in his opinion, physical submission of the stamps is impractical. The collector of customs will then authorize the importer or his duly authorized agent to send the stamps to the bottler or exporter in the Virgin Islands.

§ 250.243 Marking of cases.

Where red strip stamps are affixed in the Virgin Islands, the bottler or exporter will plainly and legibly mark the following legend on each case of distilled spirits so stamped:

The red strip stamps required by section 5205, I.R.C., are affixed to the _____ (Number) _____, containers of distilled spirits in this (Size) case.

_____ (Name of bottler or exporter)

(72 Stat. 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5205)

§ 250.244 Endorsement of entries.

Upon arrival of the distilled spirits in this country, entries required to be filed under Customs Regulations (19 CFR Ch. I) shall have endorsed thereon by the importer, or his duly authorized agent, the following legend:

The red strip stamps required by section 5205, I.R.C., were affixed abroad. These stamps were procured by _____ (Name of importer) on a requisition, Form 428, Importer's No. _____, approved by the collector of customs at _____ (Port where Form 428 was approved) on _____ (Date of approval of Form 428)

(72 Stat. 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5205)

§ 250.245 Request for credit of red strip stamps on distilled spirits deposited in a foreign-trade zone at specified port.

When red strip stamps are affixed in the Virgin Islands to containers of distilled spirits and, on arrival in the United States, the spirits are stored in a foreign-trade zone located at the port specified in the requisition, the importer may obtain credit of the red strip stamps against the appropriate requisition. In such cases, the zone application shall have endorsed thereon, by the importer or his duly authorized agent, the legend required by § 250.244. In addition, and as a condition of obtaining approval from the collector of customs for admission of the spirits to the zone, the importer or his duly authorized agent and the zone grantee shall state on the zone application that if such spirits are subsequently exported from the zone the red strip stamps will be effectively destroyed under customs supervision prior to exportation. The collector of customs will not approve such exportation and will not execute a permit of delivery until the red strip stamps have been effectively destroyed as provided in § 250.252.

§ 250.246 Credit of red strip stamps against requisition on arrival of distilled spirits at specified port.

Where entries required to be filed under Customs Regulations (19 CFR Chapter I) are filed at the port where the requisition was approved, the collector of customs who approved the requisition will credit the Form 428 described in the endorsement on the entry referred to in § 250.244 with the number and size of red strip stamps shown by the usual customs examination to have been attached to the containers. When distilled spirits are placed in a foreign-trade zone at the port of requisition and where the zone application complies with the provisions of § 250.245, the collector of customs shall credit the appropriate strip stamp record with the number and size of red strip stamps shown by the usual customs examination to have been affixed to the containers.

§ 250.247 Credit of red strip stamps against requisition on diversion of spirits to other than specified port.

In the event of diversion of all or part of the spirits to a port or ports, or to a foreign-trade zone at a port, other than the port specified in Form 1627 filed with the Form 428, the importer who requisitioned the stamps, or the importer at the port of diversion, or the duly authorized agent of either, shall prepare Form 1627A, in triplicate, for each such diversion. One copy of Form 1627A shall be promptly sent to the collector of customs at the port of requisition, and the original and remaining copy shall be filed with the collector of customs at the port of diversion at the time the required entry, or zone application, is filed. The corresponding entry or zone application at the port of entry shall be marked with the requisition and diversion numbers, and the name of the port of requisition, as shown on the Form 1627A. The provisions of § 250.245 shall, as applicable, cover stamps on spirits diverted to a foreign-trade zone located at a port other than the port specified in Form 1627. Such diverted spirits may not be released from customs custody or admitted into a foreign-trade zone until the required Form 1627A has been filed. The collector of customs at the port of diversion shall certify on both copies of Form 1627A as to the disposition of the spirits and of the stamps shown by the usual customs examination to have been affixed to the containers, and forward the original Form 1627A to the collector of customs at the port of requisition. He shall retain the copy of Form 1627A as a record copy in a separate file. On receipt of Form 1627A from the collector of customs at the port of diversion, the collector of customs at the port of requisition shall enter the appropriate credit on his strip stamp record, stamp "Strip stamps used and credited except as noted" on the Copy of Form 1627A originally received by him for such diversion, and send such copy to the importer, or importer's agent, who requisitioned the stamps. Such importer or agent may then take credit for the stamps on his strip stamp record.

§ 250.248 Follow-up procedure for Forms 1627A.

When the importer, or importer's agent, who requisitioned the stamps on Form 428 has not, within two months from the date of arrival of the spirits, received from the collector of customs the copy of Form 1627A noted as to credit of strip stamps by the collector, as provided for in § 250.247, he shall inquire of the collector of customs who approved the requisition, Form 428, whether the required report on Form 1627A has been received from the collector of customs at the port of diversion. If the collector of customs reports the nonreceipt of Form 1627A from the collector at the port of diversion, the importer, or the importer's agent, shall make a written inquiry, either directly or through the importer at the port of diversion, of the collector of customs at the port of diversion whether such collector has reported on the diversion. The inquiry shall show the entry number, or identify the zone application, and shall be accompanied by two copies of the original Form 1627A marked "Follow-up: Prepared _____ (Date)." On receipt of the inquiry, the collector of customs of the port of diversion will compare the "Follow-up" copies with his file of record copies of Form 1627A. If he has a record copy showing that he forwarded the original Form 1627A, he shall insert any stamp data on the "Follow-up" copies, return one copy to the party who presented it, and forward the other copy to the collector of customs at the port of requisition. If the collector of customs at the port of diversion finds no corresponding record copy of Form 1627A, he shall use the "Follow-up" copies as original copies. In such case, he shall strike out the words "Follow-up," enter the stamp data thereon, retain one copy as his record copy, and forward the other copy to the collector of customs at the port of requisition. On receipt of the copy by the collector of customs at the port of requisition, the copy will be compared with the records. If the original Form 1627A has been received and the triplicate copy has already been forwarded to the importer, or to the importer's agent, the "Follow-up" copy shall also be sent to him without further action. If the collector of customs at the port of requisition finds that he has not received the original Form 1627A from the port of diversion, he shall use the "Follow-up" copy as the original of Form 1627A, and process it in accordance with § 250.247. On receipt of the copy of Form 1627A, the importer, or the importer's agent, may, unless he has already received his copy of Form 1627A, take credit for the stamps on his strip stamp record.

§ 250.249 Irregularities or discrepancies in shipments.

In case any irregularities or discrepancies are found, the collector of customs at the port of entry will make demand for redelivery of unexamined packages, and will not release examined or redelivered packages until satisfactory explanation and/or proper corrections have been made.

(72 Stat. 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5205)

§ 250.250 Transfer of red strip stamps in the Virgin Islands.

Where an importer has shipped red strip stamps to a Virgin Islands bottler or exporter, to be affixed to containers of distilled spirits to be brought into the United States, and he desires to transfer all or a part of these stamps to a bottler or exporter in the Virgin Islands other than the one named on the initial Form 1627, he shall first submit a written application, in duplicate, to the collector of customs who approved the requisition, Form 428. The application shall show:

(a) The serial number and date of the requisition, Form 428, covering issuance of the stamps;

(b) The name of the Virgin Islands bottler or exporter holding the stamps;

(c) The number and size of the stamps desired to be transferred; and

(d) The name and address of the bottler or exporter to whom the stamps are to be transferred.

If the collector of customs has no reason to believe that the transfer would constitute a jeopardy to the revenue, he shall indicate his approval on the copy of the application, return the copy to the importer, and retain the original for filing with the requisition, Form 428. On receipt of the approved copy, the importer shall effect the requested transfer of strip stamps.

Unused red strip stamps returned to the importer by the Virgin Islands bottler or exporter shall be submitted to the collector of customs who approved the original requisition, Form 428, for noting of such fact on the requisition and on the Form 1627 covering such stamps on file with the collector. After such notation has been made, the collector of customs shall return the stamps to the importer. If subsequently the importer desires to send all or part of the returned stamps to a bottler or exporter abroad, he shall submit them with Form 1627, properly modified and in duplicate, to the collector of customs who shall note approval on the copy of the modified Form 1627 and return it with the stamps to the importer. The collector of customs shall retain the original Form 1627. The importer shall make appropriate entries on his strip stamp record and in his report, Form 96, of the receipt and disposition of unused stamps covered by this section.

When for any reason a Virgin Islands bottler or exporter has on hand a quantity of red strip stamps which are not to be affixed to containers for shipment to the United States, and it is impractical to return such stamps to the importer from whom they were received, the collector of customs who approved the requisition, Form 428, may, on application, in triplicate, by the importer, authorize the destruction of the stamps in the Virgin Islands. The application shall show the size, quantity, and serial numbers of the stamps, the name and address of the Virgin Islands bottler or exporter who has possession of the stamps, and the reasons why destruction in the Virgin Islands is requested. If the collector of customs approves the application for destruction he will return the original and one copy of the application to the importer who will forward both to the Virgin Islands bottler or exporter. On receipt of the approved application, the stamps may be destroyed provided such destruction is under the supervision of an authorized representative of the Governor of the Virgin Islands (including an officer of the Board of Control of Alcoholic Beverages) and such representative certifies to the destruction of the stamps on the approved application. After destruction, the original of the application bearing the required certificate of destruction will be returned, through the Virgin Islands bottler or exporter and the importer, to the collector of customs. The collector of customs will credit the Form 428 accordingly, stamp on the copy of the application "strip stamps credited", and send the copy to the importer who filed the application. Such importer may then take credit for the stamps on his strip stamp record. Red strip stamps affixed to (a) imported distilled spirits prior to arrival in the United States, which spirits are diverted by the importer for exportation purposes, and (b) spirits withdrawn from customs custody free of tax for entry into the United States shall be effectively destroyed under customs supervision, prior to exportation or withdrawal for entry into the United States.

(72 Stat. 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5205)

§ 250.253 Credit for red strip stamps affixed to containers returned to a bottler or exporter in the Virgin Islands.

Miscellaneous Amendments

On May 6, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making with respect to the amendment of 26 CFR Part 251 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 3980). No objections to the proposed amendments were received within the 30-day period prescribed in the notice. However, it has been determined administratively to make conforming and clarifying changes in the proposed amendments in respect of the procedures relating to the transfer of distilled spirits from customs custody to internal revenue bond. Accordingly, the amendments as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER are hereby adopted, subject to the following changes:

1. The second sentence of § 251.172 is changed to read as set forth below.

2. Section 251.173 is changed to read as set forth below.

3. Section 251.175 is changed by striking, in the last sentence, the number "2629" and inserting in lieu thereof "236".

Because this Treasury decision is a part of an integrated recodification program under Chapter 51, I.R.C., and in order that the entire program may be effective on July 1, 1960, it is found that it is contrary to the public interest to issue this Treasury decision subject to the effective date limitation of section 4(c) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003). Accordingly, this Treasury decision shall become effective on July 1, 1960.

In such cases, the zone application shall have endorsed thereon, by the importer or his duly authorized agent, the legend required by § 251.85. (C) By striking the statutory citation at the end of the section and inserting in lieu thereof: "(48 Stat. 999, as amended, 72 Stat. 1358; 19 U.S.C. 81c, 26 U.S.C. 5205)".

In the event of diversion of all or part of the spirits to a port or ports, or to a foreign-trade zone at a port, other than the port specified in Form 1627 filed with the Form 428, the importer who requisitioned the stamps, or the importer at the port of diversion, or the duly authorized agent of either, shall prepare Form 1627A, in triplicate, for each such diversion. One copy of Form 1627A shall be promptly sent to the collector of customs at the port of requisition, and the original and remaining copy shall be filed with the collector of customs at the port of diversion at the time the warehouse or consumption entry, or zone application, is filed. The corresponding entry or zone application at the port of entry shall be marked with the requisition and diversion numbers, and the name of the port of requisition, as shown on the Form 1627A. The provisions of § 251.85a shall, as applicable, cover stamps on spirits diverted to a foreign-trade zone located at a port other than the port specified in Form 1627. Such diverted spirits may not be released from customs custody or admitted into a foreign-trade zone until the required Form 1627A has been filed. The collector of customs at the port of diversion shall certify on both copies of Form 1627A as to the disposition of the spirits and of the stamps shown by the usual customs examination to have been affixed to the containers, and forward the original Form 1627A to the collector of customs at the port of requisition. He shall retain the copy of Form 1627A as a record copy in a separate file. On receipt of Form 1627A from the collector of customs at the port of diversion, the collector of customs at the port of requisition shall enter the appropriate credit on his strip stamp record, stamp "Strip stamps used and credited except as noted" on the copy of Form 1627A originally received by him for such diversion, and send such copy to the importer, or importer's agent, who requisitioned the stamps. Such importer or agent may then take credit for the stamps on his strip stamp record.

(48 Stat. 999, as amended, 72 Stat. 1358; 19 U.S.C. 81c, 26 U.S.C. 5205)

A new section, reading as follows, is inserted immediately following § 251.87.

§ 251.87a Follow-up procedure for Forms 1627A.

When the importer, or importer's agent, who requisitioned the stamps on Form 428 has not, within two months from the date of arrival of the spirits, received from the collector of customs the copy of Form 1627A noted as to credit of strip stamps by the collector, as provided for in § 251.87, he shall inquire of the collector of customs who approved the requisition Form 428 whether the required report on Form 1627A has been received from the collector of customs at the port of diversion. If the collector of customs reports the non-receipt of Form 1627A from the collector at the port of diversion, the importer, or the importer's agent, shall make a written inquiry, either directly or through the importer at the port of diversion, of the collector of customs at the port of diversion whether such collector has reported on the diversion. The inquiry shall show the entry number, or identify the zone application, and shall be accompanied by two copies of the original Form 1627A marked "Follow-up: Prepared _____." On receipt of the inquiry, the collector of customs of the port of diversion will compare the "Follow-up" copies with his file of record copies of Form 1627A. If he has a record copy showing that he forwarded the original Form 1627A, he shall insert any stamp data on the "Follow-up" copies, return one copy to the party who presented it, and forward the other copy to the collector of customs at the port of requisition. If the collector of customs at the port of diversion finds no corresponding record copy of Form 1627A, he shall use the "Follow-up" copies as original copies. In such case, he shall strike out the words "Follow-up", enter the stamp data thereon, retain one copy as his record copy, and forward the other copy to the collector of customs at the port of requisition. On receipt of the copy by the collector of customs at the port of requisition, the copy will be compared with the records. If the original Form 1627A has been received and the triplicate copy has already been forwarded to the importer, or to the importer's agent, the "Follow-up" copy shall also be sent to him without further action. If the collector of customs at the port of requisition finds that he has not received the original Form 1627A from the port of diversion, he shall use the "Follow-up" copy as the original of Form 1627A, and process it in accordance with § 251.87. On receipt of the copy of Form 1627A, the importer, or the importer's agent, may, unless he has already received his copy of Form 1627A, take credit for the stamps on his strip stamp record.

If the collector of customs has no reason to believe that the transfer would constitute a jeopardy to the revenue, he shall indicate his approval on the copy of the application, return the copy to the importer, and retain the original for filing with the requisition, Form 428. On receipt of the approved copy, the importer shall effect the requested transfer of strip stamps.

After such notation has been made, the collector of customs shall return the stamps to the importer. If subsequently the importer desires to send all or part of the returned stamps to a bottler or exporter abroad, he shall submit them with Form 1627, properly modified and in duplicate, to the collector of customs who shall note approval on the copy of the modified Form 1627 and return it with the stamps to the importer. JUNE 27, 1960.

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rulemaking in the above-entitled matter.

2. Pursuant to the authority vested in it by the Federal Power Act (41 Stat. 1063, as amended, 16 U.S.C. 791a–825r), and particularly sections 4(a), 301(a), 302(b), 303, 304, 309, and 311 (41 Stat. 1065, as amended, 49 Stat. 854, 855, 858, 859; 16 U.S.C. 797(a), 825(a), 825a(b), 825b, 825c, 825h, 825j) thereof, and subject to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238, 5 U.S.C. 1003), the Commission proposes to amend FPC Forms Nos. 12, 12–A, and 12–D and the Regulations prescribing FPC Forms Nos. 12 and 12–D. Forms Nos. 12, 12–A, and 12–D are prescribed by the following sections of the Commission's regulations under the Federal Power Act (with approved forms) which sections correspond to and appear at Part 141—Statements and Reports (Schedules), Subchapter D—Approved Forms, Federal Power Act, Chapter I—Federal Power Commission, Title 18—Conservation of Power, Code of Federal Regulations: § 141.51, Form No. 12, Power system statements for Class I and II Systems and for Class IV and V Systems were requested; § 141.52, Form No. 12–A, Power system statements for Class III, IV, and V Systems; and § 141.55, Form No. 12–D, Power system statement for Class III Systems having annual energy requirements of less than 5,000,000 kwh and Class IV and V Systems where requested. CONTROL AREA

Modification of Extension

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.1081 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Windsor Locks, Conn., control area extension is presently designated as that airspace bounded on the north by a line extending from a point at latitude 42°08'20" N., longitude 72°37'00" W., to a point at latitude 42°03'45" N., longitude 72°09'00" W., on the east by VOR Federal airway No. 3, on the south by VOR Federal airway No. 56 and on the west by VOR Federal airway No. 123.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modification of the Windsor Locks control area extension by enlarging it to include the airspace within a 30-mile radius of the Bradley, Conn., Airport, excluding the portion which would coincide with the New York, N.Y., control area extension (601.1066) and the area northeast of a line extending from latitude 42°21'00" N., longitude 72°53'00" W., to latitude 42°08'20" N., longitude 72°37'00" W., to latitude 42°03'45" N., longitude 72°09'00" W., to latitude 42°04'30" N., longitude 72°01'00" W. This modification would provide protection for aircraft conducting instrument flight rule arrival and departure procedures at the Bradley, Conn., Brainard, Conn., Rentschler, Conn., and the Barnes, Mass., Airports.

If this action is taken, the Windsor Locks, Conn., control area extension would be designated as that airspace within a 30-mile radius of the Bradley, Conn., Airport (latitude 41°56'25" N., longitude 72°41'10" W.), excluding the portion which coincides with the New York, N.Y., control area extension and the area northeast of a line extending from latitude 42°21'00" N., longitude 72°53'00" W.; to latitude 42°08'20" N., longitude 72°37'00" W.; to latitude 42°03'45" N., longitude 72°09'00" W.; to latitude 42°04'30" N., longitude 72°01'00" W.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 24, 1960.

Acting Director, Bureau of Air Traffic Management.

CONTROL AREA

Modification of Extension

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.1406 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Milton, Fla., control area extension is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of Whiting NAAS (North), Milton, Fla., and within 5 miles either side of the northwest course of the Whiting (Navy) radio range extending from the radio range to 12 miles northwest. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration a proposal by the Department of the Navy to modify the Milton control area extension by adding control area north, east and west of the present area. The Milton control area extension would be redesignated to begin at latitude 30°44'20" N., longitude 87°37'00" W., thence north to latitude 30°58'45" N., longitude 87°36'00" W.; thence northeasterly along an arc 34.5 miles from the Whiting radio range (latitude 30°46'07" N., longitude 87°04'22" W.), to latitude 31°15'40" N., longitude 87°10'30" W.; thence southeasterly to latitude 30°54'00" N., longitude 86°56'30" W.; thence easterly to latitude 30°54'00" N., longitude 86°52'30" W.; thence south to latitude 30°46'00" N., longitude 86°52'30" W., thence southwesterly to latitude 30°39'00" N., longitude 87°03'25" W.; thence westerly to point of beginning. This modification would provide protection for aircraft departing, arriving and while using the holding pattern airspace area at Whiting NAAS, Fla. In addition, it would provide protection for aircraft departing the Pensacola, Fla., terminal area via a departure procedure using the 334° True radial of the Pensacola VOR to the intersection of the Pensacola VOR 334° and the Crestview, Fla., VOR 269° True radials to the Crestview VOR.

If this action is taken, the Milton, Fla., control area extension would be designated as that airspace bounded by a line beginning at latitude 30°44'20" N., longitude 87°37'00" W.; thence north to latitude 30°58'45" N., longitude 87°36'00" W.; thence northeasterly along an arc 34.5 miles from the Whiting radio range (latitude 30°46'07" N., longitude 87°04'22" W.), to latitude 31°15'40" N., longitude 87°10'30" W.; thence southeasterly to latitude 30°54'00" N., longitude 86°56'30" W.; thence easterly to latitude 30°54'00" N., longitude 86°52'30"W., thence south to latitude 30°46'00" N., longitude 86°52'30" W.; thence southwesterly to latitude 30°39'00" N., longitude 87°03'25" W.; thence westerly to point of beginning.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CONTROL ZONE

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2159 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The present Montgomery, Ala., control zone is designated within a 5-mile radius of Dannelly Field, Ala., within a 5-mile radius of Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala., within 2 miles either side of the north and west courses of the Maxwell AFB radio range extending from the radio range station to points 10 miles north and west of the station; within 2 miles either side of a line bearing 276° True from Dannelly Field through the Dannelly ILS outer marker to a point 5 miles west of the outer marker, and within 2 miles either side of the 321° and 141° True radials of the Montgomery VOR, extending from the Dannelly Field control zone to a point 5 miles southeast of the VOR.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration the modification of the Montgomery control zone as follows:

1. Revoke the control zone extensions based on the north and west courses of the Maxwell Air Force Base radio range.

2. Designate two control zone extensions as follows: Within 2 miles either side of the 149° True bearing from the Plattsville, Ala., radiobeacon extending from the Maxwell AFB 5-mile radius zone to the radiobeacon, and within 2 miles either side of the 171° True bearing from the Plattsville radiobeacon extending from the Maxwell 5-mile radius zone to the radiobeacon.

3. Redesignate the control zone extension within 2 miles either side of the 321° True radial of the Montgomery, Ala., VOR to extend from the Dannelly 5-mile radius zone to the VOR.

4. Redesignate the control zone extension, presently based on the 276° True bearing from Dannelly Field through the ILS outer marker, to extend from the Dannelly 5-mile radius zone to the ILS outer marker.

The Department of Air Force has advised the Federal Aviation Agency that the prescribed instrument approach procedures based on the Maxwell AFB radio range are to be cancelled in the near future. When these instrument approach procedures are cancelled the control zone extension based on the north and west courses of the Maxwell AFB radio range will no longer be required.

Designation of two control zone extensions based on the Plattsville radiobeacon, redesignation of the west control zone extension which extends through the ILS outer marker, and redesignation of the control zone extension based on the Montgomery VOR, would provide adequate protection for aircraft executing prescribed instrument approaches to Maxwell AFB and Dannelly Field.

If this action is taken, the Montgomery, Ala., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of Dannelly Field, Montgomery, Ala. (latitude 32°17'55" N., longitude 86°23'50" W.); within a 5-mile radius of Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala. (latitude 32°22'45" N., longitude 86°21'40" W.); within 2 miles either side of the Dannelly Field ILS localizer west course extending from the Dannelly 5-mile radius zone to the ILS outer marker; within 2 miles either side of the 321° True radial of the Montgomery VOR extending from the Dannelly 5-mile radius zone to the VOR; within two miles either side of the 149° True bearing from the Plattsville, Ala., radiobeacon extending from the Maxwell AFB 5-mile radius zone to the radiobeacon; and within 2 miles either side of the 171° True bearing from the Plattsville radiobeacon extending from the Maxwell AFB 5-mile radius zone to the radiobeacon.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2228 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Fairbanks, Alaska control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of Ladd Air Force Base; within a 5-mile radius of Fairbanks International Airport, and within 5 miles either side of a line bearing 039° True extending from the Fairbanks International Airport to the ILS outer marker. The Federal Aviation Agency is considering modifying this control zone by adding a control zone extension 2 miles either side of the Fairbanks International Airport ILS localizer southwest course, extending from the Fairbanks International Airport 5-mile radius zone to 6 miles southwest of the ILS localizer (latitude 64°48'35" N., longitude 147°52'15" W.). In addition, it is proposed to add a control zone extension 2 miles either side of the 276° True radial of the Ladd AFB TACAN (latitude 64°50'00" N., longitude 147°17'55" W.), extending from the Ladd AFB 5-mile radius zone to the TACAN. It is also proposed to reduce the northeast extension of the Fairbanks control zone and redesignate the control zone extension 2 miles either side of the northeast course of the Fairbanks International Airport ILS localizer, extending from the Fairbanks International Airport 5-mile radius zone to the ILS outer marker. These modifications would provide protection for aircraft conducting prescribed instrument approaches to Fairbanks International Airport and Ladd AFB.

If these actions are taken, the Fairbanks, Alaska control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of the Fairbanks International Airport (latitude 64°49'09" N., longitude 147°51'14" W.); within a 5-mile radius of Ladd Air Force Base (latitude 64°50'22" N., longitude 147°38'05" W.); within 2 miles either side of the northeast and southwest courses of the Fairbanks International Airport ILS localizer (latitude 64°48'35" N., longitude 147°52'15" W.), extending from the Fairbanks International Airport 5-mile radius zone to the ILS outer marker; and from the 5-mile radius zone to 6 miles southwest of the ILS localizer; and within 2 miles either side of the 276° True radial of the Ladd AFB TACAN, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the TACAN.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 440, Anchorage, Alaska. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 24, 1960.

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2009 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Erie, Pa., control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of Port Erie Airport and within 2 miles either side of the southwest course of the Erie radio range extending to the North Springfield fan marker. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modification of the Erie control zone by revoking the southwest extension based on the Erie radio range. This extension is no longer required because the instrument approach procedure based on the southwest course has been cancelled. The Erie control zone would be further modified by designating an extension within 2 miles either side of the 054° True radial of the Erie VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR. This extension would provide protection for aircraft conducting instrument approaches to Port Erie Airport based on the Erie VOR.

If these actions are taken, the Erie, Pa., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of the Port Erie Airport (latitude 42°04'56" N., longitude 80°10'44" W.), within 2 miles either side of the 054° True radial of the Erie VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 24, 1960.

GEORGE S. CASSADY,
Acting Director, Bureau of Air Traffic Management.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. 13605-13607; FCC 60-730]

ABILENE RADIO AND TELEVISION CO. ET AL.

Order Designating Applications for Consolidated Hearing on Stated Issues

In re applications of Abilene Radio and Television Company, San Angelo, Texas, Docket No. 13605, File No. BPCT-2639; E. C. Gunter, San Angelo, Texas, Docket No .13606, File No. BPCT-2663; Dornita Investment Corp., San Angelo, Texas, Docket No. 13607, File No. BPCT-2714; for construction permits for new television broadcast stations.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 23d day of June 1960;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications each requesting a construction permit for a new television broadcast station to operate on Channel 3, assigned to San Angelo, Texas;

It appearing that the applications of Abilene Radio and Television Company, E. C. Gunter, and Dornita Investment Corporation, are mutually exclusive in that operation by the applicants as proposed would result in mutually destructive interference; and

It further appearing that Abilene Radio and Television Company has requested a waiver of § 3.613(a) of the Commission's rules to locate the main studio outside of San Angelo, and has shown good cause for the requested waiver; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, Abilene Radio and Television Company, E. C. Gunter, and Dornita Investment Corporation, were advised by letters that their applications were mutually exclusive, of the necessity for a hearing, and were advised of all objections to their applications and were given an opportunity to reply; and

It further appearing that the Commission indicated in the above-mentioned letter to E. C. Gunter that it could not, on the basis of the applicant's financial proposal, determine without a hearing that the applicant was financially qualified to construct and operate the proposed station; and

It further appearing that E. C. Gunter amended his application in response to the above-mentioned letter to show proposed financing for the construction and initial operation of the proposed station in the total amount of approximately $108,095 by submitting a detailed balance sheet showing the availability of current and liquid assets in the approximate amount of $120,942, and a copy of an agreement with RCA to extend deferred credit in the amount of $150,000, and, therefore, E. C. Gunter is now financially qualified; and

It further appearing that in the prehearing letter to Abilene Radio and Television Company, the Commission raised a question with respect to whether the type and character of the program service proposed will meet the needs of San Angelo in view of the proposal to rebroadcast in their entirety the programs of Station KRBC-TV, Abilene, Texas, with no provision for local originations; and

It further appearing that the Commission is of the view that the above question raised with respect to the proposed programming of Abilene Radio and Television Company should be explored within the framework of comparative issue "2(c)" as specified herein, rather than as a separate issue; and

It further appearing that Abilene Radio and Television Company is also the licensee of Station KRBC-TV, Abilene, Texas, and that in the event the subject application were granted, the Grade B field intensity contour of the proposed station would overlap the Grade B field intensity contour of Station KRBC-TV by approximately 31 miles; and

It further appearing that upon due consideration of the above-captioned applications, the amendments thereto, and the replies to the above letters, the Commission finds that pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, a hearing is necessary; that Abilene Radio and Television Company is legally, financially, and technically qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station, and is otherwise qualified except as to issue "1" below; that E. C. Gunter is legally, financially, technically, and otherwise qualified to construct, own, and operate the proposed television broadcast station; and that Dornita Investment Corporation is legally, financially, technically, and otherwise qualified to construct, own, and operate the proposed television broadcast station.

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-captioned applications of Abilene Radio and Television Company, E. C. Gunter, and Dornita Investment Corporation are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine whether a grant of the application of Abilene Radio and Television Company would be consistent with the provisions of § 3.636(a)(1) of the Commission's rules and regulations, in view of the overlap of the area to be served by the proposed station with the area served by Television Station KRBC-TV, Abilene, Texas.

2. To determine on a comparative basis which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would better serve the public interest, convenience and necessity in light of the significant differences between the applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each bearing on its ability to own and operate the proposed television broadcast station.

(b) The proposals of each with respect to the management and operation of the proposed television broadcast stations.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the above-captioned applications.

3. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which of the applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above-entitled proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon a sufficient allegation of facts in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicants will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the applications will be effectuated.

It is further ordered, That to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard Abilene Radio and Television Company, E. C. Gunter, and Dornita Investment Corporation, pursuant to § 1.140(c) of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall within twenty (20) days of the mailing of this Order file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

Released: June 28, 1960.

CLACKAMAS BROADCASTERS (KGON)

Order Designating Application for Hearing on Stated Issues

In re application of Clackamas Broadcasters (KGON), Oregon City, Oregon, has: 1520 kc, 10 kw, DA-1, U; requests: 1520 kc, 50 kw, DA-1, U; Docket No. 13602, File No. BP-11734; for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 23d day of June 1960;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned and described application;

It appearing that except as indicated by the issues specified below, the instant applicant is legally, technically, financially, and otherwise qualified to construct and operate the instant proposal; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the Commission, in letters dated December 9, 1958, March 26, 1959 and August 18, 1959, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference, notified the applicant, and any other known parties in interest, of the grounds and reasons for the Commission's inability to make a finding that a grant of the application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity; and that copies of the aforementioned letters are available for public inspection at the Commission's offices; and

It further appearing that the applicant filed timely replies to the aforementioned letters, which replies have not, however, entirely eliminated the grounds and reasons precluding a grant of the application and requiring an evidentiary hearing on the particular issues hereinafter specified; and

It further appearing that by letters dated March 26 and August 18, 1959, the Commission advised applicant that cochannel Class I-B Station KOMA, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma (1520 kc, 50 kw, DA-N, U), by letters and affidavits filed February 11 and April 23, 1959, expressed its doubt as to whether applicant's proposed directional antenna system could be adjusted and maintained within the specified maximum expected operating values of radiation and whether reradiation effects from sources external to the array would cause the maximum expected operating values of radiation to be exceeded to the extent that interference would result to the service area of KOMA; and that by letter dated September 15, 1959, KOMA contends that because of the foregoing, it is entitled to a hearing on the KGON proposal; and

It further appearing that by letters and engineering affidavits filed March 11, April 24 and September 8, 1959, applicant states that any assumption by KOMA that a meaningful site survey could be made using its existing facilities to determine whether the proposed antenna system could be adjusted and maintained within the specified limits of radiation, is in error, since the existing facilities are not the same as those proposed for their 50 kw operation in such important parameters as current ratio, phase and height of towers, extent of ground system and monitoring facilities; that moreover, KGON must first receive its permit before a site survey can be conducted; that in its request for a construction permit, the changes which are felt to be necessary to modify the KGON facilities so as to protect KOMA, are spelled out in detail; that further, the maximum expected operating values of radiation specified, have been determined by assuming the worst possible combinations of error in the magnitude and phase of radiation from each antenna element and then computing the resulting increase in total radiation in pertinent directions; that included in these assumptions is a factor to account for unavoidable scattering of signal due to conditions external to the array; that to provide the maximum stability and permit adjustment of the proposed array, the existing installation will be completely overhauled; that new phase and current monitors, with resolution and accuracy of 0.1 degree and 0.2 percent will be installed; and

It further appearing that, an examination of the KGON proof of performance radial on file for the bearing 112 degrees true toward KOMA indicates considerable signal scattering; and that, (a) in view of said signal scattering indicated toward KOMA by the present KGON proof of performance, (b) the degree of signal suppression proposed, and (c) the relatively low values of radiation necessary in the initial adjustment of the directional antenna pattern in order to insure that current variations in the antenna elements would not cause the maximum expected operating value of radiation specified to be exceeded, thereby causing interference to KOMA, the Commission is of the opinion that the instant application must be designated for hearing on the issues specified below; and that KOMA should be made a party to the proceedings;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operation of Station KGON and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine the extent of anticipated variations in the phase and amplitude of currents in the antenna towers during the actual operation of the proposed directional array.

3. To determine whether the proposed directional antenna array can be adjusted and maintained within the limits of radiation specified by the instant applicant.

4. To determine, in the event Issue 3 is decided in the negative, whether the instant proposal would involve objectionable interference with Station KOMA, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, or any other existing standard broadcast stations; and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced, pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the instant application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That, in the event of a grant of the instant proposal, the construction permit shall contain a condition that (1) the permittee, in order to insure maintenance of the radiated fields within the required tolerance, shall install properly designed phase and current monitors in the transmitter room, having a resolution of 0.1 degree and 0.2 percent, and shall be continuously available as a means of correctly indicating the relative phase and magnitude of currents in the several elements of the directional antenna system; (2) the permittee shall submit information with the proof-of-performance concerning the effect of the anticipated variations in phase and magnitude of currents in the towers of the array during actual operation upon the inverse distance field strengths indicated at one mile by the proof-of-performance data; and that any license issued to the instant applicant shall require the maintenance of the relative phase and magnitude of currents within these anticipated variations specified by applicant, or within those limits as may be specified by the Commission.

It is further ordered, That Storz Broadcasting Co., licensee of Station KOMA, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, is made a party to the proceeding.

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the instant applicant, and party respondent herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

Released: June 28, 1960.

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned and described applications;

It appearing that except as indicated by the issues specified below, the instant applicants are legally, technically, financially, and otherwise qualified to construct and operate the instant proposals; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the Commission, in a letter dated March 29, 1960, and incorporated herein by reference, notified the applicants and any other known parties in interest, of the grounds and reasons for the Commission's inability to make a finding that a grant of any one of the applications would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity; and that a copy of the aforementioned letter is available for public inspection at the Commission's offices; and

It further appearing that the applicants' replies to the aforementioned letter have not entirely eliminated the grounds and reasons precluding a grant of the said applications and requiring a hearing on the particular issues hereinafter specified; and

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 23d day of June 1960;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned and described application;

It appearing that except as indicated by the issues specified below, the instant applicant is legally, technically, financially, and otherwise qualified to construct and operate the instant proposal; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the Commission, in a letter dated March 9, 1960, and incorporated herein by reference, notified the applicant, and any other known parties in interest, of the grounds and reasons for the Commission's inability to make a finding that a grant of the application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity; and that a copy of the aforementioned letter is available for public inspection at the Commission's offices; and

It further appearing that the applicant filed a timely reply to the aforementioned letter, which reply has not, however, entirely eliminated the grounds and reasons precluding a grant of the application and requiring an evidentiary hearing on the particular issues hereinafter specified; and

It further appearing that in an amendment filed April 28, 1960, the applicant indicated that interference received by the present operation of Station WHOP affects 32.5 percent of the population within its normally protected primary service area; that the interference which would be received by the proposed operation of Station WHOP would affect 27.7 percent of the population within the proposed normally protected primary service area; and that the interference which would be caused by the proposed operation of WHOP to Station WTCJ would affect 61.5 percent of the population within the normally protected primary service area of WTCJ; and

It further appearing that by the aforementioned amendment, the applicant requests a waiver of § 3.28(c)(3) of the Commission rules on the ground that the percentage of population in the proposed primary service area (27.7 percent) which would be affected by interference received, would be smaller than the percentage of population in its present primary service area (32.5 percent) so affected; and that on the basis of this information we are of the opinion that a waiver of § 3.28(c)(3) of the rules is warranted under these circumstances; and

It further appearing that, after consideration of the foregoing and the applicant's reply, the Commission is still unable to make the statutory finding that a grant of the application would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity; and is of the opinion that the application must be designated for hearing on the issues specified below;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operation of Station WHOP and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the instant proposal of WHOP would involve objectionable interference with Stations WTCJ, Tell City, Indiana, and WHCO, Sparta, Illinois, or any other existing standard broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the instant application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That, James Roland Brewer, tr/as Tell City Broadcasting Co., and Hirsch Communications Engineering Corporation, licensees of Stations WTCJ and WHCO, respectively, are made parties to the proceeding.

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicant and parties respondent herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

Kandel and Gus Zaharis, Zanesville, Ohio, Docket No. 13242; Continental Broadcasting Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, et al., Docket Nos. 13246, 13225, 13226, 13227, 13229, 13231, 13233, 13235, 13241, 13243, 13245, 13247, 13248, 13249, 13250, 13251; File No. BP-13088; for construction permits.

The Hearing Examiner having under consideration a joint motion for continuance filed on June 20, 1960, by Richmond Broadcasting Company, Docket 13223, Charles H. Chamberlain, Docket 13224, Lake Cumberland Broadcasting Company, Docket 13228, Citizens Broadcasting Company, Docket 13230, Shelby Broadcasting Company, Docket 13232, W.L.K.Y., Inc., Docket 13237, Miami Valley Christian Broadcasting Association, Incorporated, Docket 13239, Raymond I. Kandel and Gus Zaharis, Docket 13242, and Continental Broadcasting Company, Docket 13246, nine of the applicants in Group 2 of the above-styled proceeding, requesting that the dates heretofore scheduled for Step 3, as set forth in the order of the Hearing Examiner released April 18, 1960, be continued (1) pending consolidation or other disposition of the application of Muskingum Broadcasting Company for 940 kc at Zanesville, Ohio (BP-13157) into this proceeding and (2) pending a further prehearing conference to be scheduled after action on the Muskingum application, to determine the type of evidence to be submitted under certain issues recently added by the Commission; and

It appearing that by order released May 18, 1960, in response to a joint motion by eleven applicants in Group 2, the Hearing Examiner indefinitely continued the remaining phases of Step 1 and Step 2 pending action on the application of Muskingum Broadcasting Company, and that subsequently, on May 31, 1960, the Commission released a Memorandum Opinion and Order adding, inter alia, a comparative issue with respect to the applications for Delphos, Ohio (Western Ohio Broadcasting Co., Docket 13241) and Lima, Ohio (Citizens Broadcasting Company, Docket 13230) in Group 2; and

It further appearing that the recently added comparative issues was the subject of discussion in Group 3 prehearing conferences, and the said issue should also be discussed in a Group 2 prehearing conference prior to the exchange of exhibits, which, in the Examiner's order released April 18, was scheduled as part of Step 3 for June 30, 1960; and

It further appearing that when Muskingum Broadcasting Company's Zanesville application is consolidated into Group 2, it will be involved in a comparative issue with the Zanesville application of Kandel and Zaharis (Docket 13249) and it would be unfair to Kandel and Zaharis to exchange its comparative evidence and thus reveal its case prior to the consolidation of Muskingum; and

It further appearing that the remaining five applicants in Group 2 have authorized the movants to state their positions as follows:

1. Virginia-Kentucky Broadcasting Company, Incorporated (WNRG), Docket 13231; Western Ohio Broadcasting Company, Docket 13241; and Fort Wayne Broadcasting Company, Docket 13249, have consented to a grant of this motion.

2. Michigan Broadcasting Company, Docket 13222, and Radio 940, Docket 13233, waive the four-day rule with respect to the entire motion.

It further appearing that the Broadcast Bureau has informally agreed to immediate consideration and grant of the instant motion; and

It further appearing that public interest requires an early consideration of this motion; and good cause has been shown for the grant of the requested relief;

It is therefore ordered, This 23d day of June 1960, that the joint motion be and the same is hereby granted and the dates heretofore scheduled by order released April 18, 1960, for Step 3 of Group 2 of the above-styled proceeding be and the same are hereby continued pending action by the Commission with respect to consolidation of the Muskingum Broadcasting Company application for 940 kc at Zanesville, Ohio, into this proceeding.

It is further ordered, That after Commission action on the Muskingum application, a further conference will be held to arrive at a new schedule of dates and for such other matters as may seem appropriate; the time of such further conference to be fixed in a subsequent order.

It further appearing that issue 12 proposed by Springfield is inappropriate since it is predicated on conclusions of fact and law which are not pleaded with specificity; and

It further appearing that this proceeding must be considered in the light of the considerations and determinations made in our Report and Order in Docket No. 12443 (26 FCC 403); and

It further appearing that there is no direct or indirect interrelationship of ownership or control between Microwave and its initial subscriber, Mohawk Valley Television, Inc., and that Microwave appears to be a bona fide communications common carrier; and

It further appearing, that Springfield delivers a sub-standard television signal at Athol, Massachusetts (as admitted on page 2 of its protest); and that the actual (as distinguished from theoretical) direct coverage of other television stations in Athol is doubtful because of local terrain factors; and

It further appearing that Springfield holds a construction permit for a UHF translator at Athol (W74AB) which was granted in March 1959 and that the facility so authorized has not yet been installed; and

It further appearing that the local CATV service in Athol may be the only substantial and reliable source presently available to the public there for television program service; and

It further appearing in the light of the foregoing circumstances, that the public interest requires that the protested grants remain in effect pending the Commission's decision herein after hearing; and

It further appearing that it is desirable and appropriate that we do not adopt as our own any of the issues proposed by Springfield; and

It further appearing that the disposition herein of the protest renders moot the request for reconsideration;

It is ordered, That the protest is granted to the extent herein provided, and denied in all other respects; and the request for reconsideration is denied; and that, pursuant to the provisions of section 309(c) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, a hearing be held herein, at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D.C., at a time and place to be hereafter announced, on the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations served by stations WRLP, W74AB and W74AE, and the nature and type of service provided by said stations.

2. To determine the cost of placing the aforesaid stations on the air (including subsequent capital expenditures), the annual revenues of WRLP during 1957, 1958, 1959, and 1960, the corresponding annual operating costs of said stations.

3. To determine the number of persons within WRLP's service area who receive television service from boosters, translators, or outside stations, and the nature and extent of the service thus received.

4. To determine what impact a grant of the aforesaid applications would have on the quantity and quality of service presently being rendered and presently projected by WRLP and on the service presently proposed by W74AB and W74AE, and more particularly whether the impact would be such as to jeopardize WRLP's continued existence and the proposed operations of W74AB and W74AE or necessitate a curtailment in the quality and quantity of service rendered by said stations.

5. To determine whether the CATV operations in Athol, Adams or elsewhere in WRLP's service area intend to add subscribers to their systems or to extend their systems into other towns within WRLP's service area, and the number of additional subscribers thus contemplated within the next three years.

6. To determine the number of persons within WRLP's service area who would lose the only service that they presently receive, in the event WRLP, W74AB and W74AE do not operate.

7. To determine the extent to which it would be economically feasible to bring booster, translator, or satellite service to the population dependent on WRLP for a television service, in the event that station ceased to operate.

8. To determine what effect bringing additional VHF signals into the heretofore UHF upper Connecticut River Valley will have on the operation of other UHF stations and whether such action is in contravention of Rule 3.606 of the Commission's rules and against the public interest.

9. To determine whether New England Microwave Corporation is owned or controlled by CATV operators.

10. To determine in light of the evidence adduced under Issue 9, the effect, if any, of such common or interlocking ownership, upon the common carrier status of New England Microwave Corporation and its eligibility for a microwave grant.

11. To determine whether New England Microwave Corporation is a bona fide common carrier and eligible for a common carrier microwave facility under the Commission's Rules and Regulations.

12. To determine whether the grantee and/or CATV system it serves proposes (a) to carry WRLP's signal if that station so requests; (b) to carry that signal without degradation; (c) to take steps to prevent the CATV operations from interfering with the off-the-air pickup of WRLP's signal or those of W74AB and W74AE.

13. To determine whether the Commission, in the light of evidence adduced in this proceeding and under its authority to establish "areas or zones" for each radio station (47 U.S.C. 303(h)), should preclude the bringing into the Connecticut River Valley via microwave facilities the VHF signals of distant metropolitan stations, even though the Commission does "not presently envision such a system of regulation" in all areas (see 26 FCC at 439, par. 93).

14. To determine whether the conclusions set forth in paragraphs 45 thru 51 and 58 thru 79 of the Report and Order in Docket No. 12443, as applied in this case, are in error.

15. To determine in the light of the evidence adduced under the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the aforesaid applications will serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That Springfield shall have the burden of proof on issues 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 13, and 14; and Microwave shall have the burden of proof on issues 5, 9, 10, 11, 12, and 15; and

It is further ordered, That Microwave is authorized to continue to construct and utilize the facilities which are the subject of the applications contested herein, pending the Commission's final decision in this matter after hearing, and subject to such final decision.

It is further ordered, That Springfield and Microwave, the Chief, Common Carrier Bureau and the Chief, Broadcast Bureau, are hereby made parties to this proceeding; and that each party intending to participate in the hearing shall file a notice of appearance not later than July 18, 1960.

Order Designating Applications for Consolidated Hearing on Stated Issues

In re applications of A. S. Riviere, Barnesville, Georgia, requests: 1590kc, 1kw, D, Docket No. 13599, File No. BP-12889; John P. Frew, Elizabeth H. Frew, Stephens B. McGarity and Leslie E. Gradick, Jr., d/b as Radio Georgia, Thomaston, Georgia, requests: 1590kc, 500w, D, Docket No. 13600, File No. BP-13051; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 23d day of June 1960;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned and described applications;

It appearing that except as indicated by the issues specified below, each of the instant applicants is legally, technically, financially, and otherwise qualified to construct and operate its instant proposal; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the Commission, in a letter dated April 6, 1960, and incorporated herein by reference, notified the instant applicants, and any other known parties in interest, of the grounds and reasons for the Commission's inability to make a finding that a grant of any one of the applications would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity; and that a copy of the aforementioned letter is available for public inspection at the Commission's offices; and

It further appearing that the instant applicants filed timely replies to the aforementioned letter, which replies have not, however, entirely eliminated the grounds and reasons precluding a grant of the said applications and requiring an evidentiary hearing on the particular issues hereinafter specified; and

It further appearing that after consideration of the foregoing and the applicants' replies, the Commission is still unable to make the statutory finding that a grant of the applications would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity; and is of the opinion that the applications must be designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding on the issues specified below;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent Order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from each of the instant applicants and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine the nature and extent of the interference, if any, that each of the instant proposals would cause to and receive from each other and all other existing standard broadcast stations, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to the areas and populations affected by interference from any of the instant proposals.

3. To determine whether the interference received by each instant proposal from any of the other proposals herein and any existing stations would affect more than ten percent of the population within its normally protected primary service area in contravention of § 3.28(c)(3) of the Commission rules and, if so, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section.

4. To determine, in the light of section 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the instant proposals would better provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

5. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues which, if either, of the instant applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That, the issues in the above-captioned proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding, and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

HEADWATER BENEFITS INVESTIGATION IN THE CONNECTICUT RIVER BASIN

Order Instituting Investigation

JUNE 24, 1960.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 10(f) of the Federal Power Act, we are authorized to determine and assess headwater improvement benefit charges against the owner of any water power project directly benefited by upstream improvements constructed by the United States, its licensees or permittees. The United States and its licensees or permittees have constructed and operated reservoir storage developments on the Connecticut River and tributaries in New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, or Connecticut which may directly provide power benefits to downstream non-Federal water power developments.

The Commission finds: It is appropriate and in the public interest that an investigation be instituted by the Commission as hereinafter provided.

The Commission orders: An investigation is hereby instituted pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Power Act, particularly section 10(f) thereof, for the purpose of enabling the Commission to determine whether any of the non-Federal water power projects located downstream from improvements constructed by the United States, its licensees, or permittees on the Connecticut River and tributaries, are directly benefited by the construction and operation of such upstream improvements of the United States, its licensees or permittees and, if it so finds, to determine the equitable proportion of the annual charges to be paid by the owner of any downstream non-Federal water power project so benefited for interest, maintenance and depreciation on such upstream improvements constructed by the United States, its licensees or permittees.

[Docket No. DA-991-California]

FOREST SERVICE, DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Land Withdrawals

JUNE 27, 1960.

Lands withdrawn in Power Site Classifications Nos. 80 and 267, Reservoir Site Reserve No. 17, Department of Agriculture Permit, Department of the Interior Permit, and Projects Nos. 174 and 564, Docket No. DA-991—California, Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture. Findings of the Commission, determination under section 24 of the Federal Power Act, and partial vacation of withdrawal under section 24 of the Federal Water Power Act.

The Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture, in order to consummate land exchanges, has filed an application for revocation of the power withdrawal pertaining to the following-described lands under section 24 of the Federal Water Power Act pursuant to the filing of an application for a preliminary permit for proposed Project No. 564:

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN, CALIFORNIA

T. 25 S., R. 33 E.,
Sec. 9, NE¼NE¼;
Sec. 10, W½NW¼, SE¼NW¼, SW¼, W½SE¼, SE¼SE¼;
Sec. 14, SW¼NW¼, S½SW¼;
Sec. 23, NW¼.

The above-described lands are located within the boundaries of the Sequoia National Forest and lie on and near the Kern River, for the most part on the left bank, a few miles upstream from the upper limits of Isabella reservoir. They were reserved, among other lands, pursuant to the filing on September 26, 1925, of an application for a preliminary permit for proposed Project No. 564, which application was rejected May 7, 1929.

The Commission by order issued January 8, 1960 (Docket No. DA-980—California) vacated the existing power withdrawal pertaining to those parts of the above-described lands in the SW¼NW¼ and the NW¼SW¼ of sec. 10 lying west and south of an existing county road and the access road leading to the Southern California Edison Company's Kern No. 3 power plant.

Portions of the lands in the NE¼NE¼ of sec. 9 and in the SW¼NW¼, the NW¼SW¼, the E½SW¼ and the SW¼SE¼ of sec. 10 were also reserved for transmission-line purposes pursuant to the filing on February 11, 1921, of an application for a license for Project No. 174 and on July 26, 1938, pursuant to the filing of an application for amendment of the license for the project.

The land in the W½NW¼ of sec. 23 is further withdrawn in Power Site Classification No. 267, dated August 24, 1933, and in Reservoir Site Reserve No. 17, dated June 8, 1926.

That part of the land in the NE¼NE¼ of sec. 9, T. 25 S., R. 33 E., Mount Diablo meridian, California, among other lands, lying within 50 feet of the marginal limits of power facilities of the Southern California Edison Company's Kern No. 3 power plant is also withdrawn in Power Site Classification No. 80, dated July 17, 1924. The power facilities appear to occupy said land in the NE¼NE¼ of sec. 9 and portions of the land in the NW¼NW¼ of sec. 10, T. 25 S., R. 33 E., Mount Diablo meridian, California, under permit from the Department of Agriculture and possibly from the Department of the Interior.

It appears that the power potential of the lands described in the first paragraph of this order is being fully utilized by existing facilities and that their value for additional power purposes is negligible. Consequently, use of the lands for other purposes as hereinafter provided appears to be appropriate and desirable.

The Commission finds:

(1) Further Commission action with respect to the power withdrawal which pertained to the following-described lands under Section 24 of the Federal Water Power Act pursuant to the filing of the application for a preliminary permit for proposed Project No. 564 is neither necessary nor appropriate:

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN, CALIFORNIA

T. 25 S., R. 33 E.,
Sec. 10, Those parts of the SW¼NW¼ and NW¼SW¼ lying west and south of an existing county road and the access road leading to the Southern California Edison Company's Kern No. 3 power plant.

(2) Inasmuch as the remaining above-described lands—except for those portions of the lands in the NE¼NE¼ of sec. 9 and in the SW¼NW¼, the NW¼SW¼, the E½SW¼ and the SW¼SE¼ of sec. 10 now used for transmission-line purposes under license in Project No. 174 and those portions of the lands in the NE¼NE¼ of sec. 9 and in the NW¼NW¼ of sec. 10 now occupied by power facilities under power permits—have negligible value for purposes of power development, the existing power withdrawals pertaining thereto serve no useful purpose.

(3) The existing power withdrawal for transmission-line purposes pertaining to portions of the following-described lands effected pursuant to the filing of the application for a license for Project No. 174 and the filing of the application for amendment of the license for the project should remain unchanged:

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN, CALIFORNIA

T. 25 S., R. 33 E.,
Sec. 9, NE¼NE¼;
Sec. 10, SW¼NW¼, NW¼SW¼, E½SW¼, SW¼SE¼.

(4) It has no objection to the revocation by the Secretary of the Interior of Power Site Classification No. 80 insofar as it pertains to the following-described land:

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN, CALIFORNIA

T. 25 S., R. 33 E.,
Sec. 9, NE¼NE¼.

(5) It has no objection to the revocation by the Secretary of the Interior of Power Site Classification No. 267 and of Reservoir Site Reserve No. 17 insofar as they pertain to the following-described land:

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN, CALIFORNIA

T. 25 S., R. 33 E.,
Sec. 23, W½NW¼.

(6) Vacation of the existing power withdrawal pertaining to the following-described lands under section 24 of the Federal Water Power Act pursuant to the filing of the application for a preliminary permit for proposed Project No. 564 is in the public interest:

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN, CALIFORNIA

T. 25 S., R. 33 E.,
Sec. 9, NE¼NE¼;
Sec. 10, [1]W½NW¼, SE¼NW¼, [1]SW¼, W½SE¼, SE¼SE¼;
Sec. 14, SW¼NW¼, S½SW¼;
Sec. 23, NW¼.

(7) A determination under section 24 of the Federal Power Act as hereinafter provided with respect to the hereinafter-described lands is justified.

The Commission determines: The value of those portions of the lands in the NE¼NE¼ of sec. 9 and in the NW¼NW¼ of sec. 10, T. 25 S., R. 33 E., Mount Diablo meridian, California, now under power permit for the operation and maintenance of Southern California Edison Company's Kern No. 3 power plant and that portion of the land in said NE¼NE¼ of sec. 9 now being used for transmission-line purposes under license for Project No. 174 will not be injured or destroyed for purposes of power development by location, entry, or selection under the public land laws, subject to the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act, as amended, and subject to the prior right of the above-mentioned permittee and licensee of the United States and their successors to use said lands for power purposes in accordance with the terms and conditions of said permit and license.

The lands subject to this determination remain in a withdrawn status until the Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, issues a formal order of restoration.

The Commission orders:

(A) The application insofar as it pertains to the lands described in finding (1) herein is dismissed.

(B) The existing power withdrawal pertaining to the lands described in finding (6) herein under section 24 of the Federal Water Power Act pursuant to the filing of the application for a preliminary permit for proposed Project No. 564 is vacated.

By the Commission.

UNION PRODUCING CO.

Order Providing for Hearing on and Suspension of Proposed Changes in Rates

JUNE 24, 1960.

On May 26, 1960, Union Producing Company (Union Producing) tendered for filing Supplements No. 5 to its FPC Gas Rate Schedules Nos. 215 and 216. Said supplements provide for rate increases from 18.75 cents per Mcf to 26.75 cents per Mcf, based upon periodic rate increases, for gas sold to Union Producing's parent company, the United Gas Pipe Line Company, from leases in Terrebonne Parish, Louisiana.

Union Producing's proposed increased rates represent an increase of 8 cents per Mcf above the rates of 18.75 cents per Mcf presently in effect, subject to refund, in the proceeding in Docket No. G-13811. The proposed increased rates in this proceeding are based upon provisions contained in renegotiated contracts which were executed in September 1957.

In support of its proposed increased rates, Union Producing states that said rates are necessary to offset increasing operating expenses and the increased cost of doing business. Union Producing further states that the increase is necessary to encourage further exploration and development and that United Gas Pipe Line has agreed to pay the same proposed price to other producers in the same area for gas purchased for delivery in intrastate commerce.

The statement submitted by Union Producing Company in support of these rate changes is the same as that which was submitted in October 1957 to support a rate change from 9 cents to 17 cents, exclusive of tax reimbursement. We suspended, and did not reject the October 1957 change. We must do the same now in conformity with what we believe to be required of us by law. Our interpretation of § 154.94(e) of the Commission's regulations cannot vary according to the amount of the rate increase. We deplore the filing of these high rates, but they must be treated under existing law and applicable regulations, and not according to our personal desires. We are given no authority to reject these filings under the present state of the law. We may either fail to act and thus allow the proposed increased rates to become effective, or we may enter upon a hearing and, pending such hearing, suspend the proposed new supplements for a period not exceeding five months beyond the proposed effective date. See Mississippi River Fuel Corp. v. F.P.C., 202 F. 2d 899, 902 (CA3, 1953).

Union Producing proposes an effective date for its tendered increased rates of July 1, 1960. However, the increased rates and charges so proposed may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

Although a general investigation of Union Producing's rates is presently being made under a section 5(a) proceeding in Docket No. G-18634, we find and conclude that this proceeding, and the hearing therein as hereinafter ordered, should not be consolidated with the proceeding in Docket No. G-18634, but should be heard forthwith at the earliest practicable date.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed rate changes, and that Supplements No. 5 to Union Producing's FFC Gas Rate Schedules Nos. 215 and 216 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR, Ch. I), a public hearing be held on September 7, 1960, at 10:00 a.m., e.d.s.t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates and charges contained in Supplements No. 5 to Union's FPC Gas Rate Schedules Nos. 215 and 216.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplements be and they are hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until January 1, 1961, and until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before August 15, 1960.

By the Commission (Commissioner Kline dissenting).

JOSEPH H. GUTRIDE,
Secretary.

[1] NOTE: Those parts of the SW¼NW¼ and NW¼SW¼ lying west and south of an existing county road and the access road leading to the Southern California Edison Company's Kern No. 3 power plant were vacated by the Commission by order issued January 8, 1960.

EQUITY CORP. AND DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION OF AMERICA

Notice of and Order for Hearing on Application for Order Exempting Transactions From Provisions

JUNE 24, 1960.

Notice is hereby given that The Equity Corporation ("Equity") and Development Corporation of America ("DCA"), Delaware corporations and registered closed-end investment companies, have filed a joint application pursuant to section 17(b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") for an order exempting from the provisions of section 17(a) of the Act certain transactions incident to the proposed merger of DCA into Equity.

Equity owns 2,399,503 shares (99.9 percent) of the outstanding common stock of DCA. DCA also has outstanding 285,789 shares of $1.25 Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock, each share of which is convertible into four shares of DCA common stock upon payment of $5.50 in cash prior to June 30, 1960 and $6.50 in cash thereafter. The DCA preferred stock has been called for redemption on July 13, 1960.

It is proposed that if, on July 15, 1960, Equity owns 90 percent or more of the then outstanding common stock of DCA, it will on that date merge DCA into itself pursuant to the simplified merger provisions of section 253 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, and in connection therewith the DCA common stockholders, other than Equity, will be paid in cash the value of their shares, unless they exercise their rights to demand an appraisal under such law. If, on July 15, 1960, the merger provisions of said section 253 are not available because Equity does not own 90 percent or more of the common stock of DCA, then an amendment will be filed to this application either proposing such merger on other terms and conditions or the dissolution and liquidation of DCA, prior to August 15, 1960. As explained below, such merger or dissolution of DCA is required under the terms of a court decree directed to Equity.

The application states that the value of the DCA common stock for the purpose of the merger has been established at $6.54 per share subject to adjustments to reflect (i) the market price on July 13, 1960 of the marketable securities, other than common stock of Sterling Precision Corporation, included among DCA's assets, and (ii) increases in the number of shares of DCA common stock resulting from the conversion of DCA preferred stock or the exercise of outstanding warrants and options entitling the holders to buy DCA common stock. The application further states that the value of the DCA stock for the purposes of the merger was fixed in relation to an appraisal, made by Ebasco Services, Inc. ("Ebasco"), of the net asset value per share of DCA, as of May 31, 1960, of $7.69, after provision of $0.94 per share for capital gains taxes on unrealized appreciation. The application discloses that the Board of Directors of Equity determined the asset value of DCA stock for purposes of the merger by discounting Ebasco's appraisal by 15 percent to reflect the fact that shares of closed-end investment companies customarily sell at a discount from net asset value. Ebasco's appraisal of the net asset value reflects an opinion as to the value of DCA's investment in each of its operating subsidiaries and in Sterling Precision Corporation and the market value of its marketable securities (principally stock of Financial General Corporation and of N. V. Philips Gloeilampenfabrieken) as of May 31, 1960.

Equity was permitted to acquire, through a then wholly owned subsidiary, the common stock of DCA by order of this Commission dated April 16, 1959 (Investment Company Act Release No. 2865) exempting such acquisition from the anti-pyramiding provisions of section 12(d) of the Act, upon the condition, among others, that unless, by December 15, 1959, DCA ceased to be an investment company it would register under the Act and Equity would dispose of all of its holdings of voting securities of DCA. By order dated December 17, 1959 (Investment Company Act Release No. 2950) the time for compliance with said condition was extended to March 16, 1960. On March 17, 1960 DCA filed its notification of registration as an investment company and on April 21, 1960 the Commission instituted an action in the United States District Court of Delaware (Securities and Exchange Commission v. The Equity Corporation, et al., Civil Action No. 2194), seeking, among other things, an order directing compliance by Equity with the aforesaid condition. On May 11, 1960 said court entered an order consented to by the parties to said action, directing Equity, so far as here relevant, to redeem on or before July 13, 1960 all of its outstanding $1.25 Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock, and on or before July 15, 1960 to cause the merger of DCA into Equity unless on such latter date Equity does not own at least 90 percent of the common stock of DCA, in which event such merger or the dissolution and liquidation of DCA shall be caused on or before August 15, 1960.

Section 17(a) of the Act prohibits an affiliated person of a registered investment company from selling to or purchasing from such registered company, any securities or other property, subject to certain exceptions not pertinent here. The Commission upon application pursuant to section 17(b) may grant an exemption from the provisions of section 17(a) if it finds that the terms of the proposed transaction, including the consideration to be paid, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned, that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of each registered investment company concerned, as recited in its registration statement and reports filed under the Act, and is consistent with the general purposes of the Act. Since the proposed transactions involve the purchase and sale of securities and property by two registered investment companies, each of which is an affiliated person of the other, they are subject to the provisions of section 17(a) of the Act.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors that a hearing be held with respect to the application;

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 40(a) of the Act, that a hearing on the aforesaid application under the applicable provisions of the Act and of the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on the 12th day of July 1960, at 10:00 a.m., in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D.C. At such time the Hearing Room Clerk will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. Any person desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in the proceedings is directed to file with the Secretary of the Commission his application as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's rules of practice, on or before the date provided in that rule setting forth any issues of law or fact which he desires to controvert or any additional issues which he deems raised by this notice and order or by such application.

It is further ordered, That Sidney L. Filer, or any officer or officers of the Commission, designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at said hearing. The officer so designated is hereby authorized to exercise all the powers granted to the Commission under sections 41 and 42(b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and to a hearing officer under the Commission's rules of practice.

The Division of Corporate Regulation having advised the Commission that it has made a preliminary examination of the application, and that upon the basis thereof the following matters and questions are presented for consideration, without prejudice to its specifying additional matters and questions upon further examination:

(1) Whether the terms of the proposed transactions, including the consideration to be paid or received, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned;

(2) Whether the proposed transactions are consistent with the policy of Equity, as recited in its registration statement and reports filed under the Act; and

(3) Whether the proposed transactions are consistent with the general purposes of the Act.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall give notice of the aforesaid hearing by mailing a copy of this notice and order by registered mail to Equity and DCA; that DCA shall cause a copy of this notice to be mailed to the security holders of DCA at their last known address on or before July 1, 1960; and that notice to all other persons be given by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER and that a general release of this Commission in respect of this notice and order be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases.

By the Commission.

Title 3—THE PRESIDENT

Proclamation 3354

NATIONAL WOOL MONTH, 1960

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

WHEREAS September 1960 marks the two-hundredth anniversary of the recognition of wool production and wool manufacture in the United States as an industry; and

WHEREAS from its humble beginning in the homes and on the farms of the colonists in the early sixteen hundreds, the American wool-growing and textile industry has become an integral part of our national economy, representing more than five billion dollars a year in the retail value of its products; and

WHEREAS its nationwide scope is evidenced by the fact that in more than three thousand of the three thousand and sixty-eight counties in the United States there are one or more wool-production or textile operations, with wool grown in every one of the fifty States of the Union; and

WHEREAS the Congress, in recognition of the importance of the wool industry and the part it plays in our national economy, has by a joint resolution approved June 29, 1960, requested the President to issue a proclamation designating the month of September 1960 as National Wool Month:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate the month of September 1960 as National Wool Month; and I urge the people of the United States to observe that month with appropriate activities and ceremonies.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this twenty-ninth day of June in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] sixty, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-fourth.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

By the President:

CHRISTIAN A. HERTER,
Secretary of State.

2. That portion of § 52.3 preceding the list of standard forms is revised to read:

4. Section 52.9 is revised to read:

§ 52.9 Action of the carrier's agent and disposition of the U.S. Government bill of lading forms.

Upon delivery of property for the account of the United States to a carrier for shipment, the agent of the initial carrier should insert the name of his company in the space provided therefor in the lower lefthand portion of the original bill of lading, together with his signature and the date the shipment was received, and he should verify that the statement made on the original bill of lading—that carrier furnished pick-up or trap car service at origin—is in accord with the facts and that such statement contained on the original bill of lading is the same as that contained on the shipping order. The shipping order, the freight waybill—original, and the freight waybill—carrier's copy will be surrendered to the agent of the initial carrier at the time the shipment is accepted and the bill of lading is receipted by its agent, at which time the original bill of lading must be immediately forwarded by the shipper (issuing officer or contractor) to the consignee, in order that it will be in his possession upon arrival of the shipment at destination, when it will be promptly receipted and surrendered by him to the last carrier for billing. However, in those instances in which it is apparent to the shipper that the mailing of the original bill of lading to the consignee will result in arrival of the shipment prior to the arrival of the original bill of lading (as, for example, in cases of single-line rail hauls, when shipping by air or by railway express, and in many cases of shipment by highway, etc.), or in the case of all shipments of property for the account of the United States, if it is administratively determined that some substantial interest of the Government will be served thereby; the original bill of lading may, by agreement with the carrier receiving such shipments, be surrendered to said carrier, or its agent, to accompany the shipment or, at the discretion of the carrier, to be transmitted to destination by such other means as the carrier may elect. Whenever the original bill of lading is surrendered to a carrier with the shipment, the certificate which appears on the bill of lading, "Initial Carrier's Agent, by Signature Below, Certifies He Received the Original Bill of Lading ☐ Yes (Indicate by Check)," shall be checked to so indicate by the carrier's agent who signs for the shipment. In such cases one memorandum copy of the bill of lading will be retained by the shipper (issuing officer) as an office record, and one memorandum copy, so certified, must be immediately forwarded by him to the consignee. Whenever the bill of lading is used by a contractor as shipper, one memorandum copy thereof, so certified, will be retained by the contractor, and memorandum copies, each so certified, must be promptly forwarded by him to the issuing officer and to the consignee.

(Sec. 311, 42 Stat. 25, 31 U.S.C. 52. Interprets or applies Sec. 309, 42 Stat. 25, 31 U.S.C. 49)

PART 728—WHEAT

Subpart—1961–62 Marketing Year

County Acreage Allotments for 1961 Crop

§ 728.1106 Basis and purpose.

The county acreage allotments for 1961 crop wheat contained herein have been determined under section 334 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. The purpose is to apportion among the counties of each State the respective State wheat acreage allotments for 1961 as established by the proclamation dated May 10, 1960 (25 F.R. 4313).

Section 334(b) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, provides that the State acreage allotments for wheat, less a reserve of not to exceed 3 per centum thereof for apportionment to farms on which wheat has not been planted during any of the three marketing years immediately preceding the marketing year in which the allotment is made, shall be apportioned among the counties in the State on the basis of the acreage seeded for the production of wheat during the 10 calendar years immediately preceding the calendar year in which the national acreage allotment is determined (plus, in applicable years, the acreage diverted under previous agricultural adjustment and conservation programs), with adjustments for abnormal weather conditions and trends in acreage during such period and for the promotion of soil-conservation practices. The applicable 10-year period used in apportioning the 1961 State wheat acreage allotments among the counties in the respective States included the years 1950 to 1959 inclusive.

Section 301(c) of the Act requires that the latest available statistics of the Federal Government be used in making the apportionments required to be made under the Act. Estimates of county annual seeded acreage made by the Agricultural Marketing Service of the Department of Agriculture do not meet the definitions of wheat acreage as contained in the regulations pertaining to 1961 wheat acreage allotments and marketing quotas. Such regulations provide that: (1) Wheat seeded in mixtures with other small grains will be counted as wheat acreage if the harvested mixture is classified as wheat or as mixed grain under the official grain standards; (2) Wheat used for cover crop will not be counted as wheat acreage in any county; and (3) the transferring of farm records of wheat acreage across county lines will be permitted for administrative purposes. For these reasons acreage data obtained from farm surveys by ASC county committees in 1950, 1953, 1954, 1955, 1956, 1957, 1958, and 1959 covering the 10-year period, 1950–1959 were used as basic data in lieu of Agricultural Marketing Service estimates. It was necessary to adjust the total seeded acreage of wheat for 1954 in the States of Minnesota, Montana, North Dakota, and South Dakota in order that the acreage seeded to durum wheat in excess of the official farm acreage allotments under the provisions of Public Law 290, 83d Congress, for 1954, would not be considered in establishing future State, county, and farm acreage allotments. For 1955, 1956, and 1957, the data compiled by the farm survey excluded the acreage of durum wheat seeded in excess of the regular allotment under the provisions of Public Law 8, 84th Congress, for 1955, Public Law 431, 84th Congress, for 1956, and Public Law 85–13 for 1957. Therefore, no further adjustment was necessary for this factor for these years.

The 1953 Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation survey compiled 1951–53 wheat acreage seeded for grain, the acreage of mixtures of wheat and other small grains, and the acreage used for cover crop as separate items. Such items were included or excluded as required to conform to the wheat acreage definition set forth in the regulations. Since the change in definition for wheat mixtures will not be effective with the crops prior to 1960, no change was made in determining wheat history acreage for the 1959 and prior crops. The surveys for 1950, 1954, 1955, 1956, 1957, and 1958 compiled wheat acreage according to definition, so data for those years were used as compiled.

Credit for acreage diverted from wheat under previous agricultural adjustment and conservation programs was determined for each applicable county for the years 1950 and 1951. Credit for wheat diversion in 1950 was computed on a county basis for each State by subtracting from the total 1950 base acreage of wheat established for farms which complied with their 1950 wheat allotments, the larger of (1) the total 1950 wheat acreage seeded on such farms or (2) 90 percent of the total 1950 wheat acreage allotted to such farms.

No diversion credit was determined under the 1951 program for counties in which only spring wheat was seeded because wheat acreage allotments for that year were suspended before spring wheat was seeded. For counties in which only winter wheat was seeded, diversion credit for 1951 was computed by subtracting from the county base acreage of wheat established under the 1951 wheat allotment program the larger of (1) the total wheat acreage seeded in the county for 1951 or (2) the county wheat acreage allotment for 1951, except that no diversion credit was allowed where the total acreage in the county exceeded the county base acreage of wheat. For counties in which both winter and spring wheat was seeded, diversion credit for 1951 was determined in the same manner as for counties in which only winter wheat was seeded except that the respective results were adjusted by applying a decimal factor which was obtained by dividing the total winter wheat acreage seeded in the county during the preceding three years by the total acreage of all wheat in the county during the same year.

Credit for wheat diversion in 1954 and 1955 was computed on a farm basis rather than on a county basis and was determined as follows: For each year, if the farm wheat acreage allotment was exceeded, no credit for diversion was allowed. If the allotment was not knowingly exceeded and the wheat acreage was 90 per centum or more of the farm allotment, the diversion credit allowed was the difference between the base acreage and the wheat acreage. If the wheat acreage was less than 90 per centum of the allotment, the maximum diversion credit for the farm was determined by dividing the wheat acreage by 90 per centum of the county scaling factor and subtracting from this result the wheat acreage.

Credit for wheat diversion in 1956 was computed on a farm basis in a similar manner as for 1954 and 1955, except that 75 per centum was used in all computations instead of 90 per centum.

For 1954, the sum of all such computed diversion credits were totaled to obtain the county diversion credit for wheat. For the States of Minnesota, Montana, North Dakota, and South Dakota the acreages of Durum Wheat (Class II) grown within the allotment increases made for 1954 under Public Law 290, 83d Congress, were subtracted from the 1954 wheat acreage adjusted as described above so as to conform to language in this Act providing that such acreage shall not be considered in the determination of future allotments.

The acreages for 1955 and 1956, including diversion credit on a farm basis, were totaled from the 1960 record of farm data. The acreage thus used for 1955 and 1956 included the following as wheat acreage: (1) Acreage actually seeded on the farms and classified as wheat under marketing quota regulations, less the acreage of Durum Wheat (Class II) grown within the allotment increases under Public Law 8, 84th Congress and Public Law 431, 84th Congress; (2) the acreage diverted from the production of wheat on complying farms; and (3) the acreage released and reapportioned to farms under regulations for temporary release and reapportionment of such acreage issued by the Secretary.

Adjustments for abnormal weather conditions in county wheat acreage estimates were considered only for those counties for which the ASC State committees had determined that the wheat acreage seeded and diverted for any year of the 10-year period except 1957, 1958 and 1959, was below normal due to abnormal weather conditions, and the Director of the Grain Division had approved such determinations. Counties thus approved which had wheat acreage plus diverted acreage for the year in question lower than the level represented by 90 percent of the most recent previous normal year's acreage or 110 percent of the previous 10-year average wheat acreage plus diverted acreage, whichever was less, were increased to such level as an adjustment for abnormal weather. Determinations of such adjusted acreages made for years prior to 1957 were not revised even though minor revisions were made in acreages of the "normal" years as a result of census revisions.

The 1957 wheat acreage data as compiled from CSS statistics included the following as wheat acreage: (1) Acreage actually seeded on the farms and classified as wheat under marketing quota regulations, less the acreage of Durum Wheat (Class II) grown within the allotment increases under Public Law 85–13; (2) the amount by which the acreage on a farm was less than the wheat acreage allotment, except those farms underplanting the allotment for the purpose of depleting stored excess; (3) the acreage diverted from the production of wheat on complying farms; and (4) the acreage released and reapportioned to farms under regulations for temporary release and reapportionment of such acreage issued by the Secretary. Use of this 1957 acreage data precluded the necessity of making any adjustments for abnormal weather conditions.

Section 334 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, was amended by Public Law 85–203, to add the following: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no acreage in the commercial wheat-producing area seeded to wheat for harvest as grain in 1958 or thereafter in excess of acreage allotments shall be considered in establishing future State and county acreage allotments except as prescribed in the provisos to the first sentence of subsections (a) and (b), respectively, of this section."

Under the provisions of this amendment, only the allotment can be counted as wheat acreage history on any farm on which the allotment is overseeded. The 1958 wheat acreage data compiled from Commodity Stabilization Service statistics was the sum of the following:

(1) The wheat acreage allotment for all farms on which the allotment was overseeded;

(2) The wheat acreage base on all farms complying with the wheat acreage allotment, except those farms underplanting the allotment for the purpose of depleting stored excess; and

(3) For those farms underplanting the allotment for the purpose of depleting stored excess, the acreage actually classified as wheat under marketing quota regulations, plus the diversion credit determined by multiplying the acreage seeded by the reciprocal of the county scaling factor.

Section 334 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, was amended by Public Law 86–419, to add the following:

(d) For the purpose of subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this section, any farm (1) to which a wheat marketing quota is applicable; (2) on which the acreage planted to wheat exceeds the farm wheat acreage allotment; and (3) on which the marketing excess is zero, shall be regarded as a farm on which the entire amount of the farm marketing excess has been delivered to the Secretary or stored in accordance with applicable regulations to avoid or postpone the payment of the penalty. This subsection shall be applicable in establishing the acreage seeded and diverted and the past acreage of wheat for 1960 and subsequent years in apportionment of allotments beginning with the 1961 crop of wheat. For the purpose of clause (1) of this subsection, a farm with respect to which an exemption has been granted under section 335(f) for any year shall not be regarded as a farm to which a wheat marketing quota is applicable for such year, even though such exemption should become null and void because of a violation of the conditions of the exemption.

Under the provisions of this amendment and under the exception as prescribed in the provisos to Public Law 85–203, only the allotment can be counted as wheat acreage history on any farm on which the allotment is overseeded, unless the entire amount of the marketing quota excess is stored or delivered to the Secretary to avoid or postpone the payment of penalty, and none of such excess has been depleted, or the excess has been adjusted to zero because of underproduction. The 1959 wheat acreage data compiled from Commodity Stabilization Service statistics was the sum of the following:

(1) The wheat acreage allotment for all farms on which the allotment was overseeded, except those farms on which the entire amount of the marketing quota excess was stored or delivered to the Secretary to avoid or postpone the payment of penalty, and none of such excess was depleted, or the marketing quota excess was adjusted to zero because of underproduction;

(2) The wheat base acres on all farms on which the allotment was overseeded and on which the entire amount of the marketing quota excess was stored or delivered to the Secretary to avoid or postpone payment of penalty, and none of such excess was depleted, or the marketing quota excess was adjusted to zero because of underproduction;

(3) The wheat base acres on all farms complying with the wheat acreage allotment except those farms underplanting the allotment for the purpose of depleting stored excess; and

(4) For those farms underplanting the allotment for the purpose of depleting stored excess, the acreage actually classified as wheat under marketing quota regulations, plus the diversion credit determined by multiplying the acreage seeded by the reciprocal of the county scaling factor.

To determine for each county the acreage seeded for the production of wheat during the ten calendar years immediately preceding the year 1960, in addition to the foregoing adjustments for diverted acres and abnormal weather, the following additional adjustments for trends, abnormal weather and promotion of soil conservation practices were made:

(1) The simple average of the annual county wheat acreage estimates, adjusted as described above, for the 10-year period, 1950–59 inclusive, was determined.

(2) The simple average of the annual wheat acreage estimates, adjusted as described above, for the 5-year period, 1955–59, was determined.

(3) A simple average of the 10-year average and the 5-year average was determined giving equal weight to each. This acreage became the preliminary adjusted county base acreage of wheat.

(4) A preliminary adjustment for trend was made by deducting from the county wheat acreage history, as computed in accordance with the preceding paragraphs, the wheat acreage history for the years 1955 through 1958 for those farms which have been removed from agricultural production due to the encroachment of urban and industrial development.

(5) As a further adjustment for trend and to give greater effect to the sharp changes in county seeded acreages of wheat during recent years, the preliminary adjusted county base acreages were limited to an acreage of not less than 80 percent nor more than 120 percent of the 4-year (1956–59) average acreage.

(6) In those counties in which the trend adjustment as described above was not adequate to reflect the rapid downward trend in the county, a further adjustment was made by limiting the preliminary adjusted county base acres to 120 percent of a figure obtained by averaging the 4-year (1955–58) county average history with the 1959 county history giving 80 percent weight to the 4-year average history and 20 percent weight to the 1959 history.

Since the farm data for the years 1955 through 1959 as currently constituted on the 1960 farm record cards was used in determining the county base acres, no further adjustment was necessary for transfers of farms into or out of the county.

If the sum of the county base acreages thus established differed from the State base established for the apportionment of the national allotment to States, all preliminary county base acres were factored pro rata so that the sum of the county base acres equaled the State base acres.

The resultant preliminary 1961 county base acreages as further adjusted for trend were reviewed by the respective State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees and appropriate adjustments made for the promotion of soil conservation practices. In determining the preliminary county base acreage, no consideration was given to the effect on the seeding of wheat of abnormal weather which might have been usually favorable for the production of wheat and other small grains. During the extended drought period of the past few years, the reduction of rainfall in the more humid area of the wheat belt has resulted in some shifting of hay crops and row crops to the production of wheat and other small grains. If the State committee determined that the acreage of wheat in any county had increased in recent years due to abnormal weather conditions, the committee was permitted to make a downward adjustment in the county base acreage subject to the approval of the Director of the Grain Division. The maximum acceptable adjustment was an upward adjustment of five percent or downward adjustment of five percent from the preliminary base acreage. All county base acres were factored pro rata so that the sum of the county base acres after such adjustments was the same as prior to the adjustments. The resultant figure was the final 1961 county wheat base acreage.

The county wheat acreage allotments for 1961 were determined by apportioning pro rata to the counties on the basis of the final 1961 county base acreages, the 1961 State wheat acreage allotment less (1) a reserve acreage for new farms in an amount not to exceed three per centum of the State acreage allotment, and (2) a reserve acreage for missed farms, appeals and correction of errors.

Section 334(a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, states in part, "The national acreage allotment for wheat, less a reserve of not to exceed one per centum thereof for apportionment as provided in this subsection, shall be apportioned by the Secretary among the several States * * *. The reserve acreage set aside herein for apportionment by the Secretary shall be used to make allotments to counties, in addition to the county allotments made under subsection (b) of this section, on the basis of the relative needs of counties for additional allotments because of reclamation and other new areas coming into the production of wheat during the ten calendar years ending with the calendar year in which the national acreage allotment is proclaimed."

A reserve acreage of 55,000 acres was withheld for this purpose. In order for a county located in the 1958 commercial wheat-producing area to receive an additional allotment under this provision the State committee was required to establish that a definite delineable area of the county which had not been producing wheat prior to 1951 has gone into the production of wheat during the past ten years. The amount of additional allotment apportioned under this provision was the sum of the acreages determined on the basis of the formula set forth below, but in no case was the amount of the apportionment less than an amount obtained by subtracting the regular 1961 county allotment from 50 percent of the figure obtained by averaging the 4-year (1955–58) average county history with the 1959 county history, giving 80 percent weight to the 4-year average history and 20 percent weight to the 1959 history.

(1) The sum of the acreages apportioned by the State committee from the State reserve for new farm acreages in the delineable area for the 1960 crop year.

(2) The amount by which the 1961 regular county allotment was less than the 1960 final county allotment factored by the ratio of the State allotment in 1961 to the State allotment in 1960, if the 1961 State allotment was smaller than the 1960 allotment, less the allotment which was lost to the county due to the provisions of Public Law 85–203 because of overseeding on allotment farms.

In the two States, Alabama and Mississippi, which were added to the commercial wheat-producing area in 1959, and in Arizona which was added to the commercial wheat area in 1960, the above mentioned apportionment procedure cannot be used because county allotments were not established between 1954 and the year the State reentered the commercial wheat-producing area. Since in each of these three States it was determined that virtually every county now producing wheat has come into the production of wheat during the past ten years, all such counties were treated alike. Sufficient acreage out of the national reserve was set aside to bring the total acres apportioned to the State to 50 percent of a figure obtained by averaging the 4-year (1955–58) average history, with the 1959 history, giving 80 percent weight to the 4-year average history and 20 percent weight to the 1959 history. Sufficient acreage was apportioned to each county from such reserve acreage so that for each of such counties the total of the regular allotment and the apportionment from the national reserve was the same percentage of the county average history obtained as described above. No apportionment from the national reserve was made in those counties in which the regular allotment exceeded the proportion of the average history that was the basis for the total allotment to other counties in these States.

The total apportioned from the national reserve was 29,514 acres.

The tables which are a part of the regulations show the county base acreage, and the apportionment of the 1961 State Wheat acreage allotments and the national reserve among the counties. The reserve acreage for new farms and the reserve acreage for missed farms, appeals and corrections of errors withheld from the State allotment are listed at the end of the allotment tabulation for each State. The reserve acreage withheld for appeals and corrections by the county committee in apportioning the county allotment to individual farms is indicated in the appropriate column on the tabulation.

Prior to determinations of county acreage allotments for 1961 crop wheat, public notice (25 F.R. 218) was given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C 1003). No data, views, or recommendations pertaining to the determination of county acreage allotments for 1961 crop wheat were submitted pursuant to such notice. For farm wheat acreage allotments, which are based upon the county allotments herein, to be determined and farmers notified thereof prior to the wheat marketing quota referendum to be held on July 21, 1960, as required by law, it will be impracticable to publish these county allotments 30 days in advance of their effective date. Accordingly, the county allotments herein shall become effective upon filing with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Limitation of Handling

§ 922.504 Valencia Orange Regulation 204.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 22, as amended (7 CFR Part 922), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said marketing agreement and order, as amended, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on June 30, 1960.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 3, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 10, 1960, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 550,000 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) All Valencia oranges handled during the period specified in this section are subject also to all applicable size restrictions which are in effect pursuant to this part during such period.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said marketing agreement and order, as amended.

[Peach Order 1]

PART 934—FRESH PEACHES GROWN IN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN WASHINGTON

Limitation of Shipments

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, and Order No. 34 (7 CFR Part 934; 25 F.R. 4669), regulating the handling of fresh peaches grown in designated counties in Washington, effective May 27, 1960, under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the recommendations of the Washington Fresh Peach Marketing Committee, established under the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of fresh peaches, in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than July 5, 1960. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, peaches must await the development of the crop and adequate information thereon was not available to the Washington Fresh Peach Marketing Committee until June 16, 1960; recommendation as to the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such peaches was made at the meeting of said committee on June 16, 1960, after consideration of all available information relative to the supply and demand conditions for such peaches, at which time the recommendation and supporting information were submitted to the Department; necessary supplemental data for consideration in connection with the specification of the provisions of this section were not available until June 24, 1960; shipments of the current crop of such peaches will begin on or about July 5, 1960, and this section should be applicable, insofar as practicable, to all shipments of such peaches in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. During the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 5, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., November 1, 1960, no handler shall handle any lot of peaches unless such peaches meet the following applicable requirements, or are handled in accordance with subparagraph (5) of this paragraph:

(1) Minimum grade requirement. Such peaches shall grade at least U.S. No. 1, except:

(i) During the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 5, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 26, 1960, such peaches may be shipped if they grade at least U.S. No. 2;

(ii) On and after July 26, 1960, such peaches of the J. H. Hale variety which are damaged but not seriously damaged by healed open seams and enlarged rough suture growth may be shipped if they otherwise grade at least U.S. No. 1; and

(iii) On and after July 26, 1960, such peaches of any variety which are damaged but not seriously damaged by enlarged rough suture growth may be shipped if they otherwise grade at least U.S. No. 1.

(2) Uniform firmness requirement. Such peaches in individual containers shall have a reasonably uniform degree of firmness.

(3) Minimum size requirements. Such peaches shall measure at least 2⅜ inches in diameter: Provided, That not more than 10 percent, by count, of the peaches in any lot may be smaller than such minimum size.

(4) Pack requirements. Such peaches in loose or jumble packs shall be in wooden containers of a capacity equal to or greater than that of the Western lugs (boxes with inside dimensions of 7 inches by 11½ inches by 18 inches) and shall contain not less than 26 pounds net weight of peaches: Provided, That such containers of the J. H. Hale variety shall contain not less than 24 pounds of such peaches.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation, any individual shipment of peaches which, in the aggregate, does not exceed 300 pounds net weight may be handled without regard to the restrictions specified in this paragraph (b) or in §§ 934.41 and 934.55.

(6) The terms "U.S. No. 1," "U.S. No. 2," and "diameter" shall have the same meaning as when used in the United States Standards for Peaches (§§ 51.1210 to 51.1223 of this title); the term "loose or jumble pack" shall mean that the peaches are not placed in the container in rows, cups, compartments, or otherwise are not placed in the container in symmetrical order; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the marketing agreement and order.

§ 953.960 Lemon Regulation 853.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 23 F.R. 9053), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for lemons and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on June 28, 1960.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of lemons grown in California and Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 3, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 10, 1960, are hereby fixed as follows:

[Milk Order 961]

PART 961—MILK IN PHILADELPHIA, PA., MARKETING AREA

Order Suspending Certain Provisions

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and of the order regulating the handling of milk in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area (7 CFR Part 961), it is hereby found and determined that:

(a) The following provisions of the order do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act, for the months of July, August and September 1960:

(1) The provisions of § 961.22(j)(2) except "The 15th day of the month • • • the Class I price • • •;" and;

(2) The provisions of § 961.50(a), except "• • • the price per hundredweight of Class I milk shall be • • •" and the price "$5.69" in the Class I price schedule.

(b) Notice of proposed rule making, public procedure thereon, and 30 days notice of effective date hereof are impractical, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest in that:

(1) This suspension order does not require of persons affected substantial or extensive preparation prior to the effective date.

(2) This suspension order is necessary to reflect current marketing conditions and to maintain orderly marketing conditions in the marketing area.

(3) This suspension order was requested by a cooperative association representing a substantial proportion of all producers on the market.

(4) This suspension action will prevent a supply-demand adjustment contrary to the conclusions of the recommended decision issued by the Deputy Administrator March 29, 1960, based upon the record of a hearing held October 22–23, 1959, pursuant to notice issued October 2, 1959 (24 F.R. 8117) and reopened pursuant to notice issued November 5, 1959 (24 F.R. 9166).

Therefore, good cause exists for making this order effective immediately.

It is therefore ordered, That effective upon issuance of this suspension order the aforesaid provisions of the order regulating the handling of milk in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area are hereby suspended for the months of July, August, and September 1960.

PART 992—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN WASHINGTON

Limitation of Shipments

Findings. (a) Marketing Agreement No. 113 and Order No. 92 (7 CFR Part 992), effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), provide methods for limiting the handling of potatoes grown in the production area defined therein through the issuance of regulations authorized in §§ 992.1 through 992.78, inclusive, of the order. The State of Washington Potato Committee, pursuant to § 992.47 of the order, has recommended that regulations limiting the handling of 1960 crop potatoes should be issued. The recommendations of said committee and information submitted by it, with other available information, have been considered and it is hereby found that the regulations hereinafter set forth will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that (1) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (2) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this section, (3) compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, (4) reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation, and (5) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

§ 992.315 Limitation of shipments.

During the period from July 5, 1960, through June 30, 1961, no person shall handle any lot of potatoes unless such potatoes meet the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, or unless such potatoes are handled in accordance with paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of this section.

(a) Minimum quality requirements—(1) Grade. All varieties, U.S. No. 2, or better grade.

(2) Size—(i) Round varieties. 1⅞ inches minimum diameter.

(ii) Long varieties. 2 inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight.

(3) Cleanliness. All varieties, at least "fairly clean."

(b) Minimum maturity requirements—All varieties. "Moderately skinned" which means that not more than 10 percent of the potatoes in any lot may have more than one-half of the skin missing or "feathered."

(c) Special purpose shipments. The minimum grade, size, cleanliness, and maturity requirements set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) shall not be applicable to shipments of potatoes for any of the following purposes:

(1) Certified seed;

(2) Livestock feed;

(3) Charity;

(4) Starch;

(5) Canning or freezing;

(6) Dehydration;

(7) Export;

(8) Potato chipping; or

(9) Prepeeling.

(d) Safeguards. Each handler making shipments of potatoes for canning or freezing, dehydration, export, potato chipping, or prepeeling pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section shall:

(1) First, apply to the committee for and obtain a Certificate of Privilege to make such shipments;

(2) Pay assessments on such shipments, except shipments for canning or freezing;

(3) Have such shipments inspected, except shipments for canning or freezing;

(4) Upon request by the committee, furnish reports of each shipment pursuant to each Certificate of Privilege;

(5) At the time of applying to the committee for a Certificate of Privilege, or promptly thereafter, furnish the committee with a receiver's or buyer's certification that the potatoes so handled are to be used only for the purpose stated in such application and that such receiver will complete and return to the committee such periodic receiver's reports that the committee may require;

(6) Mail to the office of the committee a copy of the bill of lading for each Certificate of Privilege shipment promptly after the date of such shipment;

(7) Before diverting any such shipment to another receiver or buyer apply to the committee for and obtain a new Certificate of Privilege authorizing such diversion, and such handler shall also comply with requirements prescribed by subparagraphs (4) and (5) of this paragraph with respect to such diverted shipments;

(c) Minimum quantity exception. Each handler may ship up to, but not to exceed 5 hundredweight of potatoes any day without regard to the inspection and assessment requirements of this part, but this exception shall not apply to any portion of a shipment over 5 hundredweight of potatoes.

(f) Definitions. The terms "U.S. No. 2," "fairly clean," and "moderately skinned," shall have the same meaning as when used in the United States Standards for Potatoes (§§ 51.1540 to 51.1556 of this title), including the tolerances set forth therein. The term "prepeeling" means potatoes which are clean, sound, fresh tubers prepared commercially in a prepeeling plant by washing, removal of the outer skin or peel, trimming, and sorting preparatory to sale in one or more of the styles of peeled potatoes described in § 52.2422 (United States Standards for Grades of Peeled Potatoes §§ 52.2421 to 52.2433 of this title). Other terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 113 and this part.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Agency

[Reg. Doc. 38; Civil Air Regs. Amdt. 45–5]

PART 45—COMMERCIAL OPERATOR CERTIFICATION AND OPERATION RULES

Postponement of Effective Date of Civil Air Regulations

Part 45 of the Civil Air Regulations presently contains provisions which are applicable to commercial operators conducting operations with small aircraft. Civil Air Regulations Amendment 45–2 (24 F.R. 90), adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board concurrently with a new Part 47, made such operators subject to the provisions of the new part. Subsequently, by Amendments 45–3 and 45–4, the effective date of Amendment 45–2 was postponed by the Federal Aviation Agency until July 1, 1960. This action was taken by the Agency to permit the revision of Part 47.

The Federal Aviation Agency has now completed a proposed revision of Part 47 to be published as a notice of rule making on or about July 1, 1960. Since the time required for completion of the rule making for the revised Part 47 cannot be estimated precisely, the effective date of the present part is being postponed indefinitely. Accordingly, the effective date of Civil Air Regulations Amendment 45–2, as amended, must also be postponed indefinitely. This action will continue the operation of small aircraft by commercial operators under the presently effective small aircraft rules of Part 42 of the Civil Air Regulations.

Since this regulatory action imposes no additional burden upon any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and good cause exists for making the amendment effective on less than 30 days' notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, the effective date of Civil Air Regulations Amendment 45–2 (24 F.R. 90), as amended, is hereby further amended and postponed indefinitely.

This amendment shall become effective on July 1, 1960.

(Sec. 313(a), 601, 72 Stat. 752, 775; 49 U.S.C. 1354, 1421)

[Reg. Doc. 37; Civil Air Regs. Amdt. 47–3]

PART 47—AIR TAXI CERTIFICATION AND OPERATION RULES AND RULES GOVERNING OTHER SMALL AIRCRAFT COMMERCIAL OPERATIONS

Postponement of Effective Date of Part

Part 47 of the Civil Air Regulations was initially adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board on December 30, 1958, with an effective date of July 1, 1959 (24 F.R. 91). Subsequently, by Amendments 47–1 (24 F.R. 5289) and 47–2 (24 F.R. 10192), the effective date of Part 47 was postponed by the Federal Aviation Agency until July 1, 1960. This action was taken by the Agency so that a proposed revision of Part 47, correcting certain deficiencies in the scope and substance of that part, could be prepared and published as a notice of proposed rule making.

The Federal Aviation Agency has now completed a proposed revision of Part 47 which it will publish as a notice of rule making on or about July 1, 1960. Since the time required for completion of the rule making proceeding for the revised Part 47 cannot be estimated precisely, it has been determined that the effective date of the present part should be postponed indefinitely.

Accordingly, the effective date of Part 47 is being postponed indefinitely by this amendment. Until such time as the Federal Aviation Agency adopts and makes effective a revised and superseding Part 47, Part 42 of the Civil Air Regulations will continue to be applicable to all air taxi operators, commercial operators using small aircraft, and air carriers permitted to conduct aircraft operations in accordance with Part 42.

Since this regulatory action imposes no additional burden upon any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and good cause exists for making the amendment effective on less than 30 days' notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, the effective date of Part 47 of the Civil Air Regulations (24 F.R. 91), as amended, is hereby further amended and postponed indefinitely.

This amendment shall become effective on July 1, 1960.

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Board

SUBCHAPTER A—ECONOMIC REGULATIONS

[Reg. No. ER–307]

PART 203—TERMS, CONDITIONS AND LIMITATIONS OF CERTIFICATES OF PUBLIC CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY; FOREIGN AIR TRANSPORTATION

Notice of Nonstop Service; Persons To Be Served

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 29th day of June 1960.

Section 203.7(e) of Part 203 of the Board's Economic Regulations provides that in the case of a Notice of Nonstop Service in Foreign Air Transportation or Notice of Nonstop Service Required by Foreign Country such notice must be served by the holder of a certificate of public convenience and necessity upon "each scheduled air carrier which regularly renders service to or from any point (not located in the continental United States) named in such certificate or located in a general area the holder is authorized by such certificate to serve."

The Board feels that this section, as presently constituted, is unnecessarily burdensome and accomplishes no useful purpose insofar as it requires service of such notices upon carriers who have a point or area in common with the "holder" but have no interest whatsoever in the points or area with which the notice is concerned. The clerical burden imposed by the present regulation is placed upon not only the sending carrier, which must prepare additional copies of the notice, address envelopes and arrange for registered mail, but also upon the receiving carriers which must process said notice within their own administrative structure.

This amendment will require service of said notice only upon those air carriers which operate in the general area covered by the notice. While this leaves a margin of discretion to the carrier proposing the nonstop, the Board, under § 203.7(g), retains the power to require the carrier to serve such additional carriers as the Board may designate in a particular case.

In view of the fact that service of applications and notices under this part could be accomplished as well and at less expense by certified mail in comparison with registered mail, this amendment inserts, in § 203.8, the use of certified mail as an approved means of filing and serving papers under this part. The amendment would merely authorize the use of certified mail as an additional or alternative method for service. Registered mail could continue to be used at the carrier's discretion.

Inasmuch as the amendments effectuated by this revision will serve to liberalize the present provisions, the Board finds that notice and public procedure hereon are not necessary and that these amendments may be made effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Accordingly, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends §§ 203.7(e) and 203.8 of the Board's Economic Regulations (14 CFR Part 203) effective July 2, 1960, as follows:

1. By amending § 203.7(e) to read as follows:

§ 203.7 Persons upon whom notice must be served.

* * * * *

(e) In the case of a Notice of Nonstop Service in Foreign Air Transportation or Notice of Nonstop Service Required by Foreign Country, all scheduled air carriers operating in the general area affected by the nonstop notice.

§ 203.8 [Amendment]

2. By amending § 203.8 by inserting the phrase "or certified" immediately following the word "registered" wherever it may appear in the section.

(Sec. 204(a), 72 Stat. 743, 49 U.S.C. 1324. Interpret or apply sec. 401, 72 Stat. 754, 49 U.S.C. 1371)

Secretary.

[Reg. No. ER–306]

PART 244—FILING OF REPORTS BY AIR FREIGHT FORWARDERS, INTERNATIONAL AIR FREIGHT FORWARDERS, AND COOPERATIVE SHIPPERS ASSOCIATIONS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 29th day of June 1960.

A notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 26, 1959 (24 F.R. 1424) and circulated to the industry as Economic Regulations Draft Release 107. The proposal was essentially an amendment of Part 244 so as to provide for more uniform and detailed reporting by forwarders of their revenues and expenses and the freight handled by them.

The notice proposed the reporting of revenues and expenses separately itemized as between freight forwarding and other activities (Statement of Profit and Loss, Schedule P). It also proposed the filing of certain data with respect to the freight handled by the forwarder (Operating Statistics, Schedule T–1), freight handled by the forwarder at each of its air stations (Station Data, Schedule T–2), and air freight of the forwarder routed between such stations (Origin-Destination Sample of Forwarder Shipments, Schedule T–3).

Comments have been received on the aforementioned notice and have been duly considered, in conjunction with industry data presently available, in promulgating the regulation here adopted. Changes from the reporting requirements as proposed in the notice will alleviate the reporting burden as much as is consistent with the Board's need for information.

With respect to the statement of profit and loss (Schedule P), the rule here adopted merely requires certain allocations of revenues and expenses to the various types of operations undertaken by the forwarder on a reasonable basis to be determined and explained by each forwarder and, in contrast to the draft release, requires less specification with respect to revenues and expenses attributable to accessorial services and non-air activities.

The report of operating statistics (Schedule T–1) as proposed in the draft release required information pertaining to air and surface shipments. To reduce the burden claimed in the comments received on the proposed rule, information on surface shipments will not be required and this report shall only be filed by freight forwarders whose gross air freight forwarding revenues exceed $50,000 for the 12-month period ending on the same date as the semi-annual period covered by the particular report to be filed.

The report on station data (Schedule T–2) proposed under the draft release would require showing for each originating air station the number and tonnage of consignments to direct air carriers in common carriage and the number of shipments received from shippers included in such consignments. This final rule lessens the reporting burden to the extent deemed possible by requiring this schedule to be filed only by forwarders whose gross annual air freight forwarder revenues exceed $50,000. The schedule has also been refined to facilitate obtaining the required data from forwarders' records.

With respect to the report on traffic flow data (Schedule T–3) the draft release version proposed reporting of the origin and destination of freight moving between all stations by means of a twenty percent continuous sample. The number and weight of the consignments involved was also to be reported. To lessen such burden as might be entailed on reporting carriers and yet provide data on the major routings of freight between pairs of points the regulation here adopted merely requires that forwarders list their ten most active pairs of air stations based upon the total weight of their consolidations transported one-way between such stations and the total weight of such consolidations.

For purposes of convenience to the reporting carriers, the entire Part 244 is hereby reissued. The provisions of Part 244 as previously adopted on February 19, 1959 shall apply to the regular semi-annual reports due by August 14, 1960. The new substantive requirements will first apply to the financial and operating reports due by February 14, 1961, which will cover the reporting period July 1 to December 31, 1960. Since there is decided need for the aforementioned information to be filed by February 14, 1961, the Board finds that the public interest requires that this regulation be made effective on less than 30 days' notice and that good cause exists for making this regulation effective on July 1, 1960.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this rule and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby reissues Part 244 of the Economic Regulations (14 CFR Ch. II) effective July 1, 1960 to read as follows:

AUTHORITY: §§ 244.1 to 244.30 inclusive, issued under sec. 204(a); 72 Stat. 743, 49 U.S.C. 1324. Interprets or applies sec. 407, 72 Stat. 766, 49 U.S.C. 1377.

Subpart A—General

§ 244.1 Definitions.

For the purposes of this part:

"Air Freight Forwarding Operations" means the operations of the reporting forwarder conducted under its own air waybills (or other documents serving the same purpose)—and not its operations as an agent of a shipper or of a direct air carrier.

"Consolidation" means air freight, handled in the air freight forwarding operations of the forwarder, which is tendered to a direct air carrier (or other freight forwarder in the case of joint loading) where the reporting forwarder is consignor and consignee.

"Cooperative Shippers Association" means any indirect air carrier classified and defined as such in Part 296 of this chapter.

"Domestic" shall apply to operations between or within any of the states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

"Freight Forwarder" means any indirect air carrier classified and defined as an "Air Freight Forwarder" in Part 296 of this chapter or as an "International Air Freight Forwarder" in Part 297 of this chapter.

"Overseas/Foreign" shall apply to all operations other than Domestic; including but not limited to overseas operations between a place in a State, or the District of Columbia and any place in a territory or possession of the United States, or between a place in a territory or possession of the United States, and a place in any other territory or possession of the United States and foreign operations between a place in the United States and any place outside thereof.

"Originating Air Station" means any air station at which the reporting forwarder receives shipments as a freight forwarder by air and tenders them to direct air carriers at such station whether such activity is undertaken directly by the reporting forwarder or through an agent.

"Shipment" means (1) a single consignment of one or more pieces, from one shipper, at one time, at one address, receipted for in one lot, and moving on one air waybill to one consignee at one destination address (with respect to Schedule T–1, Item 9 and Schedule T–2) or (2) air freight which the reporting carrier does not handle in its air freight forwarding operations (with respect to Schedule T–1, Items 10–12).

§ 244.2 Applicability.

(a) Every freight forwarder holding effective authority from the Board shall periodically prepare and file the financial, operating and insurance report entitled "Report of Air Freight Forwarders and International Air Freight Forwarders," (CAB Form 244) as provided in this part whether or not such forwarder is actively engaged in air freight forwarding operations.[1]

(b) Each cooperative shippers association shall annually file with the Board the financial and operating report, entitled "Annual Report of Cooperative Shippers Associations", (CAB Form 244A) hereinafter described. Each such association shall file this report regardless of whether it is inactive during the report period and where items are not applicable the word "none" should be inserted.

§ 244.3 Extension of filing time.

If circumstances prevent the filing of a report within the prescribed time limit, consideration will be given to the granting of an extension upon receipt of a written request therefor. Such a request must give good and sufficient reason to justify granting the extension, must set forth the date when the report can be filed, and be submitted sufficiently in advance of the due date to permit proper time for consideration and communication to the indirect air carrier of the action taken. Except in cases of emergency no such request will be entertained which is not received in sufficient time to enable the Civil Aeronautics Board to pass thereon before the prescribed due date. If a request is denied, the indirect air carrier remains subject to the filing requirements to the same extent as if no request for extension of time had been made.

§ 244.4 Waiver.

A waiver of any provision of this regulation may be granted by the Board upon its own initiative or upon the submission by an indirect air carrier of a written request therefor, provided that such a waiver is in the public interest and it appears to the Board that temporary or particular conditions warrant a departure from the provisions set forth herein.

§ 244.5 Separability.

If any provision of this part or the application thereof to any indirect air carrier or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this part and the application of such provision to other indirect air carriers or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Subpart B—Financial, Operating and Insurance Reports by Freight Forwarders

§ 244.10 General.

(a) Each freight forwarder shall prepare and file, in duplicate, CAB Form 244[2] entitled "Report of Air Freight Forwarders and International Air Freight Forwarders", in accordance with the requirements of this part and the instructions set forth in such form which is incorporated herein and annexed hereto.

(b) The aforesaid report consists of a statement of certification and individual schedules to be filed therewith at various specified times. These schedules are identified as follows:

(1) Schedule B, Balance Sheet; P, Statement of Profit and Loss; T–1, Operating Statistics; T–2, Station Data; and T–3, Traffic Flow Data; all to be filed semi-annually.

(2) Schedule G–1, General Officers and Directors, List of Stockholders; and G–2, Corporate and Securities Data; Investments in Other Companies; both to be filed annually.

(3) Schedule I, Statement of Insurance Coverage; to be filed semi-annually and after any change in the data reported.

(c) The aforesaid schedules and certification shall be filed so as to be received by the Civil Aeronautics Board within forty-five (45) days after the termination of each prescribed semi-annual and annual period and, with respect to Schedule I, also within thirty (30) days after a change relative to insurance data previously reported. All documents filed in connection with the report shall be considered a part thereof and included within the certification pertaining to the report. The reports shall be addressed to the Board, attention of the Office of Carrier Accounts and Statistics.

§ 244.11 Report certification.

Each filing of CAB Form 244 schedules shall be accompanied by a signed statement by the official in charge of the carrier's accounts certifying that all schedules and supporting documents submitted therewith or previously thereto as parts of the particular report were prepared by him or under his direction, that he has carefully examined them and that they correctly reflect the accounts and records of the carrier and are complete and accurate to the best of his knowledge and belief. The statement of certification appears on the face sheet of the report form and shall apply to all CAB Form 244 schedules and documents filed therewith. The original of the certification shall be accompanied by a conformed copy thereof.

§ 244.12 Balance sheet (Schedule B).

(a) The balance sheet, which is designated as Schedule B of CAB Form 244, shall be prepared as of June 30 and December 31 of each year and be filed with the Board as provided in § 244.10.

(b) Schedule B shall reflect the balances of all the assets and the liabilities and capital of the reporting forwarder. Assets shall be subdivided into current assets, property and equipment, and other assets. Liabilities shall be subdivided into current liabilities, long-term debt, and other liabilities. All the aforestated categories shall be further subdivided into their principal components as shown by Schedule B and the instructions thereon.

§ 244.13 Statement of profit and loss (Schedule P).

(a) The statement of profit and loss, which is designated as Schedule P of CAB Form 244, shall be prepared for each semi-annual period ending June 30 and December 31 of each year and be filed with the Board as provided in § 244.10.

(b) Schedule P shall reflect the revenues and expenses of the reporting forwarder with separation as between domestic and overseas/foreign operations if both are engaged in. Both revenues and expenses shall be divided as between those derived from air freight forwarding and those from other operations, and further subdivided into their principal components as shown by Schedule P and the instructions thereon.

§ 244.14 Operating statistics (Schedule T–1).

(a) The schedule of operating statistics, which is designated as Schedule T–1 of CAB Form 244, shall be prepared for each semi-annual period ending June 30 and December 31 of each year and be filed with the Board as provided in § 244.10.

(b) Schedule T–1 shall be prepared and filed only by freight forwarders whose gross air freight forwarding revenues (item 4 of Schedule P) exceed $50,000 for the 12-month period ending on the same date as the semi-annual period covered by the particular report.

(c) Schedule T–1 shall cover where applicable both domestic and overseas/foreign air operations. With respect to air freight forwarding operations of the forwarder, the schedule shall reflect the number and weight of (1) all consolidations tendered by the freight forwarder to each class of direct air carrier for transportation by charter and otherwise, (2) all consolidations tendered under joint loading arrangements, and (3) all shipments received from shippers for forwarding. With respect to other air operations by the forwarder, the schedule shall reflect the number and weight of all shipments tendered by the reporting carrier to direct air carriers in a capacity other than as a freight forwarder (air cargo sales agent, shipper's agent, or other capacity). All the aforestated categories shall be itemized and subdivided as shown by Schedule T–1 and the instructions thereon.

§ 244.15 Station data (Schedule T–2).

(a) The schedule of station data, which is designated as Schedule T–2 of CAB Form 244, shall be prepared for each semiannual period ending June 30 and December 31 of each year and be filed with the Board as provided in § 244.10.

(b) Schedule T–2 shall be filed only by carriers whose gross air freight forwarder revenues (item 4 of Schedule P) exceed $50,000 for the 12-month period ending on the same date as the semi-annual period covered by the particular report.

(c) Schedule T–2 shall cover the traffic volume handled by the reporting forwarder at each originating air station in domestic and overseas/foreign air freight forwarding operations where applicable. For each originating air station, report the total number of all air shipments received from shippers at such station (not including shipments being reconsolidated) and the total number and weight of all consolidations made to direct air carriers, or freight forwarders in the case of joint loading, at such station (including reconsolidations—that is, air freight which has previously been consolidated, in the air freight forwarding operations of the reporting forwarder, and tendered to a direct air carrier, or freight forwarder in the case of joint loading). This data shall be reported as shown by Schedule T–2 and the instructions thereon.

§ 244.16 Traffic flow data (Schedule T–3).

(a) The schedule of traffic flow data, which is designated as Schedule T–3 of CAB Form 244, shall be prepared for each semiannual period ending June 30 and December 31 of each year and be filed with the Board as provided in § 244.10.

(b) Schedule T–3 shall reflect the main routings of consolidations handled by the reporting forwarder in both domestic and overseas/foreign air freight forwarding operations where applicable. The reporting forwarder shall list on this Schedule, in descending order of importance, the ten pairs of air stations representing the largest directional traffic flow based upon the total weight of air consolidations tendered to direct air carriers (or freight forwarders in the case of joint loading) and transported between such stations, in one direction. There shall also be listed the total tonnage of consolidations moving between each of the ten pairs in such direction. The aforesaid data shall be reported as shown by Schedule T–3 and the instructions thereon.

§ 244.17 General officers and directors, list of stockholders (Schedule G–1).

(a) The schedule relating to general officers, directors and stockholders, which is designated as Schedule G–1 of CAB Form 244, shall be prepared as of December 31 of each year and filed with the Board as provided in § 244.10.

(b) Schedule G–1 shall identify, in cases where the reporting forwarder is a corporation, those officers and directors whose positions are elective and their ownership of the reporting forwarder's securities. This schedule shall also identify all persons holding more than five percent of the reporting forwarder's outstanding capital stock or, in cases of unincorporated business enterprises, more than five percent of the total invested capital, and the holdings of each such person. The above-mentioned persons and their holdings shall be identified in the manner set forth in Schedule G–1 and the instructions thereon.

§ 244.18 Corporate and securities data, investments in other companies (Schedule G–2).

(a) The schedule relating to corporate and securities data and investments in other companies, which is designated as Schedule G–2 of CAB Form 244, shall be prepared as of December 31 of each year and filed with the Board as provided in § 244.10.

(b) Schedule G–2 shall reflect the exact name of the forwarder and, as applicable, the date and place of incorporation, date of charter termination, the date and place of annual meetings, and a complete statement of any corporate change and a description of any outstanding options to purchase the reporting forwarder's securities. This schedule shall also reflect the holdings of the reporting forwarder in other companies. The above-mentioned information shall be reported as specifically indicated by Schedule G–2 and the instructions thereon.

§ 244.19 Statement of insurance coverage (Schedule I).

(a) The statement of insurance coverage, which is designated as Schedule I of CAB Form 244, shall be prepared as of June 30 and December 31 of each year and as of all other times when a change occurs in the insurance, self-insurance or surety bond previously reported to the Board by a freight forwarder, and shall be filed with the Board as provided in § 244.10.

(b) Schedule I shall reflect the reporting forwarder's cargo and public liability insurance coverage under a policy, self-insurance plan, and/or surety bond as required by Parts 296 and/or 297 of this chapter. The information to be reported is further described in Schedule I.

Subpart C—Annual Reports by Cooperative Shippers Associations

Chapter III—Federal Aviation Agency

[Reg. Docket No. 206; Amdt. 32]

PART 514—TECHNICAL STANDARD ORDERS FOR AIRCRAFT MATERIALS, PARTS, PROCESSES, AND APPLIANCES

TSO–C66, Airborne Distance Measuring Equipment (DMET)

Proposed § 514.71 establishing minimum performance standards for airborne distance measuring equipment for use on civil aircraft of the United States engaged in air carrier operations was published in 24 F.R. 10119.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the amendment. Due consideration has been given to all comments received. Two of these concerned the difficulty of meeting the altitude test requirement for high-powered pulse equipment, specified in paragraph 3.3 of RTCA Paper 167–59/DO–99. It has been determined that an alternate test condition may be substituted and this has been added as paragraph (a)(2)(v). Two recommendations for changes in the vibration frequency range have not been adopted. Data obtained from recent studies on vibration requirements indicate that the frequency range of 10–55 c.p.s. is adequate. Therefore, the original range is being retained for equipment mounted on instrument panels. One manufacturer took exception to the decoder selectivity requirement of paragraph 2.11(b), RTCA Paper 167–59/DO–99. However, the Federal Aviation Agency regards this requirement as necessary from the future system standpoint and has determined that the requirement should be included in the adopted Technical Standard Order.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 5662), Part 514 of the regulations of the Administrator (14 CFR Part 514) is hereby amended as follows:

§ 514.71 Airborne distance measuring equipment (DMET) (for air carrier aircraft)—TSO–C66.

(a) Applicability—(1) Minimum performance standards. Minimum performance standards are hereby established for airborne distance measuring equipment (DMET) which is to be used on civil aircraft of the United States engaged in air carrier operations. New models of airborne distance measuring equipment (DMET) manufactured for use on civil air carrier aircraft on or after August 1, 1960, shall meet the minimum performance standards as set forth in Radio Technical Commission for Aeronautics' Paper entitled "Minimum Performance Standards—Airborne Distance Measuring Equipment (DMET) Operating Within the Radio Frequency Range of 960–1215 Megacycles," (Paper 167–59/DO–99)[1] dated September 8, 1959. Radio Technical Commission for Aeronautics' Paper 100–54/DO–60[2] which is incorporated by reference in and thus is a part of Paper 167–59/DO–99 has been amended by Paper 256–58/EC–366 dated November 13, 1958. This amendment is also a part of the minimum performance standards. An exception to these standards is covered in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.[3]

(2) Exceptions. (i) Radio Technical Commission for Aeronautics' Paper 100–54/DO–60 and amendment Paper 256–58/EC–366 dated November 13, 1958, outline environmental test procedures for equipment designed to operate under three environmental test conditions as specified therein under Procedures A, B, and C. Only airborne distance measuring equipment (DMET) which meets the operating requirements as outlined under Procedure A or Procedure B of Paper 100–54/DO–60, as amended, is eligible under this section.

(ii) The vibration values specified below may be used for equipment designed exclusively for installation on the instrument panel of aircraft in lieu of those specified in Paper 100–54/DO–60 as amended. No shock mounting shall be used during the conduct of this test if the vibration values specified below are used.

Amplitude: 0.01" (0.02" total excursion).
Frequency: Variable 10–55 c.p.s.
Maximum Acceleration: 1.5 g.

(iii) Equipment which is designed exclusively for installation on the instrument panel of aircraft need not be subjected to the shock requirements outlined in Paper 100–54/DO–60 as amended.

(iv) Indicating instruments which are a part of the system, but which are not designed exclusively for installation on the instrument panel of aircraft, may also be tested to the vibration requirements specified in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, and need not be subjected to the shock requirements outlined in Paper 100–54/DO–60 as amended.

(v) The following test condition may be substituted for that specified in paragraph 3.3, Altitude Test, of RTCA Paper 167–59/DO–99 for equipment intended for installation in heated and pressurized locations of aircraft:

With the equipment operating, adjust the atmospheric pressure to that equivalent to 40,000 plus-minus 5 percent feet at the ambient room temperature. Maintain this pressure for 10 minutes, then increase the pressure to that equivalent to 20,000 plus-minus 5 percent feet. Apply standard primary test voltage and frequency to the equipment and operate at maximum duty cycle for 15 minutes. Following this, with standard test voltage and frequency applied, and the equipment maintained at a pressure equivalent to 20,000 plus-minus 5 percent feet, the standards of paragraphs 2.1, 2.7, and 2.9 shall be met. During this test, the test chamber wall shall not be colder than −40° C.

(b) Marking. In addition to the information required in § 514.3, equipment which has been designed to operate over the environmental conditions as outlined in Procedure A of RTCA Paper 100–54/DO–60, as amended, shall be marked as Category A equipment. Equipment which has been designed to operate over the environmental conditions outlined in Procedure B of this same paper shall be marked as Category B equipment. Equipment which has been designed exclusively for installation on the instrument panel of aircraft and which meets only the amended vibration requirements outlined above shall be identified with the letters I.P. following the category of equipment, such as CAT. A—I.P.

(c) Data requirements. One copy each of the manufacturer's operating instructions, schematic diagrams, and installation procedures shall be furnished the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Division, Bureau of Flight Standards, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C., with the statement of conformance.

(d) Previously approved equipment. Airborne distance measuring equipment (DMET) approved prior to August 1, 1960, may continue to be manufactured under the provisions of its original approval.

(e) Effective date. August 1, 1960.

(Secs. 313(a), 601; 72 Stat. 752, 775; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 27, 1960.

OSCAR BAKKE, Director, Bureau of Flight Standards.

[1] Copies of these papers may be obtained from the RTCA Secretariat, Room 1072, T–5 Building, 16th and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. Paper 167–59/DO–99, 50 cents per copy; Paper 100–54/DO–60, 20 cents per copy.

[2] In addition to the performance standards herein, airborne distance measuring equipment (DMET) when installed in aircraft must meet installation requirements as well as functional and reliability fight tests of the pertinent airworthiness sections of the Civil Air Regulations.

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Airspace Docket No. 59–FW–79]

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Modification of Federal Airways

On March 11, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 2084) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed the following actions: Modification of VOR Federal airway No. 22 between Marianna, Fla., and Jacksonville, Fla.; and modification of VOR Federal airway No. 157 between Gainesville, Fla., and Alma, Ga.

Although not mentioned in the notice, a minor modification of § 601.6022 is required in order to indicate that more than one north alternate exists on Victor 22.

Title 26—INTERNAL REVENUE, 1954

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

SUBCHAPTER E—ALCOHOL, TOBACCO, AND OTHER EXCISE TAXES

PART 194—LIQUOR DEALERS

Special Taxes Imposed and Requirements and Procedures With Respect to Operations

On April 7, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making with respect to the revision and reissuance of 26 CFR Part 194 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 2958).

In accordance with the notice, interested parties were afforded an opportunity to submit written data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto. No written comments were received within the 30-day period prescribed in the notice. Accordingly, the regulations as so published are hereby adopted subject to the changes set forth below:

1. An authority citation is inserted immediately following the table of contents.

2. Section 194.201 is amended by striking the period at the end thereof and adding the following: "or the claimant shall include in his claim evidence satisfactory to the assistant regional commissioner that the stamp cannot be submitted."

3. Section 194.253 is amended by deleting the parenthetical phrase "(unless the container comes within the exception in § 194.251)."

4. Section 194.238 is amended by:

(A) Inserting the paragraph designation "(a)" immediately ahead of the text of the section,

(B) Inserting immediately after the words "he shall" in the first sentence the phrase ", except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section," and

(C) Adding at the end of the section a paragraph (b) and amended citation.

Because these regulations are a part of an integrated recodification program under Chapter 51, I.R.C., and in order that the entire program may be effective on July 1, 1960, it is found that it is contrary to the public interest to issue these regulations subject to the effective date limitation of section 4(c) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003). Accordingly, these regulations shall be effective on July 1, 1960.

[SEAL] WILLIAM H. LOEB,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: June 28, 1960.

FRED C. SCRIBNER, JR.,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

PREAMBLE. 1. The regulations in this part shall supersede Part 194—Liquor Dealers, 1955 edition (26 CFR Part 194; 20 F.R. 2159).

A dealer who believes the circumstances which delayed his filing of the return are reasonable, and who desires to have the delinquency penalty waived, shall submit with his return a written statement under the penalties of perjury, affirmatively showing all of the circumstances alleged as reasonable causes for delay. If such return and statement are submitted to the district director, the district director shall determine whether the delay in filing was due to reasonable cause; if delivered to an internal revenue officer working under supervision of the assistant regional commissioner, the assistant regional commissioner shall make the determination. Any reason which appeals to a man of ordinary prudence and intelligence as a reasonable cause for the delay and which clearly shows no willful intent to avoid the provisions of the taxing statutes, or gross negligence, will be accepted as reasonable. Mere ignorance of the law will not be considered a reasonable cause.

§ 194.129 Stamps not exchangeable.

The holders of special tax stamps as dealers in wines only, or dealers in wine and beer only, may not exchange them for the regular retail and wholesale liquor dealer stamps. Stamp To Be Posted

§ 194.131 General.

A dealer shall conspicuously display his special tax stamp in his place of business. A dealer holding a special tax stamp as a retail dealer in liquors or a retail dealer in beer "At Large" or "In the United States" shall place and keep the stamp conspicuously posted where he is conducting such business.

(68A Stat. 831; 26 U.S.C. 6806)

Missing Stamps

§ 194.132 Lost or destroyed.

If a special tax stamp has been lost or destroyed, the dealer shall immediately notify the district director. A "Certificate in Lieu of Lost or Destroyed Special Tax Stamp" will be issued to the dealer who submits an affidavit showing to the satisfaction of the district director that the stamp was lost or destroyed. The certificate shall be posted in lieu of the stamp, otherwise, liability for failure to post the stamp will be incurred.

§ 194.133 Seizure by State authorities.

Where a stamp designated "Retail Dealer in Liquors" is seized by State authorities because it does not conform to the dealer's local license or permit (wine, or wine and beer), the district director will, on request, issue a "Certificate in Lieu of Lost or Destroyed Special Tax Stamp" to show that the dealer has paid special tax as a "Retail Dealer in Wine" or "Retail Dealer in Wines and Beer," as the case may require.

Correction of Errors on Special Tax Stamps

§ 194.134 Errors disclosed by taxpayers.

On receipt of a special tax stamp, the dealer will examine it to insure that the name and address are correctly stated; if not, the taxpayer will return the stamp to the district director with a statement showing the nature of the error and the correct name or address. The district director, on receipt of such stamp and statement, will compare the data on the stamp with that on the Form 11 in his files, correct the error if made in his office, and return the stamp to the taxpayer. However, if the error was in the taxpayer's preparation of the Form 11, the district director will require such taxpayer to file a new Form 11, designated "Amended Return," setting forth the taxpayer's correct name and address, and a statement explaining the error on the original Form 11. On receipt of the amended Form 11, and a satisfactory explanation of the error, the district director will make the proper correction on the stamp and return it to the taxpayer.

§ 194.135 Errors discovered on inspection.

When an internal revenue officer discovers a material error on a special tax stamp in the name, ownership, or address of the dealer, he will secure from the dealer a new Form 11, designated "Amended Return," showing correctly all of the information required in § 194.106 and, in the body of the form or in an attachment thereto, a statement of the reason for requesting correction of the stamp. On receipt of the amended return and an acceptable explanation for the error, the officer will make the proper correction on the stamp and return it to the taxpayer.

Stamps for Incorrect Period or Incorrect Liability

§ 194.136 General.

Where a dealer through error has filed a return and paid special tax for an incorrect period of liability or incorrect class of business, he shall prepare a correct Form 11 for each taxable year involved, designating it as an "Amended Return," and submit the amended return, or returns, with remittance for the total tax and additions to the tax (delinquency penalties and interest) incurred, to the district director or, if the error is discovered by an internal revenue officer, to such officer: Provided, That, subject to the limitations imposed by section 6511, I.R.C., the tax (including additions thereto) paid for the incorrect period of liability or incorrect class of business may be allowed as a credit against the correct tax (including any additions thereto) as provided in § 194.137 or § 194.139 on surrender of the incorrect stamp or stamps with the amended return or returns noted to show that credit is requested. Tax (including additions thereto) paid for a stamp for an incorrect period of liability or incorrect class of business which is not credited as provided in § 194.137 or § 194.139, including any creditable tax and additions thereto in excess of the correct tax (including additions thereto), may be refunded pursuant to the provisions of Subpart M of this part where the dealer has filed a correct return on Form 11 with remittance for the correct amount of tax (including any additions thereto). A new stamp will be issued only in respect of a current period of liability.

(68A Stat. 732; 26 U.S.C. 6011)

Where the internal revenue officer discovers that tax was paid for an incorrect class of business for a correct period of liability and examination of the incorrect stamp discloses that no additions to the tax were collected, he may, where the correct tax (including any additions thereto) exceeds the incorrect tax paid, credit the tax paid against such correct tax on receipt by him of an amended Form 11, as provided in § 194.136, remittance of the difference between the tax paid and the correct tax plus any additions thereto, and the incorrect stamp. The district director will issue a correct stamp if the additional tax collected is for a current year.

§ 194.138 Receipt for taxes on Form 809.

Every internal revenue officer to whom a dealer delivers a remittance in payment of special tax and any additions thereto shall issue to the dealer a receipt on Form 809 for the tax (penalties and interest, if any) covered by the remittance.

§ 194.139 Credit by district director.

The district director may credit the tax (including additions thereto) paid for an incorrect stamp on receipt by him of an amended return as provided in § 194.136 together with the incorrect stamp surrendered for credit and remittance for the difference between such incorrect tax and the correct tax (including any additions thereto) and, if the liability is for the current year, issue a correct stamp. Where the tax (and additions thereto) paid for the incorrect stamp surrendered exceeds the amount due, the district director shall advise the dealer to file claim for refund of such excess on Form 843. The applicable provisions of Subpart M of this part shall govern claims for refund.

However, no such proprietor shall have more than one place of sale, as to each plant, that shall be exempt from special tax under this section.

(b) Place of exemption. Unless the exemption is claimed elsewhere, it will be presumed that the exemption is claimed at the plant where the spirits or wines are stored. (b) Place of exemption. Unless the exemption is claimed elsewhere, it will be presumed that the exemption is claimed at the bonded wine cellar where the wines or wine spirits are stored. If the proprietor wishes to be exempt from special tax with respect to sales at his principal office rather than for sales at his brewery, he shall notify the assistant regional commissioner of the region in which the brewery is located of his intention. Such notice shall be in writing, on letter size paper and shall be submitted in triplicate. On approval, two copies will be returned to the proprietor, one to be filed at the principal office, and the original will be retained by the assistant regional commissioner. Where the exemption is claimed for a place other than the brewery, special tax shall be paid at the brewery if sales are made thereat.

Subpart O—Prescribed Records and Reports, and Posting of Signs

WHOLESALE DEALERS' RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 194.221 General requirements as to distilled spirits.

Except as provided in §§ 194.223 and 194.224, every wholesale dealer in liquors shall, daily, prepare records of the physical receipt and disposition of distilled spirits by him, and shall, daily, prepare a recapitulation record showing the total wine gallons if in bottles, or proof gallons if in packages, of distilled spirits received and disposed of during the day. Every wholesale dealer in liquors shall submit on Forms 52A and 52B daily or periodic reports, prepared from his records, of the physical receipt and disposition of distilled spirits by him: Provided, That upon application, the assistant regional commissioner may relieve a dealer from the requirement of preparing and submitting such daily or periodic reports on Forms 52A and 52B until otherwise notified, when the assistant regional commissioner finds that such reporting is not necessary to law enforcement or protection of the revenue. Every wholesale dealer in liquors who offers distilled spirits for sale shall submit a monthly report on Form 338, showing the total wine gallons if in bottles, or proof gallons if in packages, of distilled spirits (a) on hand at the beginning of the month, (b) received during the month, (c) disposed of during the month, and (d) remaining on hand at the end of the month.

Every wholesale dealer in liquors who receives wines, or wines and beer, and every wholesale dealer in beer shall keep at his place of business a complete record of all wines and beer received, showing (a) the quantities thereof, (b) from whom received, and (c) the receiving dates. Such record, which must be kept for a period of not less than two years as prescribed in § 194.242, shall consist of all purchase invoices or bills covering wines and beer received or, at the option of the dealer, a book record containing all of the required information. Wholesale dealers are not required to prepare or submit reports to assistant regional commissioners of transactions relating to wines and beer.

The provisions of this subpart relative to the maintenance of records and the submission of reports shall not apply to States, political subdivisions thereof, or the District of Columbia, or any liquor stores operated by such entities that maintain and make available for inspection by internal revenue officers records which will enable such officers to verify receipts of wines and beer and trace readily all distilled spirits received and disposed of by them: Provided, That such States, political subdivisions thereof, or the District of Columbia, and liquor stores operated by them, shall, on request of the assistant regional commissioner, furnish such transcripts, summaries, and copies of their records as he shall require.

Wholesale liquor dealer operations conducted by proprietors of distilled spirits plants shall be recorded and reported in accordance with the applicable provisions of Part 201 of this chapter.

(72 Stat. 1342, 1361; 26 U.S.C. 5114, 5207)

Every wholesale dealer in liquors, upon the physical receipt of each individual lot or shipment of distilled spirits, shall prepare a record of receipt which shall show (a) name and address of consignor, (b) date of receipt, (c) brand name, (d) name of producer or bottler, (e) kind of spirits, except that this may be omitted if the dealer keeps available for inspection a separate list or record identifying "kind" with the brand name, (f) quantity actually received (showing number of packages, if any, and number of cases by size of bottle, and explaining any shortage, breakage, leakage, or other difference from the quantity shown on the commercial papers covering the shipment), and (g) serial numbers of packages and cases, unless such serial numbers are available on the consignor's invoice or attachments thereto. Additional information desired by the wholesale dealer may also be shown. All information required to be shown on records of receipt shall be entered on such records by the close of the business day next succeeding that on which the spirits are received. Where the wholesale dealer so defers the preparation of such records, he shall keep memorandum records, prepared at the time the spirits are received, which shall show the data needed to prepare the prescribed records of receipt. Records of receipt may be prepared by entering each individual lot of distilled spirits either (1) on an individual looseleaf "Record of Receipt," preprinted as prescribed in § 194.228, (2) in chronological order on records prepared by tabulating or other mechanical office equipment, if such records are preprinted as prescribed in § 194.228, or (3) in chronological order in a bound record book, provided all pages of such book are prenumbered as prescribed in § 194.228. The dealer may elect to use any one of the above types of record, but may not change from one type to another without prior approval from the assistant regional commissioner. All entries, with the exception of those prescribed for returned merchandise, shall be supported by corresponding invoices of the consignor. Credit memorandums conforming to the requirements of § 194.228 may, if desired, be used in lieu of individual looseleaf "Records of Receipt" to show the receipt of returned merchandise. Variations in the format or in the methods of preparation may be authorized, as provided in § 194.229.

§ 194.226 Records of disposition.

Every wholesale dealer shall prepare a record covering the physical disposition of each individual lot of distilled spirits, which shall show (a) name and address of consignee, (b) date of disposition, (c) kind of spirits, except that this may be omitted if the dealer keeps available for inspection a separate list or record identifying "kind" with the brand name, (d) brand name, (e) number of packages, if any, and number of cases by size of bottle, and (f) serial numbers of the cases or packages. Additional information desired by the dealer may also be shown. Records of disposition shall be prepared by entering each individual lot of distilled spirits either (1) on an individual looseleaf "Record of Disposition," preprinted as prescribed in § 194.228, (2) in chronological order on records prepared by tabulating or other mechanical office equipment, if such records are preprinted as prescribed in § 194.228, or (3) in chronological order in a bound record book, provided all pages of such book are prenumbered as prescribed in § 194.228. Case and package serial numbers may be shown either on the record of disposition or on supporting documents attached thereto. The completed order forms of the dealer, or copies of his invoices of sale, will be acceptable as "Records of Disposition" if such documents provide all of the required information, and are preprinted as prescribed in § 194.228. If copies of order forms or invoices of sale are maintained as "Records of Disposition," case or package serial numbers need be entered on, or attached to, only the copies retained as such records. The dealer may elect to use any one of the above types of record, but may not change from one type to another without prior approval from the assistant regional commissioner. Entries on records of disposition shall be completed by the close of the business day next succeeding that on which the spirits are removed. Where the dealer so defers the preparation of such records he shall keep memorandum records, prepared at the time the spirits are sent out, or prior thereto, which shall show the data needed to prepare the prescribed records. Each record of disposition shall be supported by a corresponding delivery receipt (which may be executed on a copy of the "Record of Disposition") fully describing the spirits and signed by the consignee or his agent, or by a copy of a bill of lading indicating delivery of the spirits to a common carrier. Documents supporting records of disposition shall have noted thereon the serial number of the corresponding "Record of Disposition," or the page number of the machine record or record book, as the case may be. Variations in the format or in the methods of preparation may be authorized, as provided in § 194.229.

Entries in record books shall not be erased or obliterated, nor shall whole or partial pages be removed from such books. Correction or deletion of any entry in a record or report shall be accomplished by drawing a line through such entry, and making appropriate correction, explanation, or reference on the same page or sheet. Where a looseleaf "Record of Receipt" or "Record of Disposition" is voided for any reason, all copies thereof shall be marked "Cancelled" and be filed as prescribed in § 194.240; if a new record is prepared in lieu thereof, the serial number of the new record shall be noted on all copies of the cancelled record. Where items entered on a "Record of Disposition" are deleted for reasons such as the refusal of the merchandise by the consignee, or the inability of the wholesale dealer to supply such merchandise, appropriate explanations shall be made on all copies of the record.

Each individual "Record of Receipt" and "Record of Disposition," each credit memorandum used for recording the receipt of returned distilled spirits, and each sheet, or page used in tabulating or other mechanical office equipment for recording the receipt or disposition of distilled spirits shall be preprinted with the name and address of the wholesale dealer in liquors. Each such record, sheet, or page shall also bear a preprinted serial number, beginning with number 1 and, before repeating, continuing in numerical sequence to a number high enough to preclude the duplication of a serial number in such group within a period of six months: Provided, That upon application, the assistant regional commissioner may authorize a wholesale dealer to affix page serial numbers in consecutive order during the preparation or processing of the prescribed records, or authorize the serial numbering of such records beginning with some number other than 1, or authorize the repetition of blocks of serial numbers within a lesser period than six months, where the assistant regional commissioner finds that the dealer's accounting system will afford an effective measure of control and such variation will not be likely to lend itself to the falsification of records. Each serially numbered form or sheet shall be accounted for by the dealer. If a bound record book is used for recording receipts and dispositions, all of the pages of such book shall be numbered in unbroken sequence.

(a) Authorization. The Director may approve variations in the format of records of receipt and disposition, or in the methods of preparing such records, where it is shown that variations from the requirements are necessary in order to use tabulating equipment, business machines, or existing accounting systems, and will not (1) unduly hinder the effective administration of this part, (2) jeopardize the revenue, or (3) be contrary to any provision of law. A dealer who proposes to employ format or methods other than as provided in this part shall submit written application so to do, in triplicate, to the assistant regional commissioner. Such application shall describe the proposed variations and set forth the need therefor. The assistant regional commissioner will determine the need for the variations, and whether approval thereof would unduly hinder the effective administration of this part or result in jeopardy to the revenue. The assistant regional commissioner will forward two copies of the application to the Director together with a report of his findings and his recommendation. Variations in format or methods shall not be employed until approval is received from the Director.

(b) Requirements. Any information required by this part to be kept or filed is subject to the provisions of law and this part relating to required records and reports, regardless of the form or manner in which kept or filed.

§ 194.230 Recapitulation records.

DAILY AND MONTHLY REPORTS

§ 194.231 Wholesale liquor dealer's monthly report, Form 338.

Every wholesale dealer in liquors who is required to keep the records prescribed in § 194.221 shall file with the assistant regional commissioner a monthly report, Form 338, showing the total quantities of distilled spirits received and disposed of during the month, not later than the 10th day of the month succeeding that for which rendered.

(72 Stat. 1342; 26 U.S.C. 5114)

§ 194.232 No transactions during month.

If there were no receipts or disposals of distilled spirits by a wholesale dealer in liquors during a month, Form 338 shall be prepared and forwarded to the assistant regional commissioner, showing the quantity on hand the first day of the month and the quantity on hand the last day of the month and marked "No transactions during month."

(72 Stat. 1342; 26 U.S.C. 5114)

§ 194.233 Discontinuance of business.

When a wholesale dealer in liquors discontinues business as such, he shall render Form 338, covering transactions for the month in which business is discontinued, and mark such report "Final."

(72 Stat. 1342; 26 U.S.C. 5114)

§ 194.234 Daily reports, Forms 52A and 52B.

Except as provided in §§ 194.223 and 194.224, every wholesale dealer in liquors shall prepare and submit, daily, a report on Form 52A of all distilled spirits received by him, and on Form 52B of all distilled spirits disposed of by him. The reports shall be filed with the assistant regional commissioner by delivering or mailing them to such officer on the date the transactions entered therein occur: Provided, That in any case in which the assistant regional commissioner shall direct, the reports shall be so filed with the supervisor in charge instead of the assistant regional commissioner. Each report shall bear the following declaration signed by the dealer or his authorized agent:

I declare under the penalties of perjury that this report, consisting of ------ pages, has been examined by me and to the best of my knowledge and belief is a true, correct, and complete report of all the transactions which occured during the period covered thereby, and each entry therein is correct.

If in any case the assistant regional commissioner shall so authorize, the reports, in lieu of being filed daily, may be filed for such periods and at such times as he may deem necessary in the interest of the Government, or the reports may be waived as provided in § 194.221.

§ 194.235 Entries on Forms 52A and 52B.

Where more than one shipment of distilled spirits is received from the same consignor during any month, there will be reported on Form 52A for the first shipment received, the name and address of such consignor, followed by the distilled spirits plant number of the consignor's plant (for example, DSP–KY–4) or, in the case of shipments received from wholesale dealers in liquors, or importers, the permit number of the consignor (for example, CHI–I–3456). For the remaining shipments received from such consignor during the month, there may be reported in the column designated "Name" such registry number or permit number, as the case may be, and the name and address of the consignor may be omitted. Likewise, where more than one shipment of distilled spirits is sent to the same consignee during any month, there will be reported on Form 52B for the first shipment made the name and address of such consignee followed by the registry number or permit number of the consignee. For the remaining shipments made to such consignee during the month, there may be reported in the column designated "Name" such registry number or permit number, as the case may be, and the name and address of the consignee may be omitted. Where the consignor or consignee is a retail dealer in liquors, the name and address shall be reported on Form 52A or 52B for each shipment received or sent.

(72 Stat. 1342; 26 U.S.C. 5114)

§ 194.236 Entry of miscellaneous items.

Wholesale dealers in liquors may report on Form 52B as one item the total quantity of different kinds of distilled spirits made up from broken cases disposed of to the same person on the same day, provided such total quantity is not in excess of 10 gallons. The entry of such items shall be stated as "Miscellaneous" or "Misc." and shall show the date, the name and address of the person to whom sold, and the quantity.

(72 Stat. 1342; 26 U.S.C. 5114)

§ 194.237 Serial numbers of containers.

Serial numbers of containers of distilled spirits received, or disposed of, shall be reported on Forms 52A or 52B unless the omission of such serial numbers is specifically authorized by the assistant regional commissioner.

(72 Stat. 1342; 26 U.S.C. 5114)

(a) When a wholesale dealer in liquors maintains a separate department on his premises for the retailing (to persons other than dealers) of distilled spirits, he shall, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, keep the records and render the reports prescribed in § 194.221 with respect to all distilled spirits received on his premises, and of all distilled spirits disposed of to other dealers or transferred to his retail department. At the time distilled spirits are transferred to the retail department, a record showing such disposition shall be prepared as prescribed in § 194.226. Where it is necessary in the filling of an order to transfer distilled spirits from the retail department to the wholesale department, a record showing receipt in the wholesale department shall be prepared as prescribed in § 194.225, and the entire wholesale sale shall be entered on a record of disposition in the same manner as any other disposition from the wholesale department. The provisions of this subpart relating to submission of reports on Forms 52A and 52B are applicable to all transfers between wholesale and retail departments. The retail department need not be maintained in a separate room, or be partitioned off from the wholesale department. Where a wholesale dealer in liquors does not maintain a separate retail department, all distilled spirits received and disposed of at his premises shall be accounted for on records of receipt and disposition, and on Forms 52A and 52B when submitted, regardless of the quantity involved.

(b) Where retail sales of distilled spirits (sales to persons who are not dealers) normally represent 90 percent or more of the volume of distilled spirits sold, the dealer may, in lieu of the records required by § 194.225, keep records as prescribed in § 194.239 for all retail dealers in liquors, and all distilled spirits at the premises may be considered as having been received in the dealer's retail department. In addition, as prescribed by § 194.226, he shall prepare records of disposition on all distilled spirits sold at wholesale, and shall prepare recapitulation records of such spirits, as prescribed in § 194.230. Distilled spirits which have been considered as having been received in the retail department, and which are involved in a wholesale transaction, shall be considered as having been transferred to the wholesale department at the time of sale. The monthly report on Form 338 prescribed in § 194.221 shall be submitted in accordance with the provisions of §§ 194.231 and 194.232, even if there have been no wholesale transactions in distilled spirits. Unless relieved of the requirement, pursuant to application under § 194.221, the dealer shall submit daily or periodic reports on Forms 52A and 52B of all his wholesale liquor dealer transactions in distilled spirits. The dealer's wholesale department need not be maintained in a separate room or be partitioned off from the retail department.

RETAIL DEALER'S RECORDS

§ 194.239 Requirements for retail dealers.

(a) Records of receipts. Each retail dealer in liquors and each retail dealer in beer shall keep at his place of business a complete record of all distilled spirits, wines, or beer received, showing (1) the quantities thereof, (2) from whom received, and (3) the receiving dates: Provided, That in cases where wines and beer are retailed only for off-premises consumption, the assistant regional commissioner may authorize the records to be maintained at other premises under control of the same dealer if he finds that such maintenance will not cause undue inconvenience to internal revenue officers desiring to examine such record. Such record shall consist of all purchase invoices or bills covering distilled spirits, wines, and beer received or, at the option of the dealer, a book record containing all of the required information.

(b) Records of sales of 20 wine gallons or more. Every retail dealer who makes sales of distilled spirits, of wines, or of beer in quantities of 20 wine gallons or more to the same person at the same time shall prepare and keep a record of each such sale, which shall show (1) the date of sale, (2) the name and address of the purchaser, (3) the kind and quantity of each kind of liquors sold, and (4) the serial numbers of all full cases of distilled spirits included in the sale. Each entry on such record shall be supported by a corresponding delivery receipt (which may be executed on a copy of the sales slip) signed by the purchaser or his agent.

FILES OF RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 194.240 Manner of filing looseleaf records of receipt and disposition.

One legible copy of (a) each "Record of Receipt," (b) each credit memorandum used for the purpose of recording the receipt of returned merchandise, and (c) each "Record of Disposition," shall be marked or stamped as "Government File Copy," and shall be filed chronologically, and in numerical sequence within each date, in looseleaf binders or books. Where the chronological filing of such records disarranges their numerical sequence to such an extent that the sequence of numbers cannot be readily traced, a control record shall be maintained by the wholesale dealer, which shall key the numerical sequence of the records to their respective dates. Government file copies shall be filed not later than the close of the business day next succeeding that on which the transaction occurred. Separate files shall be maintained for "Records of Receipt," for credit memorandums used to record receipt of returned merchandise, and for "Records of Disposition.". Supporting documents such as consignors' invoices, delivery receipts, and bills of lading, or exact copies thereof, may be filed in accordance with the wholesaler's customary practice. Documents supporting records of disposition shall have noted thereon the identifying serial numbers of the records of disposition to which they refer, as required by § 194.226.

Prescribed records of receipt and disposition and file copies of Forms 52A, 52B, 338, and the recapitulation records required by § 194.230, shall be maintained in chronological order in separate files at the premises where the distilled spirits are received and sent out: Provided, That the assistant regional commissioner may, pursuant to an application received from the wholesale dealer, authorize the files, or any individual file, to be maintained at other premises under control of the same dealer, if he finds that such maintenance will not delay the timely filing of any document, or cause undue inconvenience to internal revenue officers desiring to examine such files.

(72 Stat. 1342; 26 U.S.C. 5114)

PERIOD OF RETENTION

§ 194.242 Retention of records and files.

All records prescribed by this part, documents or copies of documents supporting such records, and file copies of reports submitted, shall be preserved by the person required to keep such documents for a period of not less than 2 years, and during such period shall be available, during business hours, for inspection and the taking of abstracts therefrom by internal revenue officers. Any records, or copies thereof, containing any of the information required by this part to be prepared, wherever kept, shall also be made available for such inspection and the taking of abstracts therefrom.

(72 Stat. 1348, 1395; 26 U.S.C. 5146, 5555)

Any dealer who desires to utilize any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, microcard, miniature photographic, or other process which accurately reproduces or forms a durable medium for reproducing the original of any record, document or report, for the purpose of reproducing and preserving records required to be maintained by this part, shall file an application, in triplicate, with the assistant regional commissioner for approval of such process. The application shall describe (a) the records the dealer proposes to reproduce, (b) the reproduction process he proposes to employ, (c) the manner in which he proposes to preserve the reproductions, and (d) the facilities he proposes to provide for examining, viewing, or using such reproductions. The assistant regional commissioner shall not approve the application unless the Director has approved the reproduction of records of the same class by the process described, and the provisions made by the applicant for the preserving, examining, viewing, and using of the reproductions are deemed to be satisfactory. If the application is approved, the dealer shall retain the reproductions in lieu of the original records, reports, or other documents; preserve them in conveniently accessible files; and provide for the examining, viewing, and using of such reproductions the same as if they were the original records.

(72 Stat. 1395; 26 U.S.C. 5555)

PROCUREMENT OF REPORT FORMS

§ 194.244 Forms to be provided by users at own expense.

Forms 52A, 52B, and 338 will be provided by users at their own expense, but shall be in the form prescribed by the Director: Provided, That, with the approval of the Director, they may be modified to adapt their use to tabulating or other mechanical equipment. Application for permission to modify such forms shall be filed in the manner prescribed in § 194.229.

POSTING OF SIGNS

§ 194.245 Sign of wholesale dealer in liquors.

Every wholesale dealer in liquors who is required to pay special tax as such dealer shall place and keep conspicuously on the outside of his place of business a sign, exhibiting, in plain, durable, and legible letters the name, or firm, of the wholesale dealer and the words "Wholesale Liquor Dealer." In those States where the definition of wholesale liquor dealer differs from the definition in § 194.24, the words "Wholesale Liquor Dealer under Federal Law" may be used. In the case of a wholesale dealer who obtains a special tax stamp designated "Wholesale Dealer in Wines," or "Wholesale Dealer in Wines and Beer," the requirements of this section will be met by the posting of a sign of the character prescribed herein, but with words conforming to the designation of the special tax stamp.

(72 Stat. 1342; 26 U.S.C. 5115)

§ 194.246 Display of false sign.

No person other than a person engaged in business as a wholesale dealer in liquors who has paid the special tax (or the proprietor of a distilled spirits plant or bonded wine cellar who is exempt from payment of special tax by reason of section 5113(a), I.R.C.) shall put up or keep up any sign indicating that he is a wholesale dealer in liquors.

(72 Stat. 1410; 26 U.S.C. 5681)

§ 194.247 Other dealers; no sign required.

Internal revenue laws require the posting of special tax stamps, as provided in § 194.131, but do not require the posting of signs by retail dealers in liquors, retail dealers in beer, or wholesale dealers in beer.

Subpart P—Strip Stamps

§ 194.251 Strip stamps required on all bottles.

Except as provided in §§ 194.271–194.272, all distilled spirits in the possession of wholesale dealers in liquors or retail dealers in liquors shall be in bottles or similar containers of a capacity of 1 gallon or less which shall bear the prescribed strip stamps evidencing bottling in compliance with internal revenue law. The strip stamps shall be affixed in such manner as to be broken when the containers are opened.

(72 Stat. 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5205)

§ 194.252 Breaking of strip stamp on opening bottle.

The strip stamp affixed to a container of distilled spirits (whether affixed over the mouth of the container or in some other authorized manner) shall be broken on opening the container. A portion of the strip stamp shall be left attached to the container while any part of the contents remain therein.

(72 Stat. 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5205)

§ 194.253 Mutilated or missing strip stamps.

Any unopened bottle or other approved container of distilled spirits—

(a) From which the strip stamp is missing,

(b) On which the strip stamp is mutilated to the extent that the genuineness of the stamp cannot be determined, or shall be restamped pursuant to §§ 194.254–194.255, or be returned to a distilled spirits plant for restamping pursuant to written application, in duplicate, approved by the assistant regional commissioner. Where the containers of distilled spirits are to be returned to a distilled spirits plant for restamping, the dealer shall include in his application for approval of such transaction an accurate description of the containers of distilled spirits to be restamped and the name and address of the plant proprietor who has agreed to accept the liquors for restamping.

(c) The contents of which are accessible without breaking the stamp,

(72 Stat. 1358; 26 U.S.C. 5205)

Containers requiring restamping, as described in § 194.253, shall be set aside by the dealer and application for necessary stamps submitted with Form 428, in duplicate, to the assistant regional commissioner. Copies of Form 428 may be obtained from the assistant regional commissioner. In every case the application shall state the cause of mutilation or absence of the stamps and submit evidence that the spirits are eligible for stamping under section 5205(e), I.R.C. Such evidence may consist of invoices covering purchase of the spirits, in addition to other available documents. Such application shall be signed by the dealer or his authorized agent under the penalties of perjury immediately below a declaration, worded as follows:

I declare under the penalties of perjury that I have examined this application and to the best of my knowledge and belief it is true and correct.

If the assistant regional commissioner is satisfied from the evidence submitted that the mutilation or absence of the stamps has been satisfactorily explained, he will approve the requisition for stamps, Form 428; obtain and deliver the stamps to the applicant by mail with instructions in regard to affixing them to the containers, or by a representative of his office. Where an overprinted stamp is to be replaced by the dealer, the word "Restamped," the name of the dealer, and the date of restamping shall be imprinted, or written in ink, in lieu of overprinting the replacement stamp.

§ 194.255 Strip stamps found by internal revenue officer to be mutilated or missing.

When an internal revenue officer discovers an unopened bottle of distilled spirits which requires restamping due to conditions specified in § 194.253, he will direct that the bottle be set aside. If the officer is satisfied that the spirits are eligible for restamping, he will secure from the dealer the application for strip stamps and Form 428 required under the provisions of § 194.254 and forward them to the assistant regional commissioner. When the internal revenue officer has good reason to believe that the distilled spirits have not been lawfully stamped, or that the original contents of the bottle have been replaced or increased by the addition of any substance whatsoever, he will seize the spirits for forfeiture.

§ 194.256 Replacement not required.

Where an immaterial portion of the stamp is missing, or where the strip stamp has dropped off a bottle and may be reaffixed thereto by the dealer, it will not be necessary to restamp the container.

Subpart Q—Reuse and Possession of Used Liquor Bottles

(c) Employment of private physicians. When testimony of Veterans Administration physicians is prohibited or is unavailable by reason of other duty assignments, comparative expense or other valid reason, the Manager, upon recommendation of the Chief Attorney, may employ any qualified physician for preliminary examination of the veteran and for testimony in any commitment or restoration proceeding which the Chief Attorney is authorized to institute under § 13.51, and authorize the payment of a fee not to exceed the prescribed fee, or in the absence thereof, the customary fee charged for the service rendered.

§ 13.53 Costs in commitment or restoration proceedings.

If the veteran is being maintained in a non-Veterans Administration hospital, the Manager of the regional office concerned may authorize such travel upon request of the Chief Attorney.
